COSTS MAKE PRICES

Endeavors to make across-the-board price cuts based on the idea of the Newburyport ten per-cent price reduction plan, have considerable news value. They show a laudable desire by the retailers to do everything possible that might help solve the price problem. They are not, however, a permanent solution.

First of all, it is physically impossible for a store to cut prices ten per cent on many basic, low-profit items, without subjecting itself to a net loss. Therefore, cuts of substantial size are likely to be restricted to high-profit merchandise whose influence on the cost of living is relatively small.

Secondly, it would be absurd to say that all the items you see in your retail store are overpriced. Many of them are priced as cheaply as they can be in the light costs. The overpriced item is gradually disappearing as a result of consumer resistance, the refusal of retailers to stock goods for which there is a poor market, and the process of competition.

A number of larger retailers are now engaged in consultations with manufacturers on the related problems of price and quality. Progress, it is reported, is being made. The results achieved will be felt throughout the entire retail industry in the form of the lowest possible price for good merchandise. But the consumer must remember that the cost of production will largely determine the price. When it falls, prices will drop accordingly.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Here's to the Women-Folk!

"Women through the years have stood Keepers of the flame . . ."

Pretty easy to see what it means; whether it's the flame on the hearth, or the candle in the window, or the feeling of warmth that surrounds a home.

It's the women who are guardians of the things we cherish about homelife—who are tolerant of ashes on the rug; the rings a glass of beer can leave on tables; or the comfortable but too-worn chair that we can't bear to throw away.

From where I sit, those little satisfactions become more and more important in this world of strife and change. Smoke rings curling from a mellow pipe; a glass of beer; a comfortable chair before the fire. And I'd like to salute the housewives — "keepers of the flame" — whose tolerance and understanding helps preserve them!

HOLLOWAY

James-Miller

At a very pretty afternoon wedding Thursday at 4 p.m., Miss Lois Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Holloway, became the bride of Carroll James, son of Mr. and Mrs. George James of Blissfield. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wm. Weinlander at the North Blissfield Lutheran church.

Preceding the wedding ceremony Miss Arlene Weinlander sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Willard Drefke.

Mrs. Robert Miller, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue crepe dress with navy accessories. Mrs. James, the groom's mother, wore black with matching accessories and both wore corsages of red roses.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents and places were laid for 40 guests. The center of the bride's table held the traditional wedding cake. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Hillsdale, where the groom is employed by Richard Brothers.

Miss Donna Adams left Monday for Cleveland, where she is a delegate of the Junior Red Cross Convention. She accompanied Miss Kathryn Little, Mrs. Carl LaSalle and Mrs. T. Tolford of Adrian. They will return Thursday.

About 40 guests from Toledo, Dayton, Ohio, Riga, Blissfield and Tecumseh met Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lewis where Mrs. Emma Fluhrer acted as hostess. Dinner was served at noon and a social afternoon was spent.

Miss Virginia Lewis is home from Albion where she has spent the winter as a student. She spent the week end with friends at Wamplers Lake.

Mrs. Annie Rennie and son, Robert of Detroit spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell and Mrs. Opal Mitchell.

Out of town guests included Miss Elizabeth Mason of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Annie Rennie and son, Robert of Detroit. Two large birthday cakes centered the tables.

Marjory Colson Bride of Richard Eggleston

Miss Marjory Jeanne Colson, daughter of Mrs. Grace Colson of Clinton, and Richard R. Eggleston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Eggleston, of Tecumseh, were united in marriage at an impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Methodist church. Dr. Norman MacNaughton performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Bertram Updike played nuptial music before the ceremony and Miss Kathryn Mumaw of Adrian, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "If God Left Only You."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Homer Colson, was lovely in a gown of white marquisette over satin, fashioned with an illusion neckline and a full skirt ending in a train. Her veil of illusion fell from a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible with a purple orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Silas Kring, sister of the bridegroom chose an aqua dotted mousseline de soile gown. She carried a colonial bouquet of daisies and wore daisies in her hair. The bridesmaids, Mrs. John Snyder, Miss Jocelyn Anderson and Miss Nancy Eaton of Swampscott, Mass., wore gowns fashioned the same as the matron of honor in yellow, ice blue and shell pink, respectively. They also wore headdresses of daisies and carried colonial bouquets.

A reception for 100 guests was held later at the home of the bride's mother. The bridal table was centered with spring flowers and candelabra. Mrs. Vail Hull, sister of the bride, served the four tiered wedding cake. Miss Gay Larsen and Marion Hanna, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

Following the reception the couple left on a trip to Chicago, the bride wearing a mint green suit with black and white accessories. They will make their home in Peoria, Ill., where Mr. Eggleston will attend Bradley University. Both are graduates of Tecumseh high school.

THEY WERE JUST TIRED OF IT ALL . . . The notorious Gallic temperament can rise to great, uninhibited heights, as this picture of shambles in a food ration office at Dijon, France, testifies. Dissatisfied with the distribution system, these seething demonstrators stormed the economic control room shouting, "Down with the red tape and economic dictatorship." Whereupon they entered the building, upset files, tossed papers out of the windows and later set fire to some of the records.

Miss Louise Miller Weds Louis Vershum

The Mary Martha Chapel at Macon was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when Miss Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and Louis Vershum, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Vershum, all of Britton, were united in marriage.

The altar was beautifully decorated with spirea branches and iris. While Jack Tonneberger, player nuptial music at the organ, the ushers, Frederick Miller and Richard Upell seated the guests.

At the opening of the ceremony, Miss Mary Ellen Beland sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer". She was wearing a beautiful white formal, and a corsage of red roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin and net. The satin bodice was styled with a V-shaped neckline, long sleeves, long torso and a net overskirt, ending in a long ruffled train. Her long veil of illusion, fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry a golden cross necklace, was a gift of the bridegroom. Her bridal bouquet was of red rose buds with long white satin streamers encircled around a white orchid and tied with a white satin bow.

Mrs. Richard Upell, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Harve Kapnick of Ypsilanti served as the bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of blue taffeta and carried bouquets of pink carnations centered with blue daisies.

Miss Kay Louise Miller, niece of the bride was the flower girl. She wore a gown of yellow net and carried a basket of mixed flowers. The two nephews of the bride, Larry and Tommy Miller, carried the rings in Jone lilies.

The bride is a graduate of Britton high school and also a graduate of Cleary's College in Ypsilanti and at present is employed at the Clinton Machine Company. The groom served in the Army for three years, spending 18 months of the time over seas. He is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

HE'D RATHER DIE HERE . . . Sure, and Patrick Flood has returned from the ould sod. The 90-year-old Irish gentleman, a resident of Albany, N. Y., for 70 years, left the United States last October to go to Ireland "to die." But this spring he came back, offering this immortal explanation of his return: "I wanted to die in the little village where I was born, but the hard winter almost killed me." He said he wanted to get away from peat fires and back to central heating.

—Prediction of Experts

Early April figures on eggs in storage revealed only 420,000 cases of eggs in storage as compared with last year's figure of 3,179,000 cases, against a 5 year average of 2,256,000 cases.

March egg production was 9% under March 1946, and the number of layers on farms in March 1947 was 26,000,000 less than a year ago.

Just plain common sense would indicate that this is the year to really watch that flock of layers, if you really want to cash in on what will probably be a very strong cash market for eggs.

Lightning Hits Barns At Tipton

In one of the most severe rain, wind and electrical storms of the season, about 4:30 last week Friday afternoon, two barns near Tipton were destroyed when fired by lightning, and heavy damage was done by wind and water. Nearly an inch and a half of rain fell during the two-hour period that the storm lasted. Water in downtown Tecumseh ran over the curbs and onto sidewalks, and traffic was slowed to a snail's pace. Two large trees were blown across the highway, west of Tipton, and for a short time traffic was detoured. Another tree fell in the Brownville area.

The storm rode in on a heavy southwest wind that followed a humid day and an 85-degree temperature. Early in the storm, lightning hit two barns on the Harvey Warner farm, four miles southwest of Tipton, and both were destroyed by fire. The barns contained 50 tons of hay, 200 bushels of oats and a quantity of tools. No livestock was lost. The Adrian fire department was called. Dale Warner, son of the owners, lives on the farm. He estimated the loss at $7,000. The buildings were insured.

At the Gordon Gove farm, west of Tipton, a tool shed was blown down and 14 glass windows were blown out of a sun porch. Near Clinton, part of a porch roof was blown off the Samuel Culbert farm house, a tree fell across US-112 west of Clinton, and electric power was disrupted for a time when a transformer was damaged. Mrs. Fred Williams of Clinton, fainted while walking in the business district of Clinton, as the storm struck. She was taken to Tecumseh hospital for treatment.

Local utility companies said that damage as a result of the storm was scattered, but not too serious.

Farmers in this area suffered seriously from the storm through loss of crops. Some farmers had just completed corn planting, and feared that the seed was totally destroyed. Strawberries also suffered as a result of the downpour.

Dundee Man Held In Bond On Charges By Girl, 13

Ray L. Smith, 23, Dundee, Tecumseh Products employee, was held in 5,000 bond for the October term of the circuit court, after he waived examination last week in Justice Lowe's court at Adrian, charged with committing an act of indecency. Complaint was signed by Lee Harrington, deputy sheriff, and accompanied by an affidavit of a 13-year-old Tecumseh girl who was involved.

Sheriff's deputies arrested Smith after, they say, they found the 13-year-old girl naked in his car about a mile west of the Adrian town hall. The girl told officers she was forced to get into Smith's car, and that he ordered her to remove her clothes while they were driving around. She said that he cut her undergarments off with a knife when she refused. The girl's riddled clothing and the knife are in the custody of officers.

Prosecutor Rex Martin says that Smith told a confusing story concerning the case. First, the officer says, Smith said that he picked the girl up about a half mile from where he was found, and later, he said that he found her walking along the road naked. He said that he was trying to return the girl to her home, but became confused and was unable to find Tecumseh. Martin said that Smith refused the lie detector test.

SCOUTS VISIT ZOO

The members of Den 2 of the local Cub Scouts visited the Detroit Zoological Park, Sunday. The members who attended were Wayne Patton, den chief, Max McLaury, Roger Harsh, Melvin Boltz, Louis Underwood, Albert Hart, Merlyn Wagner, Robert Bird and Jimmy Hartsell. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs Clarence Wagner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doyle and Mary Lee, Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood and Gary, den mother, Mrs. James Hartsell, Mr. Hartsell and sons and cubmaster, Carl McLaury. The Scouts earned the money for the trip.

Bible School To Hold Closing Services, Friday

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 the Tecumseh Vacation Bible School will hold its closing service and program in the high school. Parents and friends of the children are urged to attend and witness the work accomplished by over 200 boys and girls.

The Rev. B. Oscar Bashore, dean of the school, will have charge of the program. Demonstration of memory work and handwork will be in care of the department heads Mrs. John Cameron, Mrs. John Saling, Mrs. John Truesdale, Miss Elizabeth Escolme and the Rev. Allan Ramsay. A demonstration of the visual education class will be given by the Rev. Edward Escolme. T. J. Tonneberger, musical director, and Mrs. Charles Williamson, accompanist, will present the children in the musical part of the evening service. An offering to help defray the expenses of the school will be taken to augment the daily offerings of the children.

The public is invited to be present. Light refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

TECUMSEH WELL REPRESENTED AT LANSING AND ANN ARBOR

Three boys and one girl from Tecumseh high school are enrolled at Boys and Girls State, sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary, at East Lansing and Ann Arbor, this week. The boys are: Herman Dick, sponsored by the Rotary Club; Bill Martin, sponsored by the American Legion and Tom Judd, sponsored by the Exchange Club. Miss Anna Aebersold, sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary, is at Girls State.

Nine hundred high school boys, an increase of 100 over last year's enrollment, assembled on the Michigan State College campus at East Lansing June 12 to become citizens of the Legion's 10th annual Wolverine Boys' State, continuing through June 24.

The Legion Auxiliary opened its 7th annual Wolverine Girls' State on the University of Michigan campus at Ann Arbor on June 17 with 216 Michigan high school girls enrolled.

Training in democracy is the primary purpose of these annual programs. At East Lansing the Boys' Staters are divided equally into two political parties. They establish city and county governments, and set up a mythical "49th State" paterned exactly after the Commonwealth of Michigan. They nominated and elected their own city, county and state officers, adoped their own ordinances and laws, and carry out all the functions of democratic government. During their 10-day stay on the M.S.C. campus they are housed in the quonset huts that provided living quarters for G.I. students during the college year.

Much the same procedure is followed at Ann Arbor where the 216 Girls' Staters make their headquarters for one week at Stockwell Hall. As a teaching and counseling staff the Legion and Auxiliary have obtained the services of competent educators, experienced civic and state officials, and a corps of well-known lawyers and jurists who instruct the youthful citizens in the practical art of self-government.

MISS NANCY TINGLEY GETS NURSES DEGREE

Miss Nancy L. Tingley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tingley, received her degree Tuesday evening at the annual commencement exercises of the Harper Hospital School of Nursing at Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Tingley and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. VanVleet, attended the program.

Also in the class was Miss Patricia Hickey of Romulus. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hickey, former residents. Miss Hickey attended Tecumseh high school through her junior year.

Play Schedule Is Announced

RECREATION PROGRAM FOR SCHOOL-AGE FOLK WILL GET UNDER WAY ON MONDAY

Tecumseh's summer recreation program for school-age folk, and in which adults may participate as spectators, will start next week at Recreation Center under the direction of Paul Johnson, and will continue for eight weeks, Monday through Friday.

"All local folk, young and old, who are interested in good wholesome recreation are urged to support the movement," Mr. Johnson said. "Everyone is invited to take part, if not as an active participant, then at least as spectator The continuation of the program, as planned, will depend largely upon the extent to which personnel and facilities are utilized."

Activities for Tecumseh young people of school age have been divided into two groups: scheduled activities and free activities. Free activities, in which anyone may participate at any time that play areas are not being used for instruction, will include badminton, shuffleboard, tennis, deck tennis, croquet, quoits, ping pong, golf driving, and other individual games and activities, besides group games such as softball, volleyball and soccer. Equipment for any of these activities may be drawn from the recreation director's booth at the east end of the tennis courts at Recreation Center at the following hours: 8.45 to 9 a.m., 10:30 to 10:45 a.m., 1:15 to 1:30, 2:30 to 2:45, and 3:30 to 3:45 p.m., daily, Monday through Friday.

For participation in those activities which have been scheduled for a definite time, divisions have been set up by school grades. Group One will consist of junior and senior high school age; Group Two, of girls of junior and senior high school age; Group Three, of boys and girls of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades; and Group Four, of boys and girls of grades one, two and three. These groups will be flexible, permitting any youngster to join the group into which he or she best fits. Divisions within these groups will be made as they appear necessary.

The Recreation director, Paul Johnson, will be assisted in supervising these groups by Miss Bowen and Miss Marilyn VanWinkle. Both these young women have been trained in recreational work. Miss Bowen is a qualified Red Cross life saving instructor, and a former Girl Scout camp counselor. Miss VanWinkle, a senior at Tecumseh high, expects to major in physical education in college.

Scheduled Program

The daily program of scheduled activities for next week Monday through Friday follows: Classes in tennis, archery and arts and crafts will meet for one hour.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP TO VISIT IRON CREEK

The young people of the Iron Creek church will be hosts to the Baptist Youth Fellowship Lenawee County association, Saturday afternoon. Games and contests will be followed by a weiner roast in the evening. The group will then attend the Youth for Christ Rally to be held at the Presbyterian church at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Rev. Orville Williams of River Rouge. Michigan and the song leader will be Rev. Richard Fitch of Adrian. Local talent will also take part in the program. Everyone is invited to this service.

ROTARY CLUB MEETS

Ernest Green, commercial manager of the Michigan Associated Telephone Co., here, and a member of Rotary, discussed his classification and vocation, at the regular dinner meeting of the club, Tuesday evening at Brees House. His talk was interesting, and he predicted that soon Tecumseh would have an additional toll line to Detroit, affording considerable relief for long distance calls to that point.

TO ATTEND ENCAMPMENT

Ben Hammack, commander of the Hall-Slater Post, and ten delegates, will attend a Veterans of Foreign Wars encampment at Sault Ste. Marie, from Thursday until Monday.

St. Elizabeth's To Become An Independent Parish

St. Elizabeth's Catholic church here will become an independent parish beginning June 27 with the Rev. Fr. Michael G. Collins as the first regular pastor. Fr. Collins, who has been officiated with St. Alexis parish at Willow Run, was assigned here by His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney of Detroit.

Built in 1913, St. Elizabeth's church was a mission of St. Mary's church of Manchester until 1944. Since that time it has been a mission of St. Dominic's church of Clinton with the Rev. Fr. William McGoldrick and the Rev. Fr. Francis Juras in charge.

New Methodist Pastors Named

MACNAUGHTON REMAINS IN TECUMSEH; NEW MINISTER AT BRITTON

Several pulpit changes in the Methodist churches in this vicinity were announced on Monday by Bishop R. J. Wade during the annual Detroit Methodist Conference meeting.

Tecumseh is not affected by the changes, Dr. Norman MacNaughton, who has served the Methodist church here for several years, remaining at the post. Dr. Mac Naughton also is an instructor at Adrian College.

Payroll Hits $6,500,000, While Production Nears $30,000,000

Construction is now under way on the new $350,000 addition to the Tecumseh Products Company's plant, adding 65,000 square feet of floor space to the present factory, Ray W. Herrick, president, announced today. The new building, which occupies the area between the present Plants No. 1 and No. 2, will be completed in July; and will boost the company's available floor space to a total of 313,000 square feet.

Mr. Herrick also let it be known that the company's payroll at the present time is about $6,500,000 annually—more than $500,000 a month. The company this year will do more than $30,000,000 worth of business, and hopes to expand the amount to $40,000,000 in 1948. The payroll also, next year, the president said, will increase to more than $7,000,000.

"We are looking forward to steady growth." Mr. Herrick said of the future of his factory. "We do not anticipate any serious recession. We shouldn't be talking about recessions and depressions. It's bad psychology. If we talk about it enough we can talk ourselves into a depression. We expect a readjustment of the inflationary prices, probably during the last quarter of this year, but as for a serious recession, we can't see it now."

The new building, which will house many of the company's offices, is costing about $200,000 in construction alone. It will take another $150,000 to equip it, he said.

The present Products' factory is bulging under steadily increasing production, which is expected to step up nearly one-third during 1948. It is to care for this increase that the new addition is necessary. The Products company is the largest independent manufacturer of electrical refrigeration units in the world. And, Mr. Herrick has often repeated the phrase that "Products intends to defend that title in the world market by steadily improving its product and the enlargement of its factory."

At the present time more than 1,800 persons are on Products' payroll. This number will be stepped up to 2,000 or more next year, it was pointed out.

The shortage of housing for its present employees is one of the serious problems now facing Products, Mr. Herrick said. He declared that about 98 per cent of the 50 or 70 houses in the new so-called "Quaker Oats Subdivision" have been purchased by Products workmen.

"I am of the opinion that Tecumseh Products workers alone could absorb at least 300 more new houses in Tecumseh within the next year, and there will be more later on." He said that about 90 or 100 employees have purchased homes here within the past year.

"I cannot but feel concern over the fact that nearly half of our present payroll is slipping out of Tecumseh," Herrick said. "I believe that only about $3,500,000 of our payroll now stays in Tecumseh and the rest goes elsewhere. It can't be otherwise, because hundreds of our employees do not live here, and naturally they spend their money where they live. But they would live here if housing was available for them and that is why I am concerned about stemming up our community building program."

Herrick paid a fine compliment to his employees who, he says, are cooperating 100 per cent in the expansion program, and are doing everything that they can to enable Products to fill customers' orders promptly.

"We considered closing our plant the first two weeks in August for vacations. A majority of our employees now have agreed to cancel vacations, and keep the plant running. Of course, we will pay these employees for their vacation time, in addition to regular time, but the big thing is that they realize that it is vitally important to all of us and to our customers that backorders on our books be filled without interruption," the president said.

"We discussed this expansion program with our employees before we started it, and they know just what it means to them as well as to the company. Without the cooperation of our employees the expansion program would not have been possible. I want every employee of Products to know that their cooperation is deeply appreciated. I also want the public to know about it, too," he said. "No business can be successful without the coöperation of the folk who make the wheels go 'round. We've grown to be the largest producer of refrigeration products in the world. Our employees realize that its a position that must be defended. We grew to leadership through cooperation, superior workmanship and service. I can see no reason why the position cannot be maintained."

MUST DEFEND FREEDOM

There are two, and only two, forms of government in the world. One is based on the proposition that the sole reason for any individual's existence is to serve the state. The other is based on the completely opposed philosophy that the purpose of government is to promote and protect the rights, freedoms and liberties of the individual.

All governments, regardless of what they may call themselves, fall squarely into one of these two classifications. And the titanic struggle for power that is now engaging the entire civilized world is the result of the differences between the two concepts.

It is not an exaggeration to say that the United States is the last powerful state which holds that the right of the individual to live his life as he chooses is the most basic and precious of all rights. This, essentially, is the principle which makes all our institutions—free enterprise, representative government, freedom of speech and presses and religion—possible. History has proven a thousand times that the destruction of this right is followed by the destruction of all other rights. The totalitarian state—whether it calls itself socialist, communist, fascist, or anything else—invariably ends in oppression. The kind of government which controls the economic life of a country sooner or later must control all other phases of life. If it tells a man what he must do, where he must work and who he must support, it will also tell him what he must say and think.

The American people must never forget that freedom must be eternally defended. If we are to maintain the individual's freedom to speak his conscience, without fear of the state police, we must maintain all of the liberties upon which a free society depends. Those who temporize with freedom always lose it.

Bert Childers was saying, it's funny how so many of our wartime habits stick with us.

Bert likes plenty of butter on his bread, but even now he can't get over spreading it like it was scarce as hen's teeth. And as a war-worker, Bert used to stick to a temperate glass of beer on time off; and he still holds fast to beer and moderation.

Same way with Bert's wife. She not only has no trouble saving used fats, and waste paper. She's learned from wartime necessity to save every single thing that might possibly be used again.

From where I sit, it's mighty good that so many of these common-sense habits like thrift and moderation have stayed with us. Because they belong in America—along with tolerance, and mutual respect for one another's rights. They're habits that have helped to make this country strong and neighborly and free.

State Warns of Play Accident

VACATION CASUALTIES IN MICHIGAN THIS YEAR EXPECTED TO REACH MILLION

"Michigan will suffer more than one million vacation casualties this summer, although there is a preventive or remedy for virtually every summer hazard encountered in the state," D. William DeKleine, state health commissioner, warned today.

"An understanding of the hazards, the knowledge of simple remedies and the use of ordinary common sense can prevent vacation miseries for one's self and one's family," he added.

Principal hazards to vacationists in Michigan exist in overexposure to the sun, overexertion, swimming, boating, poison ivy, and in contaminated milk, water and food supplies.

A vacationist who uses only pasteurized milk and milk products drinks water from only those supplies approved by the health department, stops only in cabins, camps or hotels approved by the State and eats only in restaurants whose sanitation is approved, has eliminated many of his vacation worries. Sanitary engineers from the health departments have been to his vacation and eating sites before him to assure that they are safe for him and his family. A Michigan Department of Health sign saying that the camp, hotel, restaurant or water supply is safe is displayed wherever it is deserved, and he should not patronize those places which do not display the signs.

The water supply at a farm or cottage may be contaminated by seepage from outdoor toilets or farmyards. Sometimes water pumped from creeks to sprinkle golf course greens may pollute the drinking water on the course. A vacationist should be sure that the ice he uses in summer drinks is made from pure water.

Necessity for using only pasteurized milk is indicated by the fact that undulant fever, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, septic sore throat and tuberculosis can be carried in milk. Unpasteurized butter, cream, cottage cheese, ice cream and other milk products can also carry disease.

Tan By Degrees

The vacationist should not try to get the entire season's coat of tan on the first day of vacation. It is best to begin with 15 minute periods early in the morning or late in the afternoon. Sunburn is always most uncomfortable and it can cause illness and death. A coat of tan is healthful but it should be acquired gradually. Overexposure to the sun may cause sunstroke or heat prostration. Those most likely to suffer sunstroke or heat prostration are oldsters and people with high blood pressure and heart disease and those who are chronic alcoholics. Ordinarily sunstroke or heat prostration may be prevented by wearing light, loose clothing and a hat, and by avoiding undue exposure or exertion.

"Take it easy, after all you're on a vacation," is a good slogan to remember. Overexertion in tennis, swimming, golfing, hiking, rowing or paddling may cause sore muscles, and blisters either of which can ruin your vacation, and they can cause serious illness or possibly death.

Swim Safely

Swimming rules have been repeated often, but more than 150 deaths by drowning during last summer indicate they should be given again. Learn to swim and don't show off. Don't swim alone, or after dark, or at an unguarded beach, or in swift water. Don't dive into water of unknown depth, or into extremely cold water. Don't swim until exhausted or when tired. Learn to float on your back.

To guard Michigan vacationists from sewage polluted bathing beaches, the Michigan Department of Health cooperates with the state Stream Control Commission in inspecting danger spots and testing samples of water. When the degree of pollution constitutes menace, warning signs saying "This Beach Unsafe for Swimming," are posted.

Swimmers itch, another nuisance in the Great Lakes area, is usually found where snails are numerous. It can best be prevented by destroying the snails on the lake shore through the use of copper salts under the direction of health department personnel. The itch can be avoided often by taking a shower and a thorough brisk rubbing with a towel after bathing. Most public beaches are closed to swimmers when the hazard appears.

Use Boating Care

Most boating accidents could be prevented if people remained seated in canoes or small boats and made sure that the boat was not overloaded and did not go out when a storm threatened. Boats should be inspected regularly for leaks and defects. Motor and sail boats should be piloted only by those experienced in their use.

Avoid Poison Ivy

Poison ivy can usually be avoided if one learns to recognize its three leaves. The poison can be carried in fire smoke and on animals. It can be caught from a person who has it. If you have been exposed to the poison, wash thoroughly with soap. The United States Public Health Service recommends the application of a ten per cent solution of tannic acid in alcohol applied by rubbing motion strong enough to remove the tops of blisters. This treatment should be repeated three or four times at six hour intervals. Authorities feel that no person is really immune to poison ivy because persons may handle it for years without result and then become so seriously ill of it that they require a month's hospitalization. The weed killer 2-4-D will kill the plant.

Kill Insects

Dead mosquitoes and flies won't bother or endanger vacationists, and the use of DDT spray is the best way to eliminate the insects at camps or cottages. While traveling, commercial insect repellents will keep mosquitoes away.

Flowers of sulphur dabbed on stockings and underclothes will help keep chiggers away. But if a person is exposed to chiggers by walking in weeds and shrubbery, he should spread a thick lather of strong soap over his entire body and let it dry for ten minutes before removing it. A salt bath each evening may also prevent chiggers. A rotenone preparation is also helpful in killing chiggers.

Michigan has only one poisonous snake, the massasauga rattler which lives in swampy places and grows to be about three feet long. First aid recommendations for poison snake bite include placing a tourniquet on the limb above the wound, making a small incision on the bite, and sucking out as much venom as possible. It is imperative to get the patient to a physician as soon as possible after the bite.

There's no elixir like a long night's sleep from the standpoint of physical well being or mproving your outlook on life. Keep regular hours, eat regular meals and get plenty of rest. While motoring, drive carefully. Do not distract other drivers. Do not stand in garage, barn, or house doors or under a tree in a thunder storm. Leave broken wires alone.

Know where the nearest telephone is, how to reach the nearest doctor, where the nearest hospital is, and how to get an ambulance. Don't risk the health and lives of your family while on vacation.

Both Principals Must Share Blame In Sigler-Keyes Legislative Fight

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

Lansing—There's two sides to about everything. That goes for the Sigler-Keyes feud at Lansing.

The Governor's ire at reputed "stifling" of administration's legislative program by a "handful" of senators was public/aired before Michigan Associated Press editors in annual session at Higgins Lake.

Lambasting the senate which he termed "the worst I've known in many years," Governor Sigler charged Lieut. Governor Eugene B. Keyes with playing politics. Keyes encouraged a "small group of prima donnas" to obstruct administration bills, the governor declared.

Sigler said he did no believe in cracking the whip over the legislature. Each branch of government — legislative, judicial and executive — "should always remain independent and free of one another."

SEVERAL LEGISLATIVE observers who watched the conduct of the Senate during the five-month session are inclined to agree with Governor Sigler as to Keyes' behind the-scenes needling. The Dearborn dentist-lawyer-engineer does not like to play second fiddle.

The same persons, however, are critical of the governor's hands-off attitude in getting results from the legislature. They say it just won't work. For example: During critical periods when vital matters were awaiting action, Sigler was apt as not to be in Marquette or Washington or elsewhere. His speaking engagements were numerous and frequent.

THE GOVERNOR'S PASSION for speech-making and flying — and the two fit together nicely — led capitol observers to several speculations. One conclusion is that the governor is yet to learn the "ropes" of how to get things done; legislators want to see the governor, not his lieutenants; the governor must stay on the job and "crack the whip" with diplomatic persuasion and force; he must develop his own leaders in the House and Senate.

Another speculation is that the Governor does not expect to run for a second term. He is enjoying the power of office and the prestige that goes with it.

CRITICS OF SIGLER feel that the governor, faced with an unsuccessful legislative record, has sought to "cover up" his failures by seeking to make others the scapegoat. The McKay "forces", for example, were charged by the governor with attempting to scuttle the program. Then Keyes was blamed in the Higgins Lake statements.

Our own observation is that there is some truth to both sides of the above situation. We will not go into details. We observe, that the administration has 18 months left to complete its record. When you check over what the legislature did during its five-month 1947 session, you will agree with Douglas Graham, chief of the Lansing bureau of the United Press: "Sigler came out of his first legislative bout in fair shape. Most of his program was adopted, although he had to wait until almost the last minute for some of it."

AS FOR THE DEFICIT, variously estimated and sure to run into millions, that's a horse of another color. The governor feels that a deficit may help to convince voters that "the surplus" at Lansing is largely fiction and that the sales tax diversion amendment was only another way to force new and higher tax on the taxpayer.

At least, the sales tax issue is still alive. The legislature voted to re-submit the amendment to the voters in November, 1948, along with a move to revise the state constitution.

LOCAL STUDENTS IN RECITAL AT JACKSON

SOIL CONSERVATION FARM BUREAU TOPIC

The subject discussed was "How can we through our organization conserve the fertility of our soil?" The fact was brought out, according to U. S. D. A., each year farmers buy about 900,000 tons of filler in fertilizer they buy.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duaine Hunt, Monday, July 7th.

ONSTED

At a meeting of a group of Onsted citizens it was voted to organize the Onsted Boosters Club for community betterment. Larry Oechsle was elected president. Other officers have not been announced.

Mrs. Lester Winter and Mrs. Rena Bailey entertained the Missionary Society Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Ray Redfield, presiding. Mrs. G. W. Teachout was in charge of the devotions. Little Brown Boll Weevil Exacts Heavy Cotton Toll

A single insect, which first crossed the Mexican border 50 years ago, now causes an annual loss of more than $230,000,000. It's toll is about a bale of cotton out of every seven produced, or about 1,500,000 bales a year.

The boll weevil is a reddish-brown little beetle, about a quarter-inch long, which existed in obscurity in Mexico until about a half century ago when it broke over the Texas border. Since it reached the abundant food supply provided by the almost continuous fields of cotton in the south, it has affected the economic and social welfare of more Americans than any other insect.

Records are probably the most accurate available for any insect. The losses show a general increase as the weevil spread across the cotton belt, reaching a maximum of over 50 per cent reduction from full yield in 1921. Since that time the general trend has been downward, especially in recent years. However, in spite of the progress that has been made in control, the boll weevil is still taking an enormous toll of about one bale to every seven produced.

Ancient City of Sand Resisted Savage Onslaughts

The ancient remains of a city of sand which existed for hundreds and even thousands of years before the civilization of the Incas are seen today by tourists to Chan Chan, Peru.

Once the capital of the Chimu empire, Chan Chan was a formidable fortress withstanding everything including the savage onslaughts of the Incas who time and again tried to conquer it. But one thing upon which the builders of the city had not counted on finally destroyed it. In building the city and its impregnable walls with an adobe made of coarse gravel mixed with clay, the Chimus did not count on there ever being any rain in this arid region. Torrential rains occuring in 1701 and later in 1720 and 1891 finally swept away the strong walls and buildings leaving nothing but the few drifts of sand with weird designs which the tourist sees today.

But even these remnants and the burial relics unearthed give evidence of a great civilization which had learned to perform sugical operations and had developed a perfect method of metal-plating. Their artistry is seen in their pottery and in the clever mosaics etched in ivory, bone and mother of pearl.

Artificial Bristles

Department of agriculture has announced the successful commercial application of its development for making bristles from casein. The artificial fiber, developed by Dr. Thomas L. McMeekin and associates, attracted the interest of numerous companies and one of these is formally opening a new factory for the manufacture of casein bristle and brushes, using the process developed by the department scientists. This artificial bristle is made by extrusion of a mixture of casein and water through a suitable die, and then subjected to finishing operations. The final product is round in cross section and has a black color comparable to that of horsehair or pig bristle. Like other artificial fibers, it can be produced in any length desired and in a range of diameters. Of many possible uses the bristle is stated to be particularly adapted to the construction of paint brushes since it is resistant to oils and organic solvents. Casein from waste skim milk is the main constituent used in the bristle product, but it is possible that other protein materials derived from agricultural commodities may also be employed.

Image of Liberty

The days of the conquistadores are recalled by Guatemala's quetzal, monetary unit of that country since 1924, and a word which has stood for independence since Guatemala was conquered by Spain. The quetzal is a small red-breasted bird famous chiefly for its two slender, curving plumes of golden green, once counted as rich treasure by the ancient Mayas. The invading Spaniards shared the Indians' admiration for the brilliant plumes but were so heedless in their slaughter of the birds that virtual extinction resulted. Today the living quetzal is found only in the interior of Guatemala, but its image is everywhere, on public buildings and Guatemalan money.

Care for Damask

With proper care, damask "table linen" will last for years. A good washing in hot soapy water is a necessity. If there are still traces of discoloration after the first soaping, use a second suds. Rinse thoroughly in hot water. Don't make unnecessary wrinkles in wringing, but arrange each piece in long folds to run through the wringer. Hanging in the sun, if possible, serves as a good safe bleach. Before it is completely dry, iron with a very hot iron. The heat gives the high gloss that adds so much to damask. Try varying the folding of both cloth and napkins. Repeated foldings in the same place will cause the fabric to wear along the creases. Fold in halves and quarters one time and in thirds the next.

Late Gardeners....

Your Attention Please

There are many gardeners in this vicinity who, because of the backward weather, still have considerable planting to do. If you are one of them, we'd like to suggest that you plant our hurry-up pre-tested seed, to speed your garden's growth.

We still have a large variety of pre-tested seeds and we'd be very happy to serve you. Pre-tested seeds cost no more than ordinary seeds, yet they are the "pick of the crop."

Local Girl to Head Junior Red Cross Chapter In School

Miss Donna Adams, Tecumseh high school junior, who last week, as the guest of the Lenawee county chapter, American Red Cross, attended the Red Cross Convention in Cleveland, is enthusiastic about the possibility of organizing a junior Red Cross chapter in the local schools next year. Miss Adams' report on the Cleveland convention is as follows:

Last week, June 9-12, I attended the American Red Cross convention in Cleveland. I was chosen by W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools, to represent Tecumseh high school at the convention. I was accompanied by Miss Katherine Little, the delegate from Adrian, Mrs. Carl LaSalle, Junior Red Cross chairman, and Mrs. John Tolford, Red Cross executive secretary. My expenses were paid by the Lenawee county chapter of the Red Cross.

We went by train leaving Adrian at 8:36 a.m., on the ninth. Upon our arrival at Cleveland we checked in at the Hollenden hotel. We ate at five different restaurants during the course of our stay.

The purpose of the convention was to discuss the various ideas, problems and opinions of the delegates from all over the country. The junior and senior delegates met separately for their discussions. There were five forum discussions, each one led by junior delegates, with an adult adviser listening in and helping out when needed.

The importance of organizing a Junior Red Cross Council in the schools was stressed at each discussion. It will be my duty to organize and lead such a council when school begins next fall.

All of the forum discussions were held in the Cleveland public hall. A reception on the first day of the convention was held for the junior delegates, in the ballroom of the Hollenden hotel. A banquet was given for the junior delegates, Wednesday evening, June 11, in the Rainbow room of the Carter hotel.

The entertainment at the banquet was supplied by the Greater Cleveland chapter of the Junior Red Cross. The entertainment included a native wedding dance by a girl from the Philippine Islands; a duet by two Negro girls; a boy magician; a boys' quartet, and a vocalist mimic.

The convention was ended Thursday noon with a luncheon, for all delegates, in the Rainbow room of the Carter hotel.

I learned a great deal about Junior Red Cross work at this convention. I hope that I will be able to pass this information along to the studens of Tecumseh high school through a Junior Red Cross Council next fall.

A Game

Mrs Jones was taken by a friend to her first symphony concert. She sat very silent during the first item on the program, and at the end whispered to her companion:

'What's that book the conductor keeps looking at?"

"Oh, that's the score of the overture," replied her friend.

Miss Alice L. Sherman Bride of Cecil Williams

Miss Alice L. Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Sherman, and Cecil Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Williams, of Tiffin, Ohio, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in the Pleasant Ridge church near Tiffin. Before an altar decorated with roses and peonies the Rev. J. H. Jones read the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a gray street length dress and wore a corsage of white roses. Miss Dorothy Shuman of Dearborn, her attendant, wore aqua with a corsage of red roses. The best man was Eldon Sherman, brother of the bride. Mary and Rebecca Dildine of Tiffin, nieces of the bride, were the ring bearers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 60 guests in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's mother wore an aqua crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a gray suit. Both wore corsages of sweet peas.

The bride is a graduate of Republic, Ohio, high school, attended Wayne University and is a graduate of the Henry Ford school of nursing. She is now the assistant superintendent of Tecumseh hospital.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Tiffin high school and spent 47 months overseas in the Pacific area during World War II. He is employed at Tecumseh Products.

After the reception the couple returned to Tecumseh to their home at 305 West Shawnee Street.

Vengeance

A man who had been having his laundry done by a neighborhood washerwoman had let his account with her run for months. Last week he found the following note in his laundry:

"Dear Sir: You have owed me six dollars now for four months. If you do not pay the whole bill by next week, I will put too much starch in your collars. Cordially, Mrs. Smith."

ALL RIGHT, maybe Bert the Barber doesn't know a kilowatt from a cable, but that doesn't stop him from being one of our bosses, just the same.

Surprised? Didn't you know your electric light and power company is owned by Bert, and a lot of people like him—and like you, too?

People from all walks of life—doctors and industrial workers, teachers and farmers, mechanics and milkmen—have put some of their savings into our company. Those people are direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too—many (like Bert the Barber) who haven't an idea that they have a stake in the electric industry. Those are the people who have savings accounts or life insurance policies. Nowadays, that means practically everybody!

Here's how it works: When banks and insurance companies accept your money, they must invest it wisely—and soundly. And because business-managed electric companies have a long record of faithful service, much of this money is invested in their securities.

So you, too—like Bert the Barber—are very likely to be one of our bosses. Howdy, Boss!

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the period including July 2, 3 and 5, be designated as a registration period for qualified electors who have not as yet registered, such registrations to be made at the High School office beween the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Also, that Mrs. Margaretta Brisbin and W. L. Berkhof be appointed as the Registration Board. Be it further resolved that the district be considered one voting precinct for the election on July 14; that the polls be open beween the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.; that the Council Building be designated as the place for voting; that the Secretary be instructed to post and publish the necessary notices concerning the registration period and the election; and that the following be appointed to serve as an election board:

Important Civic Meeting Is Called

A Town Hall Civic Banquet, sponsored by a group of local organizations including Town Hall Council, the Rotary Club, Exchange Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be held in the gymnasium of the high school here, Tuesday evening, July 8, at 6:30 p.m. Admission will be $1.50 per ticket and reservations have been limited to 300.

The purpose of the meeting, it was announced, is to do some constructive planning for Tecumseh,s future growth. Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., and William C. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speakers.

Listed for top spots on the discussion program are these problems:

What can Tecumseh do to check the loss of approximately $3,500,000 of the Tecumseh Products Co., payroll which annually is going to employees who reside outside of Tecumseh.

What can Tecumseh do to speed up its building program, and to otherwise relieve the congested housing situation?

What problems does Tecumseh face regarding the annexation of boundary subdivisions?

What must Tecumseh do to enlarge its over-crowded school buildings?

What financial problem does Tecumseh face in future expansion?

Many of these subjects were discussed on Town Hall programs during the winter months, and some of them have recently become so critical that the cooperating organizations feel that a general community meeting should be called for the purpose of discussion.

"This is one of the most important meetings to be held in Tecumseh since the war and should be attended by all business and professional men and women," a spokesman for the group said today. "Certainly, we all realize that Tecumseh is suffering from growing pains, and that its business district is losing approximately one-half of the $6,500,000 payroll at Products because there is no place here to house its employees. We also should realize that future industrial growth of the village is blocked for similar reasons. We have discussed these problems for many months, and we have realized that we faced them, but we have done nothing to solve them. That is the purpose of this meeting. We'd like 100 per cent representation at the meeting of all of Tecumseh's business, industrial and professional folk. We face problems that only cooperative effort can solve."

It was stressed that ticket sales must be limited to 300 and tickets should be purchased in advance. They will go on sale next Monday through the several cooperating organizations.

D.A.R. Holds Last Meeting Until August

The Abi Evans Chapter met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Terry in Brownville for the last meeting till September. Following a picnic luncheon, Mrs. Louis Schneider presided over the business meeting in the absence of the president.

Mrs. B. O. Bashore was in charge of the Flag Day program which was presented by Mrs. Nell Pearson assisted by Mrs. Charles Williamson and Mrs. Clare Reland. Mrs. C. Brannigan has transferred from the Louisa St. Clair chapter in Detroit to this chapter and Mrs. Francis Rathbun was elected to membership. Mary Wright has transferred her membership from the C. A. R. to the D. A. R.

The following committee- chairmen were appointed for the coming year: program, Mrs. Arthur Brown Town Hall, Mrs. Edith C. Smith; press, Mrs. Leon Rosacrans. There were 25 persons in attendance and among the guests were Mrs. J. B. Blocher of Urbana, Illinois, Mrs. Mae Jones Riggs and Mrs. Morgan of Ann Arbor and Miss Gertrude Turner.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Robert Rischam, 22, and Jack Spangler, 21, Toledo, suffered injuries about 5:30 Monday morning when they lost control of their car and it overturned after striking two trees, just north of the bridge over the River Raisin on M-52. Rischam is in Tecumseh hospital, suffering from a broken pelvis, chest and other injuries. Spangler was treated at the hospital and released. Rischam was driving, police say, and apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

3 Seek School Board Office

EARL LINDSLEY, VETERAN TREASURER OF 18 YEARS, IS NOT A CANDIDATE

Three men have qualified by filing their petitions as nominees for membership to the board of education in Tecumseh, W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, said today. They are Jens Touborg, president of the board whose term expires; Paul Breitenwischer and John Saling, both of Tecumseh Products Co.

Earl Lindsley, a member of the board of 18 years and its treasurer, is not a candidate for re-election. His term expires with the approaching election.

The annual school district election will be held from 2 to 8 p.m., on Monday, July 14, at the council building. Election will be by ballot, which will be furnished to electors at the polls.

The procedure in electing school board members here this year is changed from that in former years. Heretofore, elections have been by nominations from the floor at the annual school meeting. A year ago, the voters of the district decided to take advantage of the new state law and to force nominees to file petitions previous to election, and to elect the officers by secret ballot, the same as at any municipal or state election.

P. S. Satterthwaite, secretary of the board, today called attention to the need for registration of voters to enable them to cast their ballots in the election. Persons who have not registered for the school election should do so at the high school offices on July 2, 3 or 5, the fifth of July being the last day for such registration.

The annual school board meeting will be held at the high school following the closing of the polls on Monday, July 14, at 8 p.m.

Patterson Bros. Circus To Show In Tecumseh Today

Yes, Patterson Brothers Circus, with all of its thrills, will show in Tecumseh this afternoon and tonight. The "big top" will be set up on the parking lot, in the rear of the Strand Theatre, and the matinee performance will be at 3 p.m., and the evening show at 8.

The circus feaures Bill Noble, jr. western star with whip popping, roping and rifle shooting. There's Tracy's clowns, Cindy, the hill billy queen of the Ozarks and her mule Jitterbug, and Roba, the magician. In addition there are trained horses, the muscle control man and weight lifter, the juggler and Nelson Troupe, the aerialist.

Of course, there are dozens of dogs, horses and ponies that go to make up the well-rounded circus entertainment.

MRS. LESTER ROGERS SPEAKS ON ROSES

The Tecumseh Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. L. W. Larsen, Friday, June 20, with 24 members present. Mrs. Lester Rogers gave a talk on roses and Mrs .Thomas O'Hara reported on the State Federation held in Saginaw, which she attended with Mrs. Larsen and Mrs. Don Goddard. At the conclusion of the meeting tea was served. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Ray Herrick, Mrs. William Wehr and Mrs. Ocar Bryan. The July meeting will be a picnic at the home of Mrs. Addie Limbert at Tipton.

WADE L. JONES HOME FROM ROTARY SESSION

Wade L. Jones who returned Monday from San Francisco, where he attended the International Convention of Rotary, gave an interesting talk when he spoke to the Rotarians here, following dinner at Brees House, Tuesday evening. Mr. Jones is president of the club. Fay Whelan and his family, who also attended the Frisco meet, have not yet returned.

S. S. OFFICERS CHOSEN

The Baptist Sunday school with Curtis Dolan as the superintendent elected the following officers for the coming year: first assistant superintendent, George Green, jr.; second assistant superintendent, Paul Sheldon; secretary-treasurer, Herbert Hoag; assistant secretary-treasurer, Paul Anders; pianist Alma Dannells; assistant pianist, Dorothy Schumm; chorister, Faye VanValkenburg.

Here lie the remains of a driver who thought he could drink and still drive a car. Racing down the highway at a dangerous speed, his car wandered off the edge of the pavement, dragged on the sandy shoulder, and was wrenched into a spin. Drunken drivers are potential murderers of every other motorist who comes near them on the road. They were involved in more than 5,000 fatal accidents last year. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists say even one or two drinks slow up reactions, make judgment unsure, increase chances of accident three to four times.

Intensive and Continuous Efforts Needed to Curtail Traffic Deaths

By Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming
Administrator of Federal Works Agency and General Chairman of the President's Highway Safety Conference

Last year 33,500 persons died in automobile accidents in the United States.

That fact may not register very strongly. After all, 33,500 is just a figure.

Maybe you can visualize the extent of the slaughter a little better if you will imagine that many people lined up in parade formation and marching from noon to sundown to pass a reviewing stand.

Or, suppose all those people had been killed at the same place — in front of your home, say. Then you could have stood on your front porch day and night, week in and week out, and witnessed a death on the average every 13 minutes.

That's as many people as live in such a city as Elkhart, Indiana, or Paducah, Kentucky, or Watertown, Massachusetts. They are all dead now, killed in accidents that could easily have been avoided. Hundreds of thousands of orphans, widows and bereaved parents are left to mourn in every city in the land.

Even so, 1946 was not our worst year for traffic fatalities. All things considered, the record for that year was pretty good. The most tragic year in motoring history was 1941 when 37,512 persons were killed. That was the high point to which traffic fatalities had steadily climbed over a 30-year period beginning about 1912 when 1,753 died. After 1912, the popularity of the automobile grew, and so did the number of deaths. Year by year the number killed increased, with a few exceptions—notably during the war gasoline rationing drastically curtailed driving.

After Japan surrendered and gasoline rationing was abandoned, fatal accidents shot upward. In the first four or five months of last year, people were being done to death in such staggering numbers that it was confidently pre-

Banner Tourist Season Forecast

MICHIGAN LOOKING FORWARD TO RECORD-BREAKING NUMBER OF VACATIONISTS

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

Lansing—Stimulated by a $250,000 state advertising fund, Michigan's tourist industry is all set for a banner season in 1947.

People have money in their pockets, and they are going places.

Robert McLaughlin, secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council, reports that 43,000 inquiries have been received from prospective out-of-state travelers. The council's offices in Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and Lansing have been busier than last year supplying information about cottages and hotels.

"There will be more travel on the Great Lakes. Steamship companies are extending their schedules.

"Air Lines and Bus Companies are doing the same. The New York Central has a brand new tourist train called the 'Timber Liner' which will operate between Detroit and Mackinaw City. The train has a bar car with interior of knotty pine — something new.

"Although the legislature did not act on a bill sponsored by Senator Don VanderWerp to move up Labor Day two weeks to mid-September, there is a definite adoped bill to permit shooting of deer by archers in advance of the regular deer hunting season. This is limited to 15 counties in northern Michigan.

Two Michigan towns — Croswell and Traverse City — are celebrating Centennials this summer. Croswell's observance will be held July Fourth, while the cherryland capitol will follow the week after. Lowell Showboat begins the week of July 21. County fairs and regional festivals will provide a variety of entertainment for those who stay at home and travelers who visit our state.

Miss Irene L. Pask Bride of Paul F. Bame

Bame, son of Mrs. Jerry Robinson of Ridgeway, were united in marriage by the Rev. Fr. McGoldrick. The couple was attended by Mrs. Betty Strand of Tecumseh, sister of the bride, and Leo Reinche of Jackson, uncle of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on East Pottawatamie street where a buffet luncheon was served. The five tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Bame left later to spend the week end in Jackson. Guests were present from Concord, Jackson, Ransom, Hillsdale, Ridgeway, Britton and Tecumseh.

Girl Scout Field Day To Be Held Tomorrow

The All-county Girl Scout field day will be held Friday, June 27, at the Recreation Field. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. with the flag raising ceremonies at 10. Included in the program will be group singing, games and contests. All girls attending should bring their "nose bags". Closing ceremonies will be at 4:30 p.m.

$15 Tax Rate Set By Council

TECUMSEH'S REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY VALUATION IS NEAR $3,000,000

Tecumseh's village tax rate for the year 1947 has been at $15 per $1,000 of assessed valuation by the council and the treasurer instructed to proceed with collection. The rate this year is the same as a year ago, but assessed valuations show a slight increase.

Tecumseh now has a total assessed valuation of $2,919,100, of which amount $2,422,200 is in real estate, and $496,900 in personal. The $15 levy will raise $43,786.50.

In making up its budget to establish the tax rate, the council divided the tax collection for the several funds as follows: $14,595.50 will go into the general fund, and like amount will go to the highway fund; $8,757.30 goes to the sewer fund, and $2,919.10 goes to the cemetery fund, and a similar amount to the hospital fund.

The council instructed the clerk to contact the New York Central Railroad Company and request that its crossings at Cummins and Ottawa streets be widened.

Two new storm sewers emptying into the newly laid storm sewer at Tecumseh Products were ordered built by the council, the work to be finished in 30 days. One of these sewers is in Ottawa street, from Schneider Bros., Garage, south, and the other in Evans street, south from the Hayden Fuel & Supply Co.

The council heard reports of its several committees, including the fire and fire limits committee which recently conducted an inspection in the business district. Three stores were ordered to make exits or entrance corrections.

Current bills were audited and ordered paid, and reports of department heads were read and placed on file.

Car Hits Train, 3 Boys Killed

ONE, KENNETH WATKINS, OF SAND CREEK, NEPHEW OF MARVIN WATKINS, HERE

Three teen- age boys, one of them the nephew of a Tecumseh man, met death instantly, about 10 p.m. Sunday, when their car crashed into a Cincinnati Northern train on a US-223 crossing, two miles north of Devils Lake.

The dead are:

Kenneth D. Watkins, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watkins of Sand Creek, and nephew of Marvin Watkins, of Tecumseh.

James Omar Briggs, 14, of Adrian, Rt. 1.

Arden E. Goodyear, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle R. Goodyear of Jasper.

State police from the Jonesville post say that statements they obtained from witnesses were to the effect that the boys were in one of two cars traveling west of US-223 at a rapid rate of speed. The leading car cleared the crossing by inches as the second car, believed driven by Watkins, crashed into the southbound freight train. The engineer of the train told officers that the two cars were not 10 feet apart as they approached the crossing.

Occupants of the first car across the track denied that the drivers of the machines were racing, or that there was any too-rapid driving. Occupants of the first car also said that they did not notice the train or hear a whistle. Coroner Ed Braun has decided that an inquest is unnecessary.

Three persons were killed instantly at the same crossing in September of 1946. Two of them were amputees from Percy Jones Hospital, Battle Creek, and a woman companion. Their car also crashed into the side of a train. There are no flasher lights at the crossing.

THREE SETS OF TWINS ARE BORN IN HOSPITAL

Three sets of twins were born in Tecumseh Hospital during the past week:

The first set came on June 17, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bunnell of Onsted. On the 19th, twin sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoyt of Clinton, and on June 23rd., twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tase of Manchester.

Miss Gertrude Spaulding, hospital superintendent, said that while reports for the month of May were not yet released, the April report showed 42 births in the hospital during that period. She said that May probably would show fewer births than April, but June may catch up with April.

HIGHWAY SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Through the combined efforts of thousands of daily and weekly newspapers throughout the United States, a National Highway Safety Program was launched this week throughout the nation. Because of its purpose alone, the campaign is one of the most praiseworthy and beneficial public services in recent years.

Any effort to reduce or eliminate the tragic roll of traffic accidents, which annually account for thousands of needless deaths is worthy of wholehearted support.

Last year 33,500 persons were accidentally killed on our streets and highways. The staggering total of 1,150,000 were injured and an economic loss of over two million dollars resulted.

What makes those lost lives, the pain and suffering, and the economic loss more tragic is the realization that, with proper care and precaution, they could have been avoided.

Now, as a result of the President's Highway Safety Conference last year and the second meeting of the Conference last week, an intensive effort is being made to prevent traffic accidents in the future. Much has already been accomplished in the way of traffic enforcement and engineering. The National Highway Safety Program is the newspapers' contribution to the educational phase of accident prevention.

But it has been significantly pointed out by Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, general chairman of the President's Highway Safety Conference that brief, spasmodic campaigns will not bring lasting results. There is need for intensive effort on the part of every man, women and child.

"Each one of us, as driver or pedestrian," says General Fleming, "must accept in good faith our own individual responsibility. Each man, woman and child must accept in his own conscience, as before the law, the responsibility for the consequences of his own acts."

That can mean only one thing. We must all, by our own individual efforts, strive constantly for the improvement of the public attitude toward safey. The result will be the sparing of our own lives or those of the ones near and dear to us.

Crazy Hat Wins Refrigerator!

One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarrah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize, not the hat.)

"Glad them hats of hers paid off at last," says Ed, treating the whole thing like a joke. But you could see he was proud of Sarrah.

From where I sit, there's another thing Ed can be proud of: the way he's put up with those hats of Sarrah's, with never a criticism; just as she's put up with Ed's pipe and the other little freedoms he enjoys.

They've got that refrigerator home now, stocked with beer; and we're going over tonight to drink a toast—not just to Sarrah's hats talking first prize . . . but to a happily married couple, who've learned to live with one another's differences in tastes—whether it's a taste for hats or beer!

Insulation and Sidewall Shingles Make Your House Much Cooler!

They Actually Pay For Themselves

It's a fact — ask the man who pays the fuel bills in an insulated house — and he'll tell you that heating costs are reduced as much as one-third through proper insulation.

Why don't you start enjoying summertime coolness and greater comfort during the winter months by insulating your home NOW. The cost of insulation is nominal, the work is easily done.

And, if you're considering painting, why not apply sidewall shingles instead. Aside from adding to the appearance of your dwelling and making it more modern, sidewalls also do an excellent job of insulating.

AND HERE'S AN IMPORTANT FACT: The cost of installing sidewall shingles is comparable to the cost of two coats of paint.

Nancy Gale Every Weds Reno Feldkamp

Sunday evening at eight o'clock the Tipton Community Church was the scene of a charming candle light wedding ceremony, at which Nancy Gale Every, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Every of Tecumseh, became the bride of Reno J. Feldkamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton T.Feldkamp of Manchester. The double ring service was performed by the Rev. Miles Peele, pastor of the church, before an altar of beautifully arranged flowers and candelabra.

Mrs. Clifford Hardy played the organ music and Miss Grace Merrill of Ottawa, Ontario, a cousin of the bride, sang "Till the End of Time" and "I Love Thee, Dear."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a diamond blue brocaded satin gown fashioned with a broad V-neckline, long fitted sleeves and fitted bodice with a full skirt terminating in a graceful train. She wore a braided coronet of the same material as her gown, with a fingertip veil, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and blue delphinium.

Mrs. Charles Greenfield of Tipton, was her matron of honor and wore a yellow gown fashioned similar to that of the bride. The bridesmaids, dressed in deep blue, were Miss Mary Joan Ward of Bronson and Miss Flo Ann Longworth of Chelsea. All carried arm bouquets of white peonies and yellow roses. Ruth Ann Ward was the flower girl and also dressed in yellow.

Merrick Hough of Manchester assisted as best man with Charles Every, brother of the bride, and Bernard Kemner as the ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a turquoise gown with white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. A corsage of pink rosebuds accentuated the aqua colored dress worn by the groom's mother.

A very attractive semi-formal reception was held at the K of P Hall for 150 guests while Miss Mary Joan Ward playing the marrimba and her brother, William, accordianist, accompanied at the piano by their mother, Mrs. Lynn Ward entertained while refreshments were being served. Members of the Tipton Garden Club decorated the church and reception hall.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a two weeks wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a white two piece suit with a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride graduated from Tecumseh high school and attended Adrian College. She is now employed in the office at the Clinton Machine Company. Mr. Feldkamp graduated from Manchester high school and is engaged in farming.

TO WED IN FALL

Mr. and Mrs. William Gottschalk are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Clara Ellen, to Robert Rainey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rainey of Onsted.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Britton high school and is employed at the United Savings Bank, Tecumseh. Mr Rainey, a graduate of Onsted high school served two years with the Navy in the Pacific area. He is employed at the Gerity Corp. in Adrian.

The couple are planning a fall wedding.

A. E. Cheever has returned from California after visiting his son there for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bashore of Baltimore, Maryland, who are on a trip to the Northern Peninsula, are spending a few days with his brother, Rev. B. O. Bashore and family.

Safety Tip Of The Week

What is so rare as a day in June — when at least 90 Americans aren't killed, 3,000 injured, in highway accidents?

June is the first month of crowded holiday traffic — long bumper-to-bumper lines of cars on the move to the mountains, the beaches, the lakes. It is a month when daytime smashups increase sharply. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists say one out of every five happens when a driver gets tired of looking at the same old jalopy in front of him and pulls out of line to make a dash for the first free space he can find up ahead. Too often he slams head-on into another out-of-liner; or in trying to squeeze by, he sideswipes the car ahead.

The center line of a highway is a safety line; crossing or straddling it, except when the road is clear and straight, may be courting disaster.

June days are perfect days — for the careful driver to live and let live.

TUBERCULOSIS DEATHS ARE ON THE INCREASE

Tuberculosis took the lives of nearly twice as many men as women in Michigan in 1946, according to figures released today by the Michigan Department of Health. Male deaths due to tuberculosis numbered 1,214 and female deaths, 629.

More than 45 per cent of tuberculosis deaths among women occurred under 30 years of age, while 49 per cent of tuberculosis deaths among males occurred over 50 years of age. The Michigan trend is similar to national figures in this regard. The greatest number of female deaths were between the ages of 20 and 30, and the greatest number of male deaths over 60 years of age.

Of the total of 1,843 deaths attributable to tuberculosis, 64 were children under five years of age and 20 of these were children under one year. The death rate due to tuberculosis is 33.4 per 100,000 population and does not vary greatly from the previous five year average of 32.6 per 100,000.

Tuberculosis is the seventh cause of death among men in the state and the eighth cause of death among women.

Effort Needed To End Mishaps

dicted the fatality list would exceed that for 1941. So when I say that the record for 1946 was "pretty good," what I mean is that it might have been much worse, that the rising curve of fatalities was turned downward, and that the number killed in proportion to miles driven was substantially less than in the year before. The improvement seems to be continuing into 1947.

It is significant that the tide turned last year following the President's Highway Safety Conference held at Washington early in May. Alarmed by the senseless and inexcusable slaughter, President Truman called together the Governors of the States, mayors of the larger cities, legislators, engineers, judges, educators, and other outstanding citizens to see if some means could not be devised to put an end to it.

The Conference adopted an Action Program which contained recommendations of experts on various phases of the problem. Engineers, for example, showed how safer highways could be built. Lawyers stressed the importance of uniform traffic regulations. Judges and police officials drew up a list of the best techniques for traffic law enforcement. Educators drafted a program for teaching safety in the schools.

The 2,000 delegates to the Conference took the Action Program to their home communities, determined to put it into effect among their own friends and neighbors. Some 20 of the Governors called safety conferences of their own to supplement the President's Conference. So did the mayors of some of the larger cities.

Everywhere it was agreed that brief "spasm" campaigns for traffic safety, which run for a few weeks and are then forgotten, bring no lasting benefits. Rather, the need is for intensive effort on the part of police, judges; educator, engineers, and the general public every day of the year. Each one of us, as driver or pedestrian, must not only support the efforts of our public officials, but we must accept in good faith our own individual responsibilty. Each man, woman and child must accept in his own conscience, as before the law, the responsibility for the consequences of his own acts.

Where the Action Program has been put into effect and backed up by intensive effort, you will find traffic fatalities declining. Where public officials are conducting only occasional "spasm" crusades and the public is indifferent, you will find such fatalities rising.

This is the first of thirteen articles dealing with the subject of traffic safety. Other articles to follow in The Herald by authoritative spokesmen in the safety field, will show concretely how accidents are caused, how they can be prevented, what they cost in property damage as well as in lives lost, and what you, as a citizen, can do about them.

Clinton Couple Are Married In Ypsilanti

Miss Jean Velma Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Randall of Clinton and Marvin Oliver Krans of Clinton, son of Mrs. Ella Krans of Iron Mountain were united in marriage Saturday morning at the Emmanuel Lutheran church at Ypsilanti. The Rev. Mr. Sipe read the double ring service before the altar decorated with arrangements of white peonies and light blue daisies and lighted tapers in candelabra.

Mrs. Burton Stadler, the bride's aunt, played the wedding music throughout the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in an off-white summer suit with navy accessories. Her Panama hat was of off-white and navy and she wore a corsage of American beauty roses.

Her attendant, Eunice Marie Krans of Michigan State College, East Lansing, wore a mist pink summer suit with a crownless black and white pique hat. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Leonard Siewert of the Clinton detachment of the Michigan State Police attended the bridegroom.

The wedding breakfast was served at Bauer Manor at Evans Lake for the immediate families and friends. Cut flowers and a four tiered wedding cake decorated the table. Miss Alma White cut the cake. Immediately afterwards the couple left for a trip west and Northern Michigan.

The bride is a graduate of Clinton high school and is receptionist for Doctors Wight and Purfield in Clinton. The groom, a graduate of Wakefield high school, is with the Clinton post of the Michigan State Police.

The Place of the Church

To belong to somebody, to some group, is an absolute necessity for a baby and the growing child. Without this "belongingness" the child cannot grow normally. An isolated child is a lost child.

We never get away from this necessity. Everyone needs to belong to some organized group, and that group determines in large measure the kind of person each becomes. The Church is the organization that constitutes the "Body of Christ". It is the supreme means whereby His Light and His Life shine and spread in the world. It is also the supreme means whereby each one of us becomes like Christ. Without it we, too, would be lost.

Miss Arlene Easton Weds Loren Bersuder

Of interest to Tecumseh friends was the charming home wedding Saturday evening at 7:30 in Saline, which united in marriage Miss Arlene Easton, daughter of Mrs. Leland Easton of Saline, and Loren Bersuder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bersuder, of Bridgewater.

The rooms of the bride's home were beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of pink and white peonies and pink and white streamers.

The bride descended the stairs to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin. She was met by her brother, Harold Easton of Tecumseh, who gave her in marriage. The bride was attractively gowned in white marquisette with satin bodice and peplum. The marquisette yoke with a high neckline was edged in lace. The full skirt, which ended in a long train, was accentuated with silver sequins. Her fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a Juliet cap of illusion studded with seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and sweetpeas tied with white satin ribbon which cascaded in streamers.

Mrs. Ray Krempel of Tecumseh was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was a floor length model of aqua crepe trimmed with gold clips set with aqua rhinestones. She wore gold earrings with matching stones, the gift of the bride. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas tied with pink satin ribbons.

The groom was assisted by Theodore Stautz of Manchester.

The bride's mother was attractive in a gown of powder blue crepe and lace with white accessories. Mrs. Bersuder chose for her son's wedding a two piece dress of grey and white cable stitch with black accessories. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of pink and white carnations.

At the reception immediately following the ceremony the 100 guests were served refreshments by Mrs. C. E. Cook, aunt of the bride, and the Misses Jean Hartman, Shirley Burnett and Agnes Waldo. The four tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom was cut by Mrs. George Jacoby of Saline.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES: "The problem of lowering the highway death rate remains one of the nation's most serious problems. It is an appalling fact that 33,500 American citizens were killed in automobile accidents in 1946. I therefore call upon every State and every community in the land to work unceasingly through 1947 to promote highway safety.

"Laws and regulations will be of little avail unless the individual driver holds himself strictly accountable to his own conscience."

That call is to you personally to cooperate as a citizen of the United States in helping reduce highway accidents. It is a shameful record when in one year 33,500 lives are sacrificed; 1,150,000 persons are injured and $750,000,000 in property destroyed, resulting in an economic cost to the nation of $2,000,000,000 because of careless, reckless driving.

It is a national problem, but essentially the solution is in your hands. Drive safely — live and let live!

Beware Of The Fatal Fourth

HEAVY DEATH AND ACCIDENT TOLL CAN BE AVOIDED, STATE WARNS

The FATAL FOURTH is with us again. Many who set out on the long holiday to have a wonderful time, will come back chastened individuals, or they and their dear ones may come back in an ambulance or hearse.

The fault does not lie in the liberty-celebrating holiday. It lies in the carelessness of the individuals who observe it. The deaths and injuries which occur on the Fourth of July are preventable, according to Dr. William DeKleine, state health commissioner.

Automobile accidents will take more lives and cause more injuries than any other hazard this Fourth. While six out of ten accidents are caused by traffic violations, the mile long stream of traffic on any major highway constitutes a serious threat even to a careful driver, and so do little used crossings which one approaches at sunset in lake areas.

Swimming and boating will also take lives. To thwart both these hazards, the first warning is "Don't show off". Then, do not swim within two hours after a meal. Do not swim alone or at an unguarded beach. Do not dive into cold, or unfamiliar water. Do not swim after dark. When boating, put in to shore to change seats. Do not stand up in boats. Stay out of boats during storms or when a brisk wind blows. Children cannot adequately handle boats.

The sun will take lives and cause injuries. It is as bad on an exposed bald pate in a baseball bleachers or rowboat as it is on the beach, and the over-exposure that comes with community ox-roasts or fairs is bad for oldsters too.

Take your swimming, boating and sun in small doses at intervals during the holiday. Children don't know when they have had enough sun or swimming and they don't always feel tired when they seriously need rest.

Be careful where you eat, what you eat and what you drink. Safe public water supplies in rural areas of the state are posted, and water from any other source may be contaminated. This includes cottage well-water and farm wells. Eat only in restaurants and go only to rest stops which are approved by the Michigan Department of Health. Use only pasteurized or canned milk and buy creamery made butter and cheese. Be sure your own picnic meats and other foods are definitely fresh and will be when you eat them.

One columnist says that liquor stores will do a land office business on the third of July, and the undertakers will do a land office business on the Fourth. He's a veteran state-news editor and he knows what he's talking about.

Fireworks are illegal in Michigan. The law is to protect you and your children. Observe it. If your child receives an injury such as cuts on his hand or foot, a fish-hook wound, burn or scraped knee or elbow, it is best to see a physician. Tetanus (lockjaw) is fatal eighty times out of a hundred.

If you are going to fly your plane know it is safe and that you are in condition to fly it. Observe airport rules and flying precautions. If you are going to ride horseback, or bicycle, choose routes out of automobile traffic, and see that your children do. Know the horse you are going to ride and be sure that you can handle it.

Don't forget that poison ivy can ruin your holiday and make you quite ill. Know how to recognize it and look for it when you are picnicing or hiking. It grows near lakes and a bathing suit-exposed body can get a severe case quickly. Take insect repellents with you when you go fishing or picnicing.

From the health standpoint it is well to avoid crowds of people or crowded beaches. This is especially true where there are children. It is well to leave pets at home or in animal shelters. The incidents of rabies in southern Michigan constitutes a threat to their health.

"Take it easy, holidays were set aside for rest," Dr. DeKleine said. "Probably the best advice is 'Stay at home.' A picnic in your own backyard with food from your own refrigerator is probably the most restful and it definitely is safer, all things considered," the Health Commissioner added.

GUEST PREACHER

Rev. Alvin Brazee of the Iron Creek church will conduct the worship and communion services at the local Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. B. O. Banbore will be the guest speaker at the Iron Creek church.

This quartet is traveling this summer representing their college and is now enroute to New York and Pennsylvania, having spent the past month in North Dakota and Minnesota. They are all ex-G.I.'s in the sophomore class.

On Monday evening, July 7, they will present their program at the Iron Creek Church.

Tecumseh Ready To Observe 4th

LONG-WEEK-END TO SEND MANY ON SHORT VACATIONS AND NEARBY LAKES

Tecumseh's old and young were making their plans today for a long week-end vacation over the Fourth of July, as this community prepared to observe the holiday with short vacations and picnics and reunions at nearby lakes.

With the fishing season in full swing, many are preparing to do their first angling of the summer, while others are looking forward to swimming, boating and complete relaxation. Those residents with cottages at the lakes will — and many of them not from choice — hold open house to friends, and there are many reunions scheduled for tomorrow, Saturday or Sunday.

A number of local folk who would ordinarily begin their vacations on Sunday are getting a two-day jump on the take-off and not a few will go to Norther Michigan in quest of cooler weather. Lake Superior fishing is calling a few folk, while others will try their luck at Houghton, Higgins, Otsego and Burt Lakes.

Generally speaking, Tecumseh's stores and business offices will close tonight for over the Fourth. Some stores that ordinarily observe the Thursday summer closing schedule remained open today and will close both Friday and Saturday. Many others will be closed only tomorrow and will reopen for business as usual, Saturday. Tecumseh's postoffice will be closed all day on the 4th.

Michigan State Police and Lenawee sheriff's officers warned motorists to drive with extreme care over the long holiday. They anticipated heavy congestion on all main highways and point out that a little common sense and courtesy less haste and recklessness, may save many lives and injuries.

QUICK ON THE TRIGGER . . . Almost extinct since the days of Deadeye Dick, Wild Bill Hickock and Annie Oakley, the fine art of throwing a six-shooter on a swiftly moving target has been revived by Ernie Lind. Here he is shown as he holds an empty cartridge box on his hand, withdraws the hand and then proceeds to pull his gun and shoot a hole in the box before it strikes the ground. Time elapsed: One-half second. Ernie, with his wife, Dot, is on an annual nationwide exhibition tour for Western-Winchester to display his shooting prowess.

Junior Baseballers Down Milan, Jackson

The Tecumseh Junior Baseball team won its second and third consecutive league games last week by defeating the Milan Post 4-3 and whitewashing the Jackson nine 11-0.

Boy 18, Drowns At Devils Lake

FIRST LOSS OF LIFE AT LAKES THIS SEASON; BODY QUICKLY RECOVERED

The first drowning of the season in a Lenawee county lake occurred on Sunday at 6:30 p.m., when Joseph Stobinski, 18, of Erie, walked off the sharp break into 20 feet of water at the Devil's Hole, Wildwater Beach, Devils Lake. His body was recovered in about five minutes but efforts to revive him failed.

Joseph and his brother, Chester, 20, were members of a party of four couples that came to the lake Sunday afternoon and asked permission of nearby cottagers to go bathing. The brothers walked into the water and evidently were unfamiliar with the dangerous bath. Neither of them could swim. At this point where the youths entered the lake the beach breaks off sharply from four or five feet of water into the Devil's Hole, which is 40 to 60 feet deep.

Coroner Paul Mott was called and decided that an inquest was not necessary and that death was accidental. The body was taken to the Farnham Funeral Home in Temperance.

Kiddies Story Hour Dates Are Announced

The Child Study Club, in cooperation with Miss Ruth Harding, librarian, is to sponsor a story hour for children in the basement of the library from July 7 to 11 and July 14 to 18. There will be two story groups. The first will be from 2:00 to 2:30 for seven to ten year olds, and from 3:00 to 3:30 for the three to six year olds. Although the library will be closed to the public on Thursdays the story hour will continue.

Girls from the "White House" troop of the Girl Scouts are to act as helpers. Among their duties will be accompanying children who need to cross the boulevard after each story group. All children are welcome.

NOTICE

The public library will be closed Thursday afternoons and evenings through July and August. Jy-10

School Is Seeking Used Text Books

Parents who have recently used text books for the Tecumseh Public Schools, and who desire to cooperate in the rental text book plan, which goes into effect here next Fall, are asked by Supt. W. L. Berkhof to call his office at the high school, giving their names and addresses. The books will be called for by the school.

Under the program approved by the board of education and the Parent-Teacher Association, parents agreed to give used text books to the school, and in return, at a nominal fee, they will be able, in the future, to rent books for their children. This will afford a considerable saving to parents, it was pointed out.

Books are needed from grade one through grade 12.

Gamble Store Here Under New Ownership

Don Martin of Chelsea, who for seven years operated a Gamble store in that town, on Tuesday of this week took possession of the Gamble store here, which he purchased from Don Goddard. The store has been remodeled and redecorated to suit the needs of the new owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin have moved to Tecumseh, and they are building a new house on W. Brown street, just east of Union sreet. They expect the dwelling to be completed in about a month.

Mr. Goddard has not announced his plans for the future, except that he will take a long-awaited vacation. Later, when steamship accommodations become available, he plans, with Mrs. Goddard, to visit England.

KERR REUNION

The 20th annual reunion of the Kerr families was held at Island park, Adrian, Tuesday. Sixty relatives attended. A potluck dinner was served at noon. Officers for 1948 were named as follows: Chas. Hook, jr., president; Peter Galdoni, vice president; Doris Forsyth, secretary-teasurer. The meeting in 1948 will be at the same time and place.

NOTICE

To permit Herald employees to enjoy a longer vacation week-end, The Herald offices will be closed on Friday and Saturday, July 4-5.

This unlighted trailer, moving slowly along the darkened highway, was completely invisible to an overtaking motorist as he came suddenly upon it from around a corner. He crashed into it and was fatally injured. Just one more of the many bitter ironies of highway deaths, where a lawbreaker who was indifferent to his own safety and the safety of others escaped injury, while an innocent victim paid for that indifference with his life.

Local Polio Victim Home From Hospital

Gary Hall, five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, returned home Saturday from University hospital, Ann Arbor, where he was taken after being stricken with infantile paralysis. The disease has left no paralysis in any part of his body and his condition is improving steadily.

Gary is reported to have had the first case of polio in Lenawee County.

Civic Banquet To Be Sellout

TOWN HALL-SPONSORED PROGRAM SCHEDULED FOR NEXT TUESDAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Early ticket sales for the Town Hall Civic Banquet, to be held next Tuesday evening at 6:30 at the high school gymnasium, indicate a complete sell-out for the dinner-program, it was announced today. Because of limited facilities, reservatios have been restricted to 300 and yesterday, it was said, more than half of the tickets had been sold.

The meeting has been called by a group of civic organizations, including the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and others, for the purpose of discussing plans for Tecumseh's future growth. William C. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, and Ray W. Herrick, president of the Tecumseh Products Co., will be the principal speakers.

The discussion program is the outgrowth of Town Hall meetings held here during the past season, at which time many of Tecumseh's problems and "growing pains" were reviewed. Recently, some of these problems have become so difficult that, at a joint meeting of the several civic clubs, it was decided to hold a community-wide dinner and program for the purpose of widening a planning program.

Uppermost on the discussion program will be such topics as these:

If Tecumseh is now losing half of Products' 6,500,000 payroll, because of a lack of adequate housing facilities, what can be done to speed up a building program?

What problem does Tecumseh face if boundary subdivistons are to be annexed?

What must Tecumseh do to expand its educational program by way of new buildings, etc?

All business and professional men and women and their husbands and wives, are urged to attend the dinner.

Swim Classes Prove Popular

101 SEEK INSTRUCTIONS OF RECREATION DIRECTOR; NEW PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Tecumseh's summer recreation program goes into its third week starting next Monday with a schedule adjusted to accommodate the large number of young folk enrolled for swimming instruction, Paul Johnson, director, said today. A total of 101 had enrolled for swimming instruction on Monday of this week, and the pressure of this unexpected number has forced Mr. Johson to reduce morning activities at the Recreation playground in an effort to provide adequate supervision.

At "The Pit," Miss Dorothy Bowen, instructor, and Mr. Johnson are both on duty on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, on which days the beginners classes meet. Miss Bowen handles the smaller class of intermediate swimmers on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Only those enrolled in the recreation program classes are permitted to swim in the morning. The owner of the pit wants as many youngsters while he wants as many youngsters to learn to swim as possible, they also must be enrolled in the school. He has donated the use of the pit for instructional purposes.

As indicated on the schedule below, youngsters of grades one, two and three will continue to have supervised play periods for an hour and a half in the morning, and for one hour in the afternoon. This part of the program will continue under the direction of the supervisor. Miss Marilyn VanWinkle, as long as the number of children attending justifies the program. Activities for this age group are carried on in the shaded area of the park and special care is taken to prevent over-exertion.

The play activities have been further adjusted to the change in the weather. Girls' archery has been shifted to evening hours and a number of games calling for less exertion have been made available in the shade of the park across from the high school building. Some of these are teter ball, clock golf and checkers. Many young people are also learning to enjoy games which are new to them, such as ping pong, paddle tennis, deck tennis and shuffleboard. These games do not require too much exertion.

Next week's program is as follows:

Unscheduled activities:

9-11:30 a.m. and 2-5:00 p.m.—Individual activities such as badminton, deck tennis, puddle tennis, ping pong, tennis, shuffleboard, horse shoes, box hockey, clock golf, and checkers. Group activities including volley ball, softball, and soccer.

Scheduled activities:

9:00 a.m. daily—Arts and crafts for all boys and girls interested at Episcopal recreation building.

9:45-10:30 a.m. — Tuesday and Thursday—Girls' tennis.

9:45-10:30 a.m. — Monday, Wednesday and Friday—Boys' tennis.

10:00-11:30 a.m. Daily — Games and art work for children of grades one, two and three.

10:30-11:15 a.m.—Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Swimming for beginners of Class 1.

11:15-12:00 a.m.—Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Swimming for beginners of Class 2.

10:45-11:45 a.m.—Tuesday and Thursday. Swimming for intermediate swimmers of Class 3.

2:00-3:00 p.m. Daily—Story period and free play for children of grades one, two, and three.

3:00-3:45 p.m. — Tuesday and Thursday. Boys' archery.

New Rotary Officers Are Seated On Tuesday

SPEED AND THE DRIVER

How fast is too fast?

The highway patrolman says it is any fraction over the speed limit set by law. If you drive 51 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone, youire liable for arrest on a traffic violation charge.

Common sense, on the other hand, may not be so meticulous as to detail, but can be a lot more rigid regarding speed limits than the law requires the patrolman to be. Under certan conditions, like rain or ice-coated pavements, common sense will tell you that 15 miles an hour is too fast in a 50-mile zone. Common sense, or here more specifically called proper driver attitude, is your own personal speed cop and should ride with you at all times.

Saftey experts point out that excessive speed is the greatest single oause fcr our great number of traffic fatalities — approximately a third of the total. Next in line comes driving on the wrong side of the road, followed by failure to give right-of-way, disregarding traffic signals, improper turning and a host of others. All of them, especially speed, can be lumped under one ominous heading: Reckless Driving.

The safety and traffic specialists have a three-pronged cure for reckless driving and its annual harvest of death and injury. By widespread public education in traffic hazards, by strict enforcement of sane and adequate traffic regulations and by installation of uniform and adequate traffic control devices, the annual toll of traffic deaths and injuries can be wiped off the slate.

Unfortunately, they point out, such a beneficent program is of little avail without the inclusion of a fourth element: Proper individual attitude toward safety. All the education, enforcement and engineering we can muster will be of no use if the individual driver persists in the attitude that he can indulge in excessive speed and reckless drving.

The most important factor in accident prevention is a sane attitude toward safety, with proper respect for the rules of the road and the rights of others. The realization of this is the only thing toward which the man behind the wheel should apply the accelerator.

The Picnic Was a "Hug" Success!

Our local Wild Life League went on a picnic Saturday, and I went along to cover it for the Clarion. Monday, folks kept stopping me, and saying: "Must have gotten out of hand, that picnic!"

"Nonsense," I says. "It was mighty pleasant and congenial. Just beer and hot dogs, cheese and cider." And then they show me the headline reading: "WILD WIFE PICNIC HUG SUCCESS."

Of course it was Elmer, my typesetter, who had made the misprints: But is my face red! It's only because folks are so temperate and well-behaved in our town, that they could afford to take the whole thing as a joke.

From where I sit, even a newspaper editor's entitled to a few mistakes. And since I reported that they served a moderate beverage like beer, I'm sure nobody thinks the picnic was the least bit wild, or anything but a huge success—and I mean huge!

Defeat Summer Heat With Insulation

Is the upstairs of your home warm and stuffy — is it difficult to sleep comfortably in your bedrooms these hot, sultry nights?

If your answer is yes, then you should insulate your house and reduce the temperature in these rooms as much as 10 to 15 degrees. Insulation shuts out the hot summer sun, and keeps your entire house from getting "over-heated" even on summer days.

For "the proof of the pudding" we invite you to go into a home that is insulated, right here in Tecumseh and see for yourself. That's the best way to convince yourself that your home should be insulated, too.

Farm Incomes Shoot Upward

RURAL AREAS NOW ENJOYING GREATEST PROSPERITY IN PAST DECADE

By Gene Alleman
(Special To The Herald)

Lansing—Times are going to be better on Mchigan farms.

That is—despite the 1947 wet spring.

Cupid is getting along pretty well, for one thing. Only one divorce has been recorded out of 600 marriages among members of the Michigan Junior Farm Bureau, according to Ruth Parsons, president. That's better by far than the one-out-of-six record for the nation today.

Farmers' checks are bigger and fatter. Mortgages are being paid off. New equipment and buildings are being added in a program of mechanized agriculture. Farmer income, on a per capita basis, has finally exceeded the normal relationship to wage and salary income.

This prosperity has been long overdue. For the past decade or so, farmers and small-town dwellers have comprised a fifth of the nation's population. Yet they have received only about one-tenth of the national income.

Our 1947 boom is riding into the second half of the year at a high level. Income payments are now at a record rate of $177 billions a year. This rate is just about $100 billions more than the pre-war level. Giddap, we're going to town!

More hospitals for Michigan rural areas are on the way, too.

Governor Kim Sigler announces that Michigan is going to put its house to order. The state seeks to be eligible for $10 millions of federal funds available during the next five years for construction of rural hospitals in Michigan.

Uncle Sam is to pay one-third or more of such cost; local communities two-thirds. The federal law permits a higher priority to rural areas in allotment of funds.

The 1946 state survey of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation proposes "one or more hospitals or medical service centers for each county." The foundation recommends establishment of 181 public health and medical centers.

The Michigan State Medical society is sponsoring a Michigan rural health conference at Michigan State College early in September. Cooperating agencies include the State Grand and Farm Bureau.

For encouragement of character and religious education, the University of Michigan is currently sponsoring a "workshop" June 27 to July 7 under the able leadership of Dr. Edward W. Blakeman, university research consultant in religious education.

Along with other states, Michigan is now experiencing a post-war moral slump. Crime is rising rapidly. Apparently unaware of the moral law, "Thou Shall Not Kill", 16-year-old Oliver Terpenning, Jr., Lapeer county farm boy, slew four children "because I always wanted to know what it would feel like to kill somebody". We could write a column on this subject — our lagging morals and our need for more religious education. Maybe we'll do it some week.

Better rural life in Michigan is the aim of a course in rural leadership at Michigan State College July 7 to 18.

A Michigan rural saftey council has been formed to do something about the causes of 169 fatal accidents on Michigan farms last year. Burns and explosions accounted for one out of every three mishaps; machinery one out of four; the bull, one out of four.

And so it goes. One important thing is this. Michigan farm folk are trying to help themselves. And from the current signs, they're doing pretty well, thank you.

Judkins-Tubbs

At an attractive candlelight ceremony in the Britton Methodist church Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, Miss Eloise Orceal Tubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orris Tubbs, and Neal Judkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Judkins, all of Britton, were united in marriage the double ring ceremony being performed by the Rev. A. B. Johns, a former pastor of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a pure silk crepe gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline shirred bodice and shirring in the long tight sleeves. The full skirt ended in a long circular train. She wore a coronet and fingertip veil of the same material as her dress and carried a bouquet of white roses and baby breath centered with a purple orchid. Her only jewelry was a single string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Her maid of honor was Miss Clara Ellen Gottschalk, who wore a pale pink taffeta dress fashioned similar to the bride's dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue daisies with matching flowers in her hair. Miss Helen McCrea of Eden, Ohio, cousin of the bride, and Wilma McCarbery of Britton were the bridesmaids and wore blue gowns and carried yellow roses and blue daisies with matching flowers in their har. Mrs. Tubbs wore an aqua suit with white accessories and Mrs. Judkins chose a gray suit with white accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. The refreshments were served by the ladies of the church from the table decorated with candles, roses, and the four-tiered wedding cake.

Captain of Industry

Butch wants a bicycle. Lots of lawn and lemonade and baby-sitting lie between Butch and that bike, but we're betting on the boy. He has energy, vision, and our national habit of working hard for what he wants. He's American business—in miniature.

There are many names for Butch's philosophy. You can call it Free Enterprise, Opportunity, Democracy, or Capitalism, if you want.

But, whatever the name, America owes it much. For our most valuable natural resource lies in the ambition and initiative of Americans like Butch.

As great publications have grown from the dreams of young men with old hand-presses—the electric industry had small beginnings, too. A few men with vision strung the first short lines. People with faith risked their savings. Better and better service, at lower and lower cost, created more and more jobs—and carried the benefits of electric living to more and more people.

Free enterprise—and hard work—will bring Butch and his bike together. They are what built America and the American way of life. No nation on earth has found a satisfactory substitute for that combination.

BRITTON

Bush-Osterhout

In the Christian Congregational Church in Britton, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Myra Osterhout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osterhout of Britton, became the bride of Robert Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bush of Macon. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Revs. C. B. Gould and J. Hallocur before an altar decorated with peonies and candelabra.

Rosemary Gilmore played the traditional wedding march on the organ, and accompanied Franklin Bush, brother of the groom, when he sang "Always," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a rayon marquisette over satin gown trimmed in lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and orange blossoms and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Wilhemina Osterhout, as her sister's maid of honor, wore a pink taffeta gown with a net overskirt. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white daisies with matching flowers in her hair. Wilma Daykin and Mrs. Ionia Osterhout were the bridesmaids and wore blue taffeta gowns with net overskirts. Their bouquets were blue and white daisies with matching flowers in their hair. Mary Bush, sister of the groom, as junior bridesmaid, was dressed in a pink floor length dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white daises.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table centered with roses and a four-tiered wedding cake to 125 guests.

Mrs. Osterhout was dressed in a brown sheer print with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. Mrs. Bush wore an aqua sheer print dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan and on their return they will reside near Macon. The bride traveled in a cream gabardine suit with brown accessories and a corsage of bronze rosebuds.

The bride is a graduate of Britton high school and is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. The groom is a graduate of Macon Ford school and is engaged in farming with his father.

There were four grandmothers and one grandfather present and friends and relatives from New Boston, Deerfield, Tecumseh, Detroit Sand Lake, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Macon, Blissfield and Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rye from Winchester, Kentucky are here for two weeks visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gamboe and other relatives.

Miss Shirley Lohr spent the week end in Tecumseh as the guest of Miss Virginia Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Ferman were in Clinton Sunday calling on relatives.

The real low-down on the Midwest gasoline situation!

More motor cars and trucks are on the road in the Midwest today than in 1941 and the per car consumption of gasoline is higher.

Twice the volume of gasoline is being consumed by tractors on Midwest farms as in 1941.

The railroads have four times as many Diesel locomotive units today as they had in 1941. Diesels burn lots of fuel oil.

More planes arrive and depart from Midwest airfields. Every plane has a hungry maw that must be filled with high octane gasoline.

It takes a lot of tank cars, pipe lines, and barges to bring crude oil to the refineries to produce the needed gasoline and oil.

Steps taken to increase supplies

Thousands of new wells have been drilled and are producing additional supplies of crude oil. Hundreds of miles of new pipe lines are in service. Our refineries are producing as never before—operating at new high levels.

Standard Oil's expansion program was blueprinted long before there was any break in the war clouds. It has been driving ahead ever since V-J Day.

Refinery projects already completed have added 13% to our crude-running capacity and other projects now under way, although behind schedule because of shortages of materials, will increase this figure to 27% by next spring.

Great progress has been made. But all this is not enough.

Why the Midwest feels the pinch

Last winter's heavy demand for heating oil caused Standard Oil to make large increases in fuel oil yields at the expense of gasoline. As the result of this and heavy gasoline demands this spring, Standard's available inventories of gasoline at refineries and terminals are 30% below a year ago.

Also, in the Midwest transportation is a serious bottleneck. At present there just aren't enough pipe lines and available tank cars to carry to the Midwest the extra load of crude oil and finished products from distant producing and refining areas. Here again, projects which will help the situation by next spring are under way.

How Standard Oil is handling the situation

In the interest of fair treatment of all our customers, we are putting into effect at once an allocation system for the distribution of our gasoline during June, July and August. Throughout these months the total amount to be supplied Standard Oil Agents and Dealers in the Midwest will be approximately equal to what they received in 1946 during the same period. Since gasoline sales are running millions of gallons ahead of last year's, Standard Oil Agents and Dealers, in turn, will be unable to meet an unlimited demand. This temporary allocation system is adopted for your protection.

We frankly do not know how long this situation will last. We are laying our plans on the belief that it will continue through August—[illegible]ps longer.

We do not believe the situation is serious enough to justify the introduction of formal rationing.

How you may be affected by this situation

There may be times when your service station dealer will be out of gasoline temporarily. Even if you are not always able to buy all the gasoline you want, there should be no need for real hardship. Although this is vacation time—if folks will take it easy, will reduce unnecessary driving, and not drive at high speeds that consume a lot of gasoline—everybody should be able to stay on a fairly normal basis. Nobody needs to become panicky. Hoarding, which is dangerous, would only aggravate the situation.

Standard Oil Dealers are cooperating wholeheartedly in this temporary emergency, which there is every reason to believe will not be of too long duration.

We earnestly bespeak your cooperation with your favorite Standard Oil Dealer. Both he and we want to see you often—and for a long time to come.

Centennial And Macon Graduates Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Green of Holloway entertained at a potluck picnic Sunday June 29, for their classmates of the Centennial school and Macon high school, which were at one time Ford schools.

This was the first picnic since 1942 and will be an annual event of every year in June. The former pupils of Mr. Chapman to be included. Mr. Chapman attended Centennial school and later graduated frou Macon high school.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Elwyn Green and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Harry Richards, president; Gail Austin, vice president; Gertrude Golat, secretary and treasurer. Refreshments were served later by the host and hostess and a social time was enjoyed. Guests attended from Adrian, Dundee, Tecumseh, Britton, Jackson, Saline and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chapman from Port Huron.

Pre-launder Stains

Professional launderers, who usually classify stains into some 80 types labeled "airplane dope" to "verdigris," with a special treatment for each, approve pre-laundering treatment of stains. Most stains react favorably to a plain soap and water treatment, if the treatment is applied soon enough, says the American Institute of Laundering. A simple procedure is to place the stained area of the cloth under running water, preferably lukewarm, directing the water forcibly upon the stained portion. This will, in most cases, serve to remove the stain. When stains cannot be removed by soap and water, use of the various household stain-removal products calls for special precautions. Laundry operators have long appreciated the importance of good light in stain removal work. They locate their stain removal equipment in the best-lighted sections of their plants. Care should also be taken that flames are absent when inflammable solvents are being used.

Cool Meat Cuts

Meat cuts to be placed in freezer lockers or those which are to be preserved by other methods must be properly cooled before the preservation process is started. Carcasses have internal heat of nearly 100 degrees when an animal is killed and the meat should be cooled to about 38 degrees as soon as possible. Beef cuts can be held several days at 38 degrees for aging, but pork should be put in the locker or cured soon after it has been cooled

Link Adrenal Hormones To Mental Distress

A new lead to the problem of mental disease comes as the result of comparative studies of the behavior of the adrenal glands under condidition of stress in normal persons and of individuals suffering from mental illness. The adrenal glands are tiny organs shaped like a cocked hat, above each kidney. They secrete two types of hormones. One, known as adrenalin, or epinephrine, is produced by their cores, or inner parts. The other, named cortin, is secreted by their outer skin, or cortex.

The regulator of energy in the body is the thyroid gland, situated in the neck. The adrenal glands serve as auxiliary "motors" in time of stress. When danger confronts man or animal the adrenal glands go automatically into action, by pouring extra adrenalin into the blood stream.

The biologists studied both normal and mentally ill persons under conditions of controlled stress by making their subjects operate a pursuit meter under simulated conditions of high-altitude flying. The amount of stress this operation involves has been described by Army pilots as being equal, in tiring effect, to close-formation flying under poor weather conditions. The result showed a difference in response by the adrenal glands of the normal, as compared with the mentally abnormal subjects. Strangely enough, it was not the adrenalin-secreting part of the gland that showed the difference in response, but the cortex of the gland, producing the cortin, which is not under the control of the nervous system.

Studies Reveal Expenditure Rates of Married Couples

A summary of 238 farm family accounts studied by University of Illinois economists showed wide changes in the amount and distribution of family expenditures and savings from the first year of marriage to the 35th wedding anniversary and beyond.

Ordinarily the greatest savings are made after the children are "on their own," but in 1945, when income was high and many boys were in service, the largest savings were made by the group married 20 to 24 years. Some of the year's funds which would have been spent for college education went into savings for future use.

Living expenditures were highest for the group married 25 to 29 years, mainly because of high medical expense and large wedding or other gifts to children. The lowest amount of money used for living was in families married 35 years and over. The group married 20 to 24 years carried the peak load for operating, clothing, personal and recreation expenditures which were related directly to the needs of the family.

City of Middle-Aged

Chicago has become the home of the middle aged, according to a report by the Advisory Committee of the Chicago-Cook County Health survey. Chicago has fewer individuals under 20 years of age than does the United States, but also has proportionately few individuals over 64 years of age," the report points out. The proportion of individuals between 35 and 54 years of age in Chicago is greater than in the whole United States. There has been during the past 20 years a downward trend in both the birth rate and the death rate in Chicago, and these are important factors reducing the percentage of population under 20 years of age. Another factor changing the age distribution is immigration, which initially brought large numbers of persons in the child-begetting age group to the United States, but now has diminished to the point of being of no importance, the report said.

County Federation In Session At Devils Lake

The annual picnic of the Federated Club of Lenawee County met at the summer home of Mrs. Ella Flat Keller at Devils Lake, June 25th with 115 members present and the Jasper club as hostesses. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Martin G. Coy.

October 23-24 the County Federation will enertain the southeastern convention at the Baptist church in Adrian, and Mrs. Strudevant announced there would be an historical meeting at the Tecumseh Episcopal church July 10.

Dr. Huntley talked on the Tuberculosis Association and it was voted to support the program, with Mrs. Cook representing the Federation will entertain the south-Adult Education Conference which was held in May at Ann Arbor.

That is what the John Deering mansion, in Miami cost. Now it is falling apart and decadent. The windows boarded up, and the walls crumbling.

At one time the estate was given to the City of Miami and a charge of $1.85 per person was made to see the place. The upkeep was too heavy. The City gave it back again to the Deering estate — no one wants it.

Do you know that $16,000,000.00 would have sent 1,000 missionaries to the needy for 16 years — 25 surgeons could have been placed in hospitals for 160 years at a salary of $4,000.00 per.

Then the sixteen million dollars could still be living on, and not crumbling away in waste.

It is also true today — "What one gives away lasts longer than what one keeps for himself."

To serve is to LIVE.

WHERE THOUSANDS DIE!

91 killed—3,150 injured! If that were the report of an explosion, wreck or other disaster, it would be front page news. People would be horrified! But worse—it's just one day's automobile casualty list in the United States. It happens every day, week in, week out. Four deaths, 131 injured—every hour. At year's end 33,500 lives snuffed out, over a million injured or maimed for life. That's what happened last year. This year's record threatens to be even higher.

Speed—reckless, wanton speed—drunken driving—defiance of safety rules and regulations—and careless, jaywalking pedestrians, top the list of causes for this grim toll.

What can you do about it? Will the speeding wheels of your car add one death to this mass murder of the highways? Not if you, the driver—and you, the pedestrian—take your individual responsibilities seriously. Drive carefully at all times, under all conditions, and be alert when walking.

Don't be one of the thousands to kill, or be killed. Drive safely —and live!

2 School Issues Up To Electors

TWO TRUSTEES MUST BE NAMED BY VOTERS WHO WILL GET THREE BALLOTS

Voters in the annual school district election here next Monday will receive three ballots when they go to the polls at the Council Building, one of them listing the names of the three candidates seeking election to the board of education, the other two involving financial problems. The polls will be open from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 8 o'clock in the evening. The annual district school meeting will be held, beginning at 8 p.m., in the auditorium of the high school.

Three persons have qualified as candidates for the board of education and their names will appear on the ballot. Electors will vote for two of the three. They are Jens Touborg, president of the board whose term expires; Paul Breitenwischer and John Saling. Earl Lindsley, a member of the board and whose term also expires, is not a candidate for re-election.

All registered electors, and they need not necessarily be parents, guardians or property owners, may vote for these officers. The two candidates receiving the highest vote will be declared elected.

The second ballot is known as "The Debt-Fund Issue" and involves the transfer of some $3,700 from the Recreation Center Debt Retirement Fund to the general fund. This money was advanced by the board of education for maintaining Recreation Center before other funds became available. The Recreation Center is entirely paid for, but in order to return this money to the general fund, a vote of the district is necessary.

Only tax-paying electors may vote on this issue, and a majority vote is necessary to authorize the return.

The third issue is known as the "Library Issue" and provides for the continuance of a one mill tax on property for the maintenance and operation of the Tecumseh Public Library. This tax was approved by the voters five years ago, and for a five year period. The district now asks a renewal of the plan. The one mill tax raises about $3,400 for library purposes. If the issue fails to carry, it was pointed out that the library may be forced to close its doors because no other funds are available for operating purposes.

On the "Library Issue" all registered electors may vote, and they do not need to be property owners. A two-thirds majority is needed to carry the issue.

This is the first year that Tecumseh has held an afternoon and evening election in the school district, and has voted by secret ballot in regular election fashion. Also, it is the first time that the school district voting has taken place at the Council Building.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church and an honorary member of the Rebekahs. She is survived only by cousins.

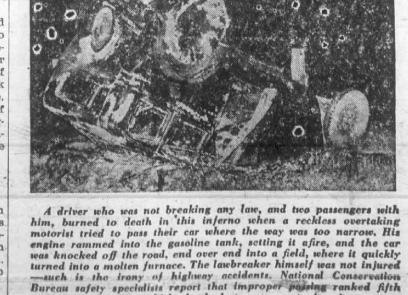
E. G. HERRICK, 87, DIES AT WAMPLERS

Everett G. Herrick, 87, passed away Tuesday morning at his summer home at Wamplers Lake. His home was in Toledo but has been living at Wamplers Lake during the summer seasons for the last 41 years. The survivors are his widow, Jennie, a son, Douglas M. of Pasadena, Calif., and a granddaughter, Mrs. Jane Taylor of Cape Cod, Mass. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.



A driver who was not breaking any law, and two passengers with him, burned to death in this inferno when a reckless overtaking motorist tried to pass their car where the way was too narrow. His engine rammed into the gasoline tank, setting it afire, and the car was knocked off the road, end over end into a field, where it quickly turned into a molten furnace. The lawbreaker himself was not injured —such is the irony of highway accidents. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists report that improper passing ranked fifth as a cause of motor vehicle deaths last year; most often it was combined with excessive speed which accounted for at least 8,000 fatalities.

Business Leaders Authorize C. of C. Organization Here

228 ATTEND TOWN HALL BANQUET AND HEAR HERRICK AND OTTO SPEAK

Immediate civic action — in the form of the organization of a Chamber of Commerce — in an effort to cope with the problems that confront Tecumseh as a rapidly growing industrial and agricultural community was asked by Ray W. Herrick, president of the Tecumseh Products Co., when he addressed a Town Hall Civic Banquet, attended by more than 225 persons, Tuesday evening at the high school. William C. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, also spoke.

"I never was more sincere about anything in my life," Mr. Herrick told his listeners when he suggested the organization of the Chamber. "This town is growing. It's not only our plant, now employing more than 2,000 people, with a payroll of more than $6,500,000 annually, and a business volume of $30,000,00 that I'm worrying about. I am also thinking about Bruce Foundry with an expanding payroll of $500,000, and Quaker Oats, Meyers Aircraft, Mastercraft Products, Ottawa Machine Products Co., and others. Watch these other plants, they're going places. The whole town is going places, if we but do a little boosting. We can have new industry here, and I'll do everything that I can to help it come, but we've got to do our share as a community; there must be concerted effort."

And, to back up his statement financially, Mr. Herrick told his audience that as quickly as a Chamber was organized here, with a full-time paid secretary, his company and the Refrigeration Sales & Engineering Division would immediately deposit to its credit $4,000. "And we will do more," he said. "Products and Engineering will pay into the Chamber $3,600 annually, and the Products Union has agreed to give $200 annually in addition. That makes $3,800 from our plant alone."

Community-wide problems that need attention that could be given by a Chamber, Herrick referred to as: Annexation of boundary subdivisions; street, water and sewer extensions; enlargement of the public school system through building; stepping up of the house building program as rapidly as materials become available.

The Products president estimated that far more than half of his company's present payroll is going out of town at the present time because there is no place in Tecumseh for the men to live. "Only about 800 of the 2,000 men we now employ live here," he said. "That's bad for the community, it's bad for the merchants. Probably $4,000,000 of our payroll goes to other sections of the county."

Mr. Otto, who has spent more than 25 years in Chamber of Commerce work, declared that there is nothing mysterious about he operations of such an organization. Communities pay Chamber secretaries to do a job that they know should be done; a job that they, the communities, will not do themselves.

"Grand Rapids did not become famous for mahogany furniture because mahogany trees grow there, and Flint and Detroit did not grow because in those sections they mine the products that go into motor cars. The things that made these cities nationally known is the leadership, the "Herricks" that make up those communities. You have an excellent opportunity here to do things, and go places. Mr. Herrick has just made the best talk I have ever heard showing the need for a Chamber.

"But you must remember," Otto said. "You get out of something just what you put into it. Its cooperation that makes a Chamber function. Communities and Chambers of Commerce are like a poker game. You must put something into the 'kitty' and you must ante if you want to stay in the game and hope to take something out as a winner."

Earl L. Wickwire, president of Town Hall Council, presided at the meeting and briefly reviewed the problems that confront the community as it strives for growth. The meeting, he said, was called because "many of the problems have become so acute that immediate action was necessary." He credited the Rotary, Exchange and Junior Chamber of Commerce for "the combined action that made the dinner-program possible, and declared that some members were alarmed because of the complacency of the community. "We have enjoyed the prosperity that has come with increased populations

Building Permits To Cost $6 Here In The Future

In the future, Village of Tecumseh building permits will cost $6, and permits for building repairs, where the minimum cost is $100, will be $3, the council ruled when it met in regular session, on Monday evening.

The petition of residents of Sunset Meade subdivision, asking for water and sewer extensions, was approved, and an engineering firm was asked to submit plans and specifications and costs for such construction.

The recently elected officers of the Tecumseh Firemen's Association were approved by the council as follows: J. Floyd Elliott, president; Leo Alderdyce, vice president; Charles J. Manley, secretary treasurer; Cecil Alderdyce, fire chief; B. B. Moon, assistant fire chief, and Lee Purkey, second assistant.

Current bills were audited and ordered paid, and the reports of committees and department heads were read and placed of file. The audit of the village books by C. A. Barber was accepted and approved.

Father, Son Are Hurt In Airplane Crash

The first airplane accident in Lenawee county this summer occurred near Devils Lake, at the intersection of the Onsted road with US-223, Sunday afternoon, and two Oakwood, Ohio, men were injured when the plane crashed in a hay field.

The accident happened on the John Darling farm as O. D. Thresher, pilot, and his father, Clarence, headed their plane for home after a day of fishing on Mud lake. The plane failed to climb fast enough and struck electric and telephone wires, causing it to crash.

The father and son suffered only minor injuries.

FATE OF INSTITUTION IS IN THE HANDS OF TAXPAYERS AT MONDAY ELECTION

The fate of the Tecumseh Public Library—whether it will remain open or be forced to close its doors —will be in the hands of voters at the annual school district election next Monday at the Council Building. The polls will be open from 2 to 8 p.m., and any registered voter may cast his ballot.

The question, briefly, is this: Will Tecumseh permit a one-mill tax, raising about $3,400 annually, for the continued operation of the library, Such a tax was voted five years ago for a five year period. The period ends as of this election, and unless it is renewed, funds for the library's operation are not available.

"It is not a new tax that the district is asking," W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools, explained. "The facts are that the one-mill tax period auhorized five years ago expires, and now an extension is being asked. To vote yes on the issue will not raise taxes over the amount paid a year ago, because property owners have been paying the tax in the past. But, I fear that unless the tax extension is authorized the library will be forced to close its doors because we do not have sufficient funds to continue the operation."

Local Girl Is Rescued From Wamplers Lake

Miss Jacolyn Gillespie, 17 year-old Tecumseh high school senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gillespie, Tecumseh, narrowly escaped death by drowning, late last week Wednesday afternoon at Wamplers Lake. She was rescued by Geo. VanCamp, jr., Tecumseh, and Hubert Brees and two other men whose names were not learned, and revived by artificial respiration. Shock and illness confined her to her bed for two days.

The accident happened when, in high waves, a boat with which Miss Gillespie had been playing while bathing, drifted into deep water. She attempted to return it to shallow water and stepped into a deep hole. She is not an experienced swimmer. Van Camp went to her rescue and held her head above water until Brees and the other men, in a boat, arrived. She was unconscious but responded to artificial respiration before state police arrived with a pulmotor.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

R. K. Anderson Dies Suddenly

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD YESTERDAY FOR LOCAL BUSINESS MAN

Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from St. Peter's Episcopal church for R. K. Anderson, well known retired local business man, who died suddenly of a heart ailment at his home, 317 North Union Street, at 11 a.m., Monday. The Rev. Allan Ramsay officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery. Bearers were Harold Anderson, Joseph Satterthwaite, Russell Thurlby, John Keeney, C. O. Butler and Paul Breitenwischer.

Mr. Anderson, son of the late Webster Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, was born in Tecumseh in 1873. He attended the University of Michigan and then went to Detroit and later to Buffalo in the services of the Goodyear Tire Co. Later, for the same company he went to Boston. In 1903 he was married to Miss Julia A. Hicks and they returned to Boston where they lived until 1908. They came back to Tecumseh in that year and Mr. Anderson became associated with the Webster Anderson Dry Goods Company, founded by his father, and remained with the firm until 1917 when he entered the armed services in World War I. He was commissioned a lieutenant.

Upon Mr. Anderson's return to Tecumseh in 1919 he devoted considerable of his attention to the affairs of the John F. Hicks Lightning Rod Co., founded by Mrs. Anderson's father. He also was interested in the automobile business. In 1927 he became associated with H. Brewer & Co., and was at one time its secretary. When Tecumseh Products Co. came here he joined that firm, retiring only last April 30.

Mr. Anderson was active in civic and Legion affairs and was one of the organizers of Underwood-Orr Post here. He was its first adjutant and its second commander. He had served as a member of the board of directors of Tecumseh Hospital since it was organized, and was at one time its secretary. He was one of the oldest members of the Tecumseh Club. Play Programs Hold Interest

ATTENDANCE HIGH AT RECREATION AS TOURNAMENTS GET UNDER WAY

Nice weather and increasing interest in the competition of various tournaments in progress at the Recreation Center have combined to maintain a very satisfactory attendance average during the past week of the summer recreation program. Competition is especially keen in the boys' ladder tennis tournament. The top three boys at present are Jim Wilson, David Green and Jay Tressler. However, with Wilson maintaining his position as number one by only a 10-8 set score recently, anything may happen to present standings in another week. The tournament will run until the end of July.

In the girls' ladder tennis tournament, Pat Wilson, Marilyn Van Winkle and Kathryn Hicks are at the top at present. The winner and runner up in the last horseshoe doubles tournament were Bill Beardsley and Gerald Aebersold, number one, and Jim Wilson and Jim Breitenwischer, number two. In ping pong, Wilson was number one and Aebersold, number two.

Two hardball teams have been organized. On Monday afternoon the West Side team had the edge on the East Side team. With new recruits coming in, a good series of games is expected. It is planned that a hand picked team will play some outside games a little later.

Cool weather has slowed up the swimming program. Only a little over half of those signed up for instruction have appeared so far. New youngsters have been signing up almost daily, however, and a bumper crop of new swimmers should be the outcome with weather permitting.

The schedule for next week follows: Unscheduled activities: 9:00-11:30 a.m. and 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.—Badminton, tennis, deck tennis paddle tennis, ping pong, shuffleboard, horse shoes, box hockey, tether ball, croquet, checkers, softball, and volley ball.

Scheduled activities: 9 a.m. daily —Arts and crafts for all boys and girls interested. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Cubs and Brownies invited to work on scouting badge work. At Episcopal recreation building.

9:45-10:30 a.m.—Tuesday and Thursday—Girls' tennis.

9:45-10:30 a.m.—Monday, Wednesday and Friday—Boys' tennis.

10-11:30 a.m.—Daily—Games and art work for children of grades one, two and three.

10:30-11:15 a.m.—Monday, Wednesday and Friday—Swimming for beginners of class 1.

10:45-11:45 a.m.—Tuesday and Thursday—Swimming for intermediate swimmers of class 3.

2-3 p.m.—Daily—Story period and free play for children of grades one, two and three.

7-8 p.m.—Tuesday and Friday—Archery for adults. W. D. Hite in charge.

Five Persons Injured In Auto Accident

Five persons were injured in two automobile accidents in this vicinity Monday afternoon and four of them were removed to Tecumseh Hospital while the fifth was treated at Saline Hospital.

R. G. Foster and Sam Damren of Ypsilanti, Carl R. Habermas, of Toledo and John Cook, Windsor, were painfully hurt about 2:40 Monday when Mr. Foster ditched his car on the county line road, six miles northeast of Britton, to avoid hitting a Detroit-bound Wabash passenger train. The other men were passengers in Foster's car, which was badly wrecked. All were removed to Tecumseh Hospital.

Mary P. Cameron of Rt. 2, Manchester was cut about the face Monday at 2:30 p.m., when she lost control of her car in loose gravel and it overturned on the Clinton-Macon road. She was removed to Saline Hospital.

State police from the Clinton post investigated both accidents.

PUNISH DRUNK DRIVER

In a recent public opinion poll conducted by the National Committee for Traffic Safety, each person was asked which of ten listed factors caused the greatest number of accidents. Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor ranked number one.

Yet special studies show that one half of the drivers who were killed or injured in traffic accidents during the last year had been drinking! One third of all the drivers tested had consumed sufficient alcohol to be under its influence!

How can a man justify manslaughter or bodily injury when he is fully aware of its cause, yet ignores his responsibility to stop it? The answer is he can't justify it and is deserving of full punishment under the law for his inexcusable act.

The drinking driver who is killed in an accident of his own making pays for his error tragically and often with the horror of a painfully mutilated and lingering death. Often, too, his family is left with a financial burden caused by his act.

On the other hand, the drinking driver lucky enough to escape death even though he may be permanently injured, still has no justification in expecting anything but the severest penalty the law can apply to him.

It is the duty of all of us, both drivers and pedestrians, to curtail drinking while we are driving or walking on our streets and highways. Then it is our duty to see that those who do violate the rules of safety and decency are severely punished.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Fish Bites Woman!

Willie Wells was coming home from Seward's Creek the other evening with a string of trout, when a stern looking lady (visitor at the Boxwood Inn) stops him, and tells him a man his size could be better occupied than catching fish.

Willie tells her off real good-naturedly by saying: "Perhaps you're right, but if these fish had kept their mouths shut, they wouldn't be here." (At that, says Willie, laughing out loud, she looked just as if a fish had bit her!)

Blabbing mouths never cause anything but trouble. Nobody who knew the facts would ever criticize Willie's right to go fishing on his one day off—any more than they'd deny his right to come home to a mellow glass of beer.

From where I sit, the slower we are to criticize—and the quicker we are to recognize another's tastes, the better we'll get along together—whether those tastes apply to beer or fishing.

Miss Winona J. Waldron Weds John H. Hamilton

At the Methodist Episcopal church Saturday evening, July 5, at 8:30 o'clock Winona Jean Waldron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, became the bride of John H. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton, before an altar decorated with arrangements of madonna lilies, duchea, hydrangeas, and candelabra. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Norman MacNaughton.

Mrs. Fred Dckinson played pre nuptial music on the organ and accompanied Mrs. John D. McColl who sang "Because" and "Ich Liebe Dich" before the ceremony and also "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple were at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin with rose point lace, the leg- o' mutton sleeves extending to points over the hands, and the full skirt ending in a long train. The full-length lace veil which fell from a tiara of orange blossoms extended over the train and was studded with lace medallions. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Munn of Dansville, Illinois, and sister of the bride, was gowned in yellow net with a matching shoulder length veil and carried a shower bouquet of yellow rose buds, blue delphinium and baby breath tied with blue and yellow satin streamers. The bridesmaids were Miss Louise Gale of Daleville, Indiana, and Miss Isabel Hamilton, sister of the groom, who wore blue marquisette gowns and carried cascades of pink roses, blue delphinium and daisies with pink ribbons, and Miss Mary Jane Hayden and Miss Ruth Ann Waldron of Howell, cousin of the bride, gowned in spun sugar pink marquisette with cascades of the same arrangements tied with blue ribbon. All wore tiaras of daisies.

Little Judy Kay Anderson of Benton Harbor, cousin of the bride, was flower girl dressed in a floor length gown of pink organdy and a tiara of pink rosebuds and baby's breath. She scattered rose petals from a white basket. The rings were carried on a heart shaped white satin pillow by Malcolm Randall of Port Clinton, Ohio, cousin of the bride.

Sam Hamilton acted as best man for his brother. while the ushers were Robert and Thomas Hamilton brothers of the groom, Wilfred R. Waldon, jr., brother of the bride, and Frank Blasco of Cleveland, Ohio. The white carpet was rolled by Roger and Hal Hagadorn of Adrian, cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother was dressed in tulip blue marquisette with lace panels and Mrs. Hamilton, mother of the groom, wore aqua with gold accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception in charge of Mrs. H. Whaley, president of the Reliable class, was held. A five tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the linen-covered table. Pink and blue flowers in crystal bowls and candelabra completed the arrangement. Miss Clara Waldron, cousin of the bride, arranged all the flowers. Mrs. Clifton Anderson served the cake while Miss Phyllis Cameron of Howell and Miss June Shower of Chicago presided at the punch bowl. Reception music was played by Mrs. Robert Randall. cousin of the bride

Guests were present from Danville, Ill., Daleville, Ind., Savannah, Georgia, Troy, New York, Cleveland, Port Clinton, and Toledo, Ohio, Tipton, Weston, Deerfield, Adrian, Benton Harbor, Birmingham, Bay City, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan and Toronto, Canada.

State Warns Of Lock-Jaw

IT'S NOT ONLY A RUSTY NAIL OR GUNPOWDER BURN THAT CAUSE IT

You don't have to step on a rusty nail or be burned by gun powder to get lockjaw. A prick with the cottage ice pick, or a scraped knee from a fall in village street can do the job just as well. Even a shiny nail may be guilty of injecting the germs.

Farm and rural injuries are the major sources of tetanus infection in Michigan today. Accidents with barbed wire, pitchforks, corn shredders, falling boards, moving belts and similar equipment all contribute their share of the cases.

The tetanus bacilli commonly live in the bowels of horses, and possibly other farm animals. They are found wherever manure is found and are carried on dust by the wind. It does not harm to eat the germs. They cause disease only when they are gotten into a wound which is then closed from air.

Forunately, not many people, even among horse handlers, get lockjaw, but 80 out of every 100 who get it, die of the illness. Such deaths are inexcusable, according to Dr. William DeKleine State Health Commissioner.

The Michigan Department of Health Laboratories make a tetanus toxoid, two monthly shots of which, followed by yearly booster shots, will immune against lockjaw. A person who has not had this immunization, may be given tetanus anti-toxin at the time of his injury to prevent lockjaw. The Department makes the anti-toxin also, and either toxoid or the anti-toxin may be administered by any physician.

Children living or vacationing on a farm, farm workers, all people who customarily handle horses, and those people in industries where they are apt to receive puncture or scraping wounds should have the toxoid immunization followed by booster shots once a year.

"Toxoid shots are a "must" for farm children, whose bare feet and brown hands receive many scratches, cuts and blisters which go unnoticed in the ordinary course of events," Dr. DeKleine said.

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, will be supplied at extra cost as soon as available.
-and Ability to match
Give yourself five seconds, and you know that here's car styling as up to the minute as the time of day.
Spend a few fast minutes to see why — and you spot both smartness right from tomorrow's designing boards and everything that should go with it.
Measure the reach and spread of that Buick bonnet, brim-filled with Fireball power.
Sweep your glance over the broad beam that spells room, the stretch that means easy-riding wheelbase, the size that tells of enough roadweight to end jounce and jitter.
Here, you tell yourself, is something to see. Here are looks to hold the eye for seasons to come — and lively, durable ability to match:
. . . Rich abundance of smooth, hushed Fireball horsepower from a straight-eight kept young and lively by Accurite cylinder finish.
. . . Tireless coil springing on all four wheels, leveling all roads to boulevard smoothness.
. . . Riding poise from two steadying tons of roadweight — ease of handling from balance to draw a ballet dancer's envy. Soft, roomy cushions seating three apiece — finish that's the very last word in richness and taste.
Yes, it takes no time at all to show that you and Buick belong together, should go together steady — so what's holding you back?
After all, we can't do much about getting one to you till you make your wishes plain. You do that simply by placing your order — which will get equal consideration whether or not you have a car to trade.

Tecumseh And County Escape "Violent" Fourth

Although there were some 500 deaths in the nation over the long Fourth of July week end, Lenawee county and Tecumseh escaped the holiday without a single fatality. State police and sheriff's deputies said that there was not a single traffic accident involving serious injury, in fact, it was ponted out, accidents were comparatively few considering the heavy traffic.

For the most part, Tecumseh enjoyed a long-earned vacation, some stores closing only for the Fourth, a few others for the Fourth and Saturday. Some industrial plants also closed for two days.

Lake resorts in this area were crowded to capacity over the week end, and hotel and cottage space was at a premium. At Hayes State Park, campers were plentiful, using both tents and trailers.

Hodges Visit In Holy Land

LOCAL DOCTOR AND FATHER ON TOUR OF NEAR EAST WRITE INTERESTING LETTER

Dr. Ferris G. Hodge and his father, Nicholas Hodge of Morenci, who left here a few weeks ago to visit relatives in the Near East are now enroute to Jerusalem and Bethlehem, according to a letter received by The Herald. It is Dr. Hodge's first visit to Syria, but his father, who came to America more than 50 years ago, has relatives there and is well remembered by many of the townsfolk.

Dr. Hodge's letter follows:

Father and I arrived June 11 at Beirut after a very pleasing voyage. Three of my cousins met us at the pier, knowing us only from photographs we had sent them. After passing through customs, and finding it far more convenient to give up six of my 10 cartons of cigarettes rather than pay exhorbitant duty on them, we took a taxi to the Hotel Beirut where we refreshed ourselves. Then we looked over the city, ate heartily and prepared to spend a most enjoyable evening on the seashore at a very beautiful open air casino.

Next day we paid the necessary visit to the American consuel, who is a very personal friend of Joseph Satterthwaite. By virtue of Joes's card of introduction, we were given a most cordial welcome. After that we proceeded to exchange American money into Lebonese and Syrian dollars, about three for every American dollar. Then we engaged a taxi and rode southwest from Beirut about 80 miles up into the mountains to the home of my aunt. This is a town perched high up, population about 3,000. Everyone in town knew we were coming and we were greeted by old and young alike. It was quite a thrill even though I had never met any of them before. The weather here, in the mountains is very cool. The homes are all built of hand-huen stone, some with sod roofs and others with high arches ceilings of stone. Some of these buildings are many centuries old and in excellent condition.

After a few days here in Jedyde my cousin took me to the ancient Mediterranean ports of Sidon and Tyre. I took many colored movies which I hope are good. We visited relatives of my mother, in Tyre. From there dad and I motored to near Mt. Herman to my father's home town, a beautiful little village of about 1,000, high enough in the mountains that often the clouds are below in the green valley.

Our greeting by relatives and the people overwhelmed us. There were some folk who still remembered my father, even though a half century had passed since he left. It is customary for the men and their grown sons to make the first calls, then the women a day or two later. To illustrate how fast news travels in these out-of-way places, the day after we arrived the old bewhiskered, long-robed sheiks and their oldest sons, dressed in their finest attire, rode into town on white horses to greet dad. Over a half a century ago dad, as a young man, had traded with them and was well remembered.

Sunday we visited the church, built by one of the ancestors Hodge. Date on the church is 1337. It is a beautiful structure.

Next week we plan a trip to Damascus where I have another aunt and family. I am looking forward with much anticipation to seeing Damascus. I am told that it is the oldest still inhabited city in the world.

We plan to visit Balbek, city of antiquity and ancient ruins; then to Bsherri and the famed Cedars of Lebanon and Antioch, and then back to Beirut where we will pick up the necessary passports to enable us to visit Palestine and the Holy City of Jerusalem and Bethlehem.

Yes, I miss my family and all of my friends in Tecumseh. Please give them my sincere regards.

Red Feather

An official symbol of the 849 Community Chests of America, the Red Feather was first used, probably, in ancient China, where a red feather robe, the "Hagoromo," supposedly insured immortality. Toward the middle of the 14th century in England the Black Prince decreed that knights performing acts of valor or chivalry should wear red plumes in their helmets. Robin Hood's daring men wore red feathers in their caps for each good deed; Magyars wore bright feathers as symbols of courage and valor; fearless Indian braves wore vermillion-dyed eagle feathers as tokens of courage. Its adoption by the national organization of Community Chests came early in 1945 and although the identity of the person who suggested it is unknown, its constant association with meritorious deeds throughout history makes his reason for doing so quite clear. Today it signifies generosity and indicates that the wearer recognizes his responsibility to members of his community. The official Red Feather symbol is encircled by 12 stars, representing the year-round services offered by Red Feather agencies.

Charming Port

The first port opened to western trade with China, Macau has an old-world charm and a climate that made it a popular pleasure resort, largely responsible for two-thirds of a million prewar visitors annually. Lining the broad, banyan-shaded avenues along the waterfront are modern government buildings, apartments, and arcaded business houses of European design. They rise against a terraced background of blue, pink, brown and yellow houses in garden settings. Other buildings face park squares of oleander and bamboo.

Retards Sprouting

Plant hormone chemicals, sprayed on potatoes put in storage, will retard sprouting and prevent losses in market value. One gram per bushel of the hormone (methyl ester of alpha naphthaleneacetic acid) is necessary. Since such a small amount is required, it is usually mixed with some other material before being applied. Shredded or confetti paper may be impregnated with a solution and then distributed over the potatoes. carrots, beets or other root crops in storage. The chemical, in liquid form, may be applied in a very fine spray with a paint gun or other atomizer. A dust has also been developed.

NO PRINCE CHARMING . . . When Albert F. Lange of North Arlington, N. J., stepped off plane in London, he announced that he had arrived in England to marry Princess Elizabeth. Officials promptly shipped him back to the United States. Lange said he has seen the princess in a mist in his dreams ever since he was five.

Recipe for Fruit Balls

Dried fruits and nuts can be dressed up to take the place of candy. Dates, figs, prunes stuffed with nut meats and lighly rolled in sugar are something special. The bureau of human nutrition and home economics gives this recipe which is popular with adults and children: Fruit balls: Wash and dry 1 cup prunes and 1½ cups raisins. (If prunes are extra dry, soften slightly in water.) Grind through meat chopper, using medium knife. Add ½ cup chopped nut meats if desired. Mix well with 1 tablespoon lemon juice and a few grains salt. Make into balls, 1 rounded tablespoon mixture to a ball, and roll in sugar. Store in a tin box or tight jar. If available, other dried fruits —figs, apricots or dates—may be substituted for part or all of the prunes or raisins.

Leak Detector

Twirling a tire tube around a basin of soapy water and finding, without too much exasperation, a "will of the wisp" leak was a feat always good for a pat on the back, but there's an instrument which would scorn a job like that and make it look like child's play. The device is the General Electric leak detector, which is so sensitive it detects a leak "slow" enough to pass but one cubic centimeter of helium every 16 years. Or to put it another way, the new device could spot a hole so tiny that 15,000 years would be required for a quart of air at atmospheric pressure to pass through that hole. Using helium as a tracer gas, the leak detector is able to measure the normal helium content of the atmosphere, which is approximately 1 part in 200,000 parts of air.

and payrolls but what, in reality, have we done or are we doing to justify such rewards," he said.

The chairman pointed out that Tecumseh has led the nation in new house construction since the end of the war and said that Robert H. Moore, head of R. S. Moore & Son Co., lumber dealers, had been congratulated by the National Housing Administration for his efforts in his program. "He also should be congratulated by his own community," the speaker said.

Several business men spoke briefly and urged that a Chamber be organized here. A motion was carried authorizing the presidents of Rotary, Exchange, Junior Chamber and Town Hall to name a committee of seven members to carry such an organization to a successful conclusion, Operation of a Chamber, such as is needed in Tecumseh, will cost, it was said, from $10,000 to $12,000 annually.

The dinner was served by Mrs. Pearl Beaubien of Brees House, and community singing was led by John Saling, and W. L. Berkhof with Mrs. Glenn Driscoll at the piano. The public address system was furnished by Forest Abner of Tecumseh Electric. Fred Wohlert, three times president of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, was a guest. Rev. B. O. Bashore asked the invocation.

Before the meeting entered its business session, the audience stood for one minute as a tribute to the memory of R. K. Anderson, who died suddenly here, Monday.

Frozen Fresh-Fruit Jelly Retains Natural Flavor

If present plans are completed, housewives may soon go to their market and be able to buy a jelly-like frozen fresh-fruit spread that retains the full natural flavor, color and aroma of the fresh fruit. Chemists of the Western Regional Research laboratory of the department of agriculture have devised a way to preserve the full natural flavor, color and aroma of fresh fruit in jellies and preserves. The new process promises to retain that fresh from the vine tang to grapes, strawberries, raspberries and other fruits.

The process is a cold instead of a heat processing. Specially treated powdered pectin is dissolved in a puree of uncooked fruit to produce a jelly-like spread. Doing away with heat and some of the sugar saves cost; and, further, none of the fruit fragrance escapes to the air. The fragrance is kept in the spread to be enjoyed by the eater.

The chemists are unable to say how costs of the new fresh-fruit spreads will compare with conventional jellies and preserves because they have not been tried out commercially yet. However, by the taste test, the chemists are positive the consumers will like the fruit preserve that retains the full natural flavor, color, and aroma of the fresh fruit.

Life Insurance Reaches New Heights in Coverage

Total life insurance in force in U. S. life insurance companies at the end of 1945 reached $155,722,778,000 and the total of policies at year-end was 166,329,000. This was an increase during the year of 5,372,000 policies for $6,651,372,000. It is an increase over the 1941 totals of 24,485,000 policies for $31,049,540,000.

The ownership of life insurance has more than doubled since 1920 in number of policies and is now more than three times as great in amount. At the end of 1945 there were 71,000,000 policyholders, owning an average of $2,190 each. In 1918, there were 31,000,000 policyholders, owning an average of $960. In 1900, policyholders numbered only 10,000,000 and they averaged about $850 of protection.

The 1945 aggregate of life insurance was divided by type of policy as follows: $104,456,033,000 under 50,172,000 ordinary insurance policies; $28,496,958,000 under 104,098,000 industrial insurance policies; and $22,769,786,000 under 12,059,000 group life insurance certificates. Life insurance ownership has grown more rapidly than the population for many years.

Mohammedan Holy Days

About 285,000,000 Mohammedans commemorate the birth of Mohammed on the twelfth day of the third month on their lunar calendar and the birthday of El-Hoseyn in the fourth month, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. The chief festivals of Mohammedanism, as listed by the reference work, are 'Eed es-Sagheer, which lasts for three days, and 'Eed el-Kebeer, beginning on the tenth of Zu-l-Heggeh, the last month of the Mohammedan year, which goes on for three or four days. The Mohammedans who make up 13 per cent of the globe's population, also keep holy the first ten days of Mobarram, the first month of the year, particularly the tenth day, called Yom Ashoora. The anniversary of the prophet's miraculous ascension into heaven in the seventh month and one or two lesser anniversaries are also marked, the Britannica points out.

Baby Carriages Are Popular On State's College Campuses...

By Gene Alleman

(Special to The Herald)

Lansing — What makes a vacation trip to Michigan memorable?

As likely as not, it will be the memory of Michigan hospitality — the warmth of friendship which Michigan people extend to strangers.

This thought was emphasized to me the other day. Meredith Clark, editor of the Tekonsha Patriot, a weekly newspaper at Tekonsha in Branch county, told me this story:

"My wife and I drove to Traverse City for the summer convention of the Michigan Press Association. Just before dinner, I discovered I had not packed a tie. It was about 6:30 p.m. then, and clothing stores were closed. Finally, I went to Wright's drug store and told the proprietor my dilemma. 'Do you know of a place where I could buy a tie?' The merchant noticed my convention badge. His face brightened. 'Here take my tie!' he exclaimed, whipping off his tie and putting it into my hands. I wore this man's tie Friday night and returned it to him the next morning. Here was a real test of hospitality. I'll never forget Traverse City."

Baby carriages are common on college campuses today.

The American Legion sponsored a Boys' State at Michigan State College the other week. The boys from towns all over the state assembled to study how government operates. They were housed in student barracks.

Morning assembly was at 6:30 a. m. Someone had the bright idea of sounding off a bugle for first call. He blew it loud and long.

Frank Morris, Lansing correspondent of the Detroit Times: Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., is being groomed to succeed Sigler after a second term. A novice at politics, Alger has been surprisingly successful in quietly accomplishing objectives for the good of the state without stepping on toes."

Clarence W. Lock, deputy revenue commissioner, predicts that an amendment to the sales tax law may save Michigan farmers and owners of farms $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 a year. New exemptions were authorized by the 1947 legislature on purchases by persons "having an interest in tilling of the soil or raising of livestock and poultry" for such things as clothing, household appliances, and other products. Buyers must sign statements as to intended use.

From my notebook: Communism thrives on low living standards and a weakened middle class. Free elections in Hungary in November, 1945, while under Russian occupation, resulted in only 17 per cent vote for communists . . . There are three eagles' nests at the Ludington State Park which spreads over 3,142 acres . . . Rural Iowa is seriously over-churched; over one-half of the rural churches are standing still or declining; ministers are poorly paid"—Dr. H. Paul Douglass in a report to a national convention on the church in town and country at Des Moines.

Marshall is proud of its Schuler hotel, and rightly so. This small hostelry recently opened a Centennial dining room which would do justice to Chicago or New York City for colorful surroundings, fine food, reasonable prices. The place was packed the other night when we stopped for dinner. Michigan is full of surprises; the Schuler is one of them.

"No", was the reply.

"No".

"Never had a single accident in your life,"

"Wall, no, I ain't. But last spring when I was out in the meadder, a bull tossed me over the fence."

"Well, don't you call that an accident?" asked the examiner.

"No, by thunder, I don't. That darn bull did it on purpose."

Johnny: "That depends. Is it a man or a woman?"

You know the English language is something you have to use with care. For example, it is all right to tell a woman that time stands still when you look into her eyes — but just try telling her that her face would stop a clock!

Which reminds us that we have made time stop for hundreds of autos. You see, when we service a car regularly — with quality gas and oil and thorough dependable lubrication, it practically stops growing old. It's a fact! We invite you to drive in and try our superior service.

"STANDIN' IN THE NEED O' PRAYER"

"Prayer is the Soul's sincere desire,
Uttered, or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire,
Within the human breast."

Prayer is the individual life searching its own inner soul, with the consciousness that God is looking on. Deep down in his soul, each persons wants to be his deepest and best self. Many situations offer luring rewards at a much lower price. It is a temptation to fall for these. So, unless one develops the habit of sincere prayer, other habits get established which deceive the person into thinking he is right when he isn't. Thus, without the habit of prayer one cannot achieve the kind of self he most wants.

ONE STEP can be FATAL!

12,200 pedestrians were killed by automobiles last year—1,340 more than the year before. Two out of every three violated traffic laws or committed unsafe acts which contributed to their deaths.

And believe it or not—many of these fatal accidents actually happened less than six feet from the curb—only a step or two from safety!

Between intersection accidents accounted for more than one-third of all pedestrian fatalities last year. These victims carelessly rushed out from behind parked cars, or simply jaywalked themselves into traffic—and death. Others even ignored the safety of lights and traffic officers at intersections to save a few seconds—and lost their lives.

TOUBORG, BREITENWISCHER ELECTED; DEBT FUND, LIBRARY ISSUES O.K.'D

Jens Touborg, president of the Tecumseh Board of Education, was re?e-lected, and Paul Breitenwischer was named to succeed Earl Lindsley as a member of the board, when electors in the Tecumseh school district, went to the polls of education in the Tecumseh school disrict went to the polls here, Monday. A total of 149 votes were cast. The estimated voting strength of the district is 1,700.

Mr. Lindsley was not a candidate to succeed himself at the election. He retired after 18 years of service. In the trustee race were Mr. Touborg, Mr. Breienwischer and John Saling. Touborg received 135 votes, Breitenwischer 115 and Mr. Saling 47. The two men receiving the highest number of votes were declared elected.

The proposal to continue the one mill tax for the support of the public library here won almost unanimous approval. The vote was 129 in favor of the continuance of the tax and three opposed it. The district voted the one mill tax for library support five years ago, and for a five year period. The tax would have expired this year, had it not received the voters' support. As a result of the vote, no new tax is added, but the five-year-old one mill tax is continued.

The so-called debt fund issue also carried by a vote of 144 to 5. In approving this issue the voters authorized the transfer to the general fund of the district some $3,800 that is now held in a special debt fund. The fund was created at the time of the purchase of the Recreation Center, and the money was advanced by the district before tax money became available. Since, the Recreation Center has been improved and paid for, but the $3,800 remained in the fund and it took a vote of the electors to return it to the general treasury.

Voting in Monday's election was at the council building, it being the first time that the district has balloted under the new state law.

The annual meeting of the district was held in the auditorium of the high school on Monday evening at 8. Perry C. Satterthwaite, secretary of the board, presided and about 20 persons attended.

The annual report of the superintendent, W. L. Berkhof, showed that the district is taking the necessary steps toward the construction of a new building, the first unit of which it is hoped to complete in 1950. The new construction will be financed through money in the sinking fund, then about $75,000, and a probable bond issue of a like amount two years hence.

Miss Ruth Harding was named as librarian by unanimous approval

Fay Whelan, treasurer of the Recreation Center, submitted his report and requested that in the future the Center be financed through the Tecumseh Community Fund. Mr. Whelan said he believed that the recreational program rightly belonged in that budget.

NOT ONLY ENGLAND . . . Europe is not the only place buffeted by heavy seas. At Redondo Beach, Calif., the angry surf returned to the onslaught again, crashing over the cement walk and cascading into living rooms of waterfront homes. Committee Is Named To Organize C. of C. Here

The job of organizing a Chamber of Commerce here, with a full-time paid secretary and an annual budget of from $10,000 to $12,000 was undertaken this week by a special committee, named by the presidents of Rotary, Exchange, Town Hall and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The committee is made up of Charles O. Butler as chairman, Ned Rosacrans, Wade L. Jones, Robert H. Moore, Leon P. Williamson, Paul Breitenwischer and Wm. H. Wehr.

"We realize that we have accepted a large assignment, and that without the complete cooperation of the community we have an impossible job," was the way that Mr. Butler summed up the task. "There is no doubt but that we need a Chamber here badly, and if the town is to progress and keep pace with its industry such an organization must be perfected. However, this is not a job for the committee alone, it is a job that the whole community, must boost both morally and financially.

"Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., has made a very genuine gift. His company and Refrigeration Sales & Engineering have pledged $3,600 annually. Products Union has subscribed another $200. That is a total of $3,800, or about a third of our total budget. In addition, the Products group has pledged $4,000 in cash to augment the Chamber's treasury the first year," Mr. Butler said. "It seems to me that Tecumseh should not have much difficulty in raising an additional $7,500 or $8,000 to carry this project to success. But again, let me say, this is everybody's job and no one can shirk."

Mr. Butler said that the committee held its first organizational meeting on Wednesday evening. Plans were then laid for a pledge campaign to be started soon. As quickly as sufficient pledges are received assuring the funds with which to operate a Chamber then another meeting similar to the one held at the high school last week Tuesday evening, will be called and reports will be submitted.

"We should, if everything works as we expect, have a functioning Chamber of Commerce in Tecumseh in Septembr," Butler said.

The movement to organize a Chamber here started many months ago and terminated in a Town Hall sponsored banquet at the school, last week. At that meeting Mr. Herrick and Wm. Otto secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, were the principal speakers. Mr. Herrick outlined the need for such an organization, pointed out that Tecumseh is growing rapidly, and that some community-sponsored program must be adopted if the village is to keep pace with its rapidly expanding industry. More housing, he said, is the answer to why the community is now losing more than half of Products' $6,500,000 annual payroll. "The men don't spend their money here because there is no place here for them to live," he said.

Mr. Herrick's suggestion and offer of financial support were discussed by those at the meeting and the organization of a committee to begin laying the foundation for the building of a Chamber was authorized. The presidents of Town Hall, Exchange, Rotary and the Junior Chamber were ordered to select the commitee and this was done last week, Friday.

ANOTHER TOLL LINE FOR TELEPHONE CO.

A new toll line to Dundee, speeding up calls to that village, as well as to Blissfield, Erie, Ida and Maybee, is now in operation, according to Ernest Green, commercial manager of the Michigan Associated Telephone Co.

Only One-Third Of Voters Are Eligible To Vote In The School District

Only about one third of the voters in the school district—both property owners and others—were eligible to vote in the annual district election, held here Monday. The reason for ineligibilty was the fact that the voters had failed to register.

It was pointed out that a majority of the voters living in the district must register three times to be able to vote in all elections. First, they must register with the village to vote in village elections; with the township to vote in township, county state and national elections; and, with the district to vote in the school elections.

In this district about 650 voters registered, and less than a third of that number voted on Monday. There were, however, about 1,000 who were no registered and who could not have voted had they so desired.

were not registered and who could not have voted had they so desired.

The election board reported little difficulty as a result of non registration. About 10 persons came to the polls to vote who were not registered, it was said.

It was pointed out that persons who are not registered, or who do not know whether or not they are registered, for any future elections, township, village or school district, should investigate to determine their standing.

ROTARY CLUB TO PRESENT THEM TO VILLAGE AT MEETING NEXT TUESDAY

Th signs were purchased by the club as a civic service to the community, and are given to the village without charge.

Charles O. Butler, vice-president of Rotary and chairman of its program committee, said that President John C. Truesdale and members of the council would be guests of Rotary at its regular dinner meeting next Tuesday evening at Brees House. After dinner, club members and members of the council will go to the intersection of Chicago Boulevard and Evans street, where the official presentation will be made, and the sign designating that intersection will be installed.

Father Killed By Son's Plane

REV. FR. LAMBER LAVOY, FORMER PRIEST HERE IN VOLVED IN ACCIDENT

Gilbert W. LaVoy, 73, was instantly killed Thursday at 6.30 p.m. when he was hit on the head by the whirling propeller of an airplane, owned and piloted by his son, the Rev. Fr. Lamber LaVoy, 47? former priest at St. Elizabeth's Catholic church here. The accident happened on the LaVoy farm, two and a half miles north of Deerfield. The Rev. Fr. LaVoy is now pastor of St. Brigid's church, Detroit.

Father LaVoy was preparing to take off from his home for Detroit, and his father was assisting in the preparation when the accident occurred. His son had warned him to keep clear of the propeller when he pulled the chock from under one of the plane's wheels. While the priest was giving his attention to another detail he heard a noise. The elder LaVoy had walked into the whirling plane. Coroner Paul Mott, Adrian, held that the death was an accident and an inquest was unnecessary.

The aged Deerfield farmer was an aviation enthusiast and had constructed a landing strip on his farm to make it possible for his son to commute from Detroit to his home.

Mr. LaVoy was born in Erie, Sept. 15, 1874. He is survived by the widow and 11 children. Funeral services were held Monday from St. Alphonsus church, Deerfield, of which he was a member, and burial was in the parish cemetery.

Monroe Is Victorious In Legion Tourney Here

Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 American Legion, Tecumseh, was host to the Junior Baseball County Champs from Jackson, Washtenaw, Monroe and Lenawee counties this past week end.

The rainy weather appeared to play somewhat and caused plenty of trouble in running off the games. Monroe defeated Jackson 8 to 1 on Friday afternoon and then the rain came postponing the Tecumseh-Ann Arbor game until Saturday afternoon. Tecumseh lost to Ann Arbor 10 to 3 and then was forced to play Rose City of Jackson immediately. Tecumseh was eliminated by Jackson. Ann Arbor then lost to Monroe 20 to 7. Having lost their ace pitcher who had tossed the game against Tecumseh earlier in the afternoon.

On Sunday, between showers, Ann Arbor defeated Jackson 5 to 1 and then came back to take Monroe 5 to 2. Bill Van Houten, their pitching ace, relieved in both of these games.

Many fans saw these games and were very much entertaind by some very good baseball.

Electrical Storm Hits Lenawee, Inch of Rain

One of the heaviest rain storms of the season swept Tecumseh and Lenawee county, Monday afternoon, causing electrical power to be off here about 15 minutes, beginning at 2 o'clock, and doing minor damage to crops and trees.

The storm rode in from the west on a heavy wind and was accompanied by lightning. It continued for about an hour, during which an inch of rain fell. Trees in some sections were toppled over, a house was struck by lightening in Adrian, and a Consumers Power Co., substation in that city also was struck, causing safety switches to be thrown. Telephone companies reported little difficulty due to the rain, but service to some rural area of the county was interrupted.

Two persons were killed in Detroit and Windsor during the storm. In Detroit, a man was electrocuted when he attempted to remove an electric wire that had fallen on his house. In Windsor, a youth was struck by lightning and killed.

US-112 Accident Is Fatal To Girl

MISS MARGARET WOJTOWICZ, CLINTON, KILLED, FOUR OTHERS ARE INJURED

Miss Margaret Wojtowicz, 18, of Route 1, Clinton, was fatally hurt and four others were injured, Sunday evening at 8:45 on US-112, about four miles west of Clinton, in the county's only serious traffic accident over the busy week end.

The mishap occurred on the crowded highway as Miss Wojtowicz and four of her companions were pushing a pickup truck along the road to a nearby gasoline station. The truck was rammed from the rear by a car driven by Harold E. Morrison, 24, a new member of the Clinton state police post. With the trooper was Miss Lucille V. Rossiter, 23, of Muskegon. The officer was driving his own car.

The Wojtowicz girl was dead upon admittance to Tecumseh hospital. Injured and taken to Tecumseh hospital were Neva Knavel, 15, fractured right leg, cuts and bruises; Alfreda Knavel, 11, fractured left hip and lacerations; Miss Rossiter, head bruises; Archie Deweese, head bruises. The Knavel girls and Deweese are all from Clinton, Route 1. Miss Rossiter and Deweese were treated at the hospital and then released. The Knavel girls were later transferred to University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

According to state police, the Knavel girls, Miss Wojowicz, Paul House and Lois Knavel were pushing the truck. Deweese was at the steering wheel. The battery was nearly dead. The trooper, approaching from the rear, did not see the truck because of a defective tail light and because of bright lights of on-coming traffic, until it was too late to avoid the collision. The dimly lighted tail light is believed to have been obstructed by the persons pushing the truck. Paul House and Lois Knavel leaped to safety before the crash.

Trooper Morrison made a statement to Prosecutor Rex Martin on Monday along with other witnesses. He said that he was unable to turn to avoid the crash because those pushing the truck scattered in all directions. The Wojtowicz girl was caught between the truck and the car.

Coroner Paul Mott, Adrian, is holding up a decision on an inquest until he is able to question the driver of a truck which was headed in the opposite direction at the scene of the wreck.

Funeral services were held for the crash victim Wednesday morning from St. Dominic's Catholic church, Clinton, with burial in the parish cemetery.

UNIFORMITY SPELLS SAFETY

No sympathy can be spared the automobile driver who, through carelessness or deliberate disregard of safety or traffic regulations, is involved in a fatal traffic accident. Yet consider the plight of the driver who innocently crashed his automobile into another one or ran down a pedestrian because he did not know the traffic regulations of the locality in which he was driving at the time.

This can easily happen. It does happen daily — especially during these months of tourist travel — because of the amazing lack of uniformity in traffic regulations throughout the nation. Differences in regulaions and traffic control devices make for confusion and misunderstanding which increase fatalities on our streets and highways. Tourists often don't know what to expect in arm signals, light dimming and other rules, with the result that they become involved in accidents or violations while acting in good faith.

Speed limits vary from state to state, a right-turn arm signal in one state means left turn in another, SLOW and STOP signs in one region look like route markers in the next. The unhappy motorist cannot be expected to memorize the varying rule books of 48 different states.

What, then, can be done to help the individual driver reduce highway accidents and save lives? An important and much needed step is concentrated effort to standarize traffic laws, so that we shall have greater uniformity and more consistent enforcement. We must bring order to our confused and variable systems of traffic regulation.

The time and effort expended by state and local legislative bodies in making their traffic control conform with that of other states would be well justified if even one of the many lives lost could be saved by such actions. The cost would be insignificant in comparison with two billion dollars in economc loss caused last year by traffic accidents.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Sam Helps with the Dishwashing

Dropped in at the Abernathy's just the other evening—and there was Sam, out in the kitchen with an apron on, helping his missus wash the supper dishes. (And then I learned later he'd helped cook the supper, too.)

Of course, Sam could have settled into his favorite chair, enjoyed his evening glass of beer, and left all the messy kitchenwork to Dixie. But he kind of likes her company—and she in turn certainly appreciates his help.

In fact, sharing the housework and the mealtime chores is sort of a bond between them . . . like sharing that friendly glass of beer together, when the work is done. It's one of those little all-important things in marriage.

From where I sit, the time that a man and wife can spend with each other in this busy world today is all too precious. And the more things they can do together, the better.

Legion Plans Own Newspaper

ALSO, WILL BUILD $650,000 HOSPITAL AT BATTLE CREEK WITH 400 BEDS

Erection of a $650,000 hospital and publication of a 100,000 circulation newspaper are major aims of the American Legion in Michigan this year, says Arthur H. Clark of South Haven, newly-elected state commander.

Since 1922 the Legion has operated a hospital near Battle Creek for the treatment of tuberculosis. It is now planned to modernize and enlarge the institution by replacing the present wooden buildings with a new 400-bed permanent structure.

"Our patient load has steadily increased since World War II and will continue on the up-grade for several years," says Judge Robert R. Wright of Ironwood, chairman of the Legion hospital board. "We will immediately institute a campaign to solicit contributions from all of the 100,000 Legionaires in Michigan and are confident that we will reach our $650,000 goal."

In order to finance an official newspaper the Legion has voted to assess each member 50 cents per year, Commander Clarke declares. A monthly publication will be issued and will be mailed directly to all Legionaires in the 540 posts throughout Michigan.

Principal purpose of the Legion paper will be to inform the entire membership of state-wide Legion projects and to increase interest in post and community programs.

In addition to the hospital and newspaper issues, the Michigan Legionaires have also voted to contribute $10,000 annually toward the support of all Legion bands, drum and bugle corps and drill teams.

ROCK-A-BYE BABY IN THE BACK SEAT . . . With her arms about her dog, Butch, Linda Henderson, seven years old, sleeps on the back seat of her mother's car. "Mommy left us here every night and came back and got us when the sun was up," Linda told Los Angeles, Calif., officials. The Hendersons lost their apartment, and the father stayed with a grandmother while Mrs. Henderson stayed with friends who had no place for the child.

HOWDY FOLKS: There are some very wonderful women who couldn't tell a lie of they tried — but they sure can tell a lie the minute it comes off their husband's tongue.

Friend: "Put why did you pick a wife who is so fat?"
Newlywed: "Because I figured it would be easier to live with 200 pounds of curves than with 100 pounds of nerves."

Mistress: "Did you mail my letter?"
Maid: "I sure did!"
Mistress: "Then why did you bring back the three cents?"
Maid: "I just slipped the letter in the box when no one was looking!"

But that maid was not any worse than the man who thinks he can slip by without greasing his car and changing oil regularly, just because no one comes to inspect it. The folks who come here regularly for oil and lubrication tell us that we add miles and miles to their driving pleasure.

Boys At Summer Camp Having A Good Time

Boys from Tecumseh who are spending their summer vacation at Camp North Woods near Pellston, Mich., are having a great time and enjoying themselves, according to James McDowell and David Dick members of the Tecumseh High School staff, who operate the camp.

About the Tecumseh youths, Mr. McDowell writes:

We have been open about two weeks and now and I know that some of the friends of the boys from Tecumseh who are here will be interested in what the boys are doing and so I am writing you some of the news.

Skipper O'Neil, Bruce McDowell and J. J. Walper are in a tent together as are Tommy Baldwin, Jackie Purcell, and a boy from Jackson by the name of Paul Eichenberg. Joe Williamson of Monroe, Doug McDowell, and a fellow from Detroit, Denny St. Dennis are in another tent. These boys are the only boys from Tecumseh in camp now. Tommy Baldwin has caught the biggest fish to date and J. J. Walper has made the best showing in riflery of all the new boys this year. Jackie Purcell has been a member of a winning sail boat crew. Joe and Doug have been working on their sailing requirements and both can now sail alone. Skipper has been busy fishing and has a pretty good record. He has also, with J. J. Walper, shown the greatest improvement in swimming for the whole camp. All of the boys went to Mackinaw City and Cheboygan for the 4th of July and are leaving tomorrow for Mackinac Island, Wilderness State Park and Cross Village.

Next week the boys are all taking an overnight canoe trip down the Jordon River into Lake Charlevoix. The boys have also played quite a bit of softball, basketball, shuffleboard and tennis. Joe, Doug, and Denny have passed their Junior Life Saving Requirements. More Tecumseh boys will be coming up here July 23rd, when the second period starts but we still have room for more.

County's Wage Rate 97.5c Hour

EMPLOYMENT OFF SLIGHTLY IN JUNE, DUE TO VACATIONS USES SAYS

The average entry wage rate at the 17 major industrial plants in Lenawee county was 97.5 cents per hour for men, and 86.75 cents for women, according to the monthly labor market report for June, issued this week by Clifford J. Rice, manager of the Michigan State Employment Service, Adrian. Increases above the entry wage rate are given in 30 days in most plants, and bonus or piece work rates which increase earnings are a policy at more than half of the plants.

Employment in seven of the county's 17 major plants increased by 210 between May 15 and mid-June, but losses amounting to 247 in the remaining 10 plants lowered the June 15 employment level to 8,710, or 37 below the May 15 figure. All of the net loss was among women workers. Employment of women dropped by 139 to a total of 7,099 in mid-June.

Job opportunities became fewer during the latter part of June as plants scheduled vacations and suffered minor contract cutbacks, Mr. Rice said. At the end of June, there were 120 job openings available, approximately 200 fewer than the recent monthly average. Graduates and school vacationists have augmented the labor supply, but most employers have few jobs available for workers under 18 years of age.

Claims for unemployment compensation and Servicemen's Readjustment Allowances increased irregularly during the past two months as a result of intermittent layoff's, Rice said. Total claims the first week in May amounted to 259 as compared to 313 the first week of June, and 234 the last week of May as compared to 320 the last week of June. Claims filed by women increased steadily during the two months, from 124 the first week of May to 171 the last week of June.

MORE HOMESTEADS FOR VETERANS . . . Opening of 43 irrigated farm units in the Minidoka area of southeastern Idaho for homesteading by World War II veterans has been announced by the bureau of reclamation. Photo shows two veterans who already have proved that such land can break all records for high-yielding crops. Veterans will receive two buildings without charge from the War Relocation authority evacuation camp in the area. This is not the first time that homestead land in the Pacific Northwest has been opened to veterans. Other land will be opened in the future. The demand for homestead land far exceeds those now available and veterans are advised to consult their local veteran organizations or veteran administration to be informed of any additional openings that might become available.

Curing Pork

Most curing recipes call for 3 pounds of salt to cry cure 100 pounds of trimmed pork cuts. That 3 pounds is really too much. It allows for carelessness. Less salt will do if you are careful to poke some into the shank, and pat most of the rest onto the lean skin-free surfaces of the cold meat. And then — be careful not to knock or rattle the salt off when you lay the meat away in a cold place. Six pounds of salt carefully applied will cure 100 pounds of hams and shoulders so that they will keep through the summer even when stored at home. For 100 pounds of bacon, 3 pounds of salt is enough to dry cure it. Bacon cured with only 3 pounds of salt per 100 slice and fry nappily with the eggs. Most curing mixtures also include sugar to improve the flavor. Saltpeter is added to set the red color in the lean. But salt is the chief preservative.

Clothes Dryers

New automatic clothes dryers are slightly over a yard high, a little less than a yard wide, and about 28 inches deep, and covered in porcelain enabiel. To clean the outside of the dryer, just wash with soap and water as you do your refrigerator and other enameled surfaces. To use the dryer, turn on the gas or electric heat and set the indicator for the length of time you want the dryer to run. The average load takes from 15 to 25 minutes). The cylinder inside rolls over and over, tumbling the clothes around, so that they dry fluffy and practically uncreased. Some articles such as turkish towels, washable rugs, flannels, and chenilles need little or no ironing.

Just to be mean, we ask you, what happened to those resolutions that you made as 1947 began?

Farm Work Tops In Danger

QUARTER OF ALL OCCUPATIONAL DEATHS RESULT FROM RURAL MISHAPS

Agriculturt is still among the most hazardous of all occupational pursuits," Dr. William DeKleine, state health commissioner, said today in supporting Farm Safety Week to be observed in Michigan the week of July 20-26.

Burns and explosions are among the most frequent and most fatal of farm accidents in the state. They take their toll of children left alone in a farm home, of housewives who try to make a quick fire with gasoline or kerosene, a farmer refueling his heated tractor or the man blasting stumps. Grass fires take lives in the state too, those of men who fight them.

Machinery causes a few less deaths than fires and explosives. The farm tractor takes more lives than any other item of farm machinery and a truck or automobile takes lives on the farm as well as on the highway.

The tractor is involved in almost one-third of farm machinery accidents and almost one-third of all tractor accidents are fatal. The tractors in most accidents overturn killing the driver. Each year adds to the toll of children killed on tractors, and each year some one cranks a tractor which is in gear.

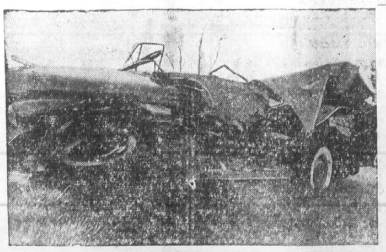
Other farm machinery which should wear a red bordered label include corn pickers, power saws, mowers, wagons, hay rakes and balers, and manure spreaders. A snapped whiffle tree and an ordinary cultivator each took a life last year.

Not only do haying season machinery cause accidental deaths, but the wagon and haymow take valuable farm lives through falls. Falls from a tractor vie with falls down haychutes and dilapidated stairways in number of farm lives taken.

Horses cause more than half the accidents related to farm animals and account for four-fifths of the deaths due o livestock.

Bulls account for one-fourth the farm livestock accidents and one-fifth of the deaths.

Fires, machinery, falls and animals account for about ninet-tenths of farm accidents. "Such accidents are preventable if simple precautions are used," Dr. DeKleine said. "Make a list of the hazards on your farm during Farm Safety Week and avoid or eliminate them."



The driver of this car was killed because he was driving "too fast for conditions." Rounding a curve on damp, slippery pavement, his machine skidded off the road and rolled over and over down the side of a steep embankment; finally came to rest right-side-up with the driver crushed in the wreckage. Stated speed limits apply only to average conditions, and a safe speed at ordinary times can be a very dangerous speed in bad weather. The law has a right to expect motorists to drive below stated speed limits when special conditions demand it.

FOR YOUR SAFETY

Every known facility for safe operation and control of an automobile is built into it. These safety features have been given gruelling tests, they have been proved and perfected by years of the finest engineering experience. But their maintenance and handling are up to you. Safe driving depends upon the efficient operation of these factors.

Watch your steering gear for excessive play—keep your brakes in trim, inspect tires for weaknesses that may result in blowouts. Be sure all lights are working, "one-eyed" cars are dangerous. Check your mirror for clear rear-vision. Be sure your horn works—but don't abuse its use. Do your windshield wipers wipe?

Remember, no matter how good the safety features of your car—they are only as good as your ability to control them. If you are overtired from driving strain—stop, rest, drink a cup of coffee. If you are mentally or nervously upset, let someone else drive. If you've been drinking, stay off the road.

WHY long distance lines are so busy

Long distance telephones are carrying a heavier traffic load today than even in wartime. Business men in search of merchandise, manufacturers and builders in need of new equipment, naturally use the telephone as the quickest way to reach suppliers. Our long distance lines are still overloaded, so telephone "traffic jams" occur. If you have a few minutes' wait when calling long distance, please be patient. Today, as always, telephones carry a lot of important business.

"You're wrong about the servants. I live in a 6-room house, and balance a budget!"

But, Madam, you have servants to help you in every room! And you pay them very little, indeed. You have a servant to assist with your laundry. Another to help cook your meals. A third to protect your food. A fourth to clean. More to heat and light your home, and entertain you when you're bored. You have electrical servants, Madam—the most willing and dependable servants in the world!"

"Of course, I have electricity but I never thought—"

"This army of domestic help costs you less than a bottle of milk a day! So you see electric service is not only high in efficiency, it's low in cost! Twenty years ago the average family got only half as much electric service for the money as it gets today. And think how many more jobs electricity does around the house in 1947! Yes, Madam, yours is a very good fortune, indeed!"

Repair Work Costs Less When Replacement Parts Fit

It takes less time to repair your Ford car or truck — and consequently your labor cost is less — when worn and broken parts are replaced with parts that are built for your car.

In our garage we use nothing but genuine FORD precision built parts. They are made to fit your car or your truck. Worn or broken parts are removed and the new ones slide into place quickly and accurately.

That is another of the reasons why we say that you should BRING YOUR FORD HOME FOR SERVICE. It's to your advantage because, with parts that fit, and tools that were made to do the work, you profit through reduced labor costs.

NINETY SEVENTH YEAR NUMBER THIRTY-FIVE | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, JULY 24, 1947 | FIVE CENTS PER COPY

Sound Color Movie To Depict Six Years Of Wheat Tithing

The "Sabbatical Year of Rest" following Perry Hayden's world-famous six-year Biblical Wheat Demonstration will end Saturday, August 2. From 1940 to 1946 the local miller, encouraged and assisted by the late Henry Ford, and hundreds of neighboring farmers, conducted one of the most spectacular tithing demonstrations in history. The seventh year, as enjoined by the word of God, he "rested the land."

The second phrase of the phenomenal demonstration will be launched Saturday night, August 2nd, at the Adrian Fair Grounds, with the premiere showing of a sound, and full color movie, depicting the six years of sowing, harvesting and tithing. It is appropriately entitled, "God is My Landlord." The public is invited to attend the free program.

The second six-year program will carry the inspiration and lesson of the demonstration around the world. A book by the same name, dedicated to the "Memory of Henry Ford" and written by Raymond J. Jeffreys of Columbus, Ohio, will be released at the Adrian celebration.

It was in September of 1940 that Mr. Hayden heard a sermon in the local Quaker Church, preached by Clifton J. Robinson, of Newport News, Virginia, then a student at Cleveland (Ohio) Bible College. Robinson's text was John 12:24—"Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone, but if it dies, it bringeth forth much fruit." It was wheat planting time in Michigan. Hayden decided to plant a cubic inch of wheat, pay a tithe of the harvest to his church, replant the nine tenths, and continue this for six years. He wanted to demonstrate in a visible way the principles of rebirth, tithing and of the sabbath. As directed in Leviticus 25: 3, and 4, he planned to "rest the land" the seventh year.

As promised in Malachi 3:10, Hayden's harvess were abundant. He had a "fifty-fold increase the first year, and "fifty-five" fold increase the second. The third harvest reached 16 bushels, the fourth jumped to 280 bushels, the fifth in 1945 amazed the world by reaching 5,555 bushels. The sixth and final spectacular harvest was 72,150 bushels,—all from a cubic inch of wheat planted six years earlier, and faithfully tithed each year. If the project were continued for four more years it would require all the land in the United States. In seven more years, or a total of thirteen years, it would cover the entire globe with wheat.

Henry Ford, who believed that "tithing would ease many of the world's problems" furnished land, labor and equipment for the first five years. The sixh year was so large that it required 2,666 acres. This was furnished by 276 farmers from five states, and representing thirty different faiths and creeds. The total value of the 1946 crop was nearly $150,000. A large portion of the tithe was sent overseas and distribued for Famine Relief by the American Friends Service Committee.

"God is My Landlord" to be shown on the anniversary of the closing of the first six-year phrase of the project, portrays all the colorful harvests, events and pageants, as well as some of the tribulations of the famous six-year demonstration. Ralph Comfort, of Tecumseh, assisted by seven photographers, took the pictures throughout the past seven years. They were compiled, edited, and built into the gorgeous movie, by a Chicago firm.

In addition to Henry Ford,—others who appear in the picture, and by word or presence advocate tithing, are Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, Ace of World War I; Dr. Walter A. Maier and Wm. H. Danforth, of St. Louis, Mo.; James L. Kraft of Chicago, Ill.; R. G. LeTourneau of Longview, Texas; Kenneth Keys of Miami, Florida; Mrs. Charles Cowman of Los Angeles, Calif.; David Petty of Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Emma Clarissa Clement of Louisville, Ky; Millard Pryor of Mansfield, Ohio; Rev. Clifton Robinson of Bundlekton, Central India; Governor Kim Sigler of Lansing, Michigan; Mayor Jeffries of Detroit, Michigan Gil Dodds, of Wheaton, Ill.; Chas. Fry of Morenci, Michigan; C. D. Finkbeiner of Saline, Michigan; Floyd Jacob of Manchester, Michigan and many other celebrities.

Hayden says that instead of planting the wheat the next six years he intends to sow the seed of tithing in the hearts and minds of people of all creeds and beliefs throughout the world. This will be stimulated, he says, by the showing of the film and distribution of the book, "God is My Landlord." He has already told the story of his "Dynamic Kernels" Tithing Wheat to hundreds of gatherings throughout the United Statesa, Canada and Mexico. The enhusiastic response by the people of these three countries has encouraged Hayden to devote the major part of his time in the coming year to travelin gand speaking on tithing.

To Attend Premiere

Dr. George W. Crane, noted psychologist, of Chicago, who named Perry Hayden's book and movie, "God Is My Landlord," will attend the world premiere of the movie at the Adrian Fair Grounds, Saturday evening, August 2. Dr. Crane's syndicated column "The Worry Clinic" is printed daily in 150 newspapers, going into 10,000,000 homes. Additional thousands hear him broadcast daily over Chicago's radio station WGN.

Play Program Interest Keen

SWIMMING CONTINUES AS MOST POPULAR SPORT ON RECREATION SCHEDULE

Despite the cool weather of the past week, an increase in the enrollment of swimming classes has made necessary the addition of another new division in the summer supervised play program under the direction of Paul Johnson at Recreation Center. Effective on Monday, Mr. Johnson has announced that two classes of beginner swimmers will meet on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and two classes of intermediate swimmers will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays. This will enable the instructor Miss Dorothy Bowen, to give more individual assistance to beginners than has been possible heretofore.

The arts and crafts class which is meeting in the Episcopal recreation building each morning at 9 o'clock also continues to be a favorite. A number of Girl Scouts have started work which will apply on achievement badges.

A gradual increase in attendance at the adult archery class is evidence that both men and women of Tecumseh are finding this an interesting sport. W. D. Hite, instructor, says that attendance has been running between 10 and 20 at each class. Any adults interested, and who have not already enrolled in a class, are urged to do so. All equipment is provided for those who do not have it of their own.

2:30 p.m., Monday, boys' singles horseshoes.

10 a.m., Tuesday, boys' doubles tennis.

2:30 p.m., Tuesday, girls' ping pong.

Tecumseh's Birth Rate Nearly One Each Day

During the first six months and twenty-one days of this year, 198 babies were born in the Village of Tecumseh, according to records at the office of Wade L. Jones, village clerk. Deaths during the same period, the records show, numbered 42.

"Monday, July 21, was the 209th day of the year, so we lacked only 11 babies to bring Tecumseh's average to one a day for the year," Mr. Jones pointed out. He believes that the 198 figure sets a record for the village.

TOUBORG RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT; LAST WEEK'S ELECTION RETURNS CANVASSED

Jens Touborg was re-elected president of the Tecumseh board of education at a meeting of the trustees, held in the high school offices, last Thursday evening. Jerry Spafford was named vice-president, Dr. Ralph Helzerman, secretary, and Perry C. Satterthwaite, treasurer. Mr. Paul Breitenwischer is the only new member of the board, having been elected at last week's balloting. Mr. Touborg was re-elected.

The board, following election, canvassed the vote of July 14 and declared the returns as official as reported in last Thursday's issue of The Herald. The United Savings Bank of Tecumseh was named as the official depository for school district funds.

The trustees listened to a report from engineers on the need for a new temperature control system in the high school building. The cost of such an improvement would be about $2,600. A new water boiler in the high school building was ordered installed. The resignaton of Paul Johnson, elementary school principal, was accepted. Mr. Johnson has accepted a position in the Plymouth schools.

Current bills amounting to $2,653.45 were audited and ordered paid.

OFFICIAL PRESENTATION IS MADE BY ROTARY TO VILLAGE COUNCIL, TUESDAY

The Village of Tecumseh officially accepted the gift of new street signs for this community from the Rotary Club, when that organization met, Tuesday evening, at Brees House. The presenatation was made by John R. Zeigler, president of the club, and Geo. H. Adamson, chairman of the club's committee sponsoring the project. Acceptance was by John C. Truesdale, village president. Members of the council were guests of the club at its regular dinner meeting.

The new signs were purchased by the club several months ago but it was only recently that steel posts on which to place the signs arrived. The posts are being erected as rapidly as possible, and all of the signs should be in place within a month. Following the presentaion, the club members and members of the council adjourned to the corner of Chicago boulevard and Evans street, where a picture of the group, under the new sign marking that intersection, was taken by Lester Coller.

The club received a letter of congratulation from the Tecumseh Exchange Club, signed by its president, Ellsworth Collins, on the erection of the new signs.

Joseph Satterthwaite, first secretary in the diplomatic service in the United States Department, a Tecumseh resident home on vacation from Washington, was the speaker at Tuesday's meeting. Mr. Satterthwaite told interesting highlights on his trip to Nepal, an independent state between India and Tibet, with which the U. S. recently established relations. Mr. Satterthwaite, in a minister's capacity, made the trip which took fvie weeks. He told something of the country and of its people and, incidentally, of a one-day tiger hunt in which he participated. His talk was very interesting.

MIDGET AUTO RACES ATTRACT CROWD OF 3500

Adrian—A capacity crowd, far surpassing the opening night attendance two weeks ago, saw 30 midget auto racers spin around the fifth mile oval at the Lenawee Fair grounds, Tuesday night. An estimated 3,500 persons were in the stands as the time trials got underway at 7 p. m.

Speed and thrills were the order of the evening as the improved track and lighting facilities assisted the drivers to put on a good show. A large, white canvas backdrop was placed around the entire back stretch of the track, adding to the track visibility. The curves were well banked and a covering of water mixed with chlorine and placed on the track prior to the races, kept the dust down.

The races, which will be offered every Tuesday night, will be attended by some of the countries outstanding drivers next week.

State Police Seek Recruits

Corp. Carl Miller, commander of the Clinton post of the Michigan State Police, will be at the post from 8:00 a.m., to 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, July 30, for the purpose of interviewing young men who may be interested in joining the department.

The State Police are presently conducting a recruiting program to bring the force up to pre-war strength. Through the cooperation of the State Civil Service Commission, preliminary qualifying examinations are now being conducted each time a sufficient number of applications have accumulated, eliminating previous delays when examinations were held on a periodic basis.

"The State Police organization offers a fine opportunity for young men interested in a career service," said Corp. Carl Miller. "In addition to employment security, paid vacations, sick leave and a pension after so many years of service, the work is interesting and varied. Promotions are made on a merit basis. I might also point out that there is a pride in belonging to one of the finest organizations of its kind in the country."

While war service is not a requirement, most recruits now are world war veterans who are finding that service in the State Police has advantages of especial interest to them.

Minimum requirements are that an applicant must be between the ages of 21 and 30, unmarried, in good health and not less than five feet, 10 inches in height.

Applicants may call at the post at any time to obtain information about the department, Corp. Carl Miller said, but July 30 has been set aside as a special day when he will be on duty to talk with those interested.

Application blanks may be obtained at the post, or by writing the State Civil Service Commission or the Michigan State Police headquarters in Lansing.

C. of C. Group Is Optimistic

PLEDGE SOLICITATION COMMITTEE IS MEETING WITH SUCCESS, BUTLER SAYS

The civic committee soliciting funds for the organization of a Chamber of Commerce here is meeting with genuine success and C. O. Butler, chairman of the group, declared today that an optimistic report would be submitted to the group when it holds its regular meeting, Friday evening.

"Our committee, the one that was appointed by the presidents of Rotary and Exchange clubs, Town Hall and the Junior Chamber of Commerce, is now functioning," Mr. Butler said. "This week we are calling on the prospective donors to the Chamber. I am happy to report that thus far we have not had a single 'no' from anyone solicited, and in some instances we have received larger contributions than we anticipated.

"I believe that business and industry in Tecumseh realizes that this community needs a Chamber of Commerce if it is to progress, and I am happy to report that everyone we have thus far contacted is willing to put money and effort into its organizaton."

The main committee, Butler said, is contacting principally industry and the larger retail stores. He indicated that sub-committees would be named, probably at the meeting on Friday, to aid the original committee with its work.

"It is a big job to solicit from everybody, and we must do just that if we are to succeed," the chairman said. "For that reason we must have some help in this work, and I trust that we will receive the same fine coopration from those named, that we have had in the past."

The decision to organize a chamber came two weeks ago following a civic banquet at the high school, addressed by Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., and W. C. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce. It was decided at that meeting that a full-time secreary should be hired, and that a budget of between $10,000 and $12,000 annually be set up. Mr. Herrick said that his company and associated would give $3,800 annually, plus an initial gift of $4,000 when the Chamber was organized and a secretary hired.

One of the principal functions of the Chamber will be to stimulate the building of more houses here, making it possible for men now employed in Tecumseh to live here. At the present time only about 800 of the 2,100 employed at the Products reside in Tecumseh. It is estimated that far more than half of the company's annual $6,500,000 payroll does not stay in the community. Merchants, of course, are interested in the program in an effort to increase their business which, it is believed, could be doubled if employees working here could live here.

Driver of the car in the ditch failed to yield the right-of-way, even to an ambulance. He ran through a plainly visible stop sign, directly into the path of the ambulance, and was knocked across the road. Driver was killed, and a passenger was injured. Emergency vehicles always have the right-of-way—but at other times, too, it pays to be courteous at intersections. Failure to grant right-of-way ranked second as a cause of motor vehicle deaths in 1946. National Conservation Bureau advises: when in doubt, always yield the right-of-way.

THE EDUCATOR AND SAFETY

No one is in a better position to render the youth of this nation a great and humanitarian service than is the educator planning driving education in the high school. The need and value in driver training lies squarely in the fact that traffic accidents are not the result of some inevitable fate, but are caused by human failure.

Youth is inherently disrespectful of danger. This is not a weakness, but is a typical trait of the human being, particularly so of young Americans because of the freedoms they enjoy. Unfortunately, however, they too often dissipate their reckless, adventurous spirit through the operation of motor vehicles at high rates of speed and in taking chances with safety.

Traffic accident experience has proved that young drivers, 16 to 20 years of age, are involved in five times as many fatal accidents as are drivers in the 45-60 age group. These facts are indicative of an alarming situation which carries a clear-cut challenge to the high schools of the nation.

To offset our tragic annual loss in lives and property in traffic, we strongly urge acceptance of the principle, based upon the considered opinion of those with long years of experience in accident prevention, that the most effective medium for achievement of a permanent reduction of traffic accidents lies in teaching high school boys and girls the intelligent and safe use of the automobile. The formative years of youth present the greatest opportunity for development of proper driver attitudes and manipulative skills.

A learned educator has stated: "The chief function of the high school is to teach our young peple to do better those desirable things which they are going to do anyway." Driving is not only a desirable activity, but a necessary one in economic life.

"Not Responsible For Wife's Debts"

A young man came rushing into the Clarion office the other day and wanted me to print an ad—"right quick"—saying he won't be responsible for his wife's debts from now on, as he's leaving her for good immediately.

I allowed as how the forms were all closed up, and it was too late to take his ad. He says: "All right, Monday then"—and we agreed on Monday.

Of course, the forms weren't closed. But I had kind of an inkling of what might happen. Then Sunday he phones me, and says, kind of sheepishly: "You can forget that ad. Me and the missus have everything all patched up. And we're having a friendly glass of beer, right now."

From where I sit, if you give folks time enough to think things over, those hasty quarrels that come so often from misunderstanding will give way to tolerance and common sense.

As the traditional wedding march was being played the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father and was very attractive in a floor length white marquisette wedding dress and her finger tip veil fell from a tiny Juliet cap of white beads and sequins. She carried a shower bouquet of white gladiolus and carnations and her ony jewelry was a gold cross, a gift of the bridegroom.

The altar was decorated with pink and white gladiolus in large white hampers and the complete floral arrangement was done by the Glaser Floral company.

The maid of honor, Miss Norma Opel, sister of the groom wore a yellow net over satin floor length gown and carried yelow carnations and blue cornflowers. She wore a halo of the same flowers in her hair. Her bridesmaids were both cousins of the bride. Miss Mary Ann Mitchell wore aqua and carried pink gladiolus and Miss Betty Mitchell wore pink net over satin and carried pink gladiolus and blue corn flowers. Each wore net headdresses to match their gowns.

Mr. Opel was attended by his cousin, Ken Opel of Tipton and the ushers were both brothers of the groom, Carl and Earl Opel.

Immediately following the ceremony a supper was served to the bridal pary and the immediate families of the bride and groom in the home of the bride's parents. A reception was held for 100 guests in the home at eight in the evening.

The bride graduated from Adrian high school in 1947. The groom received his discharge from the Army last October after serving 18 months in the West and Japan.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Tipton where they have an apartment.

Miss Faith M. Nichols Weds Lawrence E. Cote

The St. Elizabeth's Catholic church here was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Faith Maureen Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Nichols of Tecumseh became the brie of Lawrence Eugene Cote, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Cote of Route 3, Adrian.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and red roses. The nuptial high mass was sung by the Misses Marjory Thompson, Mary Ellen Carey, Marie Beaubien, Martha Mudgett, and Alva Lerch. Mrs. Louis Collins, aunt of the bridegroom, sang "Canis Angelicus." The Rev. Fr. Michael Collins performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of nylon marquisette fashioned with long sleeves extending to points over the hands. The full gathered skirt fell from a long waistline, the shirred bodice styled with a round neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of orange blossoms.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Duaine Hunt, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Marvin Wegner, bridesmaid, and Margaret May Cote, flower girl, wore identical gowns of white eyelet pique with hats and short mitts of the same materials. They carried bouquets of red carnations tied in white. David Henning was the ring bearer.

The best man was Cletus Nichols, brother of the bride, and the guests were seated by Leonard and Robert Cote, brothers of the groom and Gladwin Henning.

A reception was held in the West Adrian Grange hall for 200 guests. The bridal table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom. Mrs. Leo Beaubian prepared the refreshments.

The couple left on a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada and on their return will reside in Tecumseh. The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's high school in Adrian and is employed in the office of the Philco Corporation. Mr. Cote attended St. Ann's high school in St. Ann, Ill., and is employed by the Gerity-Michigan Die Casting Company. He spent three years in the Navy in the Pacific area.

Time Is Precious, And So Is Life

Did you have eggs for breakfast? Lots of people do — eggs taste good, they're good for you, and besides, they're quickly prepared when you're late for work and time is precious . . .

Lives are precious, too. In the three minutes or so while your breakfast eggs were boiling, at least two pedestrians were killed or injured somewhere on the nation's highways — or maybe in your community. While you were eating, another ten or more met with disaster.

Chances are 3 to 1 those victims were in a hurry — they took the short way across the middle of the block, instead of the safe way at the crosswalk. They stepped out suddenly from behind a parked car, instead of looking both ways to see if the road was clear, or waiting until the traffic light turned green.

National Conservation Bureau safety specialists report that impatience is the nation's Number One highway killer. Time is precious — sure! But not enough to pay for it with a life.

PRESBYTERIAN LEAGUE

The Presbyterian League will meet Tuesday evening at the Ousterhout cottage at Wamplers Lake for a potluck supper at 6:30. Betty Stevens is in charge of transportation.

Miss Phoebe Covell Weds Robert Grieshaber

A wedding of impressive simplicity took place at the North Blissfield Lutheran church when Miss Phoebe Covell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Covell, became the bride of Robert Grieshaber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grieshaber of Adrian, at 2 o'clock Saturday, July 19. The single ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. William Weinlander.

Mrs. Willard Drefke played a program of nuptial music on the organ and accompanied her sister, Arlene Weinlander who sang, "I Love You Truly", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of gold brocaded ivory faille and her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of silver beads and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and feverfew and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of her grandmother.

The bride's sister, Nadine Covell was maid of honor and wore pale blue net over faille. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white daisies with matching flowers in her hair.

The bride's mother wore a blue gabardine dress with a corsage of American Beauty roses and Mrs. Grieshaber was attired in a black and white two-piece dress with a corsage of Talisman roses.

The ceremony was followed by a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fenner for the immediate families of the couple. A reception was held later in the same home and was attended by relatives and friends from Adrian, Tecumseh, Dundee, Britton, Milan, Willis and Oakville.

The bride attended Tecumseh high school and the groom served two years in the U. S. Army. He is now employed at the Tecumseh Products Company. The couple will reside north-east of Britton.

There's FUTURE IN FERTILITY

Proper use of fertilizer on your farm may help you reach new levels of crop production. Even on so-called "rich land" a "balanced diet" can produce surprising results.

Yes, fertilizing pays, but merely applying fertilizer is not enough. Improper application is a waste of money . . . can even do more harm than good. Experience has shown that small amounts of fertilizer properly placed produce greater gains than large amounts poorly placed.

Study the three methods shown here. Use all three for maximum results . . . eliminate extra operation. Stop in and talk to us about modern equipment for improving your soil and increasing your profits.

THREE METHODS . . . SAME INTERCHANGEABLE HOPPERS

1. PLANTING — Fertilize while you plant. Greatest return from small amount of fertilizer. Stimulates early growth. Young crops grow faster than weeds — mature earlier.
2. PLOW-SOLE — Fertilize while you plow. Makes plant food available to deep growing roots and sub-surface moisture. Produces impressive yields. Heavy applications possible without danger to plants. Can be applied fall or spring.
3. SIDE DRESSING — Fertilize while you cultivate. Provides plant food when greatly needed. Requires half as much fertilizer as when broadcast or disced in. Convenient method for applying heavy applications on thin [illegible]

"The Church is not a refrigerator for preserving perishable piety. It is a dynamo for charging human wills with power. The object of the Church is not to tell men how to dodge difficulties, but to furnish strength and courage to meet them. The business of the Church is not to furnish hammocks for the lazy, it is rather to offer well-fitting yokes to drawing life's loads. The man who does not attend any Church practically votes to do away with all Churches."

DEATH

RIDES WITH THE RECKLESS

One-fourth of all fatal accidents on the highways of our country and in the streets of our cities and towns are caused by speed. Reckless drivers—disregarding all the laws of traffic safety and common sense, urging onward automobiles catapulted by the power of a hundred horses—these were the prime killers in 1946.

Last year 33,500 persons—drivers, riders and pedestrians—died in automobile accidents. That's about one death every fifteen minutes. More than a million were injured, many of them maimed or crippled for life. This year the toll will be even greater, approaching an all-time high of 40,000 deaths—unless you, Mr. and Mrs. Driver, call off this daily rendezvous with Death.

You can do your part to help stop this highway slaughter by personally striving for an accident-free record. Drive carefully at all times. Be considerate of other drivers and pedestrians. Gauge your speed to highway conditions and traffic requirements.

Don't let Death hang over your shoulder and point the way to the morgue. Drive safely—and live!

Your secretary is pleased to present at this time the following statement taken from the report of the auditor, Mr. Edward C. Boss, C. P. A., who was employed by the Board of Education to audit the school books and records.

"We have examined the books and records of your school district for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947 and submit the following herewith:

Statement of Receipts and Disbursements for Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 1947.

Recapitulation of Extra Curricula Receipts and Disbursements.

In connection with the audit, we have reviewed the system of internal control and accounting procedures, and without making an audit of each transaction have examined or tested accounting records and supporting data to the extent necessary to satisfy us that errors of magnitude have not occurred. Recommendations were made personally by us to facilitate the handling of new transactions occurring on the books during the past fiscal year.

All recorded cash receipts were traced to the bank account, and cash balance reconciled with the local bank concerned.

Sufficient insurance is carried to fully cover the property of the district. The Treasurer is under the usual $10,000.00 bond.

During the past school year the sum of $11,261.05 has been collected in the extra curricular activities of the school, and of this amount $10,798.46 was expended. These receipts, and disbursements were checked in detail, reconciled with the bank and found to be in order.

The books of the district are very well kept, and any information desired is readily obtainable.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward C. Boss"

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT OF THE VILLAGE OF TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

The Honorable President and Trustees
Tecumseh, Michigan

Pursuant to engagement, I have audited the books of accounts and records of the Village of Tecumseh and the Tecumseh Cemetery Association for the period beginning February 21, 1946 and ended February 20, 1947.

I reviewed the system of internal control and procedure of the Village of Tecumseh and Cemetery Association without detailed audit of all transactions, but tested supporting evidence of receipts and disbursements to an extent that proved adequate.

Securities in Perpetual Care Fund were examined and verified. Securities are shown on inventory at cost or face value.

The attached Condensed Statement of Receipts and Disbursements of the Village of Tecumseh and Cemetery Association present a correct result of transactions for the period under review and are in agreement with detailed audit report submitted to the President and Trustees, a copy of which is also on file at the Vilage Clerk's office.

Clyde A. Barber,

PLEASANT SURPRISE

Welborn, Kansas — Hearing that Glenn Masterson, 11, had fallen into a pond twenty volunteer firemen sped to his father's farm with resuscitating equipment. The pond, nine feet deep, balked rescue efforts by wading, so the men made a hole in the dam to drain the pool. As the water flowed out, Glenn, came trudging down the road, surprised that they were looking for him.

"SPEEDY" by BUTLER Motor Sales

Ford Parts and Equipment
Reduce Repair Costs

It's very true, repairs to a Ford car or truck can be made in much less time when GENUINE FORD PARTS and proper Ford equipment are used to make them.

We use GENUINE Ford parts because they are precision built and they FIT without adopting them to your car. We use Ford-suggested tools to do the work because they, too, fit and speed up the operation.

Therefore, we say to our customers that it is less expensive to repair Fords with Ford parts and Ford tools. It's less expensive because the work can be done in a shorter time.

And finally: That's why we say, "Bring your Ford Home For Service." In Tecumseh, that's our garage.

Success Seen For New C of C

COOPERATION OF ALL BUSINESS, HOWEVER, IS NEEDED, CHAIRMAN SAYS

Although the forecast financial success in the formation of a new Chamber of Commerce here, Chas. O. Butler, chairman of the committee now working to effect such an organization here, warned today that "all business, big and little" must take an active part in the program if it is to succeed for the community generally.

There's more to a Chamber of Commerce than raising money to make the wheels go 'round," Mr. Butler said. "It is true, we have solicited many of the so-called large donors, and as yet we have not had a single turn-down. However, if a Chamber is to be successful in Tecumseh, everybody, big and little, must be interested financially and morally. A Chamber is a community project. It is not for big business, it is for all business, large and small and, too, it is for the man or woman who owns property and who is interested in seeing the community go forward.

"Thus far, we have had time only to solicit from the larger givers. They are for it. We are just now beginning to solicit the so-called smaller businesses and I am happy to say that we are meeting success in this group, too. I can see no reason why we cannot have a functioning Chamber here in the early fall, if the financial support continues from all groups."

The committee to organize a Chamber was named following a civic meeting here three weeks ago and addressed by R. W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., and W. C. Otto, secretary-manager of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Herrick pointed out that Tecumseh needs such an organization if it is to keep pace with its rapidly expanding industry. He declared that more than half of Products' $6,500,000 payroll now is going ouside of Tecumseh because only about 800 of its 2,100 employees live here. Homes, he said, are the things most needed in Tecumseh if the money its factories pay to employees is to remain here. He sparked the movement for the Chamber by declaring that his company and its associates would pay $3,800 annually into such an organization, plus a gift of $4,000 when the organization was effected.

Special committees named to assist the general committee in speeding up the solicitation work have been announced as follows:

Individuals: W. H. Wehr, John Saling, Rev. Allan Ramsay, Rev. B. O. Bashore, A. W. Porter, Al Musch and Percy Bowen.

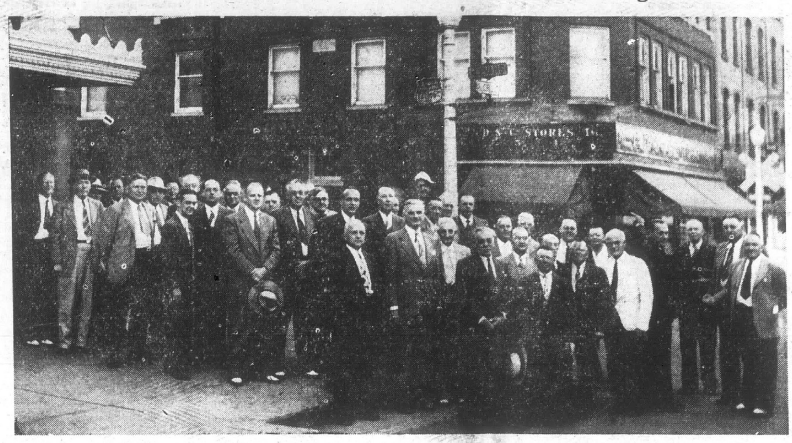
"The men who are working on the committee to organize the Chamber here are giving their time and their effort to make it a reality, and I trust that when business men and women are approached by members of the group they will understand the mission and be prepared to lend their assistance," Butler said. "We know that some folks can give more than others, but we also know that everyone can help. As I pointed out earlier," he concluded, "the Chamber of Commerce we hope to form here is for everybody, and we want everybody to have an interest in it."

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT BLISSFIELD, ANNOUNCED

The Blissfield American Legion has engaged "The Red Hair" singers and entertainers who are well-known in Northwest Ohio for their home-spun harmony, and "The Kibitzers" another Old-Time Feature troupe — both are of Adrian Radio Station WABJ fame and will have afternoon and evening performances at Blissfield's Harvest Festival on August 14th.

There will be a pet parade and prizes will be awarded to the best-dressed and most novel entries for both boys and girls under 15— anyone can enter.

When Rotarians Presented New Street Signs



Lester Coller, local photographer, caught members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club in the act of presenting Tecumseh's new street signs to the village, following the club's dinner meeting, last week Tuesday evening at Brees House. Members of the village council were guests of the club at the meeting, and later the assembly adjourned to the intersection of Chicago Boulevard and Evans street, where the official presentation was made.

The new signs, which rapidly are being put in place, were purchased by the club and presented to the community as a bit of club service. The fact that steel pipe on which to mount the signs has been difficult to obtain has delayed the progress of the work.

Polio Victim Is Recovering

SECOND CASE OF INFANTILE HERE BRINGS WARNING FROM HEALTH OFFICER

The second case of poliomyelitis here this summer — the victim is now recovering in University Hospital, Ann Arbor — brought a warning from Dr. H. C. Huntley, county health officer, to residents to take special precautions in killing insects, especially flies, and guarding against contaminated food and water.

The latest victim of the disease is Ann Cameron, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cameron of the Cameron Drug Co. She became ill last week and was removed to University Hospital, where diagnosis was made. There is no paralysis, and her illness is not believed serious. It is expected that she will be able to return to her home the latter part of this week.

Tecumseh's first case of polio, reported earlier in the summer, was that of Gary Hall, five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall. Gary spent some time in the Ann Arbor hospital and is now at home, fully recovered. There is no paralysis.

Dr. Huntley said that it is believed that polio is spread much in the manner as is typhoid fever—by flies and insects, and through contaminated food and water. He urged that residents here take special care to kill flies and insects.

Polio, the doctor said, is easily diagnosed by the physician within 24 hours after the illness strikes. The symptoms generally, he said, are fever, headache, vomiting and stiffness in the neck or back.

Dr. Huntley said that Tecumseh's two cases of infantile are the only ones reported thus far in Lenawee county this year.

Local Horses Hold Record In Shows In This Area

Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. Irelan entered two registered Quarter horses in the Saginaw Charity Horse Show held at the fair grounds in Saginaw Saturday evening and Sunday July 26 and 27. The horses were Coyote and Blue Barnes. Saturday, Coyote and Blue Barnes, mounted by Mr. and Mrs. Irelan, won first in the Best Matched Pair class. Mrs. Irelan on Coyote won second in the Woman's Western Class. On Sunday, Blue Barnes, ridden by Mr. Irelan, took first in the Working Stock Horse Class and Coyote, mounted by Mrs. Irelan, won second in the same class. MILK INDUSTRY IS DISCUSSED AT ROTARY

The history of the milk industry, the care that is used by dairy companies to protect their customers for purity, and other interesting phases of the business were discussed by Clarence Gilman, owner of Tecumseh Dairy, when he talked to members of the Rotary Club, following dinner at Brees House, Tuesday evening.

Milk, Mr. Gilman pointed out, is the most valuable food known to science. He warned that consumers should not allow milk to stand on porches for long periods after it has been delivered, if they would not destroy its fine flavor.

Mr. Gilman's talk was the first in a series of vocational talks planned by the club's program committee.

Pasteurization Of Milk Is Law

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH BELIEVES REGULATION WILL HALT DISEASE SPREAD

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

Lansing—Here's another "first" for Michigan.

Tourists coming to Northern Michigan need have no fear about dangers of untreated milk. Effective July 1, 1848, all milk offered for sale in Michigan, excepting that purchased direct at farms, must be pasteurized.

Since January 1 of this year, 152 cases of undulant fever have been reported in Michigan. While not all of these cases were traceable to milk many of them were so. Twelve years ago 106 cases of typhoid fever were the result of one typhoid "carrier", an employee who worked in an Ann Arbor dairy plant.

Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the division of disease control, state department of health, believes that the Michigan law will prevent the reoccurrence of any large scale outbreak of milk-borne disease in the state. As such, it should safeguard the health of thousands of visitors from other states who come to Michigan each summer for their vacations.

Dr. Leeder points out that two outbreaks of polio have been traced to untreated milk. This fact is attested by health authorities. Other milk-borne diseases include scarlet fever, strep sore throat, diptheria and bovine tuberculosis.

When you visit eating places in Northern Michigan, you will probably notice a sign on the wall saying that "only pasteurized milk and milk products are served here." The signs were distributed recently by the state department of agriculture.

The 1947 legislation illustrates again the power of women. Consumer groups, headed by Mrs. L. E. Mills, past president of the Michigan division, American Association of University Women, started the ball rolling. The movement reached band-wagon popularity and was supported by the Michigan Milk Dealers Association and the Michigan Milk Producers association, just to mention a few.

Despite determined and organized opposition, the consumer groups fought the bill through to a successful vote of 27 to 6 in the Senate and 58 to 22 in the House.

The bill, as amended in the House provides for referendum vote to remove a city from the provisions on petition of 10 per cent of the qualified voters. The law does not forbid the sale of raw milk at farms.

Midget Auto Races Attract Large Crowd

Adrian, July 31—Another capacity crowd of 3,500 enthusiastic midget racing fans crowded the grandstands at the Lenawee fairgrounds Tuesday night to see the fast little Offenhauser specials clip off time around the fifth mile oval. The nation's fifth most popular sport continued to thrill Lenawee fans as George Witzman of Detroit sped around the 20 lap main event in a time of five minutes and thirty-five seconds to walk off with first place money.

Witzman was top man throughout the nine event program. He won the second qualifying event and took a second and a third in other races. His time of two minutes and 12 seconds in the eight lap second event was a new record. There were two other event marks chalked up as the speedsters began to learn the curves and straightaways. Rabbit Musick of Dallas, Texas, ran the four lap opening race in 1:06.51 while Wayne Wynn of Marion, Ohio, roared around the track ten times in a time of 2:47.99 in the seventh event.

County School Heads To Elect

WILL NAME LENAWEE BOARD OF EDUCATION AT MEETING IN ADRIAN, MONDAY

A meeting of school board directors of the primary districts, secretaries of the graded, township and rural agricultural schools, and presidents of all other districts in Lenawee county will meet at the court house in Adrian next Monday, August 4, at 8 p.m., for the purpose of electing a county board of education. The meeting is held in accordance with the County School District Act, as amended by the legislature recently, requiring that such a board be named.

The new board will consist of five members, two of them elected for six-year terms, two for four-year term, and one for a two-year term. The act provides that not more than two members may be placed on the county board of education from any one township or city. Persons elected need not be members of the school boards within the county, but must possess the qualifications to hold office on a school board.

The law defines a qualified voter who may be elected to the office as follows: "Any qualified voter in a school district whose name appears on the assessment roll and who is the owner in his own right of the property so assessed, shall be eligible to election or appointment to office in such school district." Each person elected as a member of the county board of education must qualify for office by taking the constitutional oath of office, and filing his acceptance of office with the county superintendent before August 14. Persons elected assume their duties on August 18.

W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools here, said that the Tecumseh board had been advised of the meeting and that undoubtedly would send a representation. He believed that those who would attend would be Jens Touborg, president of the board, and Dr. Ralph Helzerman, secretary.

Inspired by a sermon in 1940, Hayden, local miller, planted one cubic inch of wheat to prove that it pays to tithe. Each year for five years, the harvest was tithed, with Henry Ford furnishing the land, labor, equipment, and much of the inspiration. The 1945 planting required 2,666 acres for the 5,000 bushels of seed, after the 5th harvst of 5,555 bushels had been tithed. This was furnished by 276 farmers from 30 different faiths and beliefs, each of whom agreed to pay a tithe of the 1946 crop to his own church.

"If this project were continued for 10 years, it would require all of the land in the United States" says Perry Hayden. "In 13 years it would cover the entire globe!"

Based upon the average yield of 20 bushels per acre from two bushels of seed, one cubic inch of 360 kernels, planted and replanted for six years without taking out a tenth would produce 5,297 bushels. The Dynamic Kernel project, starting with the cubic inch of seed, with each harvest tithed, produced in six years, the amazing harvest of 72,150 bushels.

Dr. George W. Crane of Chicago, radio and writer, whose newspaper column is read daily by some 10,000,000 persons will be present at the premiere of the movie that he named. The book "God is My Landlord", written by Raymond Jeffreys, of Columbus, Ohio, will be released at the premiere.

McHenry Films, of Chicago, are the producer of the film, with Ralph Comfort of Tecumseh as the principal photographer. The pictures, taken over the past seven years of sowing, harvesting and tithing, includes hundreds of persons, many of them known locally. There will be no admission charge.

WIPE OUT THE PLAGUE

Killed: 33,500. Injured 1,150,000. Cold facts that represent the annual toll of traffic accidents on our streets and highways.

Those who consider the implications of these tragic figures are impressed by them and at the same time are appalled by the proof that a dreadful plague has settled over the nation. For our annual traffic accident rate is indeed a plague. It sweeps over the country every day and leaves in its wake twisted, lifeless bodies or painfully mangled limbs.

Translated into terms of grief, physical and mental suffering, frustrated hopes and economic loss, this ravaging plague overwhelms the mind. Just as cancer and infantile paralysis can snatch children from their families, so can the unsafe driver behind the wheel of a powerful automobile. Just as disease can and does take fathers and mothers away, leaving children without protection and wards of the state, so can the traffic accident.

Yet, people who shudder at the mention of cancer, heart disease or any other sickness continue to take needless risks while driving. People who cannot bear the sight of an injured kitten at the same time carelessly walk in front of vehicles at risk of their own limbs.

It is time we waked up to ourselves. It is time all the people unite in responsible effort to save the lives and homes of themselves and their neighbors.

Wipe out the plague. Make America safe.

Jane Cupper's "Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation—picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels, in bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed—as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes . . . but come to think of it, as Dee says, we'll probably look just as funny twenty years from now, in what we call our "Modern" clothes. Only thing that won't change in the picture is that mellow, wholesome glass of beer.

From where I sit, tolerance that lets us wear sensible, decent clothes—to give us sun and air and freedom—will keep that wholesome glass of beer a part of the American tradition.

Insulate!

Save Up to 1-3 on Your Fuel

Would you be interested in reducing your fuel bill from 25 to 33 per cent this coming winter? Of course you would, because heat in the winter time costs money.

And you can save that much if you'll properly insulate your house. Don't take our word for it, ask the man who lives in an insulated house.

And aside from the savings, think of the added comfort. Upstairs rooms that heretofore were cold will be "liveable" in both winter and summer, because insulation makes your house cooler in the summertime.

See Us For All of Your Roofing Needs

Don't neglect your roof — and now, in the summertime, is the time to have it repaired. We can furnish you with high quality, nationally advertised brands of roofing — at money-saving prices.

AMERICA'S AIR POWER

on AIR FORCE DAY, AUGUST 1ST

No one today questions the fact that the whole future of the United States may rest in the very clouds over your head. And the new, reorganized Air Forces give thousands of eligible young men an opportunity to take an active part in building America's air power . . . on the ground as well as in the sky.

You may, for example, enlist in the Air Forces for three years. If you have a specialty which will qualify you, you may also be able to enlist in a grade at higher pay.

If you have had Air Forces experience, you may join the Air Reserve and continue your military aviation training outside of business hours.

Or, you may join the Air National Guard and perhaps become eligible for advanced technical training at special Air National Guard schools.

On Air Force Day, make a point of finding out everything about your Air Forces — especially the new Aviation Career Plan described below. Full details can be obtained at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

Army Recruiting Station, advise the Recruiting Officer the kind of aviation training you want and he will provide you with an application blank and a complete list of available courses.

When you are selected to attend the course of your choice, you enlist in the Army Air Forces for 3, 4 or 5 years. After your basic training period you are guaranteed the education you have selected to make you a specialist in the type of work you want.

A new grade school building is being built due to the efforts of the Onsted Community Booster Club, whose slogan is "Citizenship in action." Voluntary contributions now amount to $4,880 and much of the labor has been donated by the local people, such as digging, pouring, footings, hauling blocks from Brooklyn and some of the block laying.

A Statement To Our Customers About Resale

Built by International Harvester Company

Here at Harvester we are concerned over the fact that a growing number of our products are appearing on the resale market at greatly inflated prices.

As manufacturers, we try to produce at the lowest possible cost. We cannot set the prices at which our products—tractors, motor trucks, farm implements, refrigeration, and industrial power equipment—are sold. We can and do suggest list prices which the great majority of our dealers adopt as their retail prices.

$20,000,000 Price Reduction

Our basic price policy was publicly stated in March, 1947, when we announced price reductions at the rate of approximately $20,000,000 per year on our products. At that time, Fowler McCormick, Chairman of the Board, said: "ANY PRICE IS TOO HIGH IF IT CAN BE REDUCED."

Practically all of our dealers cooperated with this policy and passed on the savings to their customers.

The objective of the price reductions was to make it possible for customers to buy our products, which they need so badly, at lower prices. Naturally, this purpose is defeated when our products are sold by anybody at inflated prices.

IH Production at All-Time Peak

Inflated prices are caused by the [illegible]een supply and demand. To increase supply, we now have the greatest number of employes in history on our payrolls—almost 90,000 in the United States, as against about 60,000 prewar. Large new plants are getting into production in Louisville, Evansville, and Melrose Park. A fourth will soon be in operation in Memphis. The men and women now employed are turning out the greatest quantities of IH products of all kinds that we have ever made. These are also the finest products we have ever made, and recognition of that fact is an important contributing factor to the demand for them.

Distribution to Dealers

But even record-breaking production is not sufficient to give your dealer—and other IH dealers—enough products to meet today's demand. We have tried to make the fairest possible geographical allocation of our products so that every dealer would get a fair share, and we know that dealers, in most cases, have tried earnestly to make the fairest possible distribution to their customers.

But we also know that many of our products—far too many—are being resold at inflated prices. The public criticism and resentment of these resales are of real concern to us, as we know they must be to our dealers, because such reactions endanger [illegible] will of both the dealer and the Company in any community.

Distribution to Customers

Experience shows that many IH new products are being resold by users who decide they can continue to make out with their old equipment after they have had an inflated offer for their new equipment. To eliminate this, many dealers are taking measures to be sure that equipment purchased is for their customers' own use and is not to be resold.

Nearly all IH dealers, we believe, are now using the basis of PRESENT NEED as their primary guide for the sale of scarce products. The customer whose need is real and urgent is not likely to resell.

What Price Should You Pay?

While it may take a little more time to get delivery, we urge our customers to consider all of the factors mentioned here, before paying more than the list price for any IH product. Any IH dealer or branch can furnish the suggested list price for any IH product.

We know that the overwhelming majority of IH dealers are as much opposed to inflated prices as we are. In the public interest, we have already asked their cooperation—and are now asking the cooperation of customers—in correcting this situation.

Now and then someone comes up with the idea that Kroger makes 10% or 15% or even 20% per dollar sale. Actually, Kroger's net income last year was less than 1¾%. That's not even 2c on each dollar of sales. No business shows a smaller profit margin than the retail food business. Kroger prices are always close to cost.

44 ways To get "Something for Nothing"

The railroads have received 44 "rules" demands from the leaders of the operating unions . . . representing engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen. They say they are seeking only changes in working conditions—NOT a wage increase.

More Money For Less Work

But what kind of rules are being asked for? Twenty-eight of them would compel railroads to pay more money for the same, or less work; 7 would require additional and unnecessary men to do the same work; the rest would bring about changes in operating practices at increased cost.

For Instance:

The Union leaders demand additional train and engine crews on Diesel-powered trains—one full crew for every power unit in the locomotive. A freight train hauled by a 4-unit Diesel would have to carry 4 engineers, 4 firemen, 4 conductors, and at least 8 brakemen, or a total of 20 men instead of 5.

"Made Work"—Sheer Waste

The Union leaders demand that full-length freight trains be cut to about half their length, even though such trains are most efficient for low-cost service to you. This rule would call for twice as many locomotives, would double the number of trains, and make accidents more likely.

Additional equipment, yards, and other facilities required to take care of these short trains would cost hundreds of millions. What the Union leaders really want is to make more jobs.

The Union leaders demand that when a crew in one class of service perform incidental service of another class, they will be paid not less than a day's pay, for each class, even though all service is performed as a part of the same day's work. The crew would get at least two days' pay for one day's work.

The Union leaders demand that the present basic day for passenger conductors and trainmen be reduced from 150 to 100 miles, which would have the effect of increasing their pay 50%. Such a run often takes only two or three hours!

You Can't Afford This Waste

Demands like these are against the interests of the whole American people, who depend on railroad service for nearly everything they eat, wear and use.

These rules would cost A BILLION DOLLARS annually—a gigantic waste which neither the railroads nor the country can afford.

Railroad workers are good citizens and good employes, with pride in their calling. Their record during the war was outstanding. We do not believe they fully understand the "featherbed" rules which the Union leaders are demanding. We do not believe they understand the harmful results which these rules would have to the railroad industry, to the millions of men and women dependent on railroads for their livelihood, and to the shipping and consuming public.

The great strength of America is in production—an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

For only through greater production can we hope to stop the steady upward surge of living costs.

Surely, if ever there was a time in our history when we needed to work, not waste, this is it.

His Reason

Sunday School Teacher—Why in your prayers do you only ask for your daily bread instead of asking enough for a week?

Beware Of The Bat; Don't Take Chances

He's not only "batty," he's literally blind as a bat after he's looked into the glare of powerful oncoming headlights. It takes seven whole seconds for his eyes to adapt themselves again to the darkness of the highway, and if he's going 45 miles an hour, his car will travel 462 feet in seven seconds. That's plenty of space to meet up with any of the following: other approaching cars, a sudden curve, a hole in the road, or a careless pedestrian.

The wise night-driver keeps his windshield clean, makes sure his windshield wipers are in good repair. He never looks directly at approaching headlights, but keeps his eyes focused on the side of the road. To make safety doubly sure, he always drives at moderate speeds at night.

HOWDY FOLKS: You can't believe everything the way you hear it. For example, there was a man who said that his wife's cooking warmed his heart, when he really meant that it gave him heartburn.
When a friend borrows ten dollars, about the best security you can have is a chain and padlock, a pair of handcuffs and a watchdog.
"Why does your brother say 'Honk! Honk!' all the time when he is crossing the street?"
"It's because he doesn't want people to know that he isn't an automobile."
And if you want to keep on having an automobile, we suggest you drive it in here and honk just once. We will come running to give you the finest service you can ask for — super quality gas, oil and lubrication. That kind of service will insure finer car performance for a long time to come.

Tecumseh is a growing community. Evidences of this fact are seen in various ways. New houses are being erected. Sales in local stores have increased. An awakening to the need for planning the development of better utilities is recognized. The dire necessity for enlarged public school facilities cannot be overlooked.

All these things we know are needed. BUT what kind of people are going to live in our community? That is the important factor to be considered. As we are trained and nurtured in the Christian WAY OF LIFE shall we use the gifts of God in the right way. For your enlightenment and spiritual development Tecumseh Churches urge you to "Go To Church on Sunday."

X MARKS THE SPOT!

Yes—X marks the spot where more than 2,000 people died and over 70,000 were injured last year when automobile drivers challenged the iron horses of the rails—and lost.

When you approach a railroad crossing you are entering the railroad's right-of-way. To save you from harm, gates are lowered or automatic signalling devices, bells and blinking lights warn of approaching trains. The engineer blows a warning blast, rings his bell. That's the most the railroad can do. The rest is up to you.

The Stop—Look—and Listen sign means what it says. Stop—look both ways—and always listen. If a train is just clearing the crossing, wait—don't hurry across, there may be a hidden train coming from the opposite direction. And when you do cross, keep going. Don't shift gears on the tracks, you may stall.

Take the few extra seconds needed to assure a safe crossing. Don't let X mark the spot where you failed to be careful.

Worm Your Pullets

The Summer Care Of Your Pullets Will Determine Your Profits Next Fall

A Chek-R-Ton Treatment

At 10 to 12 weeks of age, pullets should be given a Chek-R-Ton treatment. If you are feeding an all mash ration, mix in three pounds of Chek-R-Ton for each 100 lbs. of mash, and feed one week. Mash and grain feeding will require six pounds of Chek-R-Ton for each 100 lbs. of mash.

This worming treatment is shockless to your birds, and can be repeated anytime there are indications of round worms present in your flock. For particulars,

Banquet To End C. of C. Drive

SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN FOR FINANCES FORECAST; $12,000 IS THE GOAL

Success in the drive to raise at least $12,000 here, with which to operate a Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, appears to be in sight, C. C. Butler, chairman of the Fund Committee, said today. The campaign, he declared, if pledges continue as in the past, will be brought to a conclusion with a banquet, to be held in the gymnasium of the high school, probably the latter part of this month.

"I am happy to say that Tecumseh's business and industrial leaders recognize the need for a Chamber here, and we have met with excellent success," Mr. Butler declared. In only one instance, thus far, have we been turned down on a contribution. In some instances, contributions have been larger than we anticipated, and everyone has given willingly.

"We must remember, however," Butler continued, "that the Chamber that we plan to organize here is for the community at large, and we want everyone in the community who possibly can to have a financial and moral interest. A Chamber of Commerce is not just the big business and industry, and to function successfully it must have the support of small business, too. For that reason we are now winding up the drive by calling on firms that desire to hold membership, but whose contributions may not be large. This is a big job, and it is going to take some time. However, it is being accomplished, but should we overlook anyone who desires to join they should contact some member of the committee."

It has been estimated at about $12,000 will be needed annually to operate the Chamber here. Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., has announced that his firm and associates will contribute $3,800 of the amount, plus a gift of $4,000 when organization is completed. Several other firms have contributed $1,000 and $500 each.

As soon as the job of soliciting memberships has been finished a banquet meeting will be held and the committee named a month ago will report on its progress. This committee was named by the presidents of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Town Hall. It then will be the function of the members of the Chamber to elect a board of directors, and in turn the directors will elect officers and name a full-time secretary.

It is the hope of those directing the campaign that the business end of the organization can be completed this month or early in September and that an active, functioning Chamber of Commerce can be a realization here by the middle of next month.

Lester Rogers Is Named To The Hospital Board

Lester C. Rogers was named to the Tecumseh Hospital Board, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of R. K. Anderson, when the village council met in regular session, Monday evening. Mr. Rogers' term will run until July 1, 1952.

The council also authorized the collection of village taxes without penalty through September 15.

The village agreed to pay a portion of the cost of a new traffic light at the intersection of Chicago boulevard and Evans street. This improvement was requested by the State Highway Department, and the state will bear a major portion of the cost. A new street light on South Ottawa street, between Cummins and Patterson, also was authorized.

Purchase of 5,100 feet of sewer and water pipe was approved, and an engineering firm was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for a new well house.

Water and sewer connections will be furnished at cost to residents on the west side of Adrian street, south of Cummins street, the council ruled.

Current bills were audited and ordered paid, and reports of department and committee heads were read and placed on file.

TALKS TO ROTARY

Al Goldsmith, Adrian manufacturer, was the guest speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening at Brees House. Mr. Goldsmith told something of the history of light metals, their use during World War II, and how it now is possible to braze aluminum, making it a much more useful metal to industry. Mr. Goldsmith was the guest of L. W. Larsen.

A Glimpse at Expansion

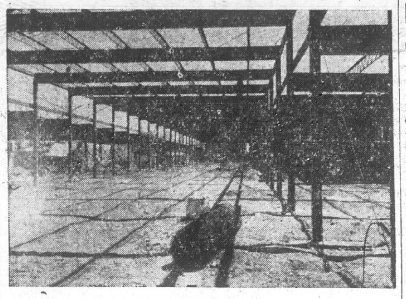

Photo shows a glimpse of the new expansion program at Tewhen completed, will link plants No. 1 and No. 2, and greatly increase the floor space of the factory that now is employing about 2,100 persons with a payroll of more than $6,500,000 annually.

The new addition is well under way, and probably will be completed next month, at an estimated cost of $350,000. It will afford the company much-needed space to handle its increasing volume of business which now is running at more than $30,000,000 a year.

County School Board Elected

ELMER EBERHARDT OF BRITTON IS AMONG THOSE CHOSEN FOR OFFICE

The first Lenawee county board of education was formed Monday evening at a meeting held in the Adrian court house of the directors of primary school districts, the board secretaries of graded, township, and rural agricultural school districts and the presidents of all other school districts. The five-member board was elected by the 77 representatives present from the county's 183 school districts.

Elmer Eberhardt of Britton, assistant cashier at the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh, was elected for the two year term. Other members are Robert Bruce, a farmer of Blissfield, Nathan Knowles of Manitou Beach, also a farmer, who will both serve six years, and those elected for the four year terms were Mrs. E. T. Armstrong of Adrian, who retired as county school commissioner this year, and Hal Benner, a Clayton farmer.

Beginning August 18, the duties of the new board will include receiving reports of delinquent tax money and computing the amounts due each school; reporting to the county tax allocation board and county treasurer the amount needed to carry on the activities of the board; the designation of boundary lines, organization and alteration of school districts, which was heretofore the duty of the township board; selection of the county school suprintendent for a four year term; and the purchasing of library books.

The board members will receive the same pay as the board of supervisors plus mileage which is six dollars per day and five cents a mile.

People Still Are Honest; Ask Mrs. Ousterhout

People are still honest.

If you don't believe it, ask Mrs. Bert Ousterhout.

It seems that last Saturday morning, Mrs. Ousterhout, who with her family, is spending the summer at Wamplers Lake, left the cottage early and hurriedly to get to her work at The Flower Shop. In her hurry she left her purse, containing a considerable sum in cash and checks and several keys, on the fender of her car when she drove away from the lake. She did not miss the purse until she reached Tecumseh.

A return trip to the lake failed to locate the missing object. All Saturday morning and part of Saturday afternoon she fretted.

And then it happened. A gentleman from Toledo strolled into the store and inquired if the woman who lost her purse on US-112 had been injured in an accident or, said he, was the loss of the purse accidental.

It didn't take Mrs. Ousterhout long to give him the answer—and a substantial reward.

State Policemen Are Issued New Summer Uniforms

IS FIRST COMPLETE CHANGE IN OUTFIT EVER AUTHORIZED BY STATE

The first complete summer uniform ever issued to the Michigan State Police made its initial appearance this week after a vexations delay occasioned by material shortages and congestion of orders at garment manufacturing plants.

The new outfit was carefully selected to afford the troopers the utmost in comfort without sacrificing any of the distinctive appearance of a uniform. Up to now, changing into summer dress meant no more than swapping a heavy navy blue shirt for one not quite so heavy, but still too warm.

Greatest departure from custom in police apparel in this part of the country is the new headgear, a wood fiber helmet such as used in the Army. The helmet, medium gray in color, is light in weight, perforated for ventilation and rides on the head on an adjustable leather strap. It actually offers more protection to the officer than the conventional garrison cap as it will withstand a vigorous blow without crushing. Police departments in the south which wear the helmet have found it the most practical and satisfactory type of summer hat.

SLACKS—Cadet gray to blend with helmet. One and one-half inch stripe is light blue. The slacks replace the heavier gray breeches and black puttees, the latter being discarded for summer wear because they are warm, cut off circulation and are particularly uncomfortable in driving a patrol car. Puttees were designed for wear in riding motorcycles, which the department no longer uses. The Sam Brown belt will be worn inside the trouser loops, but without the shoulder strap.

SHIRTS—Light blue washable poplin blending with stripe on slacks. Tie a slightly darker shade of blue. Patch emblems on shoulders are of new design, consisting of a navy blue shield with the inscription "Michigan State Police" and the seal of Michigan embroidered in gold.

FOOTWEAR—With the adoption of slacks, it is optional with the trooper whether he wears black oxfords or shoes.

Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, who started preparations for issuing the uniform last January, said the department expected it "will give the trooper considerable relief from the summer heat, and we likewise hope the public will find it smart in appearance and a sensible change."

Moore Buys Dundee Firm

LOCAL LUMBER COMPANY NOW OPERATING YARDS IN FOUR COMMUNITIES

Purchase of the Walter Helle Lumber Co., Dundee, was announced today by Robert H. Moore, head of R. S. Moore & Son Co., lumber and coal dealers here. Mr. Moore said that the Dundee firm will be managed by Paul Sheldon, who has been with the Moore company for about a year and a half. Mr. Sheldon and his family will move to Dundee.

"Our new business in Dundee will carry everything in building materials, including paint, lumber and roofing," Mr. Moore said, "and we will be happy to be of service to everyone in the community." The Dundee yard, Moore said, will not handle coal.

The firm of R. S. Moore & Son Company is the largest of its kind in southern Michigan. It now has yards in Clinton, Britton, Dundee and Tecumseh, giving it tremendous purchasing power.

Scarlet Fever Warning Issued

MORE THAN 3,500 CASES REPORTED IN STATE SINCE FIRST OF YEAR

A total of 3550 cases of scarlet fever have been reported in Michigan so far this year, 37 of them in the past week, according to the Michigan Department of Health. While this number does not constitute threat of an epidemic it does indicate that there are many persons in the state who should have the latest information on regulations and care of the patient having the disease, according to Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the Bureau of Disease Control.

Scarlet fever is a contagious disease which is serious because even the mildest case may be followed by heart, kidney, or ear complications. The disease is most common in children under 15 years of age and most serious in children under five years of age.

Symptoms

The first warning signals of scarlet fever are sore throat, vomiting, headache and fever. In two or three days a rash usually appears on the neck and chest and then on the rest of the body except the face. It looks like small bright red pinpoints. Rash may not appear in scarlet fever and the other symptoms may be so slight as to be scarcely noticeable. The child, in any case, should be isolated and kept in bed because mild cases are just as communicable as

Third Case Of Polio Reported

TWO OTHER SUSPECTED CASES FOUND TO BE STREP INFECTION AT U. OF M.

Tecumseh's third case of poliomeyelitis is recovering in University Hospital, Ann Arbor, and two other suspected cases have been diagnosed as strep infection by physicians there, it was reported today.

The latest victim of the disease is Donald Muckenstrum, 26-year-old employee of Tecumseh Products Co. Mr. Muckenstrum resides near Tipton. He was removed to the University hospital last week Wednesday where the diagnosis was made. No paralysis has resulted, and his case was said by Dr. H. C. Huntley, county health officer, to be "mild".

Ann Cameron, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mr. John C. Cameron, returned to her home here from University hospital Saturday. She had spent two weeks in the hospital following diagnosis of her case as infantile. She has completely recovered from the illness and there is no paralysis.

Tecumseh's first case, several weeks ago, was that of Gary Hall, five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall. As in the Cameron case, there was no paralysis and the child has completey recovered from the illness.

Two other cases of suspected polio were reported here last week and both were removed to the University hospital for diagnosis. Examinations, however, proved that in both instances the illness was caused by strep infection and both patients are now recovering in their homes here.

Break In Heat Wave Promised For Today

Relief from the heat wave, which has held Lenawee county and most of Michigan in its grip since Saturday, was promised by the weather man today, following nearly a week of temperatures which ranged in the 90's. The humidity, too, was high, despite intermittent thunderstorms.

The mercury climbed about one degree higher each day, starting Saturday, and Tuesday's high was 96. Sun temperatures ranged from 115 to almost any other figure that might be told.

Storms Monday and Tuesday evenings, accompanied by some wind and lightning, failed to cool the atmosphere, but the weatherman has definitely promised a break in the heat "that will last," sometime today or tonight.

The Old and the New

Troopers Gerard Wrocklage, left and Gordon Grinwiz, right, show the difference between the old and new summer uniforms of the Michigan State Police. The new outfit, worn for the first time this week, is designed for the comfort of the troopers without sacrificing the distinctive appearance of a uniform. One marked change is the elimination of puttees, which were reminiscent of the days when all patrol work was done on motorcycles, such as shown in the mural in the background. Only cars are now used on patrol, and the puttees, which are warm and bind on the legs, are particularly uncomfortable when behind the wheel.

Play Schedule Is Nearing End

JOHNSON POINTS OUT SOME ADDITIONS THAT MAY BE MADE NEXT YEAR

Tecumseh's summer recreation program, which has been under the direction of Paul Johnson with the assistance of Miss Dorothy Bowen and Miss Marilyn VanWinkle, will end one week from today.

"I believe those phases of a complete program which have been attempted this summer have been quite successful," Mr. Johnson said. "Games and activities at the Recreation Center have formed a nucleus for the program, affording something for the young people to do whenever they were free. Participation in activities which were specially scheduled includes a total of 147 different youngsters in the swimming program, 68 in the handicraft program, 32 in baseball, 38 in tennis, 55 in archery, approximately 50 in the story and play periods for the younger children, approximately 35 in adult archery and 50 in softball."

The summer program, which has made a new start this year under the sponsorship of the Tecumseh Athletic Board has been limited this year especially with regard to evening programs. Since the decision to have a program was made rather late, difficulties were encountered in setting up softball leagues which would normally have their playoffs in the evening. Evening band concerts, which in some towns form the main event one evening each week and the nucleus for other special programs, were ruled out for a similar reason. These are areas which may be developed in summer programs to come.

"An excellent start was made by Miss Bowen in developing a handicraft program," Mr. Johnson said. "However, another year this could be developed still further to reach more age groups than were reached this summer." Projects which were completed this summer include woven gimp bracelets and landyards, frame bracelets, bead bracelets, jersey loop dolls and pot holders, glass etchings, soap carvings, molding in plaster of paris, weaving, clay modeling, felt coin purses and wood burning.

Special appreciation is extended by the Athletic Board and Mr. Johnson to W. D. Hite, who has taken charge of adult archery classes twice each week, and to the recreation committee of the St. Peter's Episcopal church for the use of their recreation building for the handicraft program.

The schedule for the coming week will be the same as for this week but will end on Thursday. Supervisors will check equipment on Friday.

Tecumseh Girl Wins U. S. Honor

WILL GO TO NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AT WASHINGTON WITH ALL EXPENSES PAID

Miss Anna Lou Aebersold, 16-year-old Tecumseh girl, daughter of Mrs. Lois Aebersold, So. Oneida street, will leave tomorrow as Michigan's delegate to Girls' National, to be held in Washington, D. C., August 8 to 15. Miss Aebersold was Tecumseh's selection for Girls' State, held at Ann Arbor in June, and as a result of her high rating there, where she was secretary, she was selected with the highest honors to represent her state at the national meeting. Miss Martha Smith of Eaton Rapids is the other Michigan representative. Both Michigan Girls' State and Girls' National, Washington, are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Miss Aebersold will be met in Detroit tomorrow by officials of the Michigan Auxiliary and will be entertained there. She will leave on Friday evening by train for Washington, arriving Saturday morning. Girls attending from other states as well as Michigan will be housed at George Washington University, and the program includes a week crammed with entertainment and sight seeing.

In Tecumseh high school, Miss Aebersold is a member of the student council and this year took part in the junior play. She is pursuing a college academic course and constantly is on the "A" honor roll.

"So proud are the American Legion and Auxiliary of Underwood-Orr Post, Tecumseh, of the honor Anna has brought to this village as a result of her high standing at Girls' State and her selection to Girls' National, that each organzation has presented her with $25 and many individual gifts," a member of the Auxiliary said today. Of course, Anna's trip to Washington is with all expenses paid.

3,000 Persons See Film "God Is My Landlord"

The premier showing of "God Is My Landlord," the color and sound motion picture record of the Dynamic Kernels wheat tithing experiment, was attended by 3,000 persons Saturday evening at the Adrian fair grounds. The "first nighter" audience saw a highly entertaining film, rich in scenes of local interest.

The professional type film is the vehicle through which Perry Hayden Tecumseh mill owner, plans to spread the word that the principle of tithing really works. As proof, the picture will flash before audiences throughout the nation the story of how a single cubic inch of wheat in six years yielded 72,150 bushels of the golden grain. And in each of those six years, one-tenth of the yield was given to the church as a tithe, the remainder being replanted every year until the final harvest.

Familiar faces flashed across the screen as the film, produced by the McHenry films of Chicago merged on-the-scene shots of the six year demonstration with background shots taken later to provide the finished film.

Copies of the new book, also titled "God Is My LandLord," written by Raymond J. Jeffreys of Columbus, Ohio, were on sale at the fairgrounds.

Dr. George W. Crane of Chicago, psychologist, radio speaker and writer, paid tribute to the moral lesson derived from Mr. Hayden's tithing experiment.

New Nursing Service Inaugurated In Area

Persons who desire the services of a graduate or practical nurse, either daily or hourly, now many call Miss Gertrude Spaulding at Tecumseh Hospital, where a registry of all such nurses is available.

The service is set up by the Lenawee District Nurses Association and a scale of fees has been established. Whenever nurses are available, Miss Spaulding will refer them to cases on which they are needed. In instances where graduate nurses are not available, and when practical nurses have been trained by the Lenawee graduates, they will be permitted to do bedside nursing, it was said, in the hospital.

A new class for practical nurses is now being organizd and will be started in the fall, making available for public service a greater number of these women.

The new nursing program has been set up as a part of the community service to be rendered by the Michigan State Nurses Association.

GOOD ADVICE

(From Jackson Citizen-Patriot)

New evidence has been accumulated to show that it pays to advertise in local newspapers. And this testimony comes from a sales expert.

Cain Hester of Grand Rapids, western Michigan sales manager for the International Harvester Co., recently told concerns selling farm equipment: "One good advertisement in your local newspaper will reach more farm prospects in a day than you can reach otherwise in a year."

For nearly six years there has been an acute shortage of farm equipment. Now farm machinery is becoming a little more plentiful, but production probably will not catch up with demand for several years. During the acute shortage farmers were willing to accept anything they could get. Now they are reported to be buying according to personal preferences and are showing a willingness to wait until they can get what they want.

As the tillers become more selective and supply of farm machinery becomes larger there will be increased competition among the implement dealers. It will be then that those who follow the advice of the Grand Rapids man will reap the greatest benefits.

Raizk Head Football Coach At Wilmington

A Wilmington College graduate and a former Wilmington man will return to his home town from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to become head football coach at Wilmington College, it was announced Tuesday.

Fred Raizk, present head football coach at Classen High School, in Oklahoma City has been employed by his Alma Mater to direct Quaker gridiron elevens and to serve as assistant director of athletics.

Raizk, who was graduated from Wilmington in 1936, has produced an enviable record in his 11 years of high school coaching. Of the eight football teams which he coached, four won championships, two were runners-up and another gained third place. He also directed basketball teams for 10 years. His cage squads copped five county championships and four of them won district tournaments. One took a regional crown and went into the state finals. The versatile coach also piloted three baseball teams. Two of these walked off with high school league championships and the third took second place honors.

The new football mentor at the Southern Ohio college began his coaching career at Clarksville, O. After three years there, he went to Tecumseh, Michigan, as head football coach and director of athletics. After seven successful seasons at Tecumseh the call of the west lured him to Classen High School, one of the largest in Oklahoma City with nearly two thousand students in the upper three grades.

Raizk was a three-letter man in his student days at Wilmington College. He played on basketball and track teams and was a member of the last football squad at Wilmington before the sport was discontinued in 1932 not to be revived until last fall.

TRAPPED 5 DAYS, WILL LIVE

Oakland, Calif. — Rescued after being trapped beneath his wrecked automobile for five days, surgeons believe that Ernest K. Steele will live, although it may become necessary to amputate a portion of his right hand. The man was trapped beneath his overturned car only 150 feet from a busy highway and was found by telephone linemen who noticed something bright down the deep embankment and investigated.

The driver who killed himself and also the driver of another car in this shambles had stubbornly persisted in driving when he was fatigued after too many hours on the road. As his car came over the bridge, his weary brain blanked out for a split second, his hands relaxed on the wheel. His car grazed the bridge abutment, skidding across the road, and crashed into an approaching automobile. Motorists for their own safety, and for the sake of others on the road, have no right to drive when overtired. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists advise: don't wait until you are tired; pull off the road at intervals; drink a cup of coffee, take a few moments' rest.

LUCKY BORROWER

New York — When Charles J. F. Porter borrowed $312 from the National City Bank recently, along with the cash he was handed his note, "paid." The puzzled man then learned that the loan included the billion dollar loaned by the bank's 21-year-old personal loan department, and writing off the loan was the bank's way of celebrating.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Gene Alleman

ONTONAGON—The airplane has just made a piker out of me.

By steady driving and not tarrying in too many towns, I arrived here from Lansing with my 19-foot house trailer, ready for an Upper Peninsula newspaper conference and a vacation, all in a little less than two days and a half.

Considering that Michigan is such a big state and that the North peninsula stretches out well over 320 miles from Sault Ste. Marie to Ironwood, I thought I was doing pretty well. In fact, I was about to brag about the accomplishment until Colonel Floyd Evans arrived with a party of five newspaper editors.

Taking off from the Lansing airport around 1 p.m., Colonel Evans fitw a Beechcraft airplane to this Lake Superior gateway to the Porcupine Mountains State Park in less than two and half hours. Yee, only 150 minutes!

Colonel Evans' passengers ate luncheon at the state capitol city and dinner at Ontonagon. And they did it easily with time to kill. Such modern air transportation promises to bind the Upper and Lower Peninsulas together as nothing else could possibly do.

"There is every reason to believe that Michigan's tourist business, now doing a total volume of well over one-half million dollars a year, can be augmented materially by the airplane and good airports," said Colonel Evans, director of the state department of aeronautics.

"Tourists are able to come greater distances by air. Land and water are not barriers."

The airplane is still in its swaddling clothes. Back in 1929 when the legislature created the department of aeronautics, Michigan had only 27 airports. Today, it has 202 licensed airports and 16 seaplane bases, all meeting strict requirements for public safety.

We learned from Colonel Evans that Michigan leads all states in pilot training schools and in number of students. Today the state has 235 schools. They are furnishing flight instruction to more than 15,000 students.

Trans-Canada air line, a Canadian company, has been spending thousands of dollars to develop fields at Grand Marais and Houghton. Planes cross the border at Sault Ste. Marie and fly across the Upper Peninsula rather than risk flights over the wilderness north of Lake Superior.

North Michigan is air-minded in a big way. New airports are being pushed at Escanaba, Ironwood, Iron Mountain, Marquette and Menominee. By 1950 the state hopes to lead all states with a comprehensive network of 300 safe airports and 25 seaplane bases. All communities are being marked for guidance by pilots.

This country, north of the Straits, is looking more and more to the airplane for freedom from isolation . . . Next week I will tell you about packing in overnight to Mirror lake in the Porcupine Mountain State Park. The missus and I are enjoying a vacation in the north country, and we love it.

Bartle-Dibble

The Dibble home, artistically decorated throughout with arrangements of garden fowers, was the scene of a lovely wedding at 2:30 Sunday afternoon when Miss Lillian G. Dibble became the bride of Frank Bartle of Flint. The Rev. C. S. Risley of Petersburg, an old-time friend of the bride's family, performed the single ring ceremony. Immediate relatives and close friends were present.

The bridal couple mingled with their guests until the appointed time. Russell Spaulding of Tipton, sang "Oh Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Dorothy Eggleston of Adrian. Mr. and Mrs. Julian O. Strong of Melvindale were best man and matron of honor.

The refreshment table, covered with a white lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature wedding bell containing a miniature bride and groom. The large cake was cut by Miss Gladys Emery of Adrian. Mrs. Raymond Francis and the Misses Gladys Emery of Adrian, Beatrice Daykin and Alice Filter of Britton served. During the serving Mr. Spaulding rendered several selections.

Upon their return they will make their home at 309 E. Dartmouth street, Flint, where Mr. Bartle is employed at General Motors and where Mrs. Bartle will teach in the Flint schools.

The bride, a graduate of the Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, has taught several years at St. Clair Shores, Melvindale and various schools in Lenawee county.

About fifty guests were present from Brown City, Imlay City, Yale, Flint, Torch Lake, Detroit, Albion, Jackson, Adrian, Tipton, Oakville, Tecumseh and Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foote and daughters, Nancy and Janet were on a trip to northern Michigan part of the past week.

Mrs. Lela Barnes of Fairfield was a guest of Mrs. Ed Harrison Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Landin and Terry of Detroit were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Birdsall.

Miss Dolores M. Smith Is Bride Of Geo. Slyker

Arrangements of white and salman gladioli and palms formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Dolores M. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Smith, and Ralph E. Slyker of Adrian, son of George Slyker of Huron, Ohio, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alvin C. Brazee.

Given in marriage by her brother Basil Smith, the bride was lovely in a gown of white taffeta fashioned with dropped shoulders and short puffed sleeves, and she wore white mitts. The finger tip veil of illusion fell from a halo of orange bossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Her only jewelry was three strands of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The matron of honor, Mrs. John Newkirk of Detroit, sister of the bride, wore rose taffeta with a matching shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The best man was Allan Slyker of Huron, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore brown with a corsage of salmon gladioli, and the groom's grandmother, was dressed in a black and white sheer with a corsage of white gladioli.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony for 65 relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Slyker left on a trip to New York City, the bride traveling in a beige suit with cedar brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and Cleary Business College in Ypsilanti. She is now employed as bookkeeper in the county clerk's office in Adrian. The groom graduated from Huron high school and spent three and one-half years in the U. S. army. He is employed at the American Chain and Cable Co., in Adrian.

Tip from the Smart Sex

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, will be supplied at extra cost as soon as available.

WHO is it that's first to spot — and quickest to go for — a really fresh new fashion idea when it comes along?

The ladies, of course!

And who is it that, according to careful surveys, put Buick far ahead of its price class and up among the lowest-priced three when they name the car of their innermost choice?

The fair sex — but naturally!

And who is it, when you come right down to it, that gets the most practical use from enough stirring Fireball power to handle the day's travel-jobs without strain and struggle?

Who relishes most the restful ease of wide, cushiony seats, and the blissful gentleness of all-coil springs that make rough roads well-mannered and good roads glass-smooth?

Who goes for a car big enough to be company-minded — yet light and easy enough in handling to park without a tussle, and flit shadow-light through market-hour traffic?

Who, good friends, has the family's smartest eye-for-a-buy — the shrewdest size-up of what's really good?

So we toss out this thought to you menfolks:

You'd sort of like to get your hands on a car as big and mighty as this — if you thought the better half could be sold on it.

Take our tip — she's already sold. Favored as it is by red-blooded males, no Buick we've ever offered has won the smart sex quite like this one.

So why not pull a pleasant surprise some evening soon? Just come home and say; "Well, I placed an order for a Buick today. They're taking 'em with or without a car to trade."

severe ones and just as likely to develop complications. Other children should be kept away from him. A doctor should be called and his instructions should be followed. The child should remain in bed until the doctor says he is able to be up. This is necessary to minimize damage to the heart, kidneys and other parts of the body.

How it is Spread

Germs carried in the discharges from the patients mouth, nose, ears and throat spread the disease. A child will become ill in two to seven days after he has been exposed, but many children who are exposed do not get the disease. The scarlet fever patient is most contagious before he appears to be but can pass the disease on for two weeks or more. He usually is contageous before he appears to be ill. The patient should be isolated from other members of the family. Only the person caring for him and his doctor should enter his room. The person caring for him should keep a loose gown in the sick room and always wear it when caring for the child and remove it when leaving the room. She should wash her hands carefully in soap and water when leaving the sick room. Saliva and other discharges from the patient's mouth, nose, ears and throat should be collected on pieces of cloth or paper and then burned.

All cooking and eating utensils, as well as sheets and pillow cases should be washed with soap or some detergent and hot water. Other children should not play with the patient's toys or books. Clothing handled while he was coming down with scarlet fever may also carry the germs.

Restrictions

New state regulations coninue to require that all cases of the disease be reported but posting the house with a warning placard is at the discretion of the local health officer. While the patient must be isolated for at least 14 days, no restrictions are placed on exposed persons, except those who handle milk products. Disinfection of all infectious discharges and of all articles which may have come in contact with the patient, shall be carried on during the entire period of isolation. The sick room and its contents shall be thoroughly cleaned at the time of release from isolation.

Proper amount of rest and a proper diet will aid the child in his recuperation.

MISSION FESTIVAL

The annual Mission Festival will be observed Sunday at the Grace Ev. Lutheran church. There will be two out-of-town speakers. At the 10 o'clock morning service, Dev. E. Dell of Detroit will speak and the special speaker at the 8 o'clock evening service will be the Rev. E. Eloom of Waterloo, Mich.

Food Canning Urged By State

HIGH PRICES AND WORLD-WIDE SHORTAGES MAKES ACTION IMPERATIVE

With a world food shortage and with canned goods at their highest cost ever, it becomes a duty if not a necessity for every Michigan family to preserve as much of its winter supply of foods as it is able, the Michigan Department of Health advised today.

An increased supply of sugar makes it possible to can fruits which supplement meat and potato diets. Increased quick freeze facilities in the state make it possible to preserve a greater amount of fresh fruits, berries, vegetables, meats and poultry for the winter tables of Michigan people. Underground storage of certain fall vegetables will vary the winter menus.

"All who preserve food for winter should remember that two things cause food spoilage — bacteria and mold. When safe and tested methods of food preservation are used, boh are under control," Dr. William DeKleine, Commissioner of Health said.

Two methods of canning are approved — the pressure cooker method for meat, poultry, and vegetables, except tomatoes; and boiling water bath for tomatoes and fruits.

The United States Department of Agriculture recommends these seven points for canning success:

1. Can only fresh food, in tip-top condition.
2. Have food, jars, everything used in canning, thoroughly clean.
3. Work quickly, so as to can "freshness."
4. Heat food hot enough and long enough to make bacteria and other organisms harmless, so they won't "work" in the food and make it spoil.
5. Follow up-to-date directions and timetables, backed up by scientific research.
6. Make sure jars are sealed airtight, to keep spoilage organisms outside.
7. Store canned food in a cool, dark, dry place.

There are other precautions. "Two hours from garden to can" is a good canning slogan. Prepare only small amounts at a time. While one load is in the kettle or conner processing, prepare the next load. Do not use old vegetables or old fruit. Pre-cook vegetables and fruits and pack hot. This removes air from the food and shrinks it, making it possible to get fuller pack in each jar, and reducing time needed for processing. Cool jars quickly, but do not turn them upside down because this breaks the seal. To test for leaks, tip gently, and then place upright on rack or cloth. When using a vacuum seal type lid be sure to remove the screw band the day following. If this is neglected some jars may be stored which are not adquately sealed.

When using a pressure cooker keep the opening of the safety valve, petcock and gauge clean. Have the gauge checked. Follow manufacturers directions and do not cut down on processing time. Let other household duties go, while canning. The results will pay dividends.

Pamphlets furnished by the agricultural extension service of Michigan State College such as Preservation of Fruits and Vegetables by Freezing, and Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables, are valuable in preserving foods. The County whose headquarters are in the County Agricultural Agents' office are further sources of canning information and advice. Community canning centers in many areas also afford help.

"The canning and food preservation done by Michigan people this year will improve the diet here, but they may also save lives in other countries where even starvation diet is a luxury these days", Dr. DeKleine said. "If you cannot use or can all your vegetables or fruits, see to it that some school lunch program gets them, or that they are given to your neighbors," he added.

W. S. C. S. TO MEET

The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon, August 13, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. C. Ruppel, 15 W. Brown St. In discussing "Our Homes For Children", the subject will be, "It is the Birthright of Every Child." The program will be under direction of Mrs. Owen Partridge and Mrs. E. A. Collins will be the worship service leader. The assisting hostesses will be Miss Vie Snedecor and Mrs. Blanch Sones. Those attending should bring a Lake needle, thread, thimble, and rags for rugs.

PRAISED TOO SOON

Wadderson, England — Pleased that members of the fire brigade were so efficient at keeping their equipment in order, the chief decided to buy a drink for them all as a reward. While the chief was at a local pub, fire broke out in the fire station and destroyed all the equipment.

HOWDY FOLKS: A noted scientist says that the secret of health is to eat raw onions—but he doesn't tell us how to keep it a secret.

A little boy was saying his prayers in a low voice. "I can't hear you, dear," whispered his mother.

Said the small one firmly, "Wasn't talking to you."

"That is the one thing I like about my girl."

"What's that?"

"The guy she goes with."

Well, he may be bragging but we're not when we say your car will run smoother than ever, after we service it. We really know the kind of attention it should have. For the best in gas, oil and lubrication, drive in regularly.

Miss Nadine J. Covell Weds Robert M. Starkey

Miss Nadine J. Covell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton S. Covell of Tecumseh and Robert M. Starkey, son of Mrs. Mary Starkey of Holloway, were united in marriage at the Brees House, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock before an attractive arrangement of white gladioli, palms and lighted tapers in candelabra. Rev. Alvin Brazee performed the single ring cermony.

Mrs. Amos Wilson played a program of nuptial music and also accompanied Miss Joyce Sallows when she sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ice blue net over taffeta with a matching shoulder-length veil which fell from a halo of yellow roses and white baby breath. She carried a bridal bouquet of the same flowers and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Eula Meads, the maid of honor, wore pink net over slipper satin and carried a bouquet of red roses and white baby breath. The groom was attended by Norman Frayer of Britton.

After the ceremony a dinner was served at the Brees House for the immediate families. At 6:30 a reception was held and many relatives and friends were served refreshments from a white linen covered table centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Lighted candles completed the arrangement. Mrs. John Starkey assisted at the punch bowl and Mrs. Pearl Beaubien served the cake.

The couple left on a short wedding trip and are now making their home on South Union street. Mr. Starkey, who served 3 years in the Army Air Forces, is employed at the Tecumseh Products Company and the bride is employed in the office at the Clinton Machine Shop.

TO WED FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davidson are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Colleen to Calvin Richard of Blissfield. The ceremony will take place Friday at 7:30 p.m., at the First Baptist church with the Rev. B. O. Bashore officiating.

Tecumseh is a growing community. Evidences of this fact are seen in various ways. New houses are being erected. Sales in local stores have increased. An awakening to the need for planning the development of better utilities is recognized. The dire necessity for enlarged public school facilities cannot be overlooked.

All these things we know are needed. BUT what kind of people are going to live in our community? That is the important factor to be considered. As we are trained and nurtured in the Christian WAY OF LIFE shall we use the gifts of God in the right way. For your enlightenment and spiritual devleopment Tecumseh Churches urge you to "Go To Church on Sunday."

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ARE FOR PEDESTRIANS TOO!

Wait! The few quick seconds it takes the light to go amber or green may be the difference between life—and death!

Traffic lights aren't just for drivers, they're for pedestrians, too. They are your signals of safety. Drivers and traffic officers expect you to obey them. Yet in 1946, over 2,800 persons were killed at intersections. In addition, more than 4,000 jaywalked into the Hereafter between intersections. From all causes, 12,200 pedestrians—men, women and children—were given a ride to the morgue! They died at the rate of 33 every day.

Fantastic? Sure, but deadly true.

Of pedestrians killed who were old enough to drive, only 10% ever drove a car. That may be one reason why pedestrians have to be told, again and again, that traffic lights and all safety regulations are for them too. They have never experienced the responsibility of driving.

If you are a pedestrian, learn to cross with the lights, never run out from behind parked cars, or cross between intersections. Don't stand in the street or highway. Always be alert!

There's No Place Like Home For Service On Your Car

When your Ford — car or truck — needs repair, we say, without reservation, there's no place like home for the service, and in the Tecumseh area, that's our garage.

With genuine Ford parts for replacement, and with Ford-approved tools with which to do the work, we know that we can make repairs mare rapidly, and more satisfactory than in shops where make-shift parts and methods are used.

And, because it is possible to do the work in less time — and we can save time, because parts always fit and tools speed up the operation — we know, too, that we can save you money.

So, the next time your Ford needs service, bring it to us for economy and satisfaction.

TROOPERS CALLED AFTER WORKERS AND PICKETS CLASH, PEACE IS HOPED FOR

Under the watchful eye of some 60 Michigan State Police, dispatched to Clinton Monday after pickets and workers clashed in a plant re-opening demonstration, the once strike-bound Clinton Machine Company was said to be functioning at about 75 per cent efficiency on Wednesday. Meetings with state labor conciliators, union officers and factory officials have been scheduled in a hope to bring peace to the industry which has been plagued by labor unrest for about two weeks.

The strike was called when union demands for a 15-cent an hour boost in wages was met by a counter offer from the company for an eight cent an hour increase plus a bonus. Rumor in Clinton now has it that the union demand is down to 10 cents an hour, with the company standing firm on its offer.

The demonstration on Monday ended a series of meetings and polls which, according to reports, showed that a big majority of the workers in the plant desired to return to their machines. As pickets marched around the plant, many of whom, Clinton citizens charge, were imported by the union, about 275 employees headed by the company's president, Don Thomas, marched on the factory and across the picket line. They were carrying the American flag. Fighting broke out, Mr. Thomas was attacked, and seven other persons were said to have been injured.

Once inside the plant the workers began production and the number returning to their work has steadily increased until yesterday it was said that about 450 of the 600 employed were on the job. Many of the workers who marched into the plant on Monday, a number of them women, remained in the plant Monday night and again Tuesday night. They were fed T-bone steaks for their dinners, and eggs and bacon for breakfast. Cots were taken to the factory. Several Clinton residents sent in baked goods, desserts, etc.

Feeling for and against the union is running high in Clinton and most of the time from 100 to 200 persons are assembled near the factory to watch the activities. Wednesday morning, however, it was reported that only two or three pickets were on the job, as compared with well over 100 on Monday.

There has been little violence in Clinton since the opening skirmish, although it was reliably reported that one union sympathizer who chided a worker on Tuesday was severely beaten.

"It just doesn't pay to say too much, if you don't know who you are talking to," was the way one Clinton resident summed up the situation.

The state police were ordered to the village by Gov. Sigler after an appeal had been made to his office that lawlessness prevailed. It is understood that the state troopers will remain in Clinton until the strike has been settled.

Crowded Enrollment Reported At Adrian

A record enrollment of 500 or more full-time students is expected at Adrian College this fall. Last year's enrollment of 445 had been the largest in the college's 102 year history. Eight new faculty members have been contracted to meet the added demands.

All dormitories — Metcalf Hall and the Country Campus for men, and South Hall and Mcllroy Lodge for women — will be filled to capacity, and the college is now endeavoring to locate rooms in private homes to take care of the "overflow". A new men's residence, "The Cornelius Memorial House, is being constructed on the south end of the campus, but will not be ready for use by the fall term. Married students, including a large portion of the GIs, are hardest hit by the housing shortage. Many have been forced to take apartments or even single rooms at a considerable distance from the college.

A short circuit in the power lines was blamed for a fire at the Porter Sand & Gravel Company's plant south of Tecumseh at 11:10 Monday evening. The blaze started on the barge which houses sand-sucking mechanism and a diesel motor and did damage estimated at $1,500 before it was brought under control by Tecumseh firemen.

It is believed that it will take about three or four weeks to make the necessary repairs to the equipment.

The fire department was called to the John Patten house, 18 Burt street, Monday afternoon to extinguish a fire that had started in a pile of rubbish near a barn that was being torn down. The fire spread to the barn and it was destroyed. The loss was not estimated.

2 Bandits Held In $70,000 Bail

ENTER GUILTY PLEAS TO ROBBING ADDISON BANK OF $3,000 ON SATURDAY

Two nattily-dressed Detroit youths entered pleas of guilty to robbing the Addison State Savings Bank at Addison of about $3,000 on Saturday, when they were arraigned Tuesday before Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun, Adrian. They were held in $35,000 bail each, pending an investigation by the probation officer and the imposition of sentence.

The two youths, James Szuch, 22, and Frederick Bakus, 20, were arrested by state police and sheriff's officers about four hours after they had held up Miss Flaude Cleveland, president of the bank, forcing her and her cashier, Mrs. Evelyn Klein, to hand over about $3,000 in cash after they had lined up half a dozen customers in the bank's lobby. The bandits were discovered hiding in a wooded section near Clayton after they had attempted to hide their car on a nearby farm by covering it with hay. They did not resist officers, and all of the loot was recovered.

Miss Cleveland said that Szuch entered her office at the bank on Saturday afternoon telling her that he was needing a little help. When she inquired as to the kind of help he replied by showing her a revolver. Miss Cleveland collects guns as a hobby and at first she said she thought he wanted to sell her a pistol. However, when he forced the gun to her ribs and ordered her to hand over the bank's money, she and Mrs. Klein did not resist. Customers, likewise, gave no resistance, and no shots were fired. The men fled in a car.

State police and sheriffs from Hillsdale and Lenawee county immediately threw out a drag net for the men and all cars were kept constantly in touch with each other by radio. Farmers in the area also were alerted and it was not long before the abandoned car was found near Clayton. The arrest of the youths followed in a matter of minutes.

Both bandits, at the jail, told hard luck stories of high living costs, rapid spending and a need for extra money. They decided to rob the Addison bank only because they knew there was a bank there, having previously visited Devils Lake on swimming parties, they said. Devils Lake is four miles from Addison. Both bandits saw military service during World War II.

RECORD RAIN FLOODS ERIE . . . Small boats were brought into service at Erie, Pa., when a record nine and one-half inches of rain fell in eight hours. Two feet of water deluged city at height of the flood, as more than 20 families were evacuated from low-lying areas. It was estimated that damages caused by the flood would be about a million dollars. Light and telephone service was disrupted in some parts of the city, but power, gas and water supplies continued to operate.

Aircraft Company President Injured In Leap From Plane

Al Meyers, president of of Meyers Aircraft Co., here, is recovering at his home on the Macon road from a broken right foot suffered last Friday about 10:30 a.m., when a new model ship he was testing went into an uncontrollable spin and he was forced to leap from the plane at an altitude of about 2,000 feet. Mr. Meyers was wearing an emergency parachute and landed safely, but on a very rough field about a mile and a quarter northeast of Tecumseh Airport. In landing, his right foot struck a stone or hard earth with sufficient force to snap the bones in the arch.

"I've been testing planes for 20 years and it was the first time I've ever used a parachute," Meyers said discussing the incident. "I've done thousands of spins, many of them with this new ship. However, the thing that was wrong was that the spin arresting mechanism on the plane failed to function. I know the trouble, and it won't happen again."

Meyers said that the new ship "is a dandy" and that he had completed practically all of the tests, but desired to make added spin tests. These began at an altitude of about 10,000 feet. He said that he realized at that altitude that the arresting mechanism was not functioning properly, and that he rode the ship while it was spinning for a drop of about 8,000 feet, hoping that he might be able to "bring it out." At the 2,000 foot-altitude, he said, he decided that it was time to "part company."

Meyers said that the ship beat him to the earth by only a few seconds, and he landed about 100 yards from the plane. The ship weighs about 1,200 pounds and was not badly wrecked.

Meyers, with the aid of crutches, soon will be able to be about his duties.

Hodge Tells Of Damascus Trip

LOCAL DOCTOR AND FATHER, TRAVELING IN NEAR EAST, TO RETURN SOON

Dr. Ferris G. Hodge, who, with his father, is traveling in the Near East, has written another interesting letter to the Tecumseh Rotary Club which was received Tuesday.

Dr. Hodge's letter, dated August 4, which is self-explanatory, follows:

We left Damascus last evening and returned to Beirut because of reasons political, of which I cannot write at this time. However, our tour of Damascus and its environs was extremely interesting. Shopping for rare articles was much fun. A relative took us on a tour of the famous Omayad Mosque the Kurdish Mosque, the Tomb of Saladin and St. John, the Syrian Museum, and the old Roman wall surrounding part of the old Damascus and St. Paul's window (where he was given his sight and lowered from this window via rope and basket.) Then to a factory where beautiful mosaic wood articles are made by hand. Many other places were visited. From Damascus the second day we journeyed to the famous religious shrine of miracles called Syde Naya, high up in the mountains. I have a lengthy story to tell you upon my return.

Tomorrow we leave for Baalbek to take pictures of the ancient ruins. Then to Zahle and the tomb of Khalil Gibran at Bsherri. He was the most famous of all Lebanese writers, doing most of his writing in America where he died a few years ago. After that we hope the conditions in Palestine are more settled between the English, Arabs, and Jews so we can proceed to Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Nazareth, Liberias, Haifa and Tel Aviv. Our visas are all in order for the trip and our chauffer has made arrangements to leave this Friday the 8th.

After all the above is completed, we will be ready to sail, returning in September. I certainly miss all of the good friends and Rotarians. I still have hopes of attending at least one Rotary club while abroad.

P. S. Please tell Perry Hayden I have secured for him a genuine sample of Biblical wheat from the Sahra of Benyaize.

Six Clinton Young Folk Involved In Auto Accident

Six young folk from Clinton were injured, one or two of them seriously, shortly after midnight Sunday morning on the Henzie road, east and north of Wamplers Lake.

The accident car, a station wagon, was driven by Eddie J. Thomas, 13, of Clinton and his passengers were Robert Way, 16, Donald Geiger, 15, Janet Hoelzer, 15, Vaughan Filsinger, 16, and Darlene Johnston 14, all of Clinton.

The Filsinger youth suffered head injuries and was removed to Tecumseh Hospital in an unconscious condition. The Hoelzer girl suffered a cut foot and the Geiger boy was cut on one arm.

State police, who investigated the accident, said that it happened when the Thomas boy lost control of the station wagon in loose gravel, striking a tree and overturning. A part of the group had left Clinton with Thomas, joining the others at the lake and then went to visit a school friend, James Moore. It was on the return trip to the lake that the accident happened.

Quake Rattles Windows, Dishes

Tecumseh residents felt the earth tremor that caused windows to rattle and dishes to tremble, Saturday night about 9:45, but it was not until several minutes later that most of them realized that they had lived through an earthquake.

"I thought there might have been an explosion," one resident explained, "and it was not until a radio program was interrupted and an announcer said that lower Michigan had been shaken by a quake, that I [illegible]er what had happened." This resident's reaction was typical of most citizens who felt the trembler which lasted about 30 or 40 seconds.

Reports of scientists show that the quake was felt in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois, and it might have had its origin in northern Ohio or lower Michigan. Nowhere was any damage reported, although at Albion a woman said that she was shaken from her bed.

Many residents recalled that about twelve years ago a slight quake was felt in this area. Some residents recalled that dishes rattled at that time, but like Saturday's quake, it did no damage.

Kenny Fund To Aid Polio War

MONEY AVAILABLE TO COMMUNITY FOR DIAGNOSIS AND CARE OF PATIENTS

The Michigan Chapter of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, Inc., has offered its assistance to Tecumseh in its fight against infantile paralysis, and its funds are instantly available for hospitalization, according to William G. Baxter, state administrator of the Fund with offices in Detroit.

Mr. Baxter has written of the Fund's desire to be of assistance locally in a letter to Bruce W. Hoffman, Meyers Aircraft Co., executive and chairman of the Sister Kenny Fund drive here, a year ago.

"It has just been brought to my attention that three definite and two suspected polio cases have occurred in your community.

"In a great many cases it is a great financial strain on the families to take care of the bills necessary to hospitalization of infantile paralysis victims. The Kenny Foudation of Michigan stands ready and willing to assist in any possible way those unfortunate families in your community without regard to race, creed color or political in your community without regard to race, creed, color or political affiliation, and without red tape. This applies not only to definite polio cases but suspected cases as well.

"Our Michigan funds are available to any community regardless of amount collected in that community or county. We feel this is a much more efficient and expedient system of administering the funds.

"If there is any literature of an educational value that you need, please advise me."

Mr. Hoffman said that he desired the local community generally to know that the Kenny fund, to which Tecumseh subscribed liberally a year ago, is now willing and anxious to play any part that it can in stamping out polio here.

Thus far, Tecumseh has reported three cases of infantile, all of them diagnosed at the University of Michigan hospial. Two other suspected cases of the disease were pronounced to be strep infection after examinations at the University.

All of the Tecumseh victims are recovering from the disease, and there has been no paralysis.

C. of C. Banquet Set For Sept. 9

PLEDGES SEEM TO ASSURE FORMATION OF CHAMBER IN TECUMSEH

Although solicitation for membership has not been finished, pledges thus far received seem to assure the formation of a Chamber of Commerce in Tecumseh and steps toward its final organization will be taken at a banquet, to be held Thursday evening, September 9, in the gymnasium of the high school, Charles O. Butler, general chairman of a business men's committee, said today.

Mr. Butler heads a committee named by the presidents of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, Junior Chamber of Commerce and Town Hall, the purpose of the committee being to determine if sufficient funds can be obtained to operate a Chamber in Tecumseh. The banquet meeting is being called by the presidents of the four organizations to give Mr. Butler's committee an opportunity to make its report.

A special committee in charge of ticket sales and arrangements for the banquet has been named as follows: Yale Kerby, chairman, E. A. Collins, Robert Hanna, Robert French, Clarence Gilman, Wade L. Jones and E. M. Campbell.

"We have not finished soliciting for membership pledges, and we probably will not be finished by the time of the banquet, but we have sufficient pledges now to seem to assure the organization of a Chamber," Mr. Butler said, "and there is no need to delay further the final steps of forming the organization.

"We do, however, want it definitely understood that Tecumseh's Chamber of Commerce is for everybody, and we want everybody to participate in its organization, both morally and financially. We realize that there are many persons and firms that cannot afford to buy more than one membership, but we want them to have that membership because we believe that if the entire community is interested, then the Chamber will function for the benefit of all. Then, too, if everybody gives a little, it will cost everybody less."

It has been carefully estimated that the operation of a Chamber here will cost the community between $10,000 and $12,000 annually, with a full-time paid secretary. It is the committee's desire, at the banquet meeting, to obtain authorization for the election of a board of directors, which group in turn will name a secretary and get the organization in readiness to function.

The need for a Chamber was pointed out here about a month ago at a meeting of business and industrial leaders at a banquet at the high school, addressed by R. W. Herrick, president of the Tecumseh Products Company, and C. W. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Herrick sparked the local organization by saying that his company and its associates would pay $3,800 annually toward its support. Since that time, a committee has been at work seeking other pledges, and, according to Mr. Butler, a sufficient amount to warrant organization have been received.

"The committee still has many prospective members to call in and I trust that they will receive the same courteous treatment that has been accorded to us in the past," Butler said. "We are giving our time and our effort toward organizing the Chamber, and it will be for the good of everybody. Thus far, we have been turned down only once, and I am very happy to say that Tecumseh realizes that a Chamber is badly needed here if we are to grow and to keep pace with our expanding industry. I'd like to say thanks for the committee to those who have treated us so courteously, and I know that by the time of our banquet, week after next, we will have a very encouraging report to make to the community."

RIGHT LESSON — RIGHT TIME

More deaths and injuries in traffic accidents are caused by drivers from 16 to 21 years of age than any other age group.

Only one half as many accidents are caused by students who have had driving instructions as are caused by those without training.

One million new teen-age drivers take to the highway every year.

The conclusion to be drawn here is startingly clear. If we are to reduce the tragic plague of traffic accidents which in one year can snuff out over 33,500 lives, we must train the new generations of drivers before and as they get behind the wheel. During the high school years, when your youths become eligible for driving on a point of age, is the right time for the right lesson.

Figures show that at least three out of five high school students will be either driving an automobile at graduation or within three years thereafter. This fact alone should be sufficient to make pre-driver education mandatory in all high schools.

At present, a little over 5,000 high schools throughout the nation have some form of driver education program. But this is only one fourth of those that should have one. Public opinion strongly urges driver training in the schools. A recent survey made by the National Committee for Traffic Safety showed that 78 per cent of the people endorse such a program. A majority of these want the training carried to actual behind-the-wheel instruction.

Then let our educators heed the facts. Let them answer to the public demand, with, of course, public support. Posterity will most certainly condemn this generation if we fail to prepare the youth of today to safely live in the motorized world we have created.

Her car stalled at the corner, and the traffic light changed, red, yellow, green; red, yellow green. The policeman stepped up beside her car and asked: "What's the matter, lady, ain't we got any colors you like?"

Install New Brain-Wave Machine to Study Behavior

A new electroencephalograph, or brain-wave machine that detects electrical waves of a millionth of a volt emanating from the brain, is installed in the psychology laboratories of Northwestern university where it will be used to study human behavior and personality. The waves, which are stimulated by activity of the brain, are magnified 1,000,000 times by super-sensitive amplifiers and are recorded graphically on a cathode ray oscillograph, resembling a television screen, and on ink writing and photographic devices.

The primary aim of the research is to discover the relation of the central and autonomic, or involuntary, nervous system to emotional and other types of behavior. In experiments, brain waves will be picked up by electrodes attached to a person's scalp as the brain activity is stimulated by light, sound and emotion.

Machines of this type now are used in veterans' hospitals and medical clinics to aid in diagnosing brain injuries and epilepsy and in locating brain tumors, but much remains to be learned about the basic nature of the electrical activity and its relation to the brain.

Poison Tropical Brew May Help Polio Victims

Curare, the deadly arrow poison of South American Indians, promises to hel ppolio sufferers by relieving spastic twitchings, Dr. Donalee L. Tabern of the Abbott Laboratories declared. Emphasizing the importance of carefully controlled dosage, Dr. Tabern explained that small amounts of curare tend to block abnormal nerve impulses that cause twitching but do not interfere with voluntary movement.

Scientists studying the effects of curare as an anesthetic are largely dependent upon South American Indians for their supply of the drug. The Indians brew curare from plants according to ancient tribal rituals, said Dr. Tabern.

"Actually, of course, the native is no expert botanist," he continued, "and he usually—perhaps to increase the magic of his brew—insists on using a number of different plants, and may toss in a few small animals for good measure, and there is not much the chemist here in the states can do to convince him of the error of his ways. It is quite probable, too, that the type of alkaloids present in any given species of plant will vary with the conditions of growth—the net result being that each lot presents a problem all its own."

Ventilate Attic

If the ceiling in your house is insulated, keep the ventilators or louvers of the attic open during the winter months. Otherwise, frost will gather on the rafters and then when the weather warms up this frost will melt and the water will damage the walls in the rooms below. Before the ceiling is insulated, enough heat comes up to keep large amounts of frost from forming. After insulation, frost forms easily. With the ceiling insulated, open ventilators act to eliminate the frost just as an open side window in your car will keep the frost off the cold windshield. Inspect your attic after severe snowstorms as snow may be driven through the ventilators by strong winds. Burlap or thin muslin, nailed over the ventilators, will help hold the snow out.

Gather leafy crops early in the morning, if possible, before the sun wilts them. If they are to be kept until a later meal, wash and cover them and place in the refrigerator. Pick peas and sweet corn within an hour of getting them ready for the kettle; if gathered very long before cooking, they lose both sweetness and flavor. Gathering any vegetable too long before using causes loss of vitamins.

Scrape or peel vegetables thinly; valuable minerals are just beneath the outer skin. Young carrots, beets, and summer squash should merely be scrubbed and not peeled. Neither should vegetables be soaked in water before cooking. This, too, causes loss of minerals.

Cook vegetables quickly and only until barely tender. Usually they taste better if slightly undercooked than they do if soft and mushy from overcooking. In boiling, use only a small amount of water, saving whatever liquid remains when the cooking is finished. If there is too much to serve with the vegetable, keep it to add to soup. In boiling vegetables make sure the water is really boiling before adding them. If put over the fire in cold water, vegetables lose color, flavor, texture, and much of their food value.

Vegetables fresh from the garden need very little dressing up to make them deliciously appetizing. Simple methods of cookery are best with the simplest of seasonings added. Until you have eaten vegetables fresh picked from your garden and properly cooked, you do not know the taste of vegetables at their best.

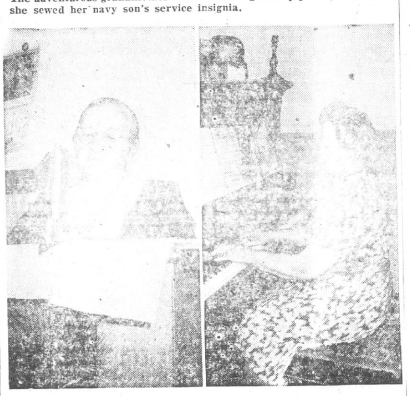
GRANDMOTHER A STOWAWAY . . . Mrs. Grace Albanese, Italian-American wife of a Bronx, N. Y., grocer, as she arrived aboard the army-operated American liner Marine Perch—a stowaway. Mrs. Albanese sailed to Italy last November to visit her failing mother and her married son, Tony, a sailor, who won a Silver Star in action. Stranded after four months, she walked aboard the Marine Perch in Genoa. The adventurous grandmother arrived wearing a navy jacket, on which she sewed her navy son's service insignia.



EMINENT HOMEMAKERS . . . Mrs. Fred Dittman, Highmore, left, and Mrs. Louisa F. Rehfeld, Warner, who have been selected by South Dakota State college for the award of "Eminent Homemaker—1947." Mrs. Dittman is the mother of 12 children, all of whom are making high places for themselves. Emil, the oldest, is a chemist on the atomic bomb project. Since her husband's death, Mrs. Dittman moved from the farm, but manages to operate one of the largest home gardens in the state, in addition to active work [illegible] garden and community organizations. Mrs. Rehfeld's husband died in 1936. Although the farm was under heavy mortgage, she managed to pay off all debts, educate and raise six children.

Women Big Stockholders In American Steel Industry

Of the 468,200 individuals holding the common and preferred stock of companies in the steel industry, 232,500 are women, according to an American Iron and Steel institute survey of companies operating 91 per cent of the nation's steel capacity. Male stockholders total 235,700 and in addition, there are 47,900 institutions, businesses and other groups owning a share of the industry.

Individual stockholders held 60.0 per cent of the industry's stock, while 9.0 per cent was held by institutions, including insurance companies, hospitals, colleges, churches, charities, foundations and estates. Other groups, including small and large businesses, investment trusts, foreign corporations, brokerage houses, and so on, held 31.0 per cent.

Insurance companies, churches, hospitals, and colleges, serving millions of Americans, are largely dependent upon the income from their investments, including their holdings of shares in the steel industry. Yet, few people attending or dealing with these institutions realize this dependence upon the dividend policies of various corporations and their ability to pay interest on outstanding bonds.

Aside from this, many more persons are aided or supported by estates, charities and foundations holding investments in the steel industry.

Women Control Purse in Prosperous Indian State

The Maharaja of Travancore rules an Indian state of unusual customs and advanced industrial development. The name Travancore is translated as "the place of the Goddess of Prosperity," notes the National Geographic society. The term goddess is especially appropriate because of women's favored position there.

Government is a semi-matriarchy and women are the heirs of property and the guardians of the family pocketbook. They vote, hold office, and serve as teachers, lawyers and doctors. Although the official heads of state are men, succession always is through the female line. Thus the inheritance is not passed down from father to son, but "sideways" to nephews.

The present Maharaja, member of an ancient Hindu dynasty, is well endowed with titles, including His Highness, Sultan, Maharaja, Raja and a three-word combination meaning "Invincible Sword in War." His subjects number more than 6,000,000.

Opportunity Knocks

There is a familiar proverb to the effect that opportunity knocks on every man's door once, but only once, but it is not always heard. For instance, a Nottingham plumber submitted to the British War Office, in 1911, a design for a [illegible] an unknown military device, and across the drawing, in red ink, was written the official comment: "The man is mad." When George Westinghouse had perfected his airbrake, in 1875, he offered it to Commodore Vanderbilt, but the railroad magnate returned Westinghouse's letter, with these words scribbled across the bottom: "I have no time to waste on fools." One day a stranger approached Mark Twain with a request for $500, for which he would sell half interest in his invention, but Twain, "stung" several times before, refused flatly. From courtesy he asked the stranger his name. "Bell," the man replied as he turned away, "Alexander Graham Bell." It wasn't a stranger who approached Sir Arthur Conan Doyle with a proposition. A young actor playing in one of Doyle's productions, he suggested that he and the writer agree to divide their incomes with one another for the rest of their lives. Doyle laughed heartily. "Charlie Chaplin," he said, "if I didn't know you were joking, I'd have you fired for such audacity!"

Have You Ever Heard The Password To Death?

If you've ever played poker, maybe you know chances of drawing a full house are one in 694; a royal straight flush, one in 649-740. All chances of making a fortune at gambling are slim.

Take the driver who's stuck in a long line of cars, behind a 1920 jalopy that's belching exhaust fumes in his face. Does he fume, too, and step on the gas? Not if he's smart, he doesn't. He knows there's a very good possibility that on the other side of that hill another driver is also toying with the idea of pulling out of line.

No one has figured out the mathematical odds involved in highway gambling. But everybody knows that the dealer is Death—who never lends the loser a shirt to wear home. And that the stakes are human lives, and broken, crippled bodies.

Ask Schools To Teach Driving

18 HIGH SCHOOLS IN MICHIGAN NOW HAVE SUCH COURSES FOR THE STUDENTS

There is no good reason why every qualified high school in the state cannot include driver training in its 1947-48 curriculum, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

Despite an awareness of the problem unskilled auto drivers present, Michigan now has only 18 high schools which offer both classroom and behind-the-wheel driver training.

Lack of teachers and dual-control cars have held up statewide adoption of high school driver training in the past, says Ernest P. Davis, Auto Club Safety and Traffic director. Seven driver-training seminars held during the past two years have produced about 300 trained instructors not now teaching the subject. The seminars, attended by teachers, policemen and school superintendents, have been sponsored by the State Department of Public Instruction and Auto Club. Next seminar has been scheduled for some time in October.

Enough dual-control cars will soon be made available through the American Automobile Association and Auto Club for all qualified high schools in Michigan to offer the course in the 1947-48 school year, Davis predicts.

With the 18 complete courses now in operation and 116 schools offering classroom driver education only, Michigan leads the nation in teaching its youngsters how to navigate safely on highways, Davis says. The lead will be maintained only if many more schools adopt driver training this fall.

Two recent national polls rate driver training as the most important safety subject. Only through such training can accidents be cut appreciably, Davis feels.

"When every high school student who plans to drive can take driver training, accidents and deaths on the highways will be cut in half in two generations," he predicts.

It is estimated that a million high school students begin driving autos each year in the nation. The average boy or girl will drive 175,000 miles in his or her lifetime. Records show that untrained high school age drivers have the worst accident rate of any age group.

Based on miles driven per fatality untrained 16 to 20-year olds have a record more than nine times worse than drivers 45 to 50. Students given driver training in Cleveland high schools have cut their accident rates in half.

Although Michigan's new driver law prohibits 14 to 16-year olds from getting licenses, in exceptional cases children from this age group will be granted licenses. Most of the rest will want to drive when they do become of age. The training program will aid both these groups.

Driver training should be taught in all high schools, say the National Commission on Safety Education, the AAA, Michigan Department of Public Instruction and the President's Highway Safety Conference of 1947. The latter adopted a recommendation that secondary schools "Provide driver education and training as an integral part of the curriculum for students approaching legal driving age and other traffic safety activities for all age levels in the secondary schools."

Pheasant Outlook Is Worse Than A Year Ago

LUDINGTON—The pheasant situation may be worse this season than it was last year, Conservation Director P. J. Hoffmaster advised the conservation commission at its meeting here. Pheasant and other fall hunting regulations were fixed by the commission August 3 and 4 at the Higgins Lake conservation training school.

The pheasant outlook is unfavorable in spite of peak game farm production and establishment of food patches, refuges and share-cropping to leave grain in the fields for food on state lands, the director said.

"Apparently this is not a local situation but rather a country-wide condition," Hoffmaster declared. "Earlier this month representatives of conservation departments and fish and game commissions from nine mid-western states met at Higgins Lake for their yearly conference. Discussion of the pheasant situation naturally dominated their deliberations, since their population had dropped considerably in the several states. Representatives were there from the outstanding pheasant producing states of the midwest. Invariably their experiences with pheasants were comparable with those in Michigan. In the early '40's their pheasant population reached a peak and then fell into a continuous slump. Much research is being carried on by the several states as to the reasons for this but no two agreed as to any single cause or combination of causes, and as a consequence there could be no agreement on remedial measures. Only one fact was uncontested—that pheasants are down in number in every part of the country.

"While we do not believe that present conditions will be permanent we cannot forecast where there will be material improvement. We are, however, constantly studying the problem, as are the other pheasant states and the federal government, and expect eventually at least a partial solution will be forthcoming."

Elizabeth Gay Larsen Bride Of Peter L. McGee

Miss Elizabeth Gay Larsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Larsen, of Tecumseh, and Peter Lockwood McGee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. McGee of Hudson, Ohio, were united in marriage Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock during an impressive ceremony at St. Peter's Episcopal church. The double ring service was performed by the Rev. Charles L. Ramsey of Jackson assisted by the Rev. E. P. Sabin of Madison, Wis., a college friend of the bride's father at Northwestern University. The altar was decorated with arrangements of gladioli, honeysuckle, and candelabra. Bouquets also marked the pews. The wedding date was the 28th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Webster G. Larsen played a program of nuptial music and accompanied Gloria Gonan of Gary, Indiana, a sorority sister of the bride, when she sang "Beloved" by Aylward and "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her gown of slipper satin with an apron of heirloom rose point lace, and mitts of the same lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of satin and stephanotis, and she carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and bavardia centered with a white orchid and prayer book. The bride's only jewelry was a cameo pendant, a gift of the groom.

Miss Jacquelyn Costigan as the maid of honor, wore an aqua faille gown and carried a crescent cascade of rubrum lilies. The bridesmaids, Mary Wright, Haidee Prager of Midland, Jeanne Marie Herrick and Ruth Schneider, wore gowns of melon faille, fashioned with wide scallops at the hemline of the bouffant skirts, scalloped sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves, and matching mitts. Their headdresses were juliet caps and glamelias, and carried bouquets of shaded glamelias and ivy.

Charles McGee assisted his brother as best man and the ushers were Robert Larsen, brother of the bride, Edward Conners, of Hudson, Ohio, Robert Gaukler of Pontiac and Joe Leek.

Presidential Life Span Not Governed by Voters

The U. S. presidency is more of a man-killing job than it used to be, according to figures furnished by Representative Bell (Dem., Mo.).

Statistics gathered by the Missouri representative shows that the first 15 presidents took office at an average age of 54 and lived an average of 11 years after they left the White House. The next 14 men who held the office ending with Calvin Coolidge, were inaugurated at an average age of 49 and lived an average of 5.9 years after retiring from the presidency.

Representative Bell presented a bill to the judiciary subcommittee to give all former presidents a pension of two-thirds of his average annual salary while in office.

On the basis of the present salary, Ex-Pres. Herbert Hoover would receive $50,000 a year pension. Federal income taxes would cut that down to a little under $25,000. All former presidents have not been as fortunate as President Hoover, and the pension would have been welcomed in many cases. Herbert Hoover has retained most of the wealth he accumulated before becoming president.

After leaving office Calvin Coolidge added to his bank account by articles in a national publication.

Congress has provided a pension for widows of former presidents in every case, although few if any have been left in need of financial support. Those still alive have been spending considerable time and money in various charity endeavors.

Milk Ranks as Major Food In Diet of American Home

More than 50 million quarts of fresh milk and cream a day are distributed to consumers through doorstep deliveries and stores. Milk and its products comprise more than 25 per cent of the foods estimated to be consumed annually by the average American.

Milk is one of the largest single sources of cash farm income and was 14 per cent of all farm income in 1945—larger than hogs, over twice wheat or eggs, and three times cotton or tobacco. Cash farm income from milk was exceeded for the first time by cattle and calves. One out of every 15 U. S. families is dependent on milk for a livelihood.

Milk production on the farms continues above prewar averages and demand for milk and dairy products is strong. As an economical food containing vital components of the diet, the ever-widening use of milk seems destined to bring about an increased scale of milk production on farms.

Americans enjoy the best milk in the world and economical distribution, sanitation, pasteurization and other safeguards have made our system of milk supply and distribution a world standard.

London's Ice Fairs

The unusual appearance of vast ice fields in the heart of London has resulted in festivals known as "frost fairs." At one of these fairs, in 1814, some 30 flag-bearing booths were set up on the ice. Many served refreshments. Sheep roasted on the ice and served as "Lapland mutton," sold at a shilling a slice. Musicians provided for dancing; skittles were played; horse and coach races, puppet shows, merry-go-rounds and swings supplied the gaiety of country-fair amusements. Printers set up small hand presses on the ice, running off broadsides about the fair. They also collected six pence apiece from hundreds of patrons for printing their names, the date and the place. John Evelyn's diary described one fair as "a Bacchanalian triumph or carnival on the water." The diarist also recorded the presence of a King Charles and his queen.

FLORIDA REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maves, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Derby and daughter, Leitha, were among the guests who attended the Winter Haven, Florida, reunion Friday at the summer haven of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Camp at Evans Lake. Some 42 guests were present from Winter Haven, Florida, Ypsilanti, Wheaton, Ill., Toledo, O., Adrian, Plymouth, Milan, Dearborn, Ann Arbor, Brooklyn, Tecumseh and Saline. Next year the reunion will be held at the summer home of C. A. Dibble at Devils Lake.

LONG AND THE SHORT . . . Bellhop Raymond Karns (5 ft. 1 in.) looks to be strictly out of his class in the company of these towering cuties, all six feet tall. They are among the members of 15 social clubs from cities all over the country organized exclusively for males at least six feet four inches tall and girls who extend at least six feet into the air. Attending a convention at Los Angeles, they discussed problems of short beds, clothes, chandeliers, low ceilings and making friends.

MARINES ON THE AIR . . . One of the services offered by the United States marines based in Tsingtao, China, is a full schedule of radio entertainment broadcast from the marine corps operated station XABU. The station is an enterprise of the Armed Forces Radio Service, whose mission is to provide entertainment, education and information for U. S. armed forces abroad.

STACKS OF MONEY—ALL BAD . . . Deputy United States Marshal Doris Brown embraces the mountain of bogus $10 bills found on highway south of St. George, Utah, and brought to Los Angeles by secret service agents. The pile of counterfeit bills was estimated to represent about $150,000 at face value.

Pottery of The Nations

The pottery and china of different countries are revelations of the people and the place. From Italy comes a robust hearty kind of ware, beautiful and intricate in an almost incidental sort of way, the work of people who love life more than glory. From France comes a flawless translucent china, sophisticated, elegant, fragile, and by contrast a sturdy provincial pottery that's gay and informal but never naive. English porcelain and earthenware is a perfect portrait of an English lady . . . of first quality, hard to chip, terribly correct, never very smart, somehow altogether handsome and satisfactory.

A careless pedestrian was to blame for the wrecking of this truck and the death of its driver. As the pedestrian suddenly crossed the road, directly in front of the truck, the driver swerved off the roadway and his machine overturned in the ditch where it immediately caught fire. Driver was pinned in the front seat and burned to death before he could be extricated.

Wind Cave's Formation

Wind cave in South Dakota, lies in the great Pahasapa limestone formation which also contains several other large subterranean caverns. The facts about the discovery of the cave are little known, but it is generally believed that it was discovered by Tom Bingham, a Black Hills pioneer, while hunting deer in 1881. He was attracted by a strange whistling and, after searching about in the undergrowth, he discovered that it was caused by wind escaping through a small hole in some rocks. This hole, not more than 10 inches in diameter, is the only natural opening to the cave so far discovered. The strong currents of wind that blow alternately in and out of the mouth of the cave suggested its name. This strange phenomenom is believed to be caused by changes in the atmospheric pressure outside.

Conquerors of Iraq

Since the dawn of history the acquisition of the land of Iraq has been the aim of nations, due to the importance of its political and geographical position. Its fate was to be a stage for nations to act thereon their parts which were rich in incidents and disasters. It was consecutively occupied by the Sumerians, the Akkadians, the Amorians, the Elamites, the Babylonians, the Assyrians, the Medes, the Persians, the Greeks, the Arabs and the Turks. Each nation left behind it a different civilization. The first people Iraq knew were the Sumerians, who appeared in the lower plain of Shinar. The part they conquered was called Sumer; then they extended their dominion far into the plain, taking cities one after the other until they became masters of the lower part of that fertile plain.

Miss Colleen M. Davidson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davidson, and Calvin O. Rickard, son of Mrs. Agnes Rickard of Blissfield were united in marriage Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church. The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with candelabra, hampers of pink and white gladioli and bebe chrysanthemums. Rev. B. O. Bashore performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Kenton Hunt played an organ recital of nuptial music as the guests were seated by the ushers, Douglas Fairbanks of Tecumseh, and Norman Frayer of Britton and accompanied Mrs. Dow Bilby when she sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white gown of rayon marquisette and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Her only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Juanita Kerentoff, the maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of light blue rayon taffeta and carried an arm bouquet of rose gladioli and light blue delphinium. The bridesmaids, Mary Lou Ruhl and Joyce Hanna, wore gowns of pink rayon taffeta and carried arm bouquets of light pink gladioli and white larkspurs. Gladwin Spoh of Britton was best man.

The bride's mother wore an aqua crepe dress with a corsage of Johannna Hill roses and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in sheer black with a corsage of red roses. The bride's grandmother wore black lace and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The lace covered table was centered was a four-tiered wedding cake. The guests were served by Mrs. B. O. Bashore, Miss Elizabeth Chase, Mrs. Leslie Becker, and the Misses Vonda Anderson and Jean Wilson.

Avoid Ivy Poisoning By Recognizing Plant

"No one is definitely immune to poison ivy, and there is no section of Michigan in which the plant cannot be found," Dr. William DeKleine, state health commissioner, said today when he advised care in avoiding the plant.

"Leaves three, let it be," he said is a good rule to follow, for while many people seem to minimize the danger of poison ivy, it can be serious, causing month-long illness in a hospital.

The poison which causes the blisters and severe irritation on the human body is an oil in the plant. One can catch poison ivy from touching the plant, from soot and smoke while burning it, from contact with a person who has it, or from dust which has the oil particles on it. Re-contact may result from wearing uncleaned clothes which one wore at the time of a previous infection.

First precaution is to recognize the plant and avoid its locality. If contact with the oil is suspected, wash with strong soap lather, leaving the lather to dry. The best cure is a ten percent solution of tannic acid in alcohol applied with a rubbing motion to remove tops of the blisters. When a child has scratched the blistered areas, care should be used to see that an infection does not enter the open areas.

The poison ivy plant can be eradicated by spraying 2, 4-D or similar chemical on the leaves and plant, the commissioner advised.

CURE CARELESSNESS

Old saws and sayings to the contrary, you can teach an old dog new tricks. We admit it is more difficult than teaching him the right things when he is young. Altering the ingrained habits of a lifetime often takes little short of dynamite.

That is why we have a difficult and serious problem before us in the nation's present efforts to cut down the annual slaughter on our streets and highways. Too many drivers have become habitually poor — even dangerous — drivers. Long accustomed to ignoring the simple rules of safety and to daily take unnecessary chances, the ordinary driver unconsciously contributes to the death and injury in traffic. If we are to save our lives and the lives of our neighbors, we must now change those habits and teach the man behind the wheel—and the unhappy pedestrian who is often under it—a new and sane regard for safety.

Though it will be hard for some individuals to break with habit, we are fortunate that older drivers are blessed with the reasoning power that comes with maturity, for this will enable them to grasp the importance of safety and their individual responsibilities in securing it.

Each driver and pedestrian has a responsibility to conduct himself on the streets and highways with constant regard for the rules and with constant consideration for the rights of others. In the final analysis, the individual is supreme. He can, by his act, in a fracton of a second either fulfill the mandate to be a safe highway user or nullify the effort which has been expended to safeguard lives and property. There is no substitute for individual caution, and no excuse for individual carelessness.

FRANKLIN ONCE SAID:

"If civilization is so bad WITH influence of the church, what would it be WITHOUT that influence?"

If we have a juvenile delinquency problem today with the influence of ALL the churches, just what would be the condition if there WERE no churches?

The church is the greatest force for GOOD that has ever been known. Its influence and teachings have saved countless boys and girls. The church is the institution designed to teach what is right and wrong.

When there's one catcher for two pitchers

It doesn't take a baseball expert to know that if two pitchers throw to one catcher, each must wait his turn.

The same holds true for telephone switchboards. Present limited central office facilities enable us to "catch" only a given number of calls at a time. With present record telephone traffic, users must sometimes wait a few seconds before completing a call.

We won't be able to "catch" everyone at once until additional equipment becomes available.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

Four miles southwest of the Lake of the Clouds in the Porcupine Mountain State Park and accessible to travelers only by a winding trail is a dream spot known as Mirror lake.

Guarded by virgin white pine and hemlock, some of which are four to five feet in diameter and tower 100 to 120 feet in the sky, Mirror lake nestles in a mountain range. The sun sets early. Twilight shadows on the water give rise to its name.

The altitude of Mirror lake is three feet higher than the topmost crest of the rocky escarpments that rim the southern edge of Lake of the Clouds.

You begin to realize this height when you hike over a well-marked foot trail with your bedroll and two days' suppy of food in a rucksack strapped on your back. The trail ascends steadily after you leave the Carp river outlet of Lake of the Clouds. You are traversing the center of Michigan's new wilderness park, an untouched timberland of nearly 20,000 acres, the largest remaining hardwood stand in the Middle West.

Two-thirds up the mountain trail you reach a scenic gorge. Caug creek, fed by cold mountain springs, tumbles down in a series of picturesque waterfalls. Along the banks of this miniature canyon is an ideal place to refreshen your spirits — boil a pot of coffee or tea, munch on a sandwich or candy bar, and admire a fairyland of giant trees and ferns. The ground is a brown cushion of pine needles.

Since October, 1944, when we failed to reach Mirror Lake because we got on the wrong trail, I had been telling the missus about the fascination of the Porcupines. And so we two became, quite by accident, the first couple to pack in our bed and food to the state's first log cabin at Mirror Lake.

Earl J. Donnelly, native of Ontonagon and now assistant director of the budget bureau at Washington, D. C., had preceded us with a party of seven. But with admirable prudence he had hired a team and wagon to haul supplies from the Nonesuch mine, site of a future park dude ranch. The team had taken nine hours' time to reach the cabin, for the trail was rough and boggy.

Knox Jamison, park superintendent, told us the state is building five cabins in the park this year. Three will be at Mirror lake, located about 500 feet apart. One will be along the south side of Lake of the Clouds; a fourth at the upper falls of the Little Carp river; and the fifth along Lake Superior at Lone Rock point. The first Mirror lake cabin has eight bunks; all others will have four single-bed bunks and a combination heating and cooking range. You must pack your own bedding, cooking utensils and what is more important — all your food.

These cabins rent for $2.50 a day, summer or winter. Reservations may be made by writing to Mr. Jamison at Ontonagon.

For supper at Mirror lake we feasted on "pigs in a blanket"—hot dogs wrapped in bacon slices. Gerber's baby food provided a peach dessert — a new use for this Fremont-canned line. Powdered instant coffee provided our beverage. For breakfast we enjoyed our favorite delight of buttermilk pancakes, readymixed for baking and topped with brown syrup and bacon. Don't skimp on food. Your appetite will be immense.

After dinner we shoved off in an old wooden boat, a relic perhaps of mining days, for an exploratory cruise about Mirror lake. When we take the missus in a canoe, we insist that she put on a life preserver. A landlubber from Indiana, she can't swim a stroke. Here we were, paddling about in a lake miles from so-called civilization, in a craft that could qualify for Noah's ark!

Because of the rock formation, the water in Mirror lake is brown red as coffee beans. Trout fishing is excellent in the spring, but poor during the hot summer weeks. Lily pond lake is better, they say.

Several weeks ago the cook for the construction crew which is building the cabins was nearly petrified when five bears came strolling into his kitchen.

The night air was crisp and cool. With pine knots we built a friendly camp fire in front of the cabin and gazed at the deepening shadows on the lake. A rabbit hopped from the underbrush by the lake shore and nibbled at tender leaves of a ground vine. He ignored nonchalantly our invitations to come and share the warmth of our camp fire. Dumb bunny!

The next morning we beheld, trapped in a sink inside the cabin, a timid, trembling kangaroo mouse. He had missed the rare treat of buttermilk pancake flour, for which we were eternally grateful.

Was all this worth the effort, the toil of a long hike up the mountain trail? Yes, we think so.

Yes, here's how more than 5,500 people died and thousands more were injured last year—because someone took one or two drinks, and then drove.

If you think you can drink and then drive safely you're simply courting suicide—or murder. You're drinking a toast to Death!

Statistics show that one out of every six drivers involved in fatal automobile accidents had been drinking. Drinking drivers are three or four times more likely to be involved in accidents. Tests have proved time and again that a couple of drinks are sufficient to lower a driver's reactions to the danger point. When quick action and alert judgment are demanded, the driver who has been drinking fails.

If it were only the drinking driver himself who paid the penalty, that would be bad enough. But when he cuts short the lives of other innocent people—riders in his car, occupants of other cars, or pedestrians caught by his erratic driving—that's manslaughter!

Don't smile when you read this, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen. The law operates with a heavy hand on drinking drivers. It is going to be even tougher in the future. It's serious business!

Flies Known To Carry Infantile

STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT URGES THAT LAWNS AND HOUSES BE SPRAYED

Are you playing midwife to a filthy fly? Are you giving her the run of your house, and inviting her to sit at your table?

This is the height of the 1947 fly season, and if you still have flies around your house and barn, today is the time to kill them and DDT is the way to do it, Dr. William DeKleine, State Health Commissioner, advised today.

DDT isn't dangerous unless you eat it, and its cost is little. You can spray the parts of your house which need spraying with about ½ gallon of a 5% spray at the cost of about $1, and the average size lawn can be treated with a pound of wettable DDT powder mixed with about five gallons of water at a cost of about 50 cents. The average home and lawn can be kept free of flies and mosquitoes all summer and fall for about $5.

Medical men know that flies carry such diseases as typhoid, dysentery, cholera and polio and many others. Germs of most human diseases are found in human excreta, juts as germs of animal diseases tranmissable to humans, are found in animal excreta. Some types of flies are born in and feed on excreta, others just walk through it.

The fly who "crashes" your summer feast or picnic or enjoys the freedom of your food cupboard has just been hatched in and recently left the most disgusting unclean and sanitary places in your neighborhood. She has just waded through matter which you would not willingly touch, matter which you would avoid, matter which you would not even approach. Now she is walking on your food, partaking of it, and contaminating it.

Stable manure is the chief breeding place of flies but rotting vegetables and animal matter, foul garbage cans and dumps, human and animal excreta, cesspools, chicken coops, pig pens and cow stables are excellent hosts to the fly and her offspring. The female fly lays about 150 eggs at a time. Two weeks later, her children do the same. One pair of flies in one season can become the ancestors of more flies than 1,000 men could swat in that season.

It is so true as to be almost an axiom, that of two cities or of two farms in the same temperature belt, the one with the least number of filthy, insanitary fly-breeding accumulations will have the least flies. That is, of course, unless one of the communities or farm has conducted a DDT campaign against the fly nuisance.

If, even in a community which has no fly eradication program, each householder would spray his own buildings and property with DDT solutions, the danger and nuisance of flies could be virtually eliminated. The cost, in comparison with the comfort and freedom from danger of disease, is very small.

"While the spring is the best time to kill flies because there are fewer of them," Dr. DeKleine pointed out, "they should be killed, and I mean killed, now, even though it is August."

Mosquitoes can be eliminated by spraying stagnant pools with DDT solution. Ants, bedbugs, cockroaches, lice and fleas can be eradicated by spraying the places which harbor them with DDT, the Commissioner said.

Worm Your Pullets
The Summer Care Of Your Pullets Will Determine Your Profits Next Fall

A Chek-R-Ton Treatment

At 10 to 12 weeks of age, pullets should be given a Chek-R-Ton treatment. If you are feeding an all mash ration, mix in three pounds of Chek-R-Ton for each 100 lbs. of mash, and feed one week. Mash and grain feeding will require six pounds of Chek-R-Ton for each 100 lb. of mash.

This worming treatment is shockless to your birds, and can be repeated anytime there are indications of round worms present in your flock. For particulars,

Break In Heat Is Due Today

TWO IN COUNTY OVERCOME AS TEMPERATURES SOAR TO 99.5, TUESDAY

The weatherman says that there will be a definite break today in the heat wave which has held the mid-west in its grip since Sunday—the second heat wave for August. Temperatures on Tuesday set a record high in Lenawee county for all of Michigan, the mercury climbing to 99.5 degrees.

Although scattered thunderstorms were forecast for Tuesday, Lenawee county, for the most part, sweltered under a burning sun that caused two heat prostrations at Blissfield. Clarence Cameron was overcome at his home, and Harold Pletter was stricken while at work at the Blissfield Manufacturing Co. Both were treated by physicians.

Tecumseh and a portion of the county did get a little relief from the heat about 6:30 Tuesday when a mild thunderstorm and overcast skies spent the mercury tumbling from the 90's. The cool air continued throughout the night and early on Wednesday motorists found driving difficult because of the fog. Light rainfall also was reported in other areas, such as a shower at Billington's Corners, and another at Ridgeway, Tuesday afternoon.

Sun temperatures in Tecumseh on Tuesday were well over 115 degrees, causing out-of-door workers to seek the coolness of a shade tree or some building. Garages reported that it was even too hot for driving, and traffic by mid-afternoon on the highways was very light.

The weather man says that a mass of cold air is moving from Canada eastward, and already has been felt in some of the western states. So, he warns, temperatures in the "shivering low 80's" may be felt in this area today—if predictions hold true.

As for rain—nothing is promised. There might be thunder showers almost anytime. They're almost unpredictable. However, as for the rain that is so badly needed by growers of corn and potatoes—well it may come and it may not.

Tecumseh Hospital Birth Rate Averages More Than One Daily

The birth rate at Tecumseh Hospital was greater than one a day for the year ending July 1, according to a report just made public by Miss Gertrude Spaulding, superintendent. During the 365-day period, the report shows, births at the hospital numbered 385.

The report, which is very interesting in detail, also shows that 1,201 persons were admitted for treatment during the year, and that 389 emergency cases were treated that were not admitted. Operations during the 12 months numbered 870, and 529 fluroscopies and X-rays were taken.

Twenty-eight different doctors practiced in the hospital during the year, and a total of 2,564 persons were treated. A total of 14,068 days of care were given and the hospital's private rooms were filled to capacity 96.5 per cent of the time. Nursery beds were occupied 60 per cent of the time, ward beds, 77 per cent and all beds 73 per cent.

That the hospital serves a wide area is shown from the report. Thirty-three percent of its patients came from Tecumseh, and 15 per cent came from Clinton. Britton residents served at the hospital numbered 210, and another 160 were from Adrian. A total of 412 came from Washtenaw county, and 55 were from Monroe and Jackson counties. Other communities served include Blissfield, Palymra, Deerfield, Onsted, Tipton, Ridgeway, Manitou Beach, Petersburg, Holloway and Lenawee county at large. Sixty-six per cent of the patients in the hospital were cared for by local physicians.

Holloway Boy Fatally Hurt

THREE OTHER YOUTHS INJURED IN ACCIDENT NEAR PALMYRA, SATURDAY

One Holloway youth was fatally hurt and three others were injured, Saturday evening about 8:30, when the car in which they were riding went out of control and rolled over near Palmyra.

The victim of the accident was James B. Mitchell, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Mitchell of Holloway. Injured were Carl Hense, 17, son of Mrs. Geo. Young of Hillsdale, driver of the car; Eugene Spangler, 16, of Eastern Star Villa, Adrian; and, Thomas Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mitchell, Holloway.

The four boys were on their way to Blissfield to attend a movie when the accident happened. All were members of the Adrian high school junior class and of the football squad.

The accident happened on Rogers road and on a curve just before entering Palmyra. Deputy sheriffs reports show that the car skidded nearly 70 feet before it overturned and over 70 feet afterward. It was a 1934 model. The Mitchell boy suffered head injuries that caused his death in Bixby hospital, Adrian, early Sunday morning

Clinton Strike Probe Ordered

REP. HOFFMAN TO BEGIN INQUIRY INTO LABOR SITUATION IN VILLAGE

An investigation into the labor situation at Clinton before the end of this month was promised this week by Rep. Hoffman (R-Michigan) at Grand Maris, Tuesday, where he is vacationing.

The inquiry was prompted as a result of the recent strike at the Clinton Machine Co., which was settled on Sunday, the workers returning to their jobs on Monday. There was some violence during the strike and six or eight persons hurt. There were several mass demonstrations by the CIO which brought out some 60 state police and caused an alert for the national guard.

Hofman has been authorized to investigate the Clinton situation by the House labor committee, and is quoted as saying that such a probe would be started before the first of September.

"It is about time," Hoffman is quoted as saying, "that the public learned whether it is boss or whether we are in for a repition of what Justice Frank Murphy and John L. Lewis started n 1937. It is not unlikely that we will be faced with vigilantes. The people are going to stand for this sort of thing only about so long."

C. of C. Pledges Still Coming In

ORGANIZATION OF CHAMBER AT BANQUET HERE SEPTEMBER 9 SEEMS CERTAIN

With pledges for financial support of Tecumseh's proposed new Chamber of Commerce still coming in, and with many prospective members still to be called upon for pledges, plans were progressing today for the civic banquet to be held on Tuesday evening, Septembe 9, when, it is hoped, the new Chamber may be organized and a board of directors chosen.

The banquet meeting, to be held at the high school, is being called by the presidents of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Town Hall, for the purpose of giving a special committee, headed by Charles O. Butler, an opportunity to submit its report. This committee was named about six weeks ago at a civic meeting, called by the four organizations, for the purpose of determining whether or not sufficient financial aid might be obtained to operate such an organization here.

Mr. Butler has announced that pledges to date seem to assure the operation of a Chamber in Tecumseh. Thus far, he said, solicitors have received only one "turn down" for financial support. He pointed out, however, that there are many prospective members still to be seen, and he was grateful for the courteous reception received thus far by committee members.

The chairman also said that he wanted it generally understood that a Chamber of Commerce does not function for large business and industry only, but rather that it benefits small business and property owners as well. He said that he realized that small business could not contribute as much as large business, but he declared that it was important that there be village-wide cooperation.

Solicitors are seeking some $10,000 to $12,000 annually for the operation of a Chamber in Tecumseh. There is to be a full-time paid secretary.

OIL AND HORSEPOWER . . . It is a sure indication that progress is under way across the land when old ways and new ways exist side by side for a time in the same bailiwick. At Leduc, Alberta, Canada, these days horses are grazing in the skeleton shadows of oil derricks because what was once an important agricultural area recently has come to be an even more vital source of petroleum. Ten oil companies already have launched major operations near Leduc and five wells have been brought in. First oil strike in the region was made in February.

Hodges Visit In Holy Land

LOCAL TOURISTS NEARING END OF JOURNEY; WILL RETURN IN SEPTEMBER

Dr. Ferris G. Hodge and his father, Nicholas Hodge, of Morenci, who left here in June for a visit to the Near East, are now in the Holy Land and are preparing to turn homeward, probably arriving in September. Dr. Hodge, in a letter to the Rotary Club, of which he is a member, writes interestingly as follows:

Arrived here (Jerusalem) yesterday (August 8) after spending a few hours in Liberias on the Sea of Galilee and Nazareth. Today we toured the Holy City seeing the church of the Holy Seplechre on Mt. Calvary and Christ's tomb, and passed along the numbered stations of the cross. Then we went to see the Church of the Ascension on Mt. of Olives. Then to Bethlehem to the Church of Nativity, built over and around the manger where Christ was born and also the stone crypt where he was placed after birth. These experiences and sights just do something to a person beyond explanation or description. It is a sort of awe-inspiring majesty and reverence that stills all but one's pulse. We visited many other places that I feel I must pass up writing about at this time such as the famous Wailing Wall. Solomon's Temple, now Mosque of Omar, Soloman's famous baths and jar, etc.

Tomorrow we attend church (Sunday) at the church of the Holy Seplechre at 7:30 a.m. Then after dinner (luncheon) we go to Jericho and the Dead Sea for a few pictures and a quick run-out as the heat there is unbearable. Incidentally, the Dead Sea is 2,643 feet below sea level while the Sea of Galilee is around 650 feet below sea level and drinkable sweet water. The water of the Dead Sea is very caustic.

In a couple of days we leave this heavily armed camp and proceed to Jaffa and on up to Haifa and to Beirut from where we will await our ship for return to the good U. S. A.

Play Program Is Evaluated

REPORTS ARE MADE BY SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR AND RECREATION DIRECTOR

In an effort to more completely evaluate the supervised summer play program, sponsored during the mid-summer months at Recreation Center, Miss Dorothy Bowen, swimming instructor, has submitted a report on her section of the activity to Paul Johnson, director of the program.

Miss Bowen reports that 46 young people passed the American Red Cross beginner's test. This test includes a number of water skills such as prone and back floats, jumping and diving into deep water, and swimming fifty feet.

Miss Bowen reports further that eight people passed the intermediate test which included the learning of three different arm and leg strokes and ways of combining them, swimming the elementary backstroke for 50 yards, and swimming a stroke of their own choice for 100 yards. The names of those passing this test follow: Tom Everlove, Grace Moore, Bob Hadley, Duane Hay, Shirley Bailey, Gerald Aebersold, Betty Jo Hanna, and Pauline Bagshaw.

In addition to those who have passed the complete batteries of skills, many others have passed parts of them. Many in the beginners classes have learned to float and to swim short distances and with more practice should soon be able to qualify under the American Red Cross Beginners Test. Several others have only one or two skills to pass in the intermediate test. These people will have the opportunity to complete their tests this week if they wish.

In presenting this final summary, Mr. Johnson, recreation director, said: "The people of Tecumseh and parents of these youngsters in particular should appreciate the fact that it is primarily through through the generosity of Luigi Gallo, owner of 'The Pit', that this phase of the summer recreation program was made possible. Mr. Gallo's bath house and beach facilities were donated this summr completely without charge. Also, they should thank Miss Bowen for her conscientious, patient, and untiring efforts in instructing these youngsters."

AUTOS MUST BE SAFE

It is an indisputable fact that over 90 per cent of the traffic accidents which annually take the lives of some 33,500 persons could have been avoided. The human foibles of inattention and deliberate risk-taking are the main causes of the slaughter on our streets and highways.

Pure mechanical failure, according to some safety experts, accounts for less than one per cent of automobile accidents.

It is true that in many fatal accidents, mechanical failure was a contributing cause — brakes failed to grab, lights went out, steering apparatus didn't respond properly. But these causes were not pure mechanical failure, because human carelessness was the underlying cause. The owners and drivers of the accident vehicles had failed to keep their automobiles in safe condition, and in many cases they had imprudently driven the automobiles when they know that they were mechanically defective. In short, the drivers were either not attentive or they deliberately took a chance.

Individual responsibility can stop this menace. Every member of the American public must take it upon himself to accept the responsibility of observing the rules of safety and the road.

At the same time, the police and administrative officials of our states have the responsibility of minimizing the hazards caused by those careless people who fail or refuse to obey the rules. Every state should require periodic and rigid inspection of all autos to see that they are kept in safe driving condition. A recent check of nearly three million vehicles, made by the International Association of Chiefs of Police, showed that one out of every three vehicles has a mechanical defect which makes it a menace in traffic. These defects are not in the construction of the automobile, but rather in things like lights and brakes which the drivers should keep in safe working condition.

If thousands of persons are to be saved from needless death this coming year and in the years to follow, periodic required motor vehicle inspection by all states would seem to be an important prerequisite.

The Basis of Courtesy

MORE than mere outward civility and politeness, courtesy expresses the innately loving and gracious consideration of an unselfish nature. A genuinely loving person is essentially well-mannered, whether or not he knows the rules of etiquette. Someone has said: "Good breeding is religion, done in terms of everyday life. It is an instinct wrapped up in the very tissues of our being."

When Jesus gave us the Golden Rule (Matthew 7:12), "All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them," he expressed the essence of courtesy. . . .

Courtesy is based on the recognition of man's dignity. It indicates at least some acknowledgment of the ideal self. The starting-point for all right thinking is the fact of the allness of God, good, and the perfection of man as His image and likeness. When one apprehends the truth of man's spiritual perfection and rejects the claims of mortality as illegitimate and unreal, he finds it logical and natural to be considerate and kindly and to regard others as incapable of giving or taking offense. The menacing characteristics of mortal mind—bluntness, unkindness, selfishness, and all meanness—are seen to be lies, which must give way to purity and unselfed love.

True courtesy is allied to divine Love. Good manners are the natural expression of right seeing and thinking. Defects in manners, on the other hand, are often defects in perception. One who views others from the standpoint of the real man's inherent spiritual perfection as God's child, comports himself with patience, generosity, impartiality, cheerfulness, graciousness, and helpfulness. It is the acceptance of the finite, material concept of man that results in such unworthy characteristics as prejudice, callousness, and injustice.

The truly courteous individual considers himself last. Mary Baker Eddy writes in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 121), "Self-denial is practical, and is not only polite to all but is pleasant to those who practise it." When we see that the self we need to deny is the material sense of selfhood built on the fallacy of finite and personal goodness apart from God, we can easily relinquish mortal concepts for the divine fact.

The divine fact is that the real man expresses unlimited good, inexhaustible blessedness, and unvarying integrity derived from God, because he is the emanation of his creator, divine Mind. In view of this, one need never wonder if he can afford to be generous to others, even at the expense of his own position and security. He sees that he cannot afford to be less than just and magnanimous.

"Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous," is a Biblical exhortation of beauty and wisdom (I Peter 3:8). . . .—The Christian Science Monitor.

The driver of one of these cars was in the act of passing another motorist just as he neared the crest of a hill. He collided head-on with a driver coming over the brow of the hill, and with the terrific impact the lighter car was crushed under the heavy one. The lawbreaker in this accident was killed—so was the other driver, and a passenger was seriously injured. Passing on blind curves and on hills is simply gambling with death. Improper passing accounted for more than 35,000 highway deaths and injuries in 1946, according to the National Conservation Bureau.

Gaucho Reigns as Cowboy Of South Brazil Prairies

To the rolling plains of the countryside of Brazil's southernmost state, Rio Grande do Sul, there corresponds a human type, which is thoroughly characteristic — the "gaucho." Arisen out of the struggle against Castilian domination and reared in an atmosphere of intense combative excitement, the "gaucho" has inherited from his ancestors an ardent, arrogant temperament, generous, yet overruling—a born leader. He is the cowboy of the south.

He lives a simple life, throwing himself down after a hard day's work in the cabin close to his field of action. His favorite dish is the "churrasco," a steak cut from a half-carcass roasted on the spit over an open fire. Nor will he go without his "chimarrao," mate with water from the boiling kettle, sucked from a gourd through a silver strainer. His raiment is characteristic: wide-brimmed hat, "poncho" hanging in easy folds, bright-hued neckerchief, broad leather belt about his waist and pistol in its holster, quick to the draw. Trousers bagging over top-boots with outsize spurs complete his outfit.

A first class horseman, skilled in casting the lasso or the "boleaderas," three leather-covered stones held together at a yard's distance by thongs and thrown to bring a runaway steer to a standstill by encumbering its legs—he adores races and rodeos.

Brazilians are accustomed to apply the name "gaucho" to anyone born in Rio Grande do Sul, whereas in reality the "gaucho" is a type of his own, peculiar to the prairies. The truth is that the term, by the pride of its meaning, takes on the honors of a compliment.

Specialists Determine DDT Harmless to Humans

DDT is not so dangerous after all; there is remote risk of accidental poisoning by swallowing some of it in food. These statements are made by Dr. William F. Hoskins, professor of entomology in University of California college of agriculture.

He points to a test where public health service doctors fed a person half a teaspoonful of pure DDT in five teaspoonfuls of olive oil, on an empty stomach, with no ill effects.

"Fear of the danger of DDT to humans internally seems unwarranted," says Dr. Hoskins. "Whether there is possibility of poisoning by ingestion, taking small amounts over a long time, has not been proved. Tests with animals have been reassuring, no symptoms of sickness developing when they are kept on a diet containing several parts per million of DDT."

Nor is the human body endangered through absorption of DDT, he says, recalling an experiment where 15 men sprayed ships daily for a month with 5 per cent DDT in kerosene without injury. He believes, too, that DDT in "bug bombs" is entirely safe to use.

More Live Longer

In the interval from 1900 to 1944, life expectancy at birth in the United States rose from less than 50 to over 65 years, an increase of 32 per cent. This improvement, however, is not shared equally by all ages. In addition to the 32 per cent increase at birth, the increase in life expectancy at the age of 45 is only 10.8 per cent while that at the age of 65 is almost the same, 10.4 per cent. This discrepancy exists largely because the control of infectious diseases and the improvements in medical care which have been developed have benefited children and youths, rather than the middle aged and elderly. This means that a larger fraction of Americans is living into middle and old age, although nearly the same proportion die each year thereafter as used to.

Treatment of the Heart

Digitalis, generally given a position of first importance in the treatment of heart failure, acts directly on the heart muscle to increase the force of its contractions. Frequently, however, especially in more acute cases, digitalis does not relieve all the symptoms. In order to achieve complete relief, additional measures become necessary, and to this end, mercurial diuretics are employed. These agents act on the kidneys to increase the formation of urine, resulting in withdrawal of excess fluid from vital organs in which it has accumulated due to the heart condition. Cornell Medical center reported to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

Alaska Adds Wealth

Nearly two billion dollars have been added to the national wealth by Alaska, during the 80 years of United States possession. The country still contains vast unexploited natural resources. In the prewar years, the territorial fisheries were yielding about 60 million dollars annually to the national income, the mining industries about 24 million dollars a year, mostly from gold, and the fur trade about 2.25 million. Since purchase of the territory by the United States from Russia in 1867, fur-trapping and fishing have contributed about one billion dollars and the mineral interests slightly under a billion dollars.

Woodwork Requires Real Care and Good Attention

Householders take pride in the appearance of their homes. It will pay them to become acquainted with ways to take care of the woodwork, to remove stains from floors and walls. The following may serve as a guide.

For just dirt or finger marks on painted wood, use equal parts of milk, water, and kerosene, or vinegar in water.

Scratches on furniture, if not too deep, may be touched with ordinary iodine and then polished. A good polish may be made by mixing equal parts of linseed oil, turpentine and white vinegar.

For a worn floor, touch up the spots with shellac, and give a new coating of wax. If the floors are hardwood, a tablespoon of vinegar and one of furniture polish, in water, will give a clear finish and keep down dust.

If the floors are oiled, turpentine will take off most spots. If turpentine is not available, kerosene will do.

If a grease mark is made on the floor, cover the spot with Fuller's earth. Leave for at least one day and then remove. If the spot has not been entirely absorbed, apply again. This should remove the stain.

For spilled alcohol, rub the mark quickly with the finger tip to smooth away the roughness, and apply lemon or olive oil. This applies also to spilled perfume.

Inaccessible Coal Mined With Incendiary Bombs

Coal seams that are too thin or too inaccessible for profitable mining now may be converted underground into fuel gas and piped to the surface by a new method.

Incendiary bombs recently were dropped into a coal seam 30 feet below the ground at Gorgas, Ala. The fire which was started was steadily fanned by a blower. Heat-proof windows at inner ends of tunnels were erected through which engineers could control the operation. They changed the nature of the gas by injecting steam. The resultant products included carbon monoxide, hydrogen and methane.

Potential uses for the gas are many, according to Dr. R. R. Sayers, director of the bureau of mines. It not only offers a new source of raw material for the manufacture of synthetic liquid fuels, including gasoline and lubricating oil, but also a heating gas for burning under boilers in industrial plants. Electric power might be produced by means of gas turbines.

Children Need Booster Shots

PRE-SCHOOL TIME ARRIVES FOR PREVENTION AGAINST CONTAGIOUS DISEASE

With the opening of school only a few days away, Dr. William DeKleine, state health commissioner, today, again reminded Michigan parents to see to it that their children have "booster shots" for protection against smallpox, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus before entering school.

"We do not want children to enter school without this added protection," the commissioner said. Certainly no thoughtful parent would allow his child to enter school without immunization, but some may forget that the immunization which their children received by vaccination and injections when they were infants may have run out by the time they enter school," he added.

Children who were immunized as infants against these diseases require only a single "booster shot" to raise their immunity to where there is no danger of their contracting the illness. This shot takes effect in a matter of days.

Where, through some oversight, the child had not been immunized as an infant, complete immunization should be given. It should be remembered that it takes several weeks before initial immunization takes effect.

"Such immunizations may cause a few days of discomfort or inconvenience, but they do save the lives of hundreds of Michigan children each year," Dr. DeKleine pointed out.

The Michigan Department of Health prepares vaccines and toxoid to prevent smallpox, whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus. They are distributed free to the physicians of the state. Your family physician can give the immunizations. In many communities in the state, pre-school immunization and "booster'l clinics are set up through the cooperation of the Medical Society and the local health departments.

Many New Farm Homes Forecast

LENAWEE MAY BE SCENE OF RURAL BUILDING ACTIVITY, REPORTS SAY

Farm families in Lenawee county will spend more than $2,380,000 for new housing in the next three to five years, according to a forecast released by the Tile Council of America.

"As a result of high income during the last few years, farmers in every part of the nation are prepared to invest recod amounts in new home construction and in general farm improvements," said F. B. Ortman, chairman of the Council's residential construction committee.

Pointing out that the comforts and conveniences of urban living are now available to farm families, Ortman said that new rural homes will incorporate such features as central heating, tiled bathrooms and modern kitchen facilities.

Rapid electrificatin of rural areas of Michigan is making possible the incorporation in new homes of many labor-saving and comfort-providing devices undreamed of a generation ago, according to Ortman. Rural Electrification Administration estimates disclose that more than 87 per cent of all farms in the state now receive central station electric service. Refrigerators, electric washing machines and deep freezing plans, as well as plumbing systems will go into many new homes as a consequence.

Rural Health Meeting To Be Held September 18

Lansing—The first annual Michigan Rural Health Conference, introduced by the Michigan State Medical Society in cooperation with state and rural organizations, will be held Sept. 18 and 19 on the campus of Michigan State College in East Lansing.

Planned as a "working conference", the two-day session will seek to improve health standards and expand medical facilities in farm areas and outlying districts of Michigan, according to H. B. Zemmer, M. D., of Lapeer, chairman of the conference.

Addresses by leading rural health authorities, conferences and round table discussions with medical specialists in charge will be among the features of the conference.

Joining the Michigan State Medical Society as co-sponsors are the Michigan Farm Bureau, the Michigan State Grange, W. K. Kellogg Foundation, Michigan Department of Health, Michigan Education Association, Michigan Foundation for Medical and Health Education, Michigan Hospital Association, Michigan Hospital Service, Michigan Medical Service, Michigan Rural Teachers Association, Michigan State College, Michigan State Nurses Association, Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association, Michigan State Social Welfare Commission, Michigan Tuberculosis Association, Michigan Crippled Children Commission and Wayne University College of Medicine.

Common Sense Methods To Withstand Heat Given

Ability to withstand hot weather varies greatly from person to person, but nearly everyone can increase his own tolerance of heat.

1. Eat well balanced meals, including meats and other proteins, fresh fruits and vegetables, but avoid greasy and fatty foods.

2. Drink liberal quantities of water, 8 to 10 glasses are sufficient, more will do no harm, but avoid excessive use of alcohol because it increases susceptibility to the ill effects of heat during exceptionally hot periods.

3. Increase the use of salt. You can add a pinch of salt to each glass of water. (Administration of salt is a specific preventive of heat cramps, an acute illness caused by excessive loss of salt in perspiration.)

5. Don't expose yourself unnecessarily to direct sunlight.

6. Get sufficient and regular sleep.

7. Use leisure time for rest. Don't play too hard.

Remember heat and fatigue can make a vicious circle—heat makes you tired and being tired breaks your defense against heat.

Biggest Ranch Started By Steamboat Captain

Largest ranch in the United States, with an acreage variously estimated at between 900,000 and 1,250,000 acres, knoyn throughout the world as King ranch, lies between Corpus Christi and Brownsville, Tex., and runs into nine counties. Marked by 1,500 miles of fence, it is 85 miles deep and 35 miles wide, so that there is a full month's difference in seasons between the southernmost boundary and the northern tip. An inspection tour by car would take a week. Round-ups at King ranch sometimes have run as high as 10,000 head.

Few hotels could "bed" those employed on the ranch. No restaurant or dining room could feed the "hands." Any New York store would be able to "survive" by selling only to King ranch and its cowboys.

Started in 1854 by Capt. Richard King, an ex-steamboat owner, the ranch is now a nation in itself with its own schools, stores, churches and community life.

Guatemala Indians

A series of physical measurements of living Cakchiquel Indians of the highlands of Guatemala, among the purest extant representatives of the Maya peoples, has been completed by Dr. T. D. Stewart of Smithsonian institution. The Cakchiquel are so-called "highland Maya," as distinguished from the "lowland Maya" who built in pre-Columbian times the great temple cities of Yucatan. They belong, however, to the same racial and linguistic stock, and their own pre-Columbian civilization, while little known up to the present, was of a high order. It is believed that the living Cakchiquels are quite close to their ancestors, as there has been little mixture with other races. There has been considerable inbreeding in limited areas, which at least has tended to keep the racial stock pure. These Guatemalan Indians have been very conservative and still wear costumes peculiar to themselves and seen nowhere else in the world. Particularly-notable are the brilliant many-colored blouses, or huipiles, worn by the women. The attire of the men has shifted more toward the conventional styles but still retains some unique features. The ancient weaving techniques have been preserved.

Canning Pack Increase

Record quantities of fruits, juices and vegetables were packed last year, according to report in the Encyclopaedia Britannica 1947 Book of the Year. More than 600 million standard cases of food were canned by the industry during the year, an increase of about 84 million cases over 1945's production, the article states. The canned fish pack remained about the same in 1946 as in 1945 while there was a sharp reduction in canned milk production from the 1945 record level. Considerable amounts of meat, poultry and miscellaneous other products were processed in addition to the commodities mentioned.

Ancient Onion Plant

The onion has been domesticated as far back as history records. It takes its name from the city built by Onias in 172 B. C., near the Gulf of Suez. The onion was grown in southwestern Asia and in China and from these centers it spread to every section of the globe. The onion for centuries found favor with the Egyptians and Israelites. As early as 1300 the onion was extensively used in Europe and was brought to America by the earliest colonists. There is record of its being cultivated in America in 1620. There are now nearly 500 varieties of onions listed.

Shoulder Pads Continue As Style For Women

Shoulder pads will continue to be in style for some time to come because they are becoming and give a lift to sloping shoulders. They're a problem in women's clothing because they are hot and bilky, hard to clean, difficult to press and clumsy on hangers.

To save time and trouble with pads make them removable. Beatrice Frangquist home demonstration agent advises. Intsead of sewing them into clothes attach them with small-size snaps. Snaps won't show if hidden under seams.

With this device shoulder pads will be much less bother to you, especially for travel. Dresses pack more easily and fold more smoothly without them. Trouble and expense may be saved as well as space in a suitcase if one pair is used for all dresses of the same style.

Pads are difficult to wash because the filling is likely to become lumpy or out of shape. Keeping them clean is much easier than cleaning them. Clothing specialists recommend tacking a piece of washable material over the side of the pad that goes next to the skin. When this becomes soiled, it is easy to wash.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Miss Joyce Sallows was further complimented by her aunts, Mrs. Arthur Wonder and Mrs. S. L. Wonder, at the former's home in Adrian Thursday afternoon. The 20 guests enjoyed games on the lawn with prizes awarded to Mrs. Naomi Sallows, Mrs. Herbert Murphy and Mrs. J. P. Bland of Adrian, who in turn presented them to the bride-to-be. The honored guest received many lovely gifts. A two-course luncheon was served in the home.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Gene Alleman

(Special to The Herald)

St. Ignace—This Michigan Marco Polo, after rambling about the Upper Peninsula for two weeks in a cabin-on-wheels, has just about come to an unhappy conclusion.

It hasn't a thing to do with the climate which has been delightful. The nights have been cool and we have slept under one and two wool blankets every evening. It hasn't a thing to do with the pros and cons of life in a 19-foot trailer. The missus and I haven't had a fight yet.

But after ruining a six-month-old tire on the U. S. 45 highway between Watersmeet and Ontonagon and after visiting four state parks, we have reluctantly arrived at a hunch that has been growing steadily into a firm conviction. The Upper Peninsula, blessed with a delightful summer climate and rich in tourist potentials, is getting the round-around with respect to state roads and state parks.

The U. S. 45 highway, north of Watersmeet to Ontonagon, is a direct route to the new Porcupine Mountain State Park. It is also perhaps the worst neglected federal-state highway in the state, at least to our knowledge. Ontonagon merchants told me that efforts to get this road fixed up have been in vain. The tire replacement rate is about double what it is in the average county south of the Straits.

George A. Osborn, editor of the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News, recently charged editorially that "Northern Michigan has been the victim of discrimination."

"The condition of our secondary roads, torn to their raw corduroy bottoms by billions of revolutions of visitors' automobile tires, is certainly a challenge to every Upper Peninsula county," writes Mr. Osborn. "We have waited through a generation of road builders for good roads. We have waited in vain."

If you stick to concrete highways, you'll never experience the rocky, rough corduroy roads, some of which pose as state and federal highways.

The four state parks which we visited were the Porcupine Mountain State Park near Ontonagon, the Gogebic lake state park, the Indian lake state park, and the Straits state park at St. Ignace.

Although the tourist potentials of the Porcupine park are great, and we have consistently publicized them, this park is sadly lacking in accomodations for travelers and Knox Jamison, superintendent, is the first one to admit it. The map shows a camp ground along Lake Superior with electricity; actually the land is under private ownership; there is no drinking water or electricity.

The Gogebic lake state park is about everything you would want to have, and we visited it at Mr. Jamison's recommendation. But we frankly can't say the same for the next two places visited — Indian Lake and St. Ignace. Indian lake near Manistique is 25 years behind the times; it is wholly inadequate for postwar needs. The St. Ignace park is next to a disgrace, and it could well be turned over to the Mackinac Island Park Commission which has made such a success (and with fees, too) of the Mackinac City state park. A good fire would threaten a disaster at the St. Ignacep park. We were badly disappointed, as this place is far below the quality of well-run parks below the Straits.

We do want to compliment the counties of the Upper Peninsula for sponsoring recreational parks of their own, most of which are open to traveling visitors. The local people are friendly. Joe Davis a Soo railroad employee near Gulliver lake, came over to a township park on Gulliver lake where we were parked for the night, just to say that we were welcome to camp on his land nearby "as long as you wish and it won't cost you a cent, either!" When we expressed complete surprise, he said: "My wife and I enjoy company." You can't beat that for hospitality.

LABEL FOR GIFTS TO GREECE . . . Rep. Leo E. Allen (Rep., Ill.) and John Baer, cartoonist and former congressman from North Dakota, display the emblem submitted by Baer for house approval in connection with a bill introduced by Allen for the labeling of all goods donated by the U. S. to the relief of war-torn countries. The measure would provide that indelible markings on all such gifts tell their origin, destination and unsalability.

LEADS DUTCH FORCES . . . Lt. Gen. S. H. Spoor issued an order of the day announcing opening of hostilities between Dutch forces and Indonesian troops, following collapse of negotiations between Dutch and Indonesian governments.

MISS HAYDEN HONORED

Sixty members of the Friends Church and Sunday school met at the church Monday evening to honor Miss Mary Jane Hayden, bride-elect of September 6. The Welcome class was in charge of the decorations and the program consisted of the "sealed orders" and group singing. Rev Edward Escolme also entertained with colored movies taken on his trip east. Many lovely gifts were received by Miss Hayden from a crepe-bedecked wagon drawn by two small boys. Delpha Dox and Martha Hayden assisted.

Later in the evening the Friendly class served refreshments.

The Church

"The Church is a religious home, a sanctuary for worship, a school for religious instruction, a fighting unit for the new world that is building. It is a social center of the highest type, since it gathers into relations of mutual helpfulness people of every age and condition. It adds to the attractions of the ordinary club the power of religion and the generous sympathies of the altruistic impulse. The Church is the most broadening and democratic organization among men, since its vision is to the ends of the world whither the Gospel is being carried and since its citizenship is in heaven as well as in the earth."

"-BUT I WAS RIGHT DEAD RIGHT!"

"I was going into that intersection first. I had the right of way—that truck driver should have stopped when he saw me—I was right, dead right!"

"Yes dear — you always were right — the other fellow always wrong. That's why we're here."

You know the kind, you've met him on the road—and ducked. He always barges through traffic when it's a question of split-second judgment. Never anticipates other drivers' actions — just assumes that traffic will give way. Owns the road. Drives with his horn.

He may get away with it for a time, plus a few tickets, because other drivers are more careful, more conscientious. But his kind eventually steps on the gas once too often—and for the last time he is "right—dead right!"

4,000 people died last year because "know-it-all" drivers violated rules of the road and the courtesies of driving. Good drivers never need to hold cemetery post-mortems. They drive carefully and live longer.

If You Dream About Bears; Well, Kill 'Em

If you happen to dream about killing a bear that's lucky, according to dream books. But if you just dream about seeing a bear, that's bad — you're warned to avoid overconfidence and to be careful when traveling.

Dreamers and all people who tend to get sleepy after too many hours behind the wheel, need that warning. Fatigue is an opiate — reactions become slower, judgment dulls, although the driver is hardly aware of it. Lulled by the rhythm of the engine, hypnotized by the ribbon of road ahead, an overtired brain often blanks out for a short second — long enough for the wheels to wander from the road, long enough for a fatal sideswipe or headon collision.

National Conservation Bureau safety specialists say the best cure for fatigue is prevention — limiting hours of driving; pulling up at intervals for a cup of coffee or a bite to eat. Dreaming of bears is always luckier in bed than on the highway!

The story behind the switchboard

The switchboard is the hub of all telephone communications. Before a telephone can function, it must be connected to a central office switchboard. Our present facilities cannot accommodate all the telephones requested by those on our waiting list.

We have ordered new switchboard equipment, but nation-wide demands exceed manufacturers' production capacities for months to come. Meanwhile, we must use our present facilities to serve as many as possible.

Motorists Urged To Use Caution Over Holiday

STATE POLICE HOPE TO REDUCE NUMBER OF TRAFFIC FATALITIES

Michigan State Police are issuing appeals to motorists to use extra caution over the Labor Day week end in order to hold down the death toll usually experienced during holiday traffic.

Memorial Day motoring claimed a total of 19 lives and 20 met death over the Fourth of July holiday from the same cause. Last year's Labor Day traffic resulted in 21 fatalities.

In issuing an appeal to drive safely, Commissioner Leonard pointed out that "although the leaves of state police officers have been cancelled in order to intensify our highway patrol, the officers can't do the safety job alone."

"It's up to the driver if he wants to get home safely," the Commissioner stated. "He must not only watch his own driving, but the other fellow's too. Don't take chances; its just not worth it."

Travel is expected to be at the peak on Friday evening and on Labor Day between 3 p.m., and 10 p.m. Included among the travelers will be hundreds of families returning home for the opening of school after spending the summer at cottages and camps.

Most common causes of holiday accidents are driving too fast for conditions, failure to grant right-of-way, passing on hills, curves or other unsafe locations, driving on the wrong side of the road and improper lane use, failure to signal change in course, unlawful turns, disobedience to stop signs, warning signs and traffic signals, and driving under the influence of alcohol.

Driver Snoozes, Auto Rolls Over

RIDGEWAY BOY AND TWO OTHERS HURT SUNDAY MORNING NEAR EVANS LAKE

A 12-year-old Ridgeway boy suffered a fractured left leg and two other young men were injured Sunday morning when the driver of the car snoozed at the wheel and the machine rolled over two or three times on US-112 near Evans Lake.

The Ridgeway lad, William Denham, was the most seriously hurt of the trio. The others, William Noble, 18 years old, of Azalia, and Fred Bunte, 19, of [illegible] escaped with cuts and bruises. All were brought to the Tecumseh hospital.

In another mishap, two automobiles which were hugging the center line of US-112 on a long curve near Wolf Lake at 1:30 a.m., Sunday sideswiped. Lee Ward Wade of Adrian Route 1, who was driving east, was treated at Tecumseh hospital for cuts and bruises about the head and face. The driver of the westbound car was Joyce McClenathen of Jasper. Clinton state police investigated.

Former Tecumseh Man Does Lots Of Lettering On Local Firm's Safe

H. S. Waring, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is visiting here, reports an item interesting to himself, and, he says, maybe to others. Some 60 years ago, working for C. A. Slayton, Waring printed the Slayton name on a safe. Slayton and Son was the next name to be put on the safe by Waring, and 32 years later when the business was sold, Tecumseh Co-operative went on it. When Mr. Robison bought the building with the safe included, Waring was working for him and, quite naturally, the L. W. Robison name went on it. This week Waring, at the age of 81 years, placed the name Robison Farm Equipment on the same safe.

TO CONDUCT SERVICES

Rev. Warren K. Pamptopee, a full-blooded Pottawatamie Indian, will conduct the services at the Lower Light Mission church on South Maumee Street every evening at 7:45 p. m., from August 31 to September 7. Rev. Pamptopee will relate personal experiences, including his religious and Army life. The public is invited to attend these meetings.

Still Seeking C. of C. Pledges

FINAL WIND-UP BANQUET SET FOR SEPTEMBER 9, AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

The banquet meeting, scheduled to be held in the local high school, is bein arranged by the presidents of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, Junior Chamber of Commerce and Town Hall.

Charles O. Butler, general chairman, has the following to say concerning the project:

"We hope and expect to have seen everyone possible by banquet time regarding a membership. Because we do not know just how much is needed for the first year we will continue solicitations until everyone is seen.

"The banquet, set for September 9 at the Tecumseh high school gymnasium, will be a fitting wind-up for the campaign. We hope to have a full house and be able to bring you a complete report at that time. An interesting meeting is assured and we promise you some sort of special entertainment.

"The banquet committee, made up of Yale Kerby, chairman; Ellsworth Collins, Robert Hanna, Robert French, Clarence Gilman, Wade Jones and E. M. Campbell, will solicit you for your ticket.

"Why not contact one of them yourself and save them that much time? Remember they are busy, too. Mark your calendar for September 9 and plan to be there without fail."

MIDLAND MAN SURE KNOWS HOW TO SEE COUNTRY

Perhaps other Tecumseh folks besides Mrs. Hazel Keehl observed a horse pulling an odd-looking trailer last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Keehl was interested and obtained this story from the owner, Richard Cook, who was fishing in the mill pond.

On October 20, 1946, Cook left his home in Midland with a horse, four wheels and a cart, arriving in Jacksonville, Florida, on January 7, 1947. He reached Tecumseh August 20. Cook had only 11 flat tires, and the horse wore out a mere 52 horseshoes. The horse recovered from pneumonia, also a broken shoulder bone and neck, which it suffered when falling down a mountainside in West Virginia. Cook built his "house trailer" up as he went along, it falling apart only four times. When he arrives home in Midland, Cook will buy a team of horses, build another trailer, and begin a tour of the 48 states.

NOTICE

Beginning July 15, and until further notice, I will be at the United Savings Bank each Tuesday morning and Saturday all day for the collection of Tecumseh Village Taxes.

Presbyterians To Get New Pastor

Tecumseh Presbyterians are to have a new minister starting September 14, after having been without a pastor since March 1.

The Rev. Donald C. Wilson of Detroit was extended a unanimous call by the congregation at a meeting Sunday which followed the regular morning service.

Mr. Wilson, who is 28 years of age, is especially well educated and fitted for pastoral work. He served 20 months as a chaplain in the Army of Occupation in Germany, and later had special training at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, following his discharge from service.

He was married in July of 1946 at Calchester church in London, England, to a Detroit young lady, while on furlough. She remained with him during the balance of his army duty and while he was studying in Scotland.

Rev. and Mrs. Wilson will reside at the manse, 305 West Logan street, which has been completely renovated and decorated.

Since March 1, when the Rev. James C. Murdoch resigned to accept a pastorate in Illinois, the congregation has depended on visiting pastors and laymen to conduct weekly worship services.

T.H.S. To Offer Co-Op Training

STUDENTS WILL BE OFFERED COURSES IN SELLING AND OFFICE TRAINING

Tecumseh High School will incorporate a co-operative training program for students during the ensuing year of 1947-1948. Offered under the affiliation and supervision of the State Board of Vocational Control, it consists of two phases: the retail and selling field and the office training field. Coordination of local activities will be supervised by Mr. Delmar Crisp.

Success of the course depends not only upon school activities and students, but also upon the local merchants and employers, a selected group of which will provide on the job training for participating students.

Working students will carry their required classes on a schedule that will enable them to be free for afternoon work. A special course related to work for which they are being trained will be required.

It is felt that the program will render the school course more meaningful to those students not interested in attending college. Besides preparing them more fully for a specific vocation, it will give local employers a more skilled group of young people to help them perform better service to the community and, thus, earn greater profits.

At the present time, a survey of all types of opportunities available for young people during the next two years is being carried on.

Quaker Oats Shares Profits With Employees

53 AT LOCAL PLANT GET AVERAGE OF MONTH'S EXTRA PAY THIS WEEK

Smiles were the style this week among 53 employees at the Tecumseh plant of The Quaker Oats Company as annual profit-sharing checks were distributed. The wage bonus plan added an average of nearly a month's extra pay to employees' regular individual earnings during Quaker's recently ended business year.

D. T. Nixon, plant manager, explained that the checks went to all permanent employees, with their eligibility chiefly dependent upon six months or more of service.

Similar checks also went out to workers in Quaker's Chicago headquarters and in its 12 other plants which reach nearly across the United States. All told, Quaker's profit-sharing wage bonus this year was $785,435.

This is the 12th year that Quaker has shared its profits with employees. The plan, voluntarily established by management in 1936, sets aside for this purpose each year a fixed percentage of Quaker earnings after preferred stock dividends, but before taxes and common stock dividends. Its purpose is to provide employees with an extra income during years of good earnings over and above their regular wage rate. During those 12 years, employees have received a total of $6,576,361 under the Wage Bonus Plan.

A note from R. D. Stuart, Quaker president, accompanied each profit-sharing check. He pointed out that the payroll for the group was nearly 33% higher for the business year ended June 30, 1947, than for the previous year. He attributed this increase to wage boosts granted during the year, and to the employment of additional workers.

He continued by forecasting the current year would be a difficult one, and by asking the help of each employee in raising production and sales in trimming costs.

Tecumseh Schools To Open Next Wednesday For 1947-1948 Year

Tecumseh school children are due to respond to the pealing of the bell next Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock, when the 1947-1948 school year will be inaugurated.

Following is the program as outlined by the superintendent's office:

The new school year for Tecumseh elementary school children will commence on Wednesday morning, September 3, at 9:00 a.m., when all grade school children from kindergarten through grade six will be enrolled. The opening session will be limited to enrollment and orientation procedures. Regular classes will not start until Monday morning, September 8. This delay in the commencement of the regular school program has been approved by the local Board of Education to give the grade school teachers an opportunity to visit the homes of the children enrolled in their grades. Such a visit will, it is hoped, serve as a basis for a closer cooperation between home and school throughout the year, and will also provide an opportunity at the beginning of the year for parents to discuss with teachers any specific problems which may have some bearing upon the education of their children.

Junior and Senior high school students will enroll in the high school assembly room on Thursday morning, September 4, at 9:00 a.m. Classes will meet in brief session on the opening morning and all students will then be expected to participate in a special testing and orientation program which is being planned for Thursday afternoon and Friday. This program is designed to furnish both the student and the teacher with valuable information concerning the interests, aptitudes and abilities of the students. This information will make possible a more effective guidance program by the Counsellors and will, it is hoped, give the students greater assurance in the selection of a course of study. Regular classes for all Junior and Senior high school students will commence on Monday morning, September 8.

The West Branch building will again house the kindergarten with Mrs. Bertram Updike as teacher, a section of the first grade with Mrs. Leon Van Valkenburg as teacher, and a section of the second grade with Miss Bertha LaPointe in charge. All kindergarten children will enroll at the West Branch and all first and second grade children living in the area bounded by Evans Street on the East and Shawnee Street on the North.

Two rooms at the East Branch building will be used for children in grades one and two who live in the area bounded by Evans Street on the West and Shawnee Street on the North. Children for these grades who come by bus from the rural areas should also report at the East Branch. Miss Betty McCoy will serve as teacher of the first grade at the East Branch building and Miss Margaret Roberts will be in charge of the second grade section.

The Brownville School building will be used this year for a first and second grade combination group with Miss Alice Seeger in charge. All first and second grade children living North of Shawnee Street should enroll at this building.

There will be two third grade sections this year. All third grade children living South of Chicago Boulevard should enroll at the Public Library building and those living to the North of the Boulevard and all third grade children coming by bus from the rural areas are requested to enroll at St. Peter's Episcopal church. Mrs. Wallace Whiting will be in charge of the group at the library building and Mrs. Gordon Miller will upon her return from the West, have charge of the section at the church.

Children in grades four, five and six must enroll at the Central building. Teachers in charge of these grades will be Mrs. C. O. Bailey, Mrs. Homer Colson, Mrs. Purnell Osborn, Mrs. Merryn Boltz and Miss Bernice Parker.

Other staff members who will again serve in the Tecumseh Public Schools are: Miss Bessie Bortner, Mrs. Fred Dickinson, Miss Agnes Hansen, Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, Miss Arlene Peugeot, Mrs. Wyman Service, Mr. Alvin Brasee, Mr. Clare Camburn, Mr. Delmar Crisp, Mr. David Dick, Mr. Neville Hart, Mr. David Locke, Mr. Aden Mead and Mr. Myles Runk. Mr. James McDowell will again serve as high school principal and Mr. W. L. Berkhof as superintendent of schools. Mrs. Margaretta Brisbin will continue as secretary to the superintendent. No appointment has as yet been made to replace Mrs. H. H. Hanna, who has resigned her position in the local schools.

Following the opening session the time schedule given below will be observed:

The morning session for all grades will begin at 8:45 a.m. The early elementary grades in the various branch buildings will be dismissed at 11:30 for the noon recess and all later elementary and Junior and Senior high school classes will be dismissed at 11:45.

The afternoon session for all groups will begin at 1:00 o'clock and the dismissal times will be 3:30 p.m., for the branch buildings; 3:45 p.m., for later elementary grades and 4:00 p.m., for the Junior and Senior high school classes. The kindergarten class will again be divided into two sections with half day attendance for each section. Kindergarten enrollment will be limited to children who will be five years old before the first day of January, 1948. The enforcement of this regulation is again made necessary by an anticipated large kindergarten enrollment.

Parents are urged to enroll their children promptly to avoid delays which often prove costly to the child. Prompt and regular attendance throughout the year is also considered absolutely essential if maximum educational benefits are to be received from the schools.

The Board of Education is also urging and recommending strongly that parents who are enrolling their children in the Tecumseh Schools for the first time have them immunized for smallpox and diphtheria by their family physician previous to the time of enrollment. This step will not only protect such children during this period of shifting population, but will also enable our schools to maintian the present high percentage of protection which as at present enjoyed.

The Tecumseh staff members will meet in a pre-school conference which is being planned for Tuesday, September 2, and Wednesday, September 3. Special consideration will be given at the conference to the orientation and testing procedures which are to be followed in the opening sessions of school and to the scheduling of home visits.

This Week's Weather Story

Much as we regret it, The Herald is placed in a position where it should offer an apology to its local readers.

Reason — a statement made last week by Mr. Wickwire (who incidentally left forthwith for a week's vacation in the Catskill Mountains of New York) concerning the weather. According to his prognostication, we were due for relief from the intense heat last week end. But we just didn't get it.

Maybe he got his dates mixed — or maybe he just didn't give a hoot, seeing he wasn't going to be here. Anyway, up to Monday evening (as we all know) it was hotter than hades locally, both day and night.

Monday evening's and Tuesday's rain brought cooling breezes and welcome relief to the sweltering folks of this community.

ARE YOU A KILLER?

No less an authority than the president of the International Association of Chiefs of Police tells us that the modern officer views every traffic violator as a potential killer.

To some this may seem a rather macabre point of view for the genial cop on the corner. We think, however, that it is fortunate for us all that police forces are being trained to take a realistic and stern attitude toward traffic violations — especially with this country's tragic record of increasing deaths on our streets and highways. When the lives of 33,500 men, women and children are snuffed out in one year because of reckless driving and violation of traffic regulations, then it is time for someone to get tough.

Progressive police training throughout the nation is demonstrating its value. Modern traffic squads are no longer given pep talks and then sent out "just to keep an eye on things in general." They are briefed as to what intersections are accident prone, what violations are causing the accidents and during what hours. They know what to look for and they should be applauded rather than hampered when they deal sternly with the violators.

That such selective enforcement is effective has been proved. The communities which have adopted it are to be commended. To those which have not yet done so, we recommend such an enforcement program and suggest that the people in the communities do the same, for their own good.

Do not erroneously believe that the traffic policeman enjoys writing you a ticket for a violation. He would rather do it, however, than pick you up in a basket after an accident of your own or some other violator's making.

If you violate a traffic regulation, consider that a violation identical to yours has killed several persons — perhaps at the same place, perhaps even on the same day. That you did not cause an accident is not important. That you might have caused one is. Apprehending you is the traffic officer's job. He is not only protecting you from your own folly but lessening your exposure to dangerous driving habits of others. He deserves your highest respect and fullest cooperation.

Miss Addie Crittenden

Miss Addie Crittenden of Macon, eldest daughter of William and Rosella Crittenden, was born in Saline township, Washtenaw Co., September 10, 1866, and, following an illness of four months, died Wednesday, August 20, 1947, in the Tecumseh hospital, where she had been a patient for six weeks. During the later years of her life, she did secretarial work for the late Dr. James Breakey of Ypsilanti, visited relatives in Detroit and kept up her Macon home. She is survived by one brother, John Crittenden of near Macon, several nieces and nephews and cousins.

Car Inspection Very Important

MANY ACCIDENTS COULD BE AVOIDED IF AUTOMOBILES WERE CAREFULLY CHECKED

By Thomas N. Boate
Director, Special Service Division, National Conservation Bureau

Have you ever faced a single onrushing headlight and uneasily wondered whether the approaching vehicle was a motorcycle or an automobile with one headlight working? Have you ever frantically stabbed at the horn button in emergency and received only silence — or jammed on brakes that would not hold, or that spun the car around like a top? Have you ever felt a blowout drag at the wheel and swerve your car like a clutching hand? If you have, you realize these things cause accidents, and that keeping a motor vehicle in good repair is highly important as a preventive measure.

Defective equipment is reported to be currently the cause of 18% of the nation's traffic accident fatalities. That represents a steady increase in accidents resulting from this cause, beginning with 8% for the last pre-war year.

Faulty brakes, improper lights and overworn tires constituted nearly half of the mechanical deficiencies. Recent evidence developed by the National Brake Emphasis Program reveals that 14.3% of vehicles checked had faulty brakes. More thorough brake tests which include equalization, made in connection with periodic inspection program, usually develop that 40% to 60% of the vehicles have poor brakes.

Greater traffic safety results from frequent inspections. This has been the experience of states and cities having a periodic inspection program. The purpose of periodic motor vehicle inspection is to discover any maladjustments in vehicles that might lead to accidents and, by correcting those maladjustments, to prevent accidents.

There are 10 major benefits resulting from motor vehicle inspection:

(1) It improves the general standard of vehicle condition.

(2) It maintains an automobile at a higher value level by lessening depreciation.

(3) It affords opportunity to check motor and serial number actually on the vehicle against registration certificates, and in other ways to assist in the enforcement of motor vehicle laws.

(4) It improves the quality of garage workmanship in making adjustments and repairs.

(5) It provides an excellent opportunity to inform drivers about the condition of their cars and their responsibility for driving safely 365 days in the year.

(6) The psychological effect on the driver is considerable, for the motorist who has been shown that his brakes meet only the minimum requirements will tend to drive more carefully.

(7) Inspections also help to educate and keep car owners aware that certain parts need periodic attention and that it is less expensive to have the vehicle checked regularly and kept in repair than to wait until a breakdown occurs.

(8) Rejection of a vehicle usually informs the motorist in a specific way that he is driving an unsafe car, and that as a consequence he is liable to be held as the party in the event of a collision with a car that has been properly maintained.

(9) The driver who subjects his car to periodic inspection tends to cooperate with enforcement officers and the general public in the observance of traffic rules and regulations.

(10) Periodic inspection provides for the motorist an inexpensive maintenance service not available elsewhere.

In 1946, police officers of the United States, Canada and Honolulu, examined nearly 3 million vehicles during a six-week accident prevention program. They found that 32.3% of all vehicles examined —nearly one third—had obvious and hazardous mechanical defects. A total of 2,860,346 vehicle checks were made. Of this number, 922,775 had one or more defects. The total number of defects reported by types was 1,231-161—almost one dangerous defect for every two cars examined.

In the United States, 2,718,076 vehicles were checked: 872,290 or 32.1% had defects. In Canada police checked 128,814 vehicles, 44,197, or 34.2% of which were defective.

In the State of New Jersey, during the first motor vehicle inspection year, there were 413 fewer fatalities, or a reduction of 30%, as compared with the preceding year. Total reportable accidents and non-fatal accidents also decreased 13%.

Motor vehicle inspections in the United States have been recognized as an accident prevention medium since 1927, when several eastern states developed "Save A Life" campaigns.

There has been steady development to a pre-war total of 8,500,000 motor vehicles being regularly inspected from one to four times each year in 17 states and 16 cities.

Now, two years after V-J Day, this nationwide program has been 100% resumed with at least 2 states added to the list and 10 additional ones giving serious consideration to legislation requiring periodic motor vehicle inspection in the interest of accident prevention.

HOWDY FOLKS: I wish they would invent a new expression to use in place of "the blushing bride". But maybe we should let it stand when we look at some of the husbands the girls marry. They're enough to make any girl blush.

She: "I consider, John, that sheep are the stupidest creatures living."

He: (absent-mindedly) "Yes, my lamb."

"Say, Ben, don't worry about the $5.00 I owe you any more.

Ben: "Gee — are you going to pay me?"

Bert: "No, but it is silly for both of us to worry about it."

And you don't need to worry about your car if we service it regularly. We guarantee to provide the best gas, oil and lubrication possible. And we take pride in our many added services, too. Drive in and try us. You'll be glad you did.

The driver of this truck lost control of it because its brakes were defective. It ran up on the sidewalk and plowed through the side of a house, killing two persons. In addition to the terrible toll of motor vehicle deaths and injuries last year—33,500 killed, 1,150,000 injured —the total economic waste amounted to almost two billion dollars. Brakes, tires, lights, windshield wipers and other safety features should be periodically checked as a safeguard against accidents. A recent nationwide testing program disclosed mechanical defects in one out of every three cars examined.

KUHN-SALLOWS

Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Friends church Miss Joyce Sallows, daughter of Mrs. Naomi Sallows, became the bride of Loren Kuhn of Cleveland during an impressive candle light ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Herbert Murphy, an aunt of the bride, with hampers and baskets of white and Corona gladioli, blue Queen Anne's lace, natural palms and candelabra. White velvet bows with ivy vine marked the pews for the relatives. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Escolme.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Amos Wilson of Clinton played a program of nuptial music and accompanied Miss Mary Jane Hayden when she sang "Always", "Because" and "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

The bride was lovely in a gown of white brocaded satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves extending to points over her hands, and a short train. Her fingertip veil of silk marquisette edged with lace fell from a tiara of white bebe pompons and white roses. She carried a "lovers knot" bouquet of bebe pompons and white roses tied with white satin streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Marjorie VanWinkle, a cousin of the bride, wore aqua brocade satin and hat to match with streamers of coral velvet. She carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses. The Misses Elizabeth Escolme and Charlotte Anderson of Cleveland were bridesmaids and wore gowns of pink and blue brocade satin and hats with contrasting velvet streamers. They carried cascade bouquets of shaded glamelias. All of the attendants wore mitts.

The best man was Kenneth Bess of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio and the guests were seated by John Dunlap of Steubenville, Ohio, and Leonard Shiley of Smokeless, Pa.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride on East Shawnee street. Refreshments were served to 100 guests from a lace covered table with arrangements of white gladioli and bebe chrysanthemums. Miss Marilyn VanWinkle, cousin of the bride, served the four-tiered wedding cake, which was a gift of A. L. VanWinkle, an uncle of the bride. Mrs. Leona Dunlap, niece of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Others who assisted with the serving were the Misses Ardis Drewyor, Anna Belle Wilson of Clinton, Carol Cox, Isabelle Randolph and Mabel Lockwood. All those serving wore gardenias in their hair.

Guests were present from Steubenville, Hopedale, and Cleveland, Ohio, Adrian, Clinton, Manitou Beach, and Jackson.

Mrs. Kuhn graduated from Tecumseh high school with the class of 1943 and is attending Cleveland Bible College. She has been assisting at the Cameron Drug Co., during the summer. Mr. Kuhn is also attending Cleveland Bible College.

A rehearsal dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Murphy northeast of Tecumseh Friday evening. The three course meal was served to 20 guests seated at tables decorated with flowers and lighted tapers.

Floating Weather Vane

A floating weather station in the Arctic ocean north of Norway, has been put in operation by Norway. This station will be one link in long range advance weather forecasts. The United States weather bureau now makes forecasts of two weeks or more in advance, and much of the information for these comes from stations in distant parts of the world. The floating Norwegian station is one of 13 that the International Meteorological conference in Dublin recommended. Norway will spend $100,000 annually on the Arctic ocean station. Sweden will contribute 23 per cent of the expenses and Britain about 30 per cent. Norway will set up six other new stations as part of 125 meteorological stations to be scattered all over Europe.

Penicillin by Smoke

Made of pulverized drug crystals, penicillin "smoke" has been made by Doctors George C. Taplin and Fred A. Bryan of Rochester university. One inhalation by the new method is said to equal eight intramuscular injections given at three-hour intervals. The "smoke" method requires a smaller amount of penicillin to produce in the blood a concentration as high or higher than that achieved by the aerosol method of intramuscular injections of the drug in saline solutions. A patient could take 100,000 units of penicillin within two minutes when inhaled from a small instrument made of a three-inch plastic tube with a rubber bulb on one end, the doctors reported.

The Church

"The Church is a religious home, a sanctuary for worship, a school for religious instruction, a fighting unit for the new world that is building. It is a social center of the highest type, since it gathers into relations of mutual helpfulness people of every age and condition. It adds to the attractions of the ordinary club the power of religion and the generous sympathies of the altruistic impulse. The Church is the most broadening and democratic organization among men, since its vision is to the ends of the world whither the Gospel is being carried and since its citizenship is in heaven as well as in the earth."

ONSTED

Mrs. F. M. Richardson of Little Rock, Arkansas, is spending two weeks at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Nelson and daughter, Eileen have moved to Coleman, Michigan.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Schrock were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scherer of Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Mrs. F. M. Richardson was honored Thursday evening when her bridge club enjoyed a picnic at the roadside park on M-50. Later bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Elwyn Onsted.

The Onsted Girl Scout Troop 1 met Tuesday evening at the home of their leader, Miss Lucille Hand. The girls brought articles for the fair exhibit and materials for furnishing a doll house.

GOOD SUPPLY OF PEACHES IS PREDICTED

Michigan housewives who have been patient enough to wait for Michigan peaches this year will be rewarded with an ample supply of quality fruit at reasonable prices, according to Arthur Mauch, extension agricultural economist at Michigan State college.

The August 1 report of the Michigan crop reporting services indicates that the harvest will be 10 to 15 days later than usual. Although some Michigan peaches are now appearing in stores, the peak for Hale Havens is expected about September 1, and the peak Elbertas about September 15.

Less feed would not mean less meat in 1947. The cut will come in 1948. Meat supplies per person for the second half of this year are likely to be moderately above last year. About the same amount will be available this fall.

EMPLOYMENT SHOWS GAIN IN LENAWEE

Employment in Lenawee county's 17 major industrial plants increased in July for the first time in three months according to the Adrian office of the Michigan Unemployment of Compensation Commission. Improved material deliveries and a stronger demand for employment to reach a total of 8,911 on July 15 — 201 above the June 15 level, and only 18 short of the goal set by employers last month. Women accounted for nearly half of the total gain, and the principal plants had 1,701 women workers on their payrolls in mid-July.

Production schedules of major manufacturers call for the addition of 280 workers (85 women) by September 15. During July, employers listed 244 job openings with the local MSES office, compared with 315 during June. On August 1, the local office had orders covering 102 job openings.

A MAN DIED -

He had worked late—he was tired—thoughtlessly he walked to the right along the darkened highway. Beyond the turn of the road were the lights of home.

Speeding through the early darkness, a driver urged his car along, hugging the edge of the road. A dim shape, a sudden sickening jolt — and the terrorized driver, his car careening, sped on — around the curve, past the lighted cottage beside the road. And in the still of the night, a man died.

These are the ingredients of accidents and death at night. Often the victim contributes to his own death by not walking to the left, facing traffic. But far too many pay with their lives for the reckless driving of the hit-and-run car coward. To him self-preservation is more urgent than the saving of a life.

To his kind let this be a warning. Of all highway and traffic violators, the hit-and-run driver fares worst. Sooner or later, his crime leads to prison and disgrace.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Lena V. Wells, 71 years old, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Amenzo VanValkenburg, died August 19, 1947, at the home of her brother, Leon VanValkenburg after a period of failing health. She recently moved to Tecumseh from Detroit where she had spent most of her life. She was married to Dalton R. Wells of Detroit, September 21, 1916. He preceded her in death March 8, 1946. She leaves to mourn their loss one sister, Mrs. Bertha Hoag and three brothers, Deane, Leon and Faye VanValkenburg, all of Tecumseh, several nieces and nephews and many friends. Before her marriage she taught in several rural schools in this vicinity, later attending Cleary Business College in Ypsilanti. She held stenographic positions in Detroit. She was an active member of the Mayflower Congregational church in Detroit at the time of her death. She had a strong, lovable Christian character and will be greatly missed by her many relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Green Funeral Home with the Rev. R. E. Burtt of Detroit officiating. The bearers were nephews of the deceased, Russell Abbott, Dale Hoag, Cuyler, Raynor, Ronald and Dalton VanValkenburg. Burial was in Brookside cemetery. Relatives and friends attended the services from Saginaw, Detroit, Belleville Toledo, Ypsilanti, Jackson, Adrian, Tipton, Clinton and Tecumseh.

Danger For Your Milk

During warm weather farmers no longer can depend on nature to take care of milk cooling, remind extension dairymen. "We have warm days and nights, and if we are not careful we might neglect to cool our milk as it should be cooled," they explain. "As a matter of fact, it is of the utmost importance to cool milk promptly and store it at a temperature of 50 degrees or lower, regardless of the time of the year." It is pointed out that with the big demand for high-quality milk by consumers and the strict requirements that milk meet a high standard, no dairy farmer can afford to neglect cooling as a means of keeping down the growth of bacteria in milk. The specialists caution that "when your milk gets to market sour, your market soon goes sour on your milk."

Alkyd Resins

Alkyd resins enjoy the unique distinction of probably being the only class of synthetic resins that were born into the protective coatings field and later migrated to additional uses in the field of plastics. Alkyds made their initial appearance about the middle 1920s. One of their first important uses was in specialized finishes for refrigerators —gleaming white finishes highly resistant to abrasion, chipping, and staining or softening by food acids.

900 Enrollment Seen In School

A total enrollment in the public schools here of about 900 students was forecast yesterday afternoon when W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, announced that the elementary grade enrollment on Wednesday amounted to 544. This was in the kindergarten through the sixth grade and represented an increase of about 60 over the figure of a year ago. Kindergarten enrollment this year is exceptionally heavy, 80 youngsters reporting for training.

Mr. Berkhof said that it would be the end of the week before an accurate check of the enrollment could be made, but he indicated that the number would reach or exceed 900. Junior and Senior high school students report for classes today and he predicted that there would be at least 350 in these groups.

The facilities of the school are crowded to capacity, the superintendent said. Classes are being held in the library, at St. Peter's church parish house, in the Ford-Brownville school, East and West Branch buildings as well as at the Central building. "We have a teacher in every room now," he said, "but there is a possibility, if the enrollment continues to increase, we may need more classes. The difficulty then is to find the added room, as well as the teachers."

The superintendent pointed out that enrollment always grows during the first week of school, many students reporting late for classes. This was true a year ago, he said.

Both the elementary and junior-senior groups will spend the most of this week in organization, actual class work beginning next Monday.

Father And Two Sons Escape Death In Storm

Gale Hooten and his two sons, Douglas, 11, and Larry, 9, of Tecumseh, narrowly escaped death Saturday afternoon about 4 p.m., in the cyclone that swept the Hillsdale-Coldwater-Quincy area, doing untold thousands of dollars in damage.

Mr. Hooten and his sons were at Hemlock Lake about 17 miles from Hillsdale in a portable house on their lot when the storm struck. The father believed that all of them would be safer if they sat in his truck which stood a short distance away.

Only minutes after they left the house four or five trees fell crushing it to the ground. Minutes later a large tree fell on the truck, crushing the hood and motor and the windshield. The weight of the tree forced the front wheels of the truck some eight or nine inches into the ground.

The father and sons escaped the accident without serious injury. They all agree, however, that no one possibly could realize the terror of "sweating it out" through the storm.

Husband Of Local Girl Drowns In N. Y. Lake

John Britt, 27, husband of Mrs. Janet Colgrove Britt, formerly of Tecumseh, was drowned Saturday evening in a lake near Aurora, N. Y., according to a message received here by her mother, Mrs. Bertram Updike.

The accident happened while Mr. Britt and his companions, two men with whom he saw service during the war, were in a boat which capsized in high waves. Britt and one of the other men, neither of whom could swim, drowned. The third swam to shore but his condition is critical. The bodies of the two victims have not been recovered.

Products Workers Plan New Union Building

Ground will be broken soon by the Tecumseh Products Workers Union for a new building on South Maumee street near Patterson, the construction to be finished by the end of the year. The new structure will be of cement, brick and glass brick construction, about 60 by 100 feet, and one story in height. It will cost approximately $20,000.

The new hall, according to Union officers, will house the offices of the organization and will serve as a recreation center. Parties, dances, picnics, reunions, etc., will be held there.

A building committee in charge of the project is made up of Glenn Wilson as chairman, assisted by Charles Fay, Ed Zick, Lester Handy and Howard E. Diedrich.

County Escapes Traffic Deaths

FEW MINOR MISHAPS REPORTED OVER HOLIDAY; MONDAY STORM DOES DAMAGE

Although the long Labor Day week-end cost Americans 448 lives as a result of accidents — the heaviest toll being on the highways — Michigan escaped with only 24 deaths and Lenawee county had not a single fatality, officers' records show. Traffic in this vicinity, especially in the lakes area, was exceptionally heavy but only four or five minor accidents, in which car occupants suffered minor injuries, were reported.

Sixteen of Michigan's 24 deaths resulted from traffic mishaps, seven were drownings and one was from lightning.

This section of southern Michigan and northern Ohio was visited by a severe electrical, wind and rain storm Monday evening, causing damage in the county estimated in the thousands. The most serious loss was on the Philip Kindinger farm, three and a half miles north of Clayton, where lightning hit a barn, destroying the building and its contents. The damage was estimated at $10,000. Lightning also hit another barn in that area on the Clyde Goodlock farm, but fire did not result.

Two Adrian residents were among four persons killed in an auto accident near St. Ignace. The dead are A. O. Budd, 43, Rt. 1, Adrian, and his wife, Alma. Dewey Smith and his wife, Cora, also of Adrian, are in a Sault hospital.

The greatest excitement in the lakes area occurred at Devils where Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer of Toledo, were arrested after their 16-foot speedboat had rammed a rowboat occupied by fishermen off Echo Cove. Officers said that Meyers would be charged with operating a motor boat in a reckless manner and that his wife would face a similar charge.

The upset fishermen lost about $50 worth of tackle and their boat was damaged beyond repair. They were Leland Snyder, Metamora, and Homer Price, Toledo.

Reuben W. Warner, 74 years old, died Thursday morning at the farm home of his daughter, Mrs. Bernie Pate. He had been ill for three years. He was born in Tecumseh, May 20, 1873, and was formerly employed as a foundry worker.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Walter Leute of St. Johns, Michigan, Mrs. Pate, Mrs. Elsie Moran and Miss Helen Warner, all of Tecumseh, one son, Alfred of Tecumseh, a brother, Lewis of Wallaceburg, Ontario, seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 4 o'clock in the Green Funeral Home with the Rev. Alvin Brazee officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were Bernie Pate, William Fell, Donald Leute and Walter Leute of St. Johns. Friends and relatives attended from St. Johns, Clinton, Manchester, Sand Creek, Detroit, Adrian, and Lansing.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

The hospital Auxiliary meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rohweder September 9th at 8 o'clock. Miss Pearl Heist, nursing director of Lenawee County Health Department and assistant to Dr. Huntley, will be the speaker. Plans for a rummage sale will be discussed.

A Child On the Curb Is 'Go Slow' Signal As School Bell Rings

APPROXIMATELY 110,000 LITTLE KIDDIES GOING TO SCHOOL FOR FIRST TIME

More little children will enter school this fall than any other time in the state's history, the Michigan Department of Health said today and warned that the increased number places on each parent, teacher and automobile driver increased responsibility to see that these children get to and from their schools safely.

Any child on a curb these next few weeks will constitute a large "Go Slow" signal to any sensible driver, the Department said. Approximately 110,000 little Michigan children will go to school for the first time this fall.

Now is the time to take your child over the route he will travel to school to point out to him the hazards which exist and to show him how to avoid them, parents were advised.

Ten per cent of all accidents occuring to children from kindergarten to the fourth grade occur enroute to school, and accidents are by far the greatest cause of death among this age group.

Teach the child the safest route to school. Advise him to cross streets at intersections only, to cross only when traffic lights are in his favor, to obey warnings of police and safety patrol, to look both ways and listen before he crosses, and then to walk, not run, across the street. On country roads and where there is no sidewalk, the child should walk at the far left of the highway facing the traffic, the Department counselled.

Be sure your child can handle any vehicle he pilots. Remember bicycles are especially dangerous transportation. If your child rides to school in an automobile be sure that it has a competent, mature driver, the Health Department concluded.

To Speak To Eagles

William Wetherald, Zanesville, Ohio, grand treasurer of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will address Tecumseh Eagles at 8 p.m. Monday, September 8, at the Eagles clubhouse. He is on tour of Michigan Aeries.

Wetherald, a former mayor of Zanesville, will speak on Eagle objectives and accomplishments. A past state president of Ohio Aerie and former member of the Eagles Board of Grand Trustees, he has been active in Eagle national programs.

Seek Funds To War On Polio

SISTER KENNY FOUNDATION PLANS TO SPONSOR DRIVE HERE NEXT WEEK

The Sister Kenny Foundation of Michigan will launch a drive here next week, similar in character to the one staged in Tecumseh a year ago, in an effort to raise funds to aid in the fight against infantile paralysis, Bruce Hoffman, Meyers Aircraft executive and chairman, said today. Last year, Tecumseh contributed $357 to the fund and it is Mr. Hoffman's hope that $500 or more may be raised this year.

Again this year, Mr. Hoffman said, milk bottle "collars" will be delivered to customers by local dairies, and those who desire may place their contribution in the "collar" and return it to the milkman on his next delivery. This method of solicitation was very popular in Tecumseh a year ago. In the business district and in industry, the chairman said, there will be a campaign of solicitation. He will be assisted by Glenn Kohler, C. W. Gilman and Chester Beach.

"I believe the Sister Kenny Fund to be a very worth-while enterprise," Mr. Hoffman said, "and I hope that Tecumseh will give generously in this campaign. I also would like to point out," he continued, "that the fund is available to the residents of Tecumseh at any time.

"If there is a suspected case of polio in this area," Hoffman said, "the Fund will pay all of the expenses of hospitalization and diagnosis. If it is discovered that the victim has polio the Fund will continue to defray the cost of hospitalization and care. If there is no polio, then the Fund pays the cost of the examination."

Hoffman said that the Kenny Foundation of Michigan is endeavoring to raise sufficient funds in the state to permit the building of a hospital of its own in Michigan to care for polio victims. Money also is used for the training of technicians, which are most necessary, as well as to sponsor a broad educational program bringing vital information to the general public about infantile paralysis.

FAMILY NIGHT IS PLANNED BY METHODISTS

Family night will be observed at the Methodist church in Ridgeway Sunday evening, September 7, at 7 o'clock. A co-operative supper will be followed by a devotional service. Plans for re-decorating the church will be discussed and all members and friends are requested to be present.

The Sunday school board of the church will meet there Tuesday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock.

TO RESUME MEETINGS

The opening meeting of the Child Study Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Owen Partridge Monday, September 8, at 8 p.m.

PAST CHIEFS CLUB

The Past Chiefs Club of the Pythian Sisters will hold the postponed meeting at the home of Miss Nellie Wilson, Friday, September 5. Mrs. Ida Allison is co-hostess.

Parallel Parking and Meters Appear Certain for Tecumseh

Parallel parking of automobiles and other vehicles in the so-called downtown area and the eventual installation of traffic meters is almost a certainty for Tecumseh.

The village council already has adopted an ordinance, which will become effective early in October, making the parallel parking of vehicles mandatory in the business district. This ordinance is in keeping with a request from the Michigan Department of Safety and eventually, it was pointed out, parallel parking in villages and cities will be uniform throughout the state. At the present time, diagonal parking of cars is permitted here and the practice has been frowned upon for some years by the Safety department.

The installation of traffic meters is within the power of the council, but such a program is said to be gaining in favor and probably will be adopted. With the advent of parallel parking, it was pointed out, the number of parking places will be sharply reduced. If shoppers are to be served, it is believed that meters will have a tendency to keep the parking of cars down to a minimum of time and permit a greater turnover of parking space.

The meters, it is understood, can be purchased on a self-liquidating basis. In most communities, records show, the meters pay for themselves within a year or two and then all funds collected go into the village treasury. In all probability, the use of meters on the local streets will not become effective before November or December.

The new ordinance also carries a penalty clause for persons who operate motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating liquors or narcotic drugs, Barbital or any derivative of Barbital. The same penalty applies when convictions are obtained for operation under the influence of drugs as does for operation under the influence of liquor.

The council received petitions from residents on South Union street for the building of sidewalks from Patterson street to the village limits and the petitions were accepted. Bids for the construction will be received by the council on September 8.

There was little other business before the trustees except for the auditing and payment of current bills, and the reading of reports from committee and department heads.

Tickets On Sale For C. C. Banquet

PAUL UNGROAT, SECRETARY OF YPSILANTI CHAMBER, WILL BE SPEAKER

Ticket sales started Tuesday for the civic banquet, to be held next Tuesday evening, September 9, at the high school, at which time it is expected that a Chamber of Commerce will be organized in Tecumseh. The dinner, which will be attended by both men and women, will be served at 6:30.

Paul Ungroat, secretary of the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speaker of the evening. Musical entertainment also is being arranged, it was announced.

Charles O. Butler, chairman of the general committee seeking funds for the financial support of a Chamber here, said today that he could see no reason now why such an organization could not be formed. He said that subscription pledges to date signify that a Chamber will be supported, and there are many, many firms and individuals who have not yet been contacted.

At the meeting next Tuesday it is expected that by-laws will be adopted and a board of directors elected. It then will be the duty of the board to hire a full-time secretary of the organization which in all probability will begin functioning about the first of next month.

The organization of a Chamber here is the outgrowth of a meeting held six weeks ago in which the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Town Hall participated. It was attended by more than 200 persons and addressed by Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., and William Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber. At that meeting, Mr. Herrick and his associates pledged about $3,800 for the support of the organization if sufficient other money could be raised to permit its functioning.

Funeral Held Saturday For Charles F. Ferguson

Charles Frank Ferguson, 61 years old, died last Wednesday evening in the Tecumseh hospital, where he had been a patient since July 21, after suffering a stroke. Born in Jackson September 9, 1885, he was employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Surviving are his widow, Mame, four daughters, Mrs. Roda Snyder, of Manchester, Mrs. Veda FePetee of Onsted, Mrs. Fay Comstock of Jackson, and Mrs. Leon Wright of St. Louis, Md., two brothers, Dorr of Jackson, and Fred of Palmola, Calif., and one sister, Mrs. Mertie Waltz of LaPorte, Ind.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Green Funeral Home, with the Rev. Allan Ramsay officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were William Kerentoff, C. C. Richards, Alfred Jeffries, Dave Watson, E. Topp, and Claude Rathburn. Friends and relatives attended from Adrian, Jackson, Onsted, Tipton, Britton, Clinton, St. Louis, Mo., Manchester, and LaPorte, Ind.

DIVERSIFICATION OF INDUSTRY DISCUSSED

A round-table discussion on the subject of whether or not Tecumseh's industries should be further diversified occupied the program time at the dinner-meeting of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening at Brees House. L. W. Larsen acted as master of ceremonies and members of the panel were E. M. Campbell, Geo. H. Adamson, Frank Purcell and W. J. Bruce.

William Leach of Hollywood, Calif., a guest of Perry Hayden, drew a chalk picture for the club. Mr. Leach is a former artist with the 20th Century Studios and is very clever in his profession.

Local Tourists Visit Holy City

Dr. Ferris G. Hodge, local dentist who with his father, Nicholas Hodge, of Morenci, left early in June for a tour of the Near East, is now on his way back to the United States, according to a letter received by The Herald from Beyrouth, Libanon, dated August 21.

His letter follows:

Just a few lines today to let you know that we are very happy and much relieved to be back here in this port city after seeing and nearly being involved in riots, etc. Somehow I can't help feeling that this powder bag is already attached to a lighted fuse. I shall elaborate a bit when I return.

We have completed all our tours, seeing four countries, Lebanon, Syria, Palestine and the Holy City and St. Jordan. I have taken color movies of everything where I was permitted. My hope is that the films are good. We have picked up a quantity of souvenirs from all parts, too.

We are expecting to be back sometime in September. I'll wire you from New York when we arrive. The trip back will require about 17 days as we spend a day at Haifa, a day at Alexandria, Egypt, and a day at the port of Athens, (Pirens), Greece, before the good ship noses straight for New York. That will make six countries which is enough for this brief time we've been away.

I might add here that there is no place on earth that is regarded as "heaven on earth" by anyone I have met, including ourselves, except the good old United States of America. When I see all of the privation and unrest over here, I thank God we are Americans.

Please give my sincere regards to everyone.

BORN IN SEPTEMBER?

Then, according to your horoscope, you are magnetic, refined and fond of the beauties of nature! Horoscopes are fun, whether or not we put any faith in them, and who isn't fond of the beauties of nature these late—summer days?

Motorists driving in the country can enjoy nature better — and longer — if they will remember that a country road is not the place for speeding. Back roads are not as plainly marked as highways with warning signs, they are often narrow and twisting, with dangerous humps or washed-out places. Sometimes there are straying farm animals on them.

Last year, speeding and driving on the wrong side of the road in rural areas brought death to some 7,600 persons, according to the National Conservation Bureau. Drive safely — and enjoy the country this September and in the years to come.

You Can Forget Sub-Zero Temperatures

Your Home Will Be Cozy and Warm With Insulation

The family living in an insulated home can truthfully forget outside temperatures because heating is so easy and economical.

In the average home, insulation saves up to one-third in fuel costs, annually. Think how quickly insulation pays for itself — how the fuel bills drop.

You can insulate your home NOW and begin enjoying its comforts this fall and winter. Why put it off? You're paying for insulation through heat loss without enjoying its comforts.

An Open Letter
To Our Present and Prospective Customers at Tecumseh

A little over a year ago on August 1st., 1946, we issued a statement to both our present and prospective customers at Tecumseh, in which we outlined present day conditions, giving the full story as to the reason for delays in completing local and toll calls, as well as the installation of service for new subscribers. Here is our story today.

The amount of traffic flowing through our central office in Tecumseh has continued to rise and we now find by comparison the following daily figures, as computed from our local records:

	July 1946	July 1947
Toll (Outward)	344	382
Local Calls	2774	2943

To date this year we have been able to install service for ninety (90) new subscribers, in cases where both open wire and cable facilities were available.

We are now happy to report that we are in a position to give you some facts as to what has happened in the past year and what steps are being taken to provide a better grade of service for all concerned.

Recently, our number of toll circuits were increased from 14 to 16, another circuit being added to both the Detroit and Dundee groups. Additional toll circuits are scheduled for Tecumseh and will be completed as soon as the essential material and equipment are available.

On December 31, 1946 an order was placed with the Stromberg-Carlson Company, manufacturers of telephone equipment, for another 100 line central office switchboard, delivery to be made in March 1948. Engineering plans have been drawn up and some material received to install a group of toll turrets. The tentative date for this work to be completed is within 60 days. These turrets, when installed, will tend to reduce the delay now experienced by the customers in placing some toll calls. With the addition of this central office equipment our operating force will be increased in number from a present staff of 15 to 18 employees, which will include traffic supervisor personnel.

Starting October 1st., this year, a $25,000 cable project gets under way, a 600 pair cable will replace the 400 pair now in use. The contract for the underground duct has been placed with the Harris McBarty Company of Jackson, Michigan. This program when completed along with the new central office equipment will give us an opportunity to serve the people in the new sub-divisions, which to date we have been unable to service due to the lack of cable facilities.

In summing up the aforementioned statements, it is our hope that we can continue to add new improvements to our service. We believe, by telling you the facts and keeping you informed as to what you may expect in the line of future service, that you will bear with us until such time as this program can be completed.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

We stirred up things with our critical blast against lagging state parks in the Upper Peninsula, promoted by our personal experiences in four state parks from Lake Gogebic to the Straits. Now comes an interesting letter from Harry H. Whiteley, a veteran member of the state conservation commission and a newspaper editor at Dowagiac. Harry calls 'em as he seems 'em. He has been doing this for years. We can't recall when he withheld a punch. He has contributed thousands of hours of public service.

"Your comment as to parks, OK as far as it goes, does not hit the spot," says Harry. "The lack of park facilities is purely due to lack of money. We are obligated to operate parks with inadequate manpower.

"Until we get a different attitude on the part of legislators, we cannot do any part of a job in our parks . . . Everybody wants more and better parks, but no one pins the direct responsibility where it belongs . . . on the legislature and on the budget office . . . Give us money, and we will give you park services."

State parks are visited literally by hundreds of thousands of people each year. They are popular, and rightly so. They afford an opportunity for wholesome recreation and much needed relaxation.

Michigan is way ahead of the average state in its public recreation program. It recently started to purchase 100,000 acres in the southeastern section of the state near Detroit, and it is committed to buy some 20,000 acres in the Porcupine Mountain state park area in the Upper Peninsula.

This acquisiton of land has prompted a new "gripe" which I have been hearing with increasing frequency. It is this: The state is ever seeking to acquire more and more land, but is ever neglecting or delaying to open up this land for public use.

To remedy the lack of funds whereby the state might provide better and more facilities — a "must" if the public is to use the land — the conservation commission sponsored a bill in the 1947 legislative session. This measure — House Bill 249 — proposed to give the commission authority to charge (if it so desired to do so) a public fee for three things: Admission into a state park, parking within a state park, and camping overnight within a state park. The bill was defeated in the Senate.

We have no delusions that our views are any better than anyone else's. But I have always felt that it is one thing to charge admission into a state-owned park; it was quite another thing to charge a fee for the use of SPECIAL services to those who asked for them. If you wish to reserve a locker in a bathhouse for your clothes, why shouldn't you pay a reasonable fee for this privilege? If you wish to use a log cabin at Mirror Lake in the Porcupine Mountains, as we did, why shouldn't you pay a reasonable fee? If you wish to reserve a camping area for your own use, why shouldn't you pay a reasonable fee for it?

A use fee, limited to special services such as these, would be one happy solution of the problem as presented so frankly by Mr. Whiteley, conservation commission member. Those who desire better park facilities should be given an opportunity to help pay for them. We predict that such a use fee is coming in Michigan.

NEIGEBORHOOD TURNS OUT FOR ROCKY . . . Chinese Soya Sauce Art Captured by Americans

In China the making of soya sauce is mainly a household art, with grandmothers passing along to daughters and granddaughters the details of recipes and the strains of ferments used in the process.

In the United States, soya sauce—as is true of many other food products—is chiefly a factory product. Each manufacturer is concerned not only with producing a sauce of high quality, but also a standardized sauce in which each batch will have the flavor, color, and taste of every other batch. This calls for standardization of the raw materials and for use of standard strains of micro-organisms in the fermentation of the sauce.

The department of agriculture has announced that strains of four organisms desirable in preparing soya sauce have been added to the culture collection of industrial ferments at the northern regional research laboratory at Peoria, Ill. These include two molds, a yeast and a bacterium. They will be maintained as pure cultures and will be available to industrial users. This makes it possible for a fermenter to make a fresh start with new and pure cultures, if at any time his stock cultures become contaminated with "wild" molds or yeasts that injure the quality or uniformity of his product.

The preparation of soya sauce calls for a brine fermentation of the beans for from 30 to 90 days. But the "starter" used in this process is a mixture of three previously prepared cultures; (1) of a mold that develops on cooked rice; (2) of a yeast working on soya broth, and (3) of a bacterial fermentation of soya broth. For a quality product these should be mixed at the right stage of development in suitable proportions.

Coffee Growing Method in Puerto Rica Leads World

Early in the history of the Puerto Rican coffee industry, the growers realized the importance of producing a superior product. In order to do this, they made an exhaustive study of intensive methods of cultivation, of methods of preparation for market, of fertilizers and seed propagation. This immense store of knowledge has been passed on to their descendants.

In Puerto Rico the seed method is employed to propagate coffee. Carefully selected seeds are sown in seed beds arranged under cover of palm leaves to protect the plants from the sun's rays. There are two periods in which seeds are sown. The first is November and December, when the rainy season ends, and the second in April and May, when it starts.

The seeds are diligently attended to, great care being taken to maintain them moist, shaded and thoroughly weeded. When the plants are developed until they have three or four permanent leaves, about six months after germination, and while the season is still rainy, they are transplanted to a nursery.

World's Sweet Tooth Increasing Each Year

With per capita consumption continuing to increase, the United States held its rank last year as the greatest candy-producing and candy-importing country in the world.

The Netherlands was the most successful of the European countries in re-establishing commercial candy production after the war. By the end of 1946, that country was shipping numerous products to the United States as well as to other parts of the world.

Denmark, France, Belgium and even Germany again were making candy in 1946, but Great Britain continued to be the second most-important candy producing and consuming country in the world. Per capita consumption in Great Britain remained around 22 pounds.

Monthly imports from Cuba alone (mostly hard candy) nearly doubled during the latter part of 1946 when candy prices were decontrolled. In 1945, the last year for which figures for an entire year were available, Cuba shipped 49,872,000 pounds of candy to the United States, compared with 1,050,000 pounds in 1942.

Milk Products Are Again Available for Feeding

Milk products—dried skim milk, dried buttermilk and dried cheese whey—again are becoming available in sufficient quantity for animal and poultry feeding.

These products have long been added to poultry mashes because they provide a concentration of important nutrients, including milk vitamins, proteins, lactose and milk minerals. Used as a supplement they increase the feeding value of the ration and help give it the balance necessary for faster growth and high egg production.

During the war very little milk in any form was available for feeding purposes. Human needs, at home and abroad, left only small quantities of the by-products of the dairy industry for feeds. Mixers of poultry feeds were forced to reduce the percentages of milk products in their mashes, or to seek substitutes.

Today, European countries are rebuilding their own dairy industries and U. S. government purchase of milk products for export is dwindling. As a result dried skim milk, dried buttermilk and dried cheese whey again are becoming sufficiently available to assure a constant supply for feeding purposes. Higher percentages of dried milk products and added quality in poultry mashes will result.

Control of Disease

Over four-fifths of the improvement in the general mortality rates since the start of the century can be attributed to control of the group of diseases which are infectious in nature. Control of these infectious diseases was made possible by knowledge of the nature of the causative agents at work and of their modes of action in the body, by knowledge of immunity and immunization, and by knowledge of effective means of treatment. It is nearly 100 years since medical research began to accumulate the results upon which this knowledge is based. In the past 15 years, there has been a great development of the use of particular chemical agents, such as the sulfa drugs and penicillin. The research which underlies this development began 60 years ago.

Paid to Hunt Deer

Expert hunters are on the payroll of New Zealand to hunt deer, goats and chamois as part of a campaign to halt erosion. The animals are so abundant that they denude hillsides of vegetation and trees, starting erosion which has ruined thousands of acres of land. Since 1930 the New Zealand department of internal affairs reports, hunters have bagged 204,783 deer, 68,561 goats, 6,077 chamois and 4,594 thar, a kind of wild Himalayan goat. Long ago the animals had been imported—the deer for sport, the goats to eat blackberries which were a bane of farmers. The corps of government trained hunters is augmented by commercial hunters attracted by the mounting prices paid for deer and goat skins.

Risen From the Sea

Iraq first appeared in the Cambrian age and was a part of a large territory that was overrun by the sea. The withdrawal of the sea deposited on its surface an alluvial crust. In the Pliocene age the last withdrawal of the sea took place, forming the Bakhteria mountains in Iran and causing the fall of the surface of Iraq and the widening of the Persian gulf. The region situated south of an imaginary line passing from Balad to Hit was formed from the alluvium of the Tigris, the Euphrates and their tributaries.

LET THERE BE LIGHT

Paradoxically, during the hours when there are fewer automobiles on the streets more people are killed in traffic accidents. Traffic during the hours of darkness is less than half as heavy as by daylight, traffic and safety experts say, yet 60 per cent of the persons who lose their lives in traffic accidents are killed at night.

Several factors contribute to this paradox. First, there is the fact that drivers and pedestrians are generally more fatigued at the end of the day and as darkness approach. Too — and an important point — there is more drinking at night and consequently more drivers under the influence of alcohol and more pedestrians who are less alert when crossing the street.

Then comes a long list of contributing factors brought on by darkness itself — poor vision, glaring headlights, misdirected street lighting, and on and on.

Many of the latter hazardous elements can be eliminated by proper traffic engineering and improved lighting of streets and directional signs. Every community in the country should do all within its power to see that its streets and surrounding highways are properly lighted and made more safe for its citizens.

But the most important remedy for the tragic annual toll of night accidents, and a responsibility for that remedy, rests with the individual driver and pedestrian. All the improved lighting and engineering in the world will not correct the evil of the driver who persists in driving too fast. Nor will good lighting rid us of the inexcusable peril of the driver who refuses to dim his lights when approaching oncoming traffic, or the would-be killer who drinks too much, or the goon and grave-digger who ignores traffic signals and ordinary courtesy of the road.

Likewise, we will not be rid of the candidates for suicide who walk along or cross the street deliberately disregarding the rules of safety or with too many hookers under their belts.

So, you see, until every individual responsible becomes more careful, especially at night, we will suffer the loss of the lives of our friends, our relatives — or ourselves. Until the entire American public becomes overwhelmingly conscious of the need for safety on our streets and highways, we have every reason to be afraid of the dark.

Speeding through the night, the driver of this car was momentarily blinded by approaching headlights. Because he was going too fast to control his car instantly, he swerved off the highway and crashed into a telegraph pole with such force that the car was almost broken in two. He was dead when help arrived. National Conservation Bureau advises night-drivers to keep their eyes focused on the side of the road, never to look directly into headlights and—most important of all—to drive at moderate speed.

The Church

"The Church is a religious home, a sanctuary for worship, a school for religious instruction, a fighting unit for the new world that is building. It is a social center of the highest type, since it gathers into relations of mutual helpfulness people of every age and condition. It adds to the attractions of the ordinary club the power of religion and the generous sympathies of the altruistic impulse. The Church is the most broadening and democratic organization among men, since its vision is to the ends of the world whither the Gospel is being carried and since its citizenship is in heaven as well as in the earth."

THE EGG ON HIGH . . . Herb Parsons, reputed to be the fastest gun-handler in the country, demonstrates his own unique method of coping with soaring eggs. The Western-Winchester exhibition shooter holds his empty gun in his left hand and hurls the egg aloft (left). Egg in air, he inserts shell in chamber (center), then swings on the target and scrambles it medium well. Moral: With the price of eggs predicted to zoom to $1.00 a dozen, the practice of shooting at them as they pass overhead is expected to become generally widespread.

COULD YOU EVER FORGET?

The way ahead seemed clear. In a moment of careless relaxation the driver swung his eyes from the road. In that same moment a ball bounced into the street — after it ran a little child. It was only a brief moment, but long enough for a lifetime of regret.

Last year more than 3,500 American children under the age of 14 were killed by automobiles, 160,000 were injured. This State, in some degree, contributed to that toll.

When driving through school zones—and streets where children are at play—use extreme caution. Always be ready for split-second action, even though moving at moderate speed. Anticipate the unexpected.

There's no indemnity that can restore a human life. If, because of one careless act of yours, a child died or its young body were maimed—could you ever forget?

Save That Rainfall

The rainfall saved by contour cultivation may not seem important when considered alone, but when considered in the light of its effect on crop yield it may be quite important. For instance, on corn land in Illinois contour cultivation saved only .79 inch of rainfall annually over a period of four years, but increased the corn yield more than seven bushels per acre. At Clarinda, Iowa, contour cultivation reduced runoff an average of only 2.32 inches annually for seven years on Marshall silt loam,, but increased corn yield by 12.1 bushels per acre. At Bethany, Mo., contour cultivation on Shelby silt loam decreased rupoff an average of only .5 inch over a period of seven years, but increased the yield of corn 7.9 bushels per acre. The additional moisture saved may seem relatively insignificant but by being present at the critical growing season it gives the crop a boost just when it is needed most.

Precision Built Parts Cost Less, Wear Longer

We explained to a customer the other day why Ford precision-built parts cost less and wear longer. Briefly, here is what we told him:

Ford precision-built parts are built to fit Fords. They are built for specification. They fit WITHOUT undue wear. That is why they last longer.

So, the next time that your Ford needs repairs or service, BRING IT HOME to our garage. We carry GENUINE Ford parts, and our mechanics are trained and have the tools to do the work speedily and economically.

Tecumseh organized a Chamber of Commerce here Tuesday evening at a meeting of some 160 persons, following a banquet at the high school gymnasium, at which time it was announced that more than $15,000 had been pledged for the first year's support of such an organization, which will operate with a full-time paid secretary, and affiliate with the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Directors of the new organization, elected at Tuesday's meeting, are as follows: For three year terms, C. O. Butler, Robert H. Moore and W. J. Bruce; for two year terms, Clarence Gilman, Earl L. Wickwire and Ellsworth A. Collins; for one year terms, Ned Rosacrans, Wade L. Jones and Fay Whelan. These directors will meet within a week to elect officers and will immediately seek to choose a secretary.

The dinner meeting brought to a close a campaign launched about two months ago following a banquet attended by 250 persons and sponsored by the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, the Junior Chamber of Comerce and Town Hall Council. At that meeting adressed by Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., and William C. Otto, secretary of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce, it was decided that a Chamber should be formed here. A committee, headed by C. O. Butler, was named to secure pledges and determine whether or not sufficient financial suport could be obtained. Mr. Herrick and his associates pledged $3,800 for the first year's operation of such an organization, plus an additional $4,000 at the time a secretary is hired by the board.

Mr. Butler, reporting to Tuesday's meeting, said that a complete canvass of the community had not been made, because of a lack of time. However, he declared that to date pledges for the operation of a Chamber amounted to something over $15,000., It was estimated that the cost of operation the first year would be about $12,090.

"We have had a very generous response to the program, and, generally speaking, everyone has recognized the need for a Chamber," Butler said. "Of course, we have not finished our canvass for membership. I assume that seeking members will be a continuing program — one that never ends. However, we now have sufficient funds pledged to warrant operation, and the job that you gave to our committee has been finished. If the board finds that too much money has been pledged for the first year's expenses, then money in excess of the amount needed will be left in the treasury for a second year's security."

The group then proceeded to elect directors, some 20 nominations being made from the floor. The first nine receiving the greatest number of votes were declared elected. The assembly also adopted a constitution and by-laws for the organization.

Olin Ekley of the Ypsilanti Press, who organized the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce and who served as its secretary for several years, was a guest speaker. Mr. Ekley outlined the formation of a Chamber in the neighboring city, told how it functioned and pointed out its accomplishments in the 27 years that it has been in operation.

"I commend your committee and congratulate your community for its alertness in this campaign," he said. "The fact that a community the size of Tecumseh has sponsored such a program is proof to me that you recognize the need for progressiveness." Mr. Ekley also congratulated Mr. Moore, head of the R. S. Moore & Son Co., lumber dealers, for his progressiveness in the local building program. Tecumseh, to date, is leading all other communities, nation-wide, on a per capita basis, for new home construction.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Wickwire, president of Town Hall, and Mr. Butler served as temporary chairman, and Mr. Jones as secretary during the organization meeting. Music was furnished by Jim Baker's Playboys, a new musical organization formed here. The dinner was served by Mrs. Pearl Beaubien of Brees House.

Traffic Code To Become Law

WILL REQUIRE PARALLEL PARKING OF CARS HERE EARLY IN OCTOBER

The parallel parking of automobiles in Tecumseh's business district will be required early in October in keeping with a new ordinance, passed by the Village council and which is published in its entirety this week in another page of this newspaper.

The ordinance, which bears the approval of the Michigan Department of Public Safety, is for the most part similar to the traffic ordinance which has been in effect here for some years, except for the parallel parking feature. This form of parking was suggested to the council by the state some years back but the village has opposed such a program. Now, however, the state is seeking to make the parallel parking of cars on state and federal trunk lines mandatory in every city and village. M-50-55 in Tecumseh are state trunk lines.

The council has not yet reached a decision on the use of parking meters in the downtown area, although such a program is under consideration and may be adopted.

It is believed that with the parallel parking of cars the number of parking spaces in the downtown district will be reduced at least one half. If meters are installed, it is argued, the turnover in parking places will be much greater, and more shoppers' cars can be accommodated.

If meters are purchased, it was said, they probably will be bought on the "installment plan"—the company receiving 75% of the revenue collected from the meters until they are paid for. No estimate has yet been received on the cost of meters for Tecumseh.

State President Of Exchange Is Guest Here

Ernest Ray, Michigan president of Exchange clubs, was the guest speaker Monday evening at the regular meeting of the Exchange Club here at Brees House. Mr. Ray, introduced to the group by Ellsworth Collins, spoke on the activities of various clubs throughout the state. Henry Clemens, past president of Metropolitan Council of Detroit was a guest. Some 30 members were present.

President Ned Rosacrans announced the following committee chairmen for the coming year: program, Leon Williamson and Albert Musch; fines, Harold Hall and Bobby Robison; publicity, Oscar Bryan; club fellowship, Rhae Henkel; Golden deeds, Earl Lindsley; attendance, Jim Freckelton sports, Max Brandt; Rural Relations, Wade Hendershot; membership, Ellsworth Collins; service to youth, Bill Wright; social, Clarence Beach; community service, Owen Partridge; House, Paul Clauda; Finance, Marvin Watkins; audit, Jim Artman.

The club dinner and meeting for September 22 will be held at the Plymouth Country Club. Exchange Club members will be the guests of Owen Partridge on the golf course in the afternoon.—Clarence Beach will be in charge of transportation for those leaving at noon and Marvin Watkins for those leaving in the evening.

Resurfacing Of Streets Cost $10,623 Here

George H. Adamson, chairman of the council's finance committee, announced today that the cost of resurfacing some eight miles of Tecumseh's streets had been completed at a cost of $10,623. The original estimate of cost, he said, was $10,000.

The resurfacing job just finished was the first accomplished here since the war. During the emergency period, because of the difficulty in obtaining materials and manpower, streets were left untreated, as they were in most villages and cities, nationwide.

Next year, in all probability, streets not resurfaced this year will be given attention. However, Mr. Adamson explained that the program this year had to be halted because all funds appropriated for the job had been exhausted.

ADVISORY BOARD MEETS

The advisory board of the Baptist church met last evening in the church parlor for their regular annual meeting to discuss important business on hand.

New Pastor To Speak To Presbyterians, Sunday

The Rev. Donald C. Wilson of Detroit, will assume the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church here next Sunday morning, it was announced today by M. G. Partridge, chairman of the pulpit committee. The Rev. Mr. Wilson succeeds the Rev. James C. Murdoch, who resigned March 1, to accept a pulpit in Princeton, Ill. Since that date the local church has been without a minister.

Mr. Wilson, during the world war, served as a chaplain overseas for 20 months. Later, he took a postgraduate course in Scotland. He married Mrs. Wilson, a Detroit girl, in England.

The Wilsons are moving this week into the manse, which has been completely redecorated. He will be installed officially as pastor of the church here on September 28.

Council O.K.'s Building Code

PROVIDES FOR QUALITY OF MATERIAL IN HOUSES, PLUMBING, ETC.

The village council, in session Monday evening, passed two ordinances of vital importance to Tecumseh residents. The first ordinance requires the pasteurization of all milk offered for sale in the village, and the second is a uniform building code, similar to that adopted in other Michigan cities and towns. Both new laws will become effective in about a month.

The pasteurization law requires that in the future, any milk sold or offered for sale, or in possession with intent to sell, within the limits of Tecumseh, must first be pasteurized. This ordinance is similar to laws now in effect in most Michigan cities. It sets up the procedure for pasteurization, and provides a penalty of not more than 90 days imprisonment, or a fine of $100 or both, for violations.

The building ordinance also is similar to ordinances now in effect in most sections of the state. It provides a minimum standard of quality for the building of houses and other buildings, including lumber, brick, cement, etc., as well as making inspections necessary for both plumbing and heating. This ordinance, like the pasteurization ordinance, will become effective in about a month.

There was little other business before the trustees except routine work. Reports of committees and department heads were read and placed on file and bills were audited and ordered paid. The installation of a street light near the new Boy Scout cabin in Elliott park was ordered.

Britton Woman Killed By Train

MRS. ALICE GERRY, 70, HIT AT VILLAGE CROSSING, MONDAY EVENING

Mrs. Alice Gerry, 70, for 13 years a resident of Britton, and whose late husband was a retired railroad man, was struck and killed by an eastbound Wabash railroad train, Monday evening at 7:30, as she was walking across the south tracks in that village. Death was instantaneous. She suffered fractures of both arms, one hip and serious head injuries.

Mrs. Gerry was only a short distance from her home when the accident happened. She apparently did not see the train and was nearly across the track when she was struck a glancing blow which threw her only seven or eight feet. Coroner Paul Mott of Adrian, ruled that death was accidental and that an inquest was unnecessary.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Isabelle Weller and Mrs. Ruth Vieley, both of Glenn Falls, N. Y., Mrs. Louise Wilson, Detroit and Mrs. Francis Harris of Dearborn: two sons, Hallie Woodward of Crown Point, N. Y., and Maurice Woodward of Glenn Falls, and a sister, Miss Carla Davis of Washington, D. C., two brothers, Carlos Davis of Glenn Falls and Henry Davis of Marion, N. Y., 12 grandchildren and nine great grandchildrtn. Her husband and a son, Joseph, pereceded her in death.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon from the Niblack Funeral Home, Britton, the Rev. Clifford of the Methodist church, officiating. The body was taken to Glenn Falls, her former home, for burial.

The Underwood-Orr post of the American Legion is giving the national flag, and formal presentation to the troop will be made during its next court of honor. The troop flag was purchased from funds received in the last public paper drive. A brass bugle has been given to the troop and plans call for additional instruments to be obtained to form a drum and bugle corps.

A. A. Musch, scoutmaster, presented five members of the troop to the board of review last night to be passed on second class requirements. Boys having attained their twelfth birthday and interested in the scouting program are welcome to join this troop.

To Dedicate New Scout Cabin

Pictured above is the new Boy Scout cabin in Elliott park, which will be dedicated next Tuesday evening at a program to which the public is invited to attend. The ceremony includes a parade of Scouts beginning at 7:30, a speaking program starting at 8 o'clock, followed by a parade of Barbershop Quartettes from eight cities. The cabin was built through public contribution and from funds earned by the Scouts. In the future, it will be available for all scouting activity in the village.

Public Invited To Dedication

NEW BOY SCOUT CABIN TO BE OPENED WITH PROGRAM NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Tecumseh's new Boy Scout Cabin built in Elliott park with funds contributed by organizations and individuals and with money earned through Scout enterprise, will be officially dedicated here next Tuesday evening, September 16, with a parade at 7:30 and a program at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Blair O. Bashore, pastor of the Baptist church, will be master of ceremonies, and the public is invited to attend both the parade and ceremony.

The Rev. Mr. Bashore announced that there will be a parade of all Scouts, boys, girls and Cubs, starting at 7:30, headed by the high school band. The line of march will be through the business district and west probably to the library.

The program at the park will include the invocation by the Rev. Allan Ramsay, talks by Arthur Lessow, Wolverine Council president, and Al Jones, Scout executive, both of Monroe, and a parade of Barbershop Quartettes from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Adrian, Blissfield, Milan, Jackson and Tecumseh. The Barbershop Quartette organization has taken an active interest in the building of the cabin.

It also has been announced that the dedication program would take the place of the regular Rotary club program next Tuesday evening, the Rotarians going to the ceremony following their dinner at Brees House. The Rotary club is the sponsoring organization for Scouting in Tecumseh.

The Boy Scout committee of Troop 4, today expressed its appreciation to everyone who has made possible the building of the cabin through contributions. It also was announced that the cabin would be available in the future for all scouting activity in Tecumseh.

BAND MARCHING FESTIVAL

Clare Camburn, Tecumseh high school band director, announces a Band Marching Festival will take place here sometime in the fall, the exact date to be announced later. The festival will be similar to the one held in Charlotte last year, and will include all the neighboring high school bands.

Goodwill Meet Dates Are Set

CONFERENCE OF LENAWEE AREA TO BE HELD AT GREEN PASTURES, ANN ARBOR

The Michigan Council of Churches and Christian Education, in co-operation with other agencies is sponsoring the sixth in a series of Goodwill Conference to be held at Green Pastures, which is north of Ann Arbor, from September 19-21, Rev. B. O. Bashore, pastor of the Baptist church, announced today. The chairman for the session will be Rev. Wilfred E. Simpson of Monroe. The conference area includes Tecumseh, Adrian, Hudson, Monroe, Clinton, Blissfield, Hillsdale and River Rouge. Other area conferences were held at 14 different Michigan camps.

"The purpose of the Goodwill Conferences is to bring together in each area, representatives of varied groups such as labor, industry, business, farming, education, social work, churches, racial groups, and minority groups, for the development of goodwill and mutual understanding at points of tension and conflict," the Rev. Mr. Bashore said.

"The conferences were begun during the war years and it was felt that they had a real place in meeting the needs of that particular time and in anticipating problems ahead. The need for these conferences is even greater now. The upward spiralling of hatred and suspicion between groups; the confusion in thinking of law-makers as they are confronted with challenges from both right and left; the anxiety of the Negro to realize rights guaranteed him by the Constitution of the United States; the growing distrust of Russia; the intense struggle of economic forces in our own land and others; all these and other problems create an imperative need for greater understanding and frank discussion in an atmosphere of goodwill. There is also a need for a sense of fellowship and morale among those who would continue to speak and act with courage for the rights of minority groups. These are indeed days that call for just the sort of experience Goodwill Conferences develop."

The executive secretary has had more invitations to explain the Goodwill Conferences in other states than he could accept. However, they are eager to improve the method and make the pattern already developed of greater service to the social crisis in which the people live. This can be done through the cooperation of all who are interested in the idea of Goodwill, Mr. Bashore said.

Professionals In the Making

A record enrollment of 887 students at the begining of this week, which number, in all probability, will exceed 900 before the end of September, is crowding Tecumseh's public schools to capacity, W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, said today. Aside from regular classrooms in the Central, East and West Branch buildings and Brownville, formerly the Ford School, the superintendent said that classes also are meeting in the public library and St. Peter's parish house.

"We have the largest freshman (9th grade) class this year in the school's history," Mr. Berkhof said, "There are 86 enrolled in this grade. The senior class is average, about 60, but in the kindergarten we have more than 80. The board of education, in meeting Tuesday evening, authorized the hiring of Mrs. John Britt to assist with this group, which is too large to be handled by one teacher.

"I fear," Berkhof said, "that next year's elementary grade enrollment will be considerably larger than this year's and we will face a real problem in housing the students. Some careful plans for next year's program must be made immediately."

The board, at its session Tuesday, declared a two-day county fair holiday for next week Thursday and Friday. It also authorized the investigation of the advisability of installing rifle range instruction in the high school, along plans proposed by the National Rifle Association.

During the sumer months, several improvement projects have been completed in the school buildings. A new heating plant has been installed at Brownville at a cost of $2,000. Booths have been placed in the girls' room at the Central Building. A band instrument storage cabinet has been built at Central, and new heating controls installed in the same building at a cost of $2,600. The exterior of the library and west branch buildings are being redecorated, and new toilets installed at the library to care for students reporting for classes there. New seats to accommodate students in the enlarged enrollment have been bought at a cost of $1,200 and a new hot water heater installed at Central.

Plans and specifications for a new building, to be built here in the near future, have been submitted to the state department of public instruction for approval.

Flower Show To Open Tomorrow

AFTERNOON AND EVENING PROGRAM IS PLANNED; MORE EXHIBITS ARE NEEDED

The Tecumseh Garden Club has announced that final arrangements for the Flower Show, to be held in the high school tomorrow afternoon September 12, have been completed. The gymnasium will be open from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. There will be an admission charge of 25c a person and hostesses will be present to welcome those attending. In the evening, balcony music will include selections by several students of Clare Camburn and the Knights of Harmony, and T. P. Broadcasters, local Barbershop quartettes will sing.

The club is particularly anxious for farmers to display vegetables such as pumpkins, squash, turnips, carrots, etc., and a special effort is being made to encourage the grade school children to exhibit in the show. Suggestions for entries include asters and goldenrod, which are especially beautiful now. Jams and jellies will also be judged and sold later. Al Musch and Mrs. C. D. Branigan will enter professional displays, and Mr. Hoxie of Hidden Lake Gardens, which is owned and cared for by the Michigan State College, will enter an educational exhibit.

Entries should reach the entry desk not later than 11 a.m., Friday. They will also be accepted Thursday evening. Sections will be arranged for school children, general public, neighboring garden clubs, male gardeners and professionals. Prizes will be awarded for specimen blooms, wild flowers, weeds, painted weeds, and vegetables.

TAKE IT EASY

Every two minutes an American pedestrian is injured by an automobile. Thirty-three times a day someone is run over and killed.

It is human nature to wish to set the blame when tragedy occurs. Rarely, however, can an accident be adequately described in terms of only one casual factor. In most instances it is the result of two or more contributing conditions or circumstances — violations or unsafe acts of drivers or pedestrians; or roadway, vehicular, driver or pedestrian defects.

However, certain facts cannot be denied. And those facts place a strong indictment squarely on the shoulders of the man or woman on foot. The record shows that two out of every three pedestrians killed in motor vehicle accidents were either violating a traffic law or committing an unsafe act. Crossing streets between intersections was a most flagrant violation, accounting for one half of the deaths of the violation pedestrian. Coming from behind parked cars was the next most serious hazard.

Other violations of traffic regulations or the common sense rules of safety in which men, women and children lost their lives included such foolish acts as crossing intersections against the signal, crossing intersections diagonally, walking in the roadway, playing in the roadway. Two per cent of pedestrian deaths were caused by persons LYING in the roadway.

All of these violations could have been avoided. And if they had, thousands of lives — 12,000 last year, to be exact—could have been saved. Pedestrians continue to combine the twin evils of carelessness and deliberately taking a chance to concoct an evil brew of death and painful injury. It is nothing less than justice that the victim of pedestrian violation is nearly always the man or woman who commits the unsafe act.

So to you, Mr. Pedestrian, we say "Take It Easy." Yours is the responsibility of saving your own life, a matter which should give you understandable concern.

Miss Mary Jane Hayden Bride Of Ronald K. Wells

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony, Miss Mary Jane Hayden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hayden, became the bride of Ronald Kenenth Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wells of Pasadena, California, the impressive double ring ceremony being read Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Tecumseh Friends church. The couple spoke the nuptial vows before an improvised garden scene of an archway and picket fence covered with ivy vines, and hampers of colored gladioli. The Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

William Hayden, brother of the bride, Ned Comfort of Albion, Michigan, Dalton VanValkenburg, and John Hamilton seated the guests while Mrs. Amos Wilson of Clinton played a program of nuptial music, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton lighted the candles at the altar.

The Rev. Mr. Escolme, Mr. Wells and the best man, William Leach of Hollywood, Calif., took their places before the altar to the strains of "Grand March" from Aida. As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bridegroom sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin with a long train, softly gathered skirt with satin bows in front and the sides. Dainty lace edged the V-neckline. Her full-length veil of illusion fell from a tiara of pearl orange blossoms and she wore a pearl studded cross with a sapphire center, an heirlom of the late Mrs. Levi Hayden, the bride's grandmother. The bride carried a white Bible with white satin streamers and sweetheart roses. A gold watch was the gift of the bridegroom. As she approached the altar the bride sang "O Day of Golden Promise".

Miss Martha Ann Hayden, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a two-piece gown of fall blue satin with a gathered skirt. The fitted bodice, which buttoned to the waist, was styled with a round collar and three quarter length sleeves. She carried a heart of yellow pompons centered with yellow roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Joan Heller of Appleton, Wis., and Camilla Satterthwaite of Chicago, both cousins of the bride. Miss Heller wore a two piece gown of fall rose softly gathered with a peplum and carried a heart of white pompons centered with pink roses. A similar style of antique green was worn by Miss Satterthwaite, and she carried a heart of bronze pompons. Litle Carol Ann Berkhof, as flower girl, was dressed in a yellow organdy floor length gown and carried a white basket of yellow gladioli petals. The wedding party was seated at the bridal table which was centered with the bridegrom's cake and miniature bouquets completing the decorations. The opening of the gifts was acknowledged by the bride's father over a loud speaker. A musical program was enjoyed and Mr. Leach presented a chalk picture of a mountain scene in color on a lighted easel as the bridebroom accompanied him at the piano. At the conclusion the group sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow".

Miss Mary I. Wright Is Bride Of Warren Steurer

In the historical St. Peter's Episcopal church, Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, during an impressive double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Allan L. Ramsay, Miss Mary Isabel Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Wright, became the bride of Warren Howard Steurer, son of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Steurer of Tarrytown, New York. The vows were exchanged before the altar decorated with white chrysanthemums and hampers of yellow and white gladioli. The wedding date was also the bride's birthday anniversary. The bride's great-great-grandfather, Moses Wright, whose diary records the early history of this church, was senior deacon of it 100 years ago.

As Thomas J. Tonneberger, organist, played "I Love You Truly," and the wedding march, the bride, given in marriage by her father, was preceded to the altar by Miss Jean Marie Herrick of Tecumseh, as maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Stevens of LaGrange, Illinois, Mrs. Peter McGee of Ann Arbor, and Miss Patricia Billow of Akron, Ohio as the bridesmaids, and Miss Sarah Wright, niece of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. Jack Schumm of Tarrytown assisted Mr. Steurer as best man.

The bride's gown was of ivory brocade styled with a fitted bodice and a full skirt with medium court train. From a Brussel's lace cap fell her circular veil of illusion and the same lace, an heirloom brought from Europe by the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. C. A. Wright, outlined the low round neck, formed the peplum, and finished the long tight sleeves. The bride carried a heart shaped shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums scattered with two purple orchids. The double strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

Her attendants were colonial type gowns with horsehair bonnets, which were also brought from Europe by the late Mrs. C. A. Wright on one of her visits there. Miss Herrick's gown was of beige moire and her bonnet was lavender tied with deep purple velvet ribbon and trimmed with flowers. She carried an old fashioned colonial bouquet of asters centered with Johanna Hill roses. Miss Stevens wore yellow moire and yellow bonnet with chartreuse velvet ribbon, and Mrs. McGee and Miss Billow wore chartreuse moire with beige bonnets tied with brown velvet ribbon. All carried old fashioned bouquets of yellow and bronze pompons and wore matching mitts. Sarah Wright was dressed in a floor length gown of white shadow organdy with a sash of yellow velvet ribbon.

Later a reception was held in the Wright home at 104 East Pottawatamie Street where four generations of Wrights have lived. A buffet supper was served to 150 guests. Mrs. Ford Mudgett of Adrian and Miss Marjorie Watson of Buffalo, New York assisted with the serving and those presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Nancy Rhodes of Cleveland, and the Misses Carolyn Bagnall and Lynne Parratt of Chicago. Miss Jacquelyn Costigan assisted with the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of the 1943 class of Tecumseh high school and of the 1947 class of Denison University. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The groom is a graduate of Tarrytown high school with the class of 1943 and is attending St. Lawrence University in Canton, New York. He spent two and one-half years in submarine service in the Pacific.

Following the reception the couple left on a ten day trip to Lake George in New York, the bride wearing a gray velveteen two piece dress with red alligator accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Canton where the bridegroom will attend the University and the bride will be associated with the St. Lawrence welfare service.

Out of town guests were from Miami Beach, Florida, Tarrytown and Buffalo, N. Y., Minneapolis, Minn., LaGrange and Chicago, Ill., Cleveland and Akron, Ohio, Farmington, Detroit, Lansing, Adrian, Clinton and Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wright entertained at Bauer Manor Wednesday evening for the rehearsal dinner.

SHIRT PROFIT

From 1939 through 1946 the average profit of the steel industry was 4.4 cents on the sales dollar. Average profit per ton of steel shipped du[illegible] years in that period was less than $4 per ton.

Health Survey Shows That Doctors Not Always Called

While dental care seemed to increase with increasing income and education of the family head, the use of a physician's services did not, according to a survey conducted by Pennsylvania State college.

The use of home-prepared remedies seemed to affect the use of medical care, however. These remedies ranged all the way from peppermint and hot water for stomach ills to chopped onions and salt applied to the soles of the feet to stop convulsions. They were used by 14.7 per cent of the Gettysburg borough families and 29.2 per cent of the rural, and 23.7 per cent of the Shippensburg borough families and 28.3 per cent of the rural.

Families using home remedies reported an average of 23.5 per cent of their illnesses not treated by a physician, while those avoiding home remedies reported an untreated average of only 17.2 per cent.

It would seem that the use of health service is thus a matter of family and group habit and custom, rather than of convenience, income or formal schooling, so far as these two Pennsylvania communities are concerned, the survey concluded.

Perfume Making Reached Zenith In Cleopatra's Day

Perfume making, as an art, had reached its zenith at about the time Cleopatra was the most talked about lady on the Nile. For centuries, the making of perfume continued to be an art; however, in the past 100 years it has developed into a science.

At the time of Cleopatra, perfumes were made from roots, berries, grasses, barks, flower oils and a great variety of natural substances, according to Franklin Institute. Today, many perfumes are made entirely of synthetic compounds.

It was also during Cleopatra's time that women began to paint their eyelids, lashes and eyebrows. They painted their lower eyelids green and their upper lids, lashes and eyebrows black. They also dyed with henna the soles of their feet and the palms of their hands.

But it was men who first painted their nails. Some 3,000 years ago Chinese men of wealth gilded their nails as an indication of their position. This is also why they let their nails grow without cutting.

America's Land Uses

The land area of the United States is about 1,905 million acres, not counting important rivers and lakes, according to department of agriculture. Three-fourths of the land is used for crop and livestock production. The cropland, pasture and grazing land add up to nearly 1,500 million acres. Besides there are about 260 million acres in forests, used mostly for producing lumber, pulpwood and fuel wood. Thus crops, pasture and timber take about 1,700 million acres, or 90 per cent, of the nation's land area. Of the other 10 per cent, about 94 million acres, of [illegible] use, consists of deserts, rocky areas, swamps and the like. This portion of the land has some of the nation's mineral and oil deposits. In addition about 87 million acres are used primarily for recreation and travel—made up of parks, game refuges, railroads, highways, farmsteads, military lands and similar tracts. And finally, there are about 13 million acres in cities and towns. These are the major uses of the land, although much of it is used for several purposes.

Tops as Choring Aid

One of electricity's greatest contributions toward easing choring problems is its power to place the handling of grain and feed on practically an automatic basis. Equipment needed for such a setup includes a portable or stationary bucket-type elevator, a blower-equipped grinder and mixer operating in sequence. By means of the elevator, whole grain is raised into a bin over the grinder, into which it can be directed at will by means of a chute. Ground grain is then blown or permitted to flow naturally into the mixer. The farmer can open the gate in the grain feed chute and go about his other chores while grinding and mixing operations continue without personal supervision. Small mills can grind 100 pounds of grain at a cost of from one to three cents. Electric mixers, driven by a ½ horsepower motor, are capable of handling 500 pounds of feed at a cost of a half cent.

Keeping Rabbits Out

Rabbits need not be exterminated to prevent damage to garden flowers and vegetables. Distasteful repellents can be used to discourage rabbits from eating tender plants and chewing young orchard stock. A number of cheap commercial spraying mixtures and dusting powders will keep rabbits from nibbling on plantings, or any of the following home remedies will prove effective with repeated applications: Dust plants liberally with sulphur, or powdered lime when plants are damp; sprinkle plants with red or cayenne pepper, or spray plants with a solution of three ounces of epsom salts in a gallon of water, or one teaspoon of lysol to a gallon of water, or two teaspoons of Black Leaf Forty to one gallon of soapy water.

If the license is not forwarded with an explanation of the reason why it is absent shall be attached.

RESTRICTIONS AS TO SPEED. SECTION 4.

(a) Any person driving a vehicle on a highway shall drive the same at a careful and prudent speed not greater than or less than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic, surface and width of the highway and of any other condition then existing, and no person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than will permit him to bring it to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section and except in those instances where a lower speed is specified in this ordinance, it shall be prima facie lawful for the driver of a vehicle to drive the same at a speed not exceeding the following but in any case when such speed would be unsafe it shall not be lawful:

It shall be prima facie unlawful for any person to exceed any of the foregoing speed limitations, except as provided in subsection (a) of this section in every charge of a violation of this subsection the complaint, also the summons or notice to appear, shall specify the speed at which the defendant is alleged to have driven, and the speed which this subsection declares shall be prima facie lawful at the time and place of such alleged violation.

(c) The Village Council is hereby authorized to establish prima facie lawful speed limits on highways outside of business or residence districts which limits shall in no case be less than 35 miles an hour. The Village Council is likewise authorized to increase the prima facie lawful limits on highways in business districts as stated in this ordinance, provided, That all highways in residence or business districts on which the speed limit shall be in excess of 25 miles hour shall be designated through highways and the entrance to which vehicles shall be required by order of the Village Council to stop before entering, except that where such through highways intersect, the Village Council may require traffic on one highway only to stop, before entering the intersection. The Village Council shall place and maintain upon all through highways upon which the permissible speed is increased adequate signs giving notice of such special regulations and shall also place and maintain upon each and every highway intersecting any said through highway, appropriate stop signs which shall be illuminated at night or so placed as to be illuminated by the headlights of an approaching vehicle or by street lighting.

Provided, further, that the prima facie speed limits on all state trunkline highways, where such speed limit has been duly established by the state highway commissioner and the state highway department has placed and maintained adequate signs giving notice of such permissable speed, shall be the speed limits so established.

No driver of a vehicle shall disobey the instructions of any official traffic control device placed in accordance with provisions of this ordinance, unless at the time otherwise directed by a police officer.

Traffic control signal legend. Whenever traffic is controlled by traffic control signals exhibiting the words "go", "caution", or "stop" or exhibiting different colored lights sucessively, one at a time, or with arrows, the following colors shall be used and said terms and lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

(a) Green alone or "go". Vehicular traffic facing the signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless such place prohibits either such turn: Provided, That vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection at the time such signal is exhibited.

Pedestrians facing the signal may proceed across the highway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

(b) Yellow alone or "caution" when shown together with or following the green or "go" signal. Vehicular traffic facing the signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection, but if such stop cannot be made in safety a vehicle may be driven cautiously through the intersection.

Pedestrians facing such signal are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the highway, and any pedestrian then starting to cross shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles.

(c) Red alone or "stop". Vehicular traffic facing the signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection or at such other point as may be indicated by a clearly visible line and shall remain standing until green or "go" is shown alone.

No pedestrian facing such signal shall enter the highway unless he can do so safely and without interfering with any vehicular traffic.

(d) Flashing signals. Whenever flashing red or yellow signals are used they shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows: "Flashing red (stop signal). When a red lens is illuminated by intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at an inter section or at a limit line when marked and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign. "Flashing yellow (Caution signal)." When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past such signal only with caution.

RAILROAD WARNING SIGNALS MUST BE OBEYED. SECTION 6. Whenever any person driving a vehicle approaches a railroad grade crossing and a clearly visible and positive signal gives warning of the immediate approach of a railway train or car, it shall be unlawful for the driver of the vehicle to fail to bring the vehicle to a complete stop before traversing such grade crossing.

DRIVE ON RIGHT SIDE OF HIGHWAY. SECTION 7. Upon all highways of sufficient width except upon one way streets the driver of a vehicle shall drive the same upon the right half of the highway and shall drive as near to the right-hand edge or curb of such highway, unless it is impracticable to travel on such side of the highway and except when overtaking and passing another vehicle subject to the limitations applicable in overtaking and passing set forth in Sections 8 and 9 of this ordinance.

MEETING OF VEHICLES. SECTION 8. Drivers of vehicles proceeding in opposite directions shall pass each other to the right, each giving to the other at least one-half (½) of the main traveled portion of the roadway as nearly as possible.

OVERTAKING A VEHICLE. SECTION 9. (a) The driver of any vehicle overtaking another vehicle proceeding in the same direction shall pass at a safe distance to the left thereof, and when safely clear of such overtaken vehicle shall take up a position as near the right-hand edge of the unobstructed portion of the highway as is practicable: Provided, That a vehicle whose driver has signalled his intention to turn left shall not be passed on the left. Overtaking vehicles in such cases shall be permitted to pass to the right.

(b) The driver of an overtaking vehicle not within a business or residence district as herein defined shall give audible warning with his horn or other warning device before passing or attempting to pass a vehicle proceeding in the same direction.

LIMITATIONS ON PRIVILEGE OF OVERTAKING AND PASSING. SECTION 10.

1. When approaching the crest of a grade or upon a curve in the highway where the driver's view is obstructed within such distance as to create a hazard in the event another vehicle might approach from the opposite direction;

2. When approaching within 100 feet of or traversing any intersection or railroad crossing;

3. When the view is obstructed upon approaching within 100 feet of any bridge, viaduct or tunnel.

TURNING AT INTERSECTIONS SECTION 11.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the driver of a vehicle intending to turn to the right at an intersection shall approach such intersection in the lane for traffic nearest to the right-hand side of the highway, and in turning shall keep as closely as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the highway, and when intending to turn to the left shall approach such intersection in that portion of the right half of the highway nearest the center line thereof, and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection to the right of the center line of the highway being entered.

(b) Approach for a left turn from a two-way street into a one-way street shall be made in that portion of the right half of the highway nearest the center line thereof and by passing to the right of the crossing line of the street being entered upon leaving the intersection.

(c) Vehicle turning left at intersection. The driver of a vehicle within an intersection intending to turn to the left shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction which is within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard, but said driver, having so yielded and having given a signal when and as required by this ordinance, may make such left turn and the drivers of all other vehicles approaching the intersection from said opposite direction shall yield the right-of-way to the vehicle making the left turn: Provided, That at an intersection at which a traffic signal is located, a driver intending to make a left turn shall permit vehicles bound from the opposite direction which are awaiting a go signal to pass through the intersection before making the turn.

SIGNALS ON STARTING, STOPPING OR TURNING. SECTION 12.

(a) The driver of any vehicle upon a highway before starting, stopping or turning from a direct line shall first see that such movement can be made in safety and shall give a signal as required in this section.

(b) The signal herein required shall be given either by means of the hand and arm or the mechanical herein specified, or by a mechanical or electrical signal device which conveys an intelligible signal or warning to another driver approaching from the rear.

Whenever the signal is given by means of the hand and arm, the driver shall indicate his intention to start, stop, or turn by extending the hand and arm horizontally from and beyond the left side of the vehicle.

RIGHT OF WAY. SECTION 13.

EXCEPTIONS TO THE RIGHT OF WAY RULE. SECTION 14.

(a) The driver of a vehicle entering a public highway from a private drive shall come to a full stop before entering such highway.

(b) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway shall yield the right of way to ambulances, police and fire department vehicles when the latter are operated upon official business and the drivers thereof sound audible signal by bell, siren or exhaust whistle. This provision shall not operate to relieve the driver of a police or fire department vehicle from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons using the highway.

(c) All motor vehicles forming a funeral procession when going to any place of burial shall have the right of way over all other vehicles except fire apparatus, ambulances and police patrol vehicles, at any street or highway intersection within this village. Provided, That each vehicle in such funeral procession shall have displayed on the front thereof a flag which shall be white in color, and upon which shall be printed, stamped or stained a purple cross.

WHAT TO DO ON APPROACH OF POLICE OR FIRE DEPARTMENT VEHICLE. SECTION 15.

(a) Upon the approach of any police or fire department vehicle giving audible signal bell, siren or exhaust whistle, the driver of every other vehicle shall immediately drive the same to a position as near as possible, and parallel to the right hand edge or curb of the highway, clear of any intersection of highway, and shall stop and remain in such position unless otherwise directed by a police or traffic officer until the police or fire department vehicle shall have passed.

(b) It shall be unlawful for the driver of any vehicle other than one on official business to follow any fire apparatus traveling in response to a fire alarm closer than five hundred (500) feet or to drive into or park any such vehicle within one (1) block from where fire apparatus has stopped in answer to a fire alarm.

(c) No vehicle shall be driven over any unprotected hose of the fire department when laid down to be used at any fire or alarm of fire, without consent of the fire department official in charge.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person to drive, push, or pull any vehicle having iron lugs on the wheels, over or upon any street in the village.

PARKING PROHIBITED IN SPECIFIED PLACES. SECTION 16.

1. On a sidewalk;

2. In front of a public or private driveway;

3. Within an intersection;

4. Within 15 feet of a fire hydrant;

5. On a crosswalk;

6. Within 20 feet of a crosswalk, or if none, then within 15 feet of the intersection of property lines at an intersection of highways;

7. Within 30 feet upon the approach to any flashing beacon, stop sign, or traffic control signal located at the side of a highway;

9. Within 35 feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing;

10. Within 20 feet of the driveway entrance to any fire station and on the side of a street opposite the entrance to any fire station within 75 feet of said entrance (when properly sign-posted);

12. On the street side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge or curb of a street;

13. Upon any bridge or other elevated structure upon a highway;

14. At any place where official signs prohibit stopping.

(b) No person shall move a vehicle not owned by such person into any such prohibited area or away from a curb such distance as is unlawful.

PARKING. SECTION 17.

(a) All cars parked on the streets of said village shall be parked parallel, namely with the right hand side of such vehicle parallel to and within twelve (12) inches of the right hand curb.

(b) No person owning or in charge of a motor vehicle shall permit the same to be unattended without first stopping the motor, locking the ignition and removing the key, or when standing upon any perceptible grade without effectively setting the brake thereon and turning the front wheels to the curb or side of the highway.

THROUGH STREETS: SECTION 18.

All state highways located in the village of Tecumseh are hereby designated as through streets, and all vehicles approaching same shall come to a full stop before entering or crossing same.

The operator of any vehicle which may be parked contrary to such established spaces or limits or for a longer period than the time limit so established, shall be guilty of a violation of this ordinance.

ENTERING OR LEAVING PARKING SPACES. SECTION 22.

No vehicle shall be parked or leave a parked position unless the operator thereof shall first ascertain that same can be done safely and with due regard for other lawful users of the highway.

DUTY TO STOP AND REPORT IN EVENT OF ACCIDENT. SECTION 23.

(a) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury or death of any person shall immediately stop such vehicle at the scene of such accident.

(b) The driver of any vehicle involved in any accident resulting in injury or death to any person shall also give his name, address and the registration number of his vehicle, also the name and address of the owner thereof and the operator's or chauffeur's license to the person struck or the driver or occupants of any vehicle collided with and shall render to any person injured in such accident reasonable assistance including the carrying of such person to a physician or surgeon for medical or surgical treatment if it is apparent such treatment is necessary or is requested by the injured person.
